Notice for a Demand of an Ecclesiastical Accommodation and Agreement

Provided under Christ's careful direction and the watchman's eye of Ezekiel 33

In the holy name of Christ, as where two or more agree in His holy name, for the will of our father, it shall be done. Matthew 18;20

If one falsely accuses another of a crime, the punishment due to that crime should be inflicted upon the perjured informer. Maxims of law

Hello, Ben Carr, I am Richard of the Ochnik family, a flesh blood and bone living man created by God and an officiating minister of the Church of the Ecumenical Redemption International, an ecclesiastical organism of other flesh, blood and bone men and women as the many members of the body of Christ. Where truth is, fiction of law dose not exist. Maxims of law;

If ever the law of God and man are at variance, the former are to be obeyed in derogation of the later.
Maxims. Acts 5:29

1959 CanLII 50 (SCC) | Roncarelli v. Duplessis | CanLII, Ben Carr, by my sending you this private good faith agreement, I do attempt, by Christ's guidance, to ascertain all the facts in scriptural honour. If you have any reason or proof to suggest or provide to me, God's minister officially performing the functions of my calling, that the following statements of the facts are not true, you are being offered the opportunity to refute these offered facts so as to clear yourself of any assumptive contractual awareness of the truth of such facts. Also be aware, this communication of agreement cannot be lawfully inquired of at public or government expense as it is a provable private matter and government funding cannot support private contracts. All legal bills must and shall be paid for out of your private pocket no different than Maurice Duplessis the former Premier and Attorney General of Quebec in Roncarelly v Duplessis

This is Demand for recognition as Christ's ordained minister in quest of defense of the faith to save harmless my soul.

Both parties agree to act in good faith, ensuring no misleading actions or omissions that could undermine the intent or enforceability of this agreement. Each party is obligated to respect the natural rights and freedoms outlined herein.

I declare that I am that God created, of a Christian given name Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, chosen to be a private ecclesiastic man under God as my creator with dominion over the earth. I do declare that no man or woman has a moral or a lawful right to impose anything upon me without my informed consent; and that I do hereby renounce any fraudulent corporate assumptive contract by the right of self determination and faith renouncing secular Contracts. Amselem 2004 SCR.

I do honour the directive obligation to respect the equal God given freedoms of other men and women under His law. To all those who set eyes on this ecclesiastical declaration, I do hereby, officially performing the functions of my calling, serve notice to all private men and women as of my inability to respect persons that receive this that any offer herein, prior to, or on my part does not imply acceptance of intimidation, violence, or threats of violence against me, and that no such offer implies that I will submit to any nuisance obstruction or intimidation in the future.

I, as a bondservant of Christ do henceforth offer the good faith proclamation of my free born will to live in peace and declare that, by right of God and his son Jesus words at Corinthians 7:20:26, the de facto authority's edicts, codes, obligations, statutes, taxes, licenses and prohibitions of a de facto commercial entity are not binding on me, John 15:16 ordained minister or applicable upon God's ministers and family, his Children and including their property.

I, minister Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, an ordained minister under John 15:16 and a watchman as per Ezekiel 33:6-9, hereby invoke the protections afforded by "Operation SILENT DEFENDER." This military receivership, initiated in response to systemic fiduciary breaches, encompasses the unauthorized creation and exploitation of my Cestui Que Trust, originating from my 1960 birth certificate.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms "man" and "woman" (also Queen and King) are used interchangeably and are intended to be inclusive of all individuals, regardless of gender identity. Any reference to a specific gender shall be construed to include all genders, and no provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to exclude any person based on gender.

1. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I, minister of Richard Henry of the Ochnik family was on or about the 30th of November, 2004 A.D., unlawfully intimidated and obstructed, by you, in your private capacity, by methods not sanctioned and as such, being a perceived and negative nuisance to my ability to perform an official function of my ministerial calling, are in violation of Sections 126,176, 423, 465 and 180 of the Criminal Code of Canada by violating your Oath of Allegiance and the Royal Style and Titles Act.
2. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I am not a member of a dead legal fiction entity corporation known as Canada or Ontario and that specifically my name, being my ecclesiastical possession under the exclusive authority of God, is not allowed by my faith in God's commands as defended by the Queen you swore an oath to be truly allegiant to, to be used, recorded, registered, altered used for or exchanged for a financial purpose without my permission that it has never been offered or pledged to be for any of those reasons or to be used as a surety or as a commodity with my informed consent.

3. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Canada is a Crown Corporation in the meaning of the act with sworn allegiance to the Queen Elizabeth II and heirs. The Country of Canada is accountable to the Queen Elizabeth II and heirs. On the passing of Her Royal Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, the Crown had been passed to her heir, King Charles III.
4. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that. It is agreed by you, that in 1966 ICCPR and ICESCR Signed: 19 December 1966 The principles of the UDHR offered hope and inspiration around the world. But to make a genuine difference in people's lives, those principles needed to be transformed into laws. In 1966, the UN Commission on Human Rights drafted two instruments to give legal force to the UDHR. One instrument was called the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The second was the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Together with the Universal Declaration, they comprise the International Bill of Human Rights. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights offers protections for the right to life, freedom of speech, religion, and voting. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights focuses on such issues as food, education, health, and shelter. More than 160 nations have ratified these two covenants which legally commit them to ensure these rights for people within their borders.
5. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact that in the Supreme Court Judgments [1980] 1 SCR 54 1979-12-21 Re: Authority of Parliament in relation to the Upper House Further, although s. 91(1) gave the Queen the power, with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, to alter the "Constitution of Canada" except in certain expressly designated areas, it does not confer a power to amend the B.N.A. Act. The word "Canada" in s. 91(1) does not refer to Canada as a geographical unit but refers to the "JURISTIC FEDERAL UNIT"
6. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1981 Zingre v. The Queen et al., [1981] 2 SCR 392 (Supreme Court of Canada). It is a recognized principle of international customary law that a state may not invoke the provisions of its internal law as justification for its failure to perform its international obligations.
7. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that; This contract is governed exclusively by the Law of God as found in the 1611 King James Bible, and the sanctuary jurisdiction under which it was formed. All disputes shall default to this sacred law unless waived in writing by the minister Richard Henry family of Ochnik.

8. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1982 the Charter of Human Rights and Freedoms Canada was implemented as the supreme law.
9. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1989 Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038, 1989 The reference in s. 32 to the "Parliament" and a "legislature" make clear that the Charter operates as a limitation on the powers of those legislative bodies. Any statute enacted by either Parliament or a Legislature which is inconsistent with the Charter will be outside the power of (ultra vires) the enacting body and will be invalid. It follows that any body exercising statutory authority, for example, the Governor in Council or Lieutenant Governor in Council, ministers, officials, municipalities, school boards, universities, administrative tribunals and police officers, is also bound by the Charter. Action taken under statutory authority is valid only if it is within the scope of that authority. Since neither Parliament nor a Legislature can itself pass a law in breach of the Charter, neither body can authorize action which would be in breach of the Charter. Thus, the limitations on statutory authority which are imposed by the Charter will flow down the chain of statutory authority and apply to regulations, by-laws, orders, decisions and all other action (whether legislative, administrative or judicial) which depends for its validity on statutory authority
10. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1990 Thomson Newspapers Ltd. v. Canada (Director of Investigation and Research, Restrictive Trade Practices Commission) While individuals as a rule have full legal capacity by the operation of law alone, artificial persons are creatures of the state and enjoy civil rights and powers only upon the approval of statutory authorities. The individual may stand upon his constitutional rights. He owes no duty to the State, since he receives nothing there from, beyond the protection of his life and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long antecedent to the organization of the State and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in accordance with the Constitution. He owes nothing to the public so long as he does not trespass upon their rights.
11. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1997 The Supreme Court has made it clear in cases M. (A.) v. Ryan that Common Law in Canada Now Flows through the Constitution Act of 1982. M. (A.) v. Ryan, 1997 (SCC), [1997] 1 S.C.R. 157, that the common law must develop in accordance with Charter values. A Trespass in common law equals an infringement or denial of a fundamental right or freedom. (Listed in the constitution act or the covenants themselves) courts between the executive and the individual to protect the latter's individual fundamental rights and freedoms.
12. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1999 R. v. Hynes, 1999 CanLII 18979 (NL CA) [101] The determination whether to enforce constitutionally protected rights under s. 24(2) was never intended to revert to the executive arm of government. Indeed, as has already been discussed, a primary purpose of the Charter was to place

13. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2005 Court Judgement Supreme Court- Christie v. British Columbia, 2005 BCCA 631 (CanLII) The rule of law embraces at least three principles. The first principle is that the "law is supreme over officials of the government as well as private individuals, and thereby preclusive of the influence of arbitrary power"
14. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2007 R. v. Hape, [2007] 2 S.C.R. 292, 2007 SCC 26 Para 53... It is a well-established principle of statutory interpretation that legislation will be presumed to conform to international law. The presumption of conformity is based on the rule of judicial policy that, as a matter of law, courts will strive to avoid constructions of domestic law pursuant to which the state would be in violation of its international obligations.
15. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2015 R. v. Wagner, 2015 ONCJ 66 The Rule of Law The idea that there are certain fundamental unwritten principles that govern all members of society including legislators and which judges are expected to enforce is not particularly new. The contemporary concept of unwritten constitutional principles can be seen as a modern reincarnation of the ancient doctrines of natural law
16. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Victoria (City) v. Adams, 2009 BCCA 563; 2008 BCSC 1363; The trial court found the prohibition of temporary overhead shelter in parks to be unconstitutional where there was a lack of alternative shelter space. The court held the issue to be clearly justiciable because it dealt with the constitutionality of a legal prohibition. The court relied on the right to adequate housing under international human rights law as an interpretive aid. The Court referred to submissions made by Canada to the United Nations Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights regarding the scope of domestic protections for the right to housing and on General Comment No. 4 on the right to adequate housing under the International Covenant of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR). The Court noted that the question of whether the right to life, liberty and security of the person imposes positive obligations on governments to ensure the right to housing has not yet been determined by the Supreme Court of Canada and did not need to be decided in this case, which only challenged state interference.
17. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Thompson v. Ministry of Revenue [1946] SCR 209, 1946 CanLII 1 (SCC) [Page 220] Residents are taxed, not Canadians; but residents within the meaning of the Act...

18. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Canada, the Provinces, and Territories, may produce; acts, enactments, statutes, rules, ordinance, laws, regulations and so forth but they do not apply to men and women and are limited in its scop of authority. Deuteronomie 12;32
19. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Canada had failed in its obligations in accordance with the "International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights" article 13 this is where it brings forth education regarding our rights and obligations concerning education, we find the following agreement that states; education first and foremost shall be for the promotion of human rights and freedoms. This education was denied and hidden form me so that it could be deprived from my rights and force me to slavery for a de facto fictional state against my free will. In this case ignorance is an excuse because as a child underage, I relied on the integrity, honesty of my peers that fraudulently, by omission deprived me of truth, to maximize their ability to extort funds from me by way of unlawful intimidation. It is unconscionable that abuse and manipulation with the intention to deceive a child could be argued as acceptable and binding later on an adult.
20. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I was "Shanghaied" by Canada forcefully arbitrarily redefining me as a class of person(s) to extend Civil Law and enactments on me knowing at all times it was not lawful and a violation of the Constitution of Canada (1982), international Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, Geneva Convention, contrary to the King James Bible 1611 and their oath to the Queen Elizabeth II the "Defender of the faith" and now King Charles III "Defender of the faith". This process was accomplished without my knowledge or consent with an intention to unlawfully profit by way of fraud, intimidation making it unlawful and invalid. I do not agree and do not accept this offer to contract.
21. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.
22. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that Non-performance of this agreement shall be deemed as an act of confession and consent to immediate enforcement of all remedies herein, including liens, writs, or seizure without further notice.
23. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an oath to a Christian Monarch is an act of religious worship and all who refuse to acknowledge and submit to that fact are imposters who lied to get their job. See Westminster Confession of Faith Act of the British Parliament 1648 chapter 22.

24. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private woman or man with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.
25. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that a minister once notifying whoever obstructs them that he is a minister not bound by commercial law in performing the functions of his calling and that unless proof to the contrary is evident, the man or woman once made aware of the ministry being performed, has no sanction in law or from the Christian monarch they swore to be truly allegiant to, to obstruct, intimidate or act as a nuisance to him while performing the official functions of his calling.
26. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no woman calling himself de facto Chair, in the de facto Group President and Chief Executive Officer of TD Bank Group, in the de facto country of Canada (or Provinces and other) has any oath bound nor civil authority to intimidate or obstruct a minister from performing the functions of his calling nor to determine the functions of his calling unless damage has ensued to man or property violating God's law as complained of by an opposing man or woman.
27. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you I have an unfettered right to any and all information regarding any Trusts, Bonds, Annuities and financial instruments, Trustees acting on my behalf. I have the right to seize all property connected to me directly or indirectly.
28. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the Registrar General of each province and territory possesses a seal of office, as outlined in the Vital Statistics Act (or similarly named legislation). For instance, Ontario's Vital Statistics Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. V.4, s. 7(2) states: "The seal of office may be reproduced in any manner and has the same effect when it is manually applied or otherwise reproduced." In accordance with this provision, I assert the irrevocable right to utilize the reproduced seal of the Registrar General as a signatory, thereby exercising full authority to lawfully discharge any personal debts by placing the seal on the document as my sole required approval to access government accounts, to my own benefit. Furthermore, it is acknowledged that the government shall, upon demand by myself or third-party creditors, settle all such accounts owing from its own funds within ten (10) days, ensuring that I am held harmless from any associated liabilities, free and clear without recourse.

You agree to provide Minister Richard and other designated individuals with revolving credit and debit facilities, enabling access to government payment obligations and facilitating point-of-purchase transactions without delay or the necessity for additional documentation.

29. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I have the right to not use a last name or surname, including on my bank account, government identification, and on other identification and things. You respect my right to have not accept the Surname or last name and only use my Christian name(s). You have no right to force me to sin Matthew 23; 9-11. Any use of government identification is not acceptance of liability or surety of any legal fiction in law and is clearly a separate identity from the natural man; the two may not be cojoined in any way, shape or form.
30. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the case C.M. Callow Inc. v. Zollinger (2020 SCC 45) reinforces the duty of honest performance in contractual dealings, requiring all parties to act transparently and in good faith. This duty is essential to prevent misleading or deceptive conduct within the framework of agreements.
31. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the case Roncarelli v. Duplessis (1959) underscores the principle that no party, including government officials or corporate entities, may exercise arbitrary authority to undermine the rights of others. This principle aligns with the fair treatment and protection sought under this agreement
32. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing, and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.
33. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the Charter, Section 2(a) – Freedom of religion Provision; 2. Everyone has the following fundamental freedoms: freedom of conscience and religion. Similar provisions may be found in the following Canadian laws and international instruments legally binding on Canada: section 1(c) of the Canadian Bill of Rights, article 18 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, article 14 of the Convention on the Rights of the Child, article 3 of the American Declaration of the Rights and Duties of Man. The Canadian Human Rights Act prohibits discrimination on the ground of religion as does section 15 of the Charter. That is the highest law which favors religion Maxims of law. See also the following international, regional and comparative law instruments that are not legally binding on Canada but include similar provisions: article 18 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, article 12 of the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, article 12 of the American Convention on Human Rights, article 9 of the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, and the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America.

34. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the trust (also known as the "Entitlement Certificate, Bond, Trust, or Annuity") is my entitlement property. It becomes mine upon the process of "redeeming the entitlement certificate." As a man of God, I may elect to be the "trustee", "steward" and/or the "beneficiary" of the "entitlement certificate" and thereby settle all matters and redeem the trust. In redeeming the "entitlement certificate," I act as the Creditor (Private) within the banking system, not as a Debtor (Public). Furthermore, it is acknowledged that any use of my name, or any altered form thereof as it appears on my birth certificate, for the purpose of obtaining funds or engaging in financial transactions without my informed consent, constitutes unauthorized use. Such actions are recognized as infringements upon my rights. Consequently, any funds or assets obtained through such unauthorized use are to be returned to me immediately, in full, as per my directions. It is also affirmed that the state holds no right to utilize my name in commerce without my explicit and informed consent. You and your agents agree to provide me with all assets, bonds, trusts, annuities, or other properties belonging to me within 30 days, to be transferred to me in full as per my directions. Additionally, I assert my right to hold all property in private, free from public claim or registration, in accordance with the principles of common law and the recognition of private property rights. This includes the right to acquire, use, and dispose of property without undue interference or regulation by public authorities, except as authorized by law. Matthew 7:7-8
35. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that Canada has not fulfilled its obligation to elderly men and man and the funding provided to them through Canada Pension and CCP or other programs is grossly inadequate, insufficient and below the poverty line. Canada has moral obligation to maintain a reasonable standard of living, as in its obligations in International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights. I am now demanding that this be rectified immediately, and you are committed and will make certain that my income will never be below the poverty level.
36. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I have the right to unfettered access and use of crown land as steward. This stewardship of land and homestead will be passed on to my family or Christian family as I see fit, all or in part without restriction, limitation or interference in any way shape or form. Genesis 1;26-28 Matthew 7:7-8
37. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors, (that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

These are the words in the Oath of Office Act, indicating prima fascia an unlawful, unsanctioned, deficient form by the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance thus effectively invalidating the oath by making the oath grammatically incoherent.

I, . . . . ., swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law.

These are the words from the federal Oath of allegiance Act for Canada

..... it is very clear as to how the oath is to be worded in Canada, it is

I, ....., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada, Her Heirs and Successors. So, help me God. The deviation from the prescribed form of the oath, such as the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance, results in a grammatically incoherent and legally deficient oath. This deficiency effectively invalidates the oath, rendering any authority exercised under its auspices unlawful. The administration or reliance upon such an invalid oath may constitute a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of Canada. Specifically: Canadian Criminal Code: Section 122, Section 131 and Section 132. Therefore, proceeding with or acting upon an oath that deviates from the legally mandated form may expose individuals to criminal liability under these provisions.

- 38. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that "Canada's" geographical limits are delineated in the Canada Land Surveys Act Section 24 and that Canada being the land mass spoken of in that enactment, only includes the North West Territories, Nunavut and the Yukon as provinces as concurred in section 2 of the criminal code and section 30 of the de facto Charter of Rights and Freedoms.
- 39. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any disagreement, dispute, ambiguity, or challenge regarding the meaning, scope, application, or intention of any term, clause, or provision of this agreement, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, shall have the sole, exclusive, and final authority to determine its correct meaning, interpretation, and intent, at my own discretion and for my benefit. This right shall be irrevocable, nonreviewable, and binding upon you and all third parties under the principles of private contract, ecclesiastical jurisdiction, and law of equity. No court, tribunal, or external body shall override this interpretive authority without my express written consent.

40. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that this agreement is irrevocable and includes and extends to, fellow ministers, my heirs, defined herein to include all individuals, regardless of biological or marital relation, who have received God's calling as ministers, and who have been granted equivalent rights as I have here in this Agreement.
41. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that God and the bible is the supreme law and there is no limitation periods set forth to limit such laws of God.
42. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that words in the masculine mean and include the feminine and vice versa.

It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no other court may trespass or have jurisdiction over this agreement other than a court of "Inherent Jurisdiction" that recognises, International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, along with the Royal Style and Titles Act, and respecting the purpose of section 176 and 180 of the criminal code in the Province of Ontario, Canada.

You agree that all physical coin payments shall be delivered: To the physical location(s) of my choosing, and ; At no cost, burden, or fee to me; Within thirty (30) calendar days of the notice of election or demand for payment. Any failure to deliver in full, or any attempt to substitute fiat currency or non-specified bullion against my will, shall constitute a material breach of this contract and an actionable ecclesiastical trespass, giving rise to further damages, liens, and lawful enforcement.
46. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that you are aware and with private knowledge that the Royal Style and Titles Acts purpose is to defend the faith and save it harmless as an obligation of all Oath sworn allegiants.

47. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; If any breach of this agreement is not cured within 30 calendar days of notice, I reserve the right to escalate the matter to any court of equity, ecclesiastical forum, international tribunal, or forum of conscience at my sole discretion and to my own benefit.
48. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I am not the surety, debtor, or chattel, for any fictional entity that was created without my consent as it may appear on my birth certificate, passport, drivers' licence, documents or other, and I will be held safe and harmless from any and all liability or responsibility.
49. The creator of the fiction is the surety and fully responsible and liable for all issues (save me harmless). The use of my flesh as surety was obtained in fraud and is null and void. As a man or woman of God, our debts are blotted out and forgiven forever-more and we are now in the book of life. ISAIAH 43:25; COLOSSIANS 2:14

had testified under oath untruthfully committing perjury, specifically but not limited to; that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also misled others stating that she did not work on behalf of the Company yet at all times TDW were paid a 7% commission selling Company shares to investors. The OSC used the case results listed in paragraph 46, as evidence of truth in subsequent hearing knowing, at all times that TDW were participating in a conspiracy and fraud to protect themselves from liability. This is an act of "Conspiracy" under Section 463 Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46), and "Fraud and Perjury" under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C46)

55. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing of ; "OSC in the matter of the Ontario Securities Act R.S.O. 1990, c. S.5. as amended and in the matter of TD Waterhouse Canada Inc. heard on September 19TH, 2005", had provided information knowing it to be untruthful, specifically but not limited to, that Richard Ochnik being the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also falsely stated that she was not working on behalf of the company. Hatice was not truthful and attempted to cover up her own securities violations involving a material conflict of interests representing of both the buyer and seller the same security without disclosure to the parties. This was a direct conflict of interest and prejudicial to the parties. This violation is called Crossing of Securities. Hatice Pakdils actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c.). The hearing(s) outcome were based on fraudulent mislead information that altered the outcome of this case and the case in paragraph 45 and 47 above. In This case TDW false information was accepted as truth without the involvement and opportunity for Richard Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. to enter defence evidence to the contrary trespassing on their inherent rights. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful to protect her job and the expense of others and wrongfully was enriched.
56. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing: Christa Ochnik and Ontario Securities Commission, Province of Ontario, TD Waterhouse, Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD Bank) and Hatice Pakdil. Hatice, had submitted a defence that was knowingly, to be untruthfully specifically but not limited to, statement that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. The argument that Richard was the de facto officer was not raised in the above two cases and could not be contested by Richard Ochnik. The Intention of the false information was to deceive the court for the inequitable wrongful benefit of Hatice Pakdil's employer and other defendants depriving the plaintiff of their rights under colour of law. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful in an attempt to protect her job and unlawfully gain from her crime. This resulted in fraudulently depriving Christa and her sisters a free born minors of their rightful inheritance as beneficiary of the Ochnik Family Trust. Hatice's actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46)
57. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, the private man/woman, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, was subjected to unlawful, cruel, and degrading treatment amounting to torture, as detailed in associated affidavits and records. You agree to settle this claim for five million Canadian dollars ($5,000,000.00), payable in accordance with Clause 43, including the option for delivery in 1 oz gold or silver Maple Leaf coins at fixed valuation. Payment shall be made within thirty (30) calendar days, to the location of my choosing, at no cost to me. This settlement is final, binding, and not subject to future challenge or revision.

58. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that [First Name] [Last Name] TD Waterhouse, Michael Watson, OSC, and key investigator John Humphrey were fully aware of the untruths and perjury of witnesses and conspired to target, in a conspiracy to harm Richard Ochnik and 1464210 Ontario Inc. as are now listed here in. The Ontario Securities Commission Deprived the defendants of their Rights Under the Colour of Law for undue enrichment of themselves and TD Bank, contrary to section 242, criminal code.
59. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event any matter arising from this agreement or involving Hatice Pakdil, is brought before any court, tribunal, or public forum, you shall pay, in advance, a fee of one hundred thousand Canadian dollars ($100,000.00) per appearance or filing involving the undersigned, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family. This payment shall be made no less than ten (10) calendar days prior to the scheduled hearing or submission and is due regardless of who initiates the proceeding. This amount represents pre-compensated time, spiritual harm, reputational risk, and administrative burden, and shall be required before any engagement in public process or appearance of any kind. Failure to tender this fee in advance shall be deemed a refusal of lawful jurisdiction, a breach of agreement, and shall authorize the undersigned to decline participation without prejudice or to initiate immediate private enforcement.
60. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Moore (Chairman) should have not been the Chairman on two hearings involving Richard Ochnik due to a conflict of interest. Its unconscionable to have expected the Chairman to rule in conflict with his earlier ruling. The Chairman did not have the lawful authority to change what was established as fact by himself in a earlier hearing without an appeal. Holding a hearing and agreeing on key facts without allowing Richard Ochnik to offer a defence was a trespass on his inherent rights, malicious slander, and libel. This technicality was deliberate to target Richard Ochnik because despite all evidence to the contrary in his own hearing it would not change the established facts from the previous case. In essence his case was lost before it started.
61. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Richard Ochnik refused to testify because he did not recognise the jurisdiction of the OSC on a man. His appearance was limited to assist the tribunal only on a non prejudice bases to establish facts. Richard Ochnik was not under oath. Also hearsay evidence was admitted from individuals that were not under oath.

62. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1463210 Ontario Inc. did not agree that Richard Ochnik was the de facto President or controlling mind. Ian would be the best evidence to this fact.
63. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that contrary to Hatice Pakdil's statements under oath at the above hearing(s), at all times, TDW and OSC was fully aware that Richard Ochnik was never the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc., and it was actually always Ian Ochnik. The OSC had in its position Company documents clearly indicating Ian Ochnik was the incorporator, sole Director, and De jure President of the Company. TDW had contracted with Ian Ochnik. Richard Ochnik was not part of the securities negotiations, and his function was landlord and general contractor.
64. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC deliberately altered the truth to coincide with others knowing that it would be detrimental to Richard and the Ochnik Family. TDW fraudulently assisted the OSC to target Richard by naming him as the President and other deception to extend the authority of Ontario Securities Commission and placing unwarranted statutory obligations on Richard trespassing on his rights to which he would not normally or lawfully be expected to have as a man. Leviticus 6:2-5
65. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW told investors that Richard Ochnik was the President and Hatice Pakdil directed Company shareholders to contact him by releasing his private cell phone number without Richard's consent causing confusion. TDW and OSC had also misled investors telling them that Richard was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc.
66. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had not received consent from Richard Ochnik to buy, sell, trade, or SWAP any securities of 1464210 Ontario Inc. nor have TDW ever had such a discussion with him.

The Trust was the property owner (landlord) and Richard over seen the renovations made possible by Investor Co. share purchases in 1464210 Ontario Inc.
72. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that when TDW investors transferred accounts to TDW they were in cash accounts form the other institutions and possessed no shares of the Company.
73. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all necessary documents were processed to perform the transactions of acquiring shares and preforming a subsequent SWAP were all signed by Ian Ochnik President as requested and directed by TD Compliance and others within TD Waterhouse.
74. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TD Waterhouse, Paul Bayfield "Sales Assistant", confirmed the authorization to proceed with the transaction by TD Compliance Department and instructed, Ian Ochnik President to the amount of the shares purchased, clients name and the client account numbers, that were being acquired for the individual accounts.
75. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that no payments for the shares purchases were until it was approved by TD Waterhouse compliance at the time a trade was transacted. The company produced and delivered the share certificates and TD Waterhouse handed over payment for those certificates from the cash in the investors accounts as stated above, making the share purchase at the time of payment. Ian Ochnik and the company were vulnerable to Hatice Pakdil that had full control of the process.
76. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all investors had completed a "Know Your Client Form" proved by TD Complaint Department before notifying the Company and Ian Ochnik with particulars of the transaction.
77. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all investors had signed the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares " and the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" stating that TDW investors had no shares of the company and had no right to purchase shares from the company. The share sale and purchase took place on the crossing of the share certificate and TD Waterhouse payment on behalf of the investor and no sooner.

78. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all the share certificates were executed and signed by Ian Ochnik President specifying "TD Waterhouse in Trust for (TDW investor's clients name)".
79. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that had a contractual agreement and obligation with 1464210 Ontario Inc. to provide services for a "Private Placement Agreement" to which TDW had confirmed by fax with Mr. Paul Panciw, Company CFO, (authorized by Ian Ochnik President to negotiate the arrangement with Hatice Pakdil).
80. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Mr. Paul Panciw, Company CFO was licenced with the Ontario Securities Commission.
81. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had received a commission of 7% for each share an investor purchased with the Company base value of $1/share. If there was no such purchase, TDW would not receive a commission. TDW commissions totaled approximately $107 000 based on 7% of sales.
82. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW were at the time a licensed broker with the Ontario Securities Commission and good standing.
83. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that funds from the purchaser's accounts, TDW clients were paid for by TD Waterhouse directly to 1464210 Ontario Inc. for the share purchase by cheque indicating the Company as a "Client".
84. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that 146420 Ontario Inc. had paid TDW the agreed commissions for each share's sale/purchase transaction by way of a cheque signed by Ian Ochnik President. Cheques were made out to "Pay to the order of: TD Waterhouse - investment advice." With "Hatice Pakdil" indicated in the notes.
85. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW never told the Company that TDW were not working for them. Given all the documents it would clearly indicate that they were confirmed to be working with TDW as their broker on record.
86. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shareholder investors 1464210 Ontario Inc. were also clients for TDW and TD Waterhouse.
87. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC do not know of any investor on 1464210 Ontario Inc. that was over the age of 65 and had purchased shares from 1464210 Ontario Inc.

88. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW were the only broker selling shares of 1464210 Ontario Inc. and responsible to maintain the company in compliance with all securities regulations.
89. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Bayfield was TDW Sales Assistant, and he was actively assisting in processing of the trades and had direct knowledge of the transactions playing a key role in the approvals to facilitate the purchase and subsequent SWAP of the shares.
90. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC ambushed Richard Ochnik during his hearing and knew he had a lawyer but refused to remand the case to meet the lawyers schedule and there by prejudicing the defence. There would have been no damage to any party to have delayed the hearing.
92. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that you accept full responsibility for any and all additional costs, fees, charges, or expenses incurred as a result of delays, administrative actions, defense filings, or any other related processes necessitated by your actions or omissions. You acknowledge and agree that the applicable fee schedule detailing such costs is available for your review at TD-lied.com or can be provided to you upon your written request. You further agree that this fee schedule is subject to amendments and updates from time to time, at the sole discretion and for the exclusive benefit of the minister, without prior notice to you. Such amendments are binding and non-disputable. Your acceptance of this clause signifies your consent to these terms and your obligation to remit payment for any applicable fees as outlined in the current fee schedule.
93. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Bayfield, Sales Assistant, at TD Waterhouse assisted TDW on a regular daily bases and had direct contact with most if not all investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. and reported to Hatice Pakdil.
94. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Bayfield was the liaison or facilitator between TD Waterhouse, TD Waterhouse compliance, 1464210 Ontario Inc., Ian Ochnik and TDW investor clients. Hatice Pakdil overseen the transactions as broker on record and de facto Trustee for the Ochnik Family Trust beneficiaries.

95. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC knowledge the key players involved; Ian Ochnik President and Paul Bayfield TD Waterhouse Sales Assistant were not questioned by the Ontario Securities Commission investigators regarding the facts for the 2 hearings above. They were not interviewed in fear their statements would confirm Richard Ochnik was not the President, de facto President or controlling mind. Also the Settlement Agreement Dated September 19 2005, between the OSC and TD Waterhouse was a conspiracy based on fraud to target the Ochnik's.
96. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc and Paul Bayfield were not subpoena or questioned by the Ontario Security Commission Hearings Involving 1464210 Ontario Inc and Richard Ochnik, contrary to the best evidence rules and practice. In this investigation the OSC exercised willful blindness and colour of law.
97. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after 1464210 Ontario Inc., refused to give a loan to Dan Miller. The Company offered to buy back the shares at a premium price. TD Waterhouse refused to allow the share buy back. TD Waterhouse and/or TD bank had arranged a loan for Dan Miller an investor in 1464210 Ontario Inc. after he had purchased share without knowledge or involvement of Richard Ochnik, Ian Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. This loan given by TDW was a violation of the Ontario Securities Act and was intended to cover up TDW securities violations.
98. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the company refused to provide a loan because it would be a violation of the Ontario Securities Act. Instead, the Company offered to buy back Dan Millers Shares, investment with a nominal profit. To me this totally contradicts the OSC claims that the company was involved in a RRSP loan scam. The company specifically told share holders they do not do loans and they would buy back all shares from individuals requesting RRSP loans. The company, 1464210 Ontario Inc. was vulnerable, totally relying on the performance of Hatice Pakil and TD Waterhouse. TD Waterhouse obstructed remedy by disallowing the buy back of shares deliberately to hold the vulnerable company in potential violation of the Ontario Securities Act.
99. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that providing a loan to a shareholder for the purchase of shares is a violation of the Ontario Securities Act. and a taxable benefit.
100. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was responsible to assess the investors and conduct a "Suitability Review" before instructing the Company to issue any shares. The company was detrimentally reliant upon TDW to take appropriate steps and precautions required to protect both the buyer and seller being TDW client(s), in a prohibited scheme referred to as crossing of securities.

101. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the Company was directed by TDW to produce a sample share certificate. The share certificate was not in "Street Form" and indicating: "This is to Certify That T. D. Waterhouse, in trust for _____ is the Registered Holder of _____ Shares." TDW would provide the name of the client to be inserted along with the account number after compliance approvals instructing the shares to be issued. Hatice Pakdil was the controlling mind of the company transaction.
102. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW advised the Company to produce an "Investor Representation Letter" indicating the declaration by the investor; "I do not currently own, Direct or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc., or any other related Company" and " I do not have any Rights to acquire any TDW, shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. "This letter was a requirement to be signed by all TDW investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. before the purchased shares. It is agreed by you, [First Name] [Last Name], the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW agreed to be broker of record May 06, 2002.
103. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that a sales compensation package was negotiated by Paul Panciw CFP (Certified Financial Planner) for the Company with TDW, Hatice Pakdel, on May 06, 2002, at 12:27 PM.
104. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the Company had cooperated with all TDW requests and did everything it was requested promptly to do to TDW satisfaction.
105. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that failed to provide full disclosures to the defendants as required by law. TDW did not send a copy of the "Privet Placement Agreement" in fear of incriminating Hatice Pakdil. TDW were aware that this document would have a direct impact on the outcome of the case establishing that the company had a licenced broker and was detrimentally reliant on TD Waterhouse to save it harmless and to maintain the Company in good standing to all related regulations and Acts.
106. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the sales transaction consisted of a 7% commission calculated on the sale amount of shares and a $25 000 (in cash or shares) bonus for achieving each million dollars in sales threshold. The Company offered shares or cash as payment; as part of TDW selling shares and purchasing them for their clients RRSP accounts. Share sales generate a sales commission paid by the seller Company and SWAPS generate a fixed fee paid by the investor buyer – both were TDW clients.
107. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that According to the TDW "Rate Tables", the Company would be charged the flat fee of $20.00 for a SWAP but rather a commission for a sale or "Trade". TDW negotiated a commission representing the sale of shares.

108. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after TDW due diligence by their lawyer, Compliance Department, Branch Manager and RRSP Department, that TDW assistant Paul Bayfield, Sales Assistant, then notified the Company that they were prepared to go ahead with the purchase and SWAP of the shares.
109. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. was satisfied and by the "Letter of Authority" provided Paul Panciw with the authority to bind the Company in a "Contractual Relationship" with TDW. (There was an agreement and mutual understanding). A contract was signed by the Company solidifying the relationship. TDW became brokers of record.
110. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all the sales commissions for the "Private Placement" were paid only by the Company to avoid a conflict of interest. A "SWAP" would not generate a commission but flat fee.
111. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Bayfield "Sales Assistant" sent out the required documentation to setup the new client accounts and to facilitate the sale of shares to the potential investor as Hatice Pakdil new client of TD Waterhouse.
112. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that "Privet Placement Subscription Forms (for the Purchase of Small Business Shares)" and "Investor Representation Letter" were directly sent to the potential investors (Hatice Pakdil clients) and TDW would have full knowledge of there response keeping it confidential from the company.
113. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Form" were not a binding contract: paragraph 4. "Acceptance of Subscription: This subscription will be and be deemed for all purposes to have been accepted by the Corporation when the Corporation gives notice in writing to the purchaser of the allotment and issuance of the Shares subscribed for, but the corporation shall be under no obligation to accept this subscription". The share sale only occurred once TD Waterhouse paid for the shares from the cash in the, the private man with no dispute to the investor's accounts and not before. Before that could happen, TD had to notify the company regarding the buyer, account number and number of shares.
114. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Forms" also contained the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" that indicated "I do not currently own, directly or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc..." and was signed by the purchaser acknowledging the statement to be true. This clearly indicated TDW could not preform a SWAP with out first purchasing the shares. TDW then proceed to purchase the shares, by instructing Ian Ochnik, President to produce the share certificates as directed by TD compliance department (providing investor name, amount of purchase and account number).

115. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TD Waterhouse set up the new client accounts, transferred the client's funds from other institutions into the TD Waterhouse account as cash. The accounts were all self directed RRSP accounts and all part of a "Small Business Investment Trust" (SBIT). This Trust was in place before the company approached TDW and not established exclusively for this transaction. fact forthcoming from you that all the accounts were transferred as cash and as such they all had cash in the accounts and no shares of other companies specifically 1464210 Ontario Inc. Shares then needed to be sold by the company and purchase by Hatice Pakdil clients; then healed in a holding account prior to the SWAP taking place into the RRSP account generating a fee.
116. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "New Clients" were established. Hatice Pakdil was their "Investment Advisor" and responsible for the client's account. The Company completed all the requirements of a "Pre-Approved Privat Placement". Hatice Pakdil testified under oath that she considered herself as an order taker and not adviser to the new clients facilitating the buy and sale of the Company shares.
117. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TD's New Client were asks online F) to charge the transaction fee to their account at TD Evergreen a division of TD Securities. TD Securities is a division of TD Bank (Schedule "A" Bank).TD had received transaction fees from the buyer and the seller in the same transaction and was a conflict of interests and kept secret by TDW to the detriment of the company and investors. Hatice Pakdil committed perjury by saying she did not represent the company. Neither party, buyer or seller knew TDW was working and paid by both the buyer and seller.
119. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had direct knowledge that the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." were not signed because clients kept changing the number of shares that they were purchasing. The change would have triggered a requirement to amend the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." Also, there was no practical way to confirm the amount of shares that the client could afford to purchase until the account was moved to TDW and in a cash position. TDW needed to know the cash availability to calculate the number of shares to be purchased at $1.00 per share. Also, the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" told TDW that they had no ownership of shares or rights to purchase shares indicating the buy and sell had not taken place yet until TD gave the company the cheque payment for the shares as stipulated on paragraph 5 of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." , the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW, Hatice Pakdil did speak to potential investors before the signing and execution of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares" with the help of TDW sales assistant. This fact clearly confirms that Hatice Pakdil had purchased shares form TDW Customer the Company to facilitate a SWAP for TDW investment clients.

120. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Bayfield "Sales Assistant" contacts the Company to order shares after acquisitions were approved by TD Compliance and before the shares were issued by the Company and delivered to TDW.
121. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW were placing orders acquiring and selling shares to TDW investors.
122. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that The Company had no access to the privet and confidential "New Client" information that was provide to TDW as part of the "Know Your Client" information form. This form is mandatory as part of the "Ontario Securities Act". This information would provide TDW Compliance and Hatice Pakil with the necessary information to determine the "New Client's" eligibility, as to weather or not they were an "Accredited Investor" under the definitions in the "Ontario Securities Act" in accordance with the company lawyer, Mr. King's instructions regarding compliance requirements provided to TDW. 1464210 Ontario Inc. was detrimentally reliant on TDW to access accounts and determine suitability to maintain regulations. The company had no access to the client information due to TD investor confidentiality requirements. TDW approved share purchases without verifying investor eligibility as required by the Ontario Securities Act.
124. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was negligent and processed the transaction as a "SWAP" into the client's account. As a result, the head office review of trades was per TDW Policy 2 and that requirement did not take place as required by regulation. If it was done properly the issue would have been discovered in the first trade and saved the Company. The Company had no knowledge of TDW errors. TDW had an obligation to correct the issue and save the company.

125. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shares were distributed to the "New Client's" RRSP accounts by TDW as a trade and then followed by a SWAP.
126. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that The Company paid TD Waterhouse about $107,000 to act as licensed broker and Adviser for the Company. The Company paid TD Waterhouse for advice and sales commissions of 7%. The Company relied on TD Waterhouse to follow the rules and to maintain 1464210 Ontario Inc. in compliance with "Ontario Securities Act". TD Waterhouse, through Paul Bayfield, dealt with all the investors and instructed the Company as to how much and who's named to place on each share certificate. No subscription agreement was exercised by 1464210 Ontario Inc. The go ahead was given to Paul Bayfield "Sale Assistant" by TD Waterhouse's compliance department. Paul Bayfield was TDW assistant and received instructions from TDW. TDW had over seen each of the transactions.
127. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that as part of the settlement agreement it was admitted by TD Waterhouse failed to comply with the suitability requirements to its clients contrary to section 1.5 of rule 31505; and that TDW failed to comply with its obligation to deal with its clients fairly by failing to disclosure to the clients the 7% commission that were paid to TDW contrary to section 2.1(2) of rule 31-505 and there by acted contrary to the public interests and placing the company in violation with the Ontario Securities Act.
128. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that if TDW told the truth and admitted that TDW had errored the company and the Ochnik Family specifically the Trust would have not suffered such an unconscionable punishment and the three children freeborn beneficiaries would and should have been saved harmless.
129. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that this agreement explicitly extends its protections and obligations to include my immediate family members and members of my religious community who share in the principles outlined herein.
130. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that this agreement includes a survivor clause. The obligations and protections under this agreement , the private man with no dispute to the shall extend beyond the lifetimes of the signatories, ensuring continued enforceability for their successors, heirs, and representatives.

132. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, with no lawful objection registered, that these damages result from a coordinated breach of fiduciary duty, misrepresentation, fraud, and criminal obstruction. You agree that full restitution and remedy are due immediately, without the necessity of further adjudication, and that enforcement may proceed through any lawful means, including equity process, private lien, sheriff application, or ecclesiastical summons.
133. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that by not being forthright and truthful TDW participated in a fraud to your own benefit and profit at the expense of the Company. It is unconscionable that Hatice Pakdil allowed and orchestrated this fraud with the help TDW employer, Ontario Securities Commission (OSC) and Paul Moore Chairman.
134. 136. It is agreed by you, the private man Ben Carr, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that both parties herein acknowledge and affirm reliance on the judicial interpolations and jurisprudential authority of the following cases, as they are instructive and binding in equity, conscience, and constitutional review: Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038 – affirming that the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms overrides statutory discretion where fundamental freedoms are at stake; Roncarelli v. Duplessis, [1959] SCR 121 establishing that personal liability arises where public officials act beyond lawful power or in bad faith; Callow v. Zollinger, 2020 SCC 45 – confirming the duty of good faith and honest performance in the execution of all private agreements, whether formal or informal; Syndicat Northcrest v. Amselem, [2004] 2 SCR 551 – upholding that sovereign religious and spiritual beliefs must not be abridged or interfered with by state or commercial entities, and may not be redefined by third parties.

Such judgment shall be deemed entered ab initio upon breach or failure to respond within the agreed cure period, and the undersigned party may act as witness, creditor, and claimant without estoppel or restriction.
138. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that It is agreed and declared that any entity or institution, including but not limited to TD Bank Group or any of its subsidiaries, who has received any benefit, gain, asset, equity, or enrichment arising from the breach, fraud, misrepresentation, or fiduciary failure described herein, shall be deemed liable under the doctrine of Unjust Enrichment and Constructive Trust. Such liability is enforceable regardless of formal privity with this agreement, and may be pursued through private lien, lawful trust claim, ecclesiastical forum, or court of equity. TD Bank is hereby placed on notice of their direct and vicarious liability for unjust enrichment and is invited to cure such injury by full restitution. Failure to do so shall trigger enforcement without further notice.
139. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the issue of controlling mind was never raised at any of the hearings as it was not required being that we relabelled Richard “the President” although he was never the President. This manipulation was done to prevent Richard from filing an appeal for justice and to entrap him, forever closing the case with total disregard for the truth.

141. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC did not use best evidence rules and relied on hearsay, when always Ian Ochnik the President was available to establish true facts. Ian Ochnik was the best person who would have had known firsthand if Richard was the controlling mined and advised him to violate the Ontario Securities Act or any law. Ian Ochnik was not questioned deliberately to disadvantage Richard Ochnik in a planned ambush.
142. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that by naming Richard Ochnik as President it allowed the OSC to exercise willful blindness, color of law and overreach to circumvent and extend its mandate avoiding its legislated restrictions set by parliament; prejudicing Richard of access to protections available by proper judicial process of law normal to all defendants.
143. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, acting in my capacity as minister and lawful living man, have suffered actual, documentable, and irreparable harm arising directly from your actions, omissions, or complicity, including but not limited to: Spiritual desecration and the unlawful obstruction of ecclesiastical office; Financial loss and misappropriation of sacred trust property; Psychological duress, unlawful detention, medical neglect, and cruel and unusual treatment; Violation of ecclesiastical jurisdiction and breach of covenant, contract, and international trust law.
144. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that that the Tribunal was specifically targeting Richard Ochnik and TDW had participated in this and other hearings to establish false evidence as truth to be used at this hearing with the intention to cause harm to him for TDW direct benefit and others.
150. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; In the event that either the Bank of Canada or the Royal Canadian Mint ceases to mint the said coins or withdraws them from circulation, it is agreed that a comparable sovereign-minted, bullion standard coin of equal weight and purity shall substitute for settlement purposes, maintaining the above-stated fixed valuations as approved by minister Richard as per his sole discretion and to his own benefit.
151. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that OSC seen pictures of the facility functioning as agreeing with representations made to TDW investors, including Richards functioning Christian chapel that was subsequently forced to close with no fault of Richard or his conduct.
152. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that your actions, in alignment with TD Waterhouse (TDW), have caused the 'Ochnik Family Trust' financial harm exceeding $60 million (sixty million) Canadian dollars in damages. These damages are the direct result of your dishonest and manipulative conduct, as evidenced by material facts and supporting documentation. In accordance with equitable principles and the scriptural obligation of restitution outlined in Leviticus 6:2-5, you are required to restore the full amount of stolen, extorted, or fraudulently obtained property, along with any additional losses resulting from your actions. Should you fail to comply within 30 days of receipt of notice, enforcement proceedings will be initiated, including immediate application to a sheriff for recovery of the specified amount under applicable enforcement laws.

153. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that based on conservative financial calculations from 2004, reflecting a doubling of losses every four years due to compounding factors, the current value of damages sustained by the 'Ochnik Family Trust' is estimated at over $280 (two hundred and eighty) million Canadian dollars. This figure accounts for the compounded harm caused by your actions, including but not limited to fraudulent misrepresentation, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, and obstruction of justice. Full restitution of this adjusted amount is required to prevent further harm and ensure compliance with the principles of fairness, truth, equity and good faith.
154. Payment will be, as directed by minister Richard Henry family of Ochnik.
155. It is agreed by you, the private man Ben Carr, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any breach of this agreement, including misrepresentation, fiduciary breach, fraud, or delay in remedy, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, acting as minister and also steward or trustee, shall be entitled to initiate enforcement in any competent forum of my choosing. All damages, whether direct, indirect, or consequential, including psychological, spiritual, and economic harm, shall be calculated in good faith and are enforceable under equity and law. 156. It is agreed by you, the private man Ben Carr, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, shall retain the sole, unfettered right to elect the forum and venue in which enforcement, adjudication, or interpretation of this agreement may be pursued. This includes courts of record with inherent jurisdiction, whether within Canada or the United States, including ecclesiastical or international human rights tribunals. You acknowledge that any failure to publicly correct or retract previous defamatory or fraudulent claims, including those issued by TD Bank Group, TD Waterhouse, OSC, or their agents, shall constitute an ongoing and compounding harm under both spiritual law and equity. The duty to correct includes issuing an open retraction to restore my name, ministry, trust estate, and familial dignity.

158. These authorities are incorporated into this agreement as interpretive anchors, and the parties agree to rely upon their reasoning and precedent in any tribunal, forum, or court of record, ecclesiastical or civil, as may be engaged for the resolution or enforcement of this contract.
159. It is agreed by you, the private man Ben Carr, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that failure to respond to or rebut this agreement within 30 days constitutes tacit admission and contractual default. In such case, I shall have full standing to enter judgment and proceed to enforcement, including garnishment, lien, or seizure under the applicable statutes or ecclesiastical process, without further notice or leave of any court.
160. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.
161. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an oath to a Christian Monarch is an act of religious worship and all who refuse to acknowledge and submit to that fact are imposters who lied to get their job. See Westminster Confession of Faith Act of the British Parliament 1648 chapter 22.
162. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man , with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private man or woman with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.
163. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that a minister once notifying whoever obstructs them that he is a minister not bound by commercial law in performing the functions of his calling and that unless proof to the contrary is evident, the man or woman once made aware of the ministry being performed, has no sanction in law or from the Christian monarch they swore to be truly allegiant to, to obstruct, intimidate or act as a nuisance to him while performing the official functions of his calling.
164. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no woman calling himself Chair of the Ontario Securities Commission has any oath bound nor civil authority to obstruct a minister from performing the functions of his calling nor to determine the functions of his calling unless damage has ensued to man, woman or property violating God's law as complained of by an opposing man or woman.

165. It is agreed by Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.

166. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman who has sworn an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant to the "Defender of the faith", then obstructs, intimidates or acts as a nuisance to the ability of an officiating minister of God, has acted against the Queens ability to defend the faith and is attempting to overthrow her majesty's government, being the King James Bible, by force....and that Section 46 of the criminal code applies to all sworn allegiant officers of her majesty.

It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors,( that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

It is very important that I show you why I can not allow any one to assume that they have any power or force over me. To be definitive, TDW need to see the lawful definition of person and the scriptures that guide me and command me to not show respect to persons, as they are fictions of law. A player on a stage wearing a mask.

PERSON. This word is applied to men, women and children, who are called natural persons. In law, man and person are not exactly synonymous terms. Any human being is a man, whether he be a member of society or not, whatever may be the rank he holds, or whatever may be his age, sex, etc. A person is a man considered according to the rank he holds in society, with all the rights to which the place he holds entitles him, and the duties which it imposes. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 137.. It is also used to denote a corporation which is an artificial person. 1 Bl.

Com. 123; 4 Bing. 669; C. 33 Eng. C. L R. 488; Wooddes. Lect. 116; Bac. Us. 57; 1 Mod. 164.

But when the word "Persons" is spoken of in legislative acts, natural persons will be intended, unless something appears in the context to show that it applies to artificial persons. 1 Scam. R.178.

Natural persons are divided into males, or men, and females or women. Men are capable of all kinds of engagements and functions, unless by reasons applying to particular individuals. Women cannot be appointed to any public office, nor perform any civil functions, except those which the law specially declares them capable of exercising. Civ. Code of Louis. art. 25.

They are also sometimes divided into free persons and slaves. Freemen are those who have preserved their natural liberty, that is to say, who have the right of doing what is not forbidden by the law. A slave is one who is in the power of a master to whom he belongs. Slaves are sometimes ranked not with persons but things. But sometimes they are considered as persons for example, a negro is in contemplation of law a person, so as to be capable of committing a riot in conjunction with white men. 1 Bay, 358. Vide Man.

Persons are also divided into citizens, (q. v.) and aliens, (q. v.) when viewed with regard to their political rights. When they are considered in relation to their civil rights, they are living or civilly dead; vide Civil Death; outlaws; and infamous persons.

Persons are divided into legitimates and bastards, when examined as to their rights by birth.

TO PERSONATE, crim. law. The act of assuming the character of another without lawful authority, and, in such character, doing something to his prejudice, or to the prejudice of another, without his will or consent.

The bare fact of personating another for the purpose of fraud, is no more than a cheat or misdemeanour at common law, and punishable as such. 2 East, P. C. 1010; 2 Russ. on Cr. 479.

By the act of congress of the 30th April, 1790, s. 15, 1 Story's Laws U. S. 86, it is enacted, that " if any person shall acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged in any court of Canada, any recognizance, bail or judgement, in the name or names of any other person or persons not privy or consenting to the same, every such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeds five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding seven years, and whipped not exceeding thirty-nine stripes, Provided nevertheless. that this act shall not extend to the acknowledgment of any judgement or judgements by any attorney or attorneys, duly admitted, for any person or persons against whom any such judgement or judgements shall be had or given." Vide, generally, 2 John. Cas. 293; 16 Vin. Ab. 336; Com. Dig. Action on the case for a deceit, A 3.

James 2:9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one [point], he is guilty of all.

Here is a list of more in-depth definitions so no one gets lost.

I am not a Person, or an Individual, or even a human, Manuel, but before you think I am crazy, examine the facts.

I am not a person, or an individual, or a Human, and although some humans look similar to me, I am not a human.

Some would say that I am a 'natural' person, but as I will show you, I am not one of those either. Who then or what then, am I?

To understand who I am, you must first understand the definitions which have been placed on the words I have quoted above, words that are commonly used, but do not describe me anymore. For example, the word 'person'.

Person – The Revised Code of Washington, RCW 1.16.080, (I live in Washington State) defines a person as follows: "The term 'person' may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual."

Person – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 791, defines 'person' as follows: "In general usage, a human being (i.e. natural person), though by statute term may include labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers." Person – Oran's Dictionary of the Law, West Group 1999, defines

Person as: 1. A human being (a "natural" person). 2. A corporation (an "artificial" person). Corporations are treated as persons in many legal situations. Also, the word "person" includes corporations in most definitions in this dictionary. 3. Any other "being" entitled to sue as a legal entity (a government, an association, a group of Trustees, etc.). 4.. The plural of person is persons, not people (see that word).

Person – Duhaime's Law Dictionary. An entity with legal rights and existence including the ability to sue and be sued, to sign contracts, to receive gifts, to appear in court either by themselves or by lawyer and, generally, other powers incidental to the full expression of the entity in law. Individuals are "persons" in law unless they are minors or under some kind of other incapacity such as a court finding of mental incapacity. Many laws give certain powers to "persons", which in almost all instances, includes business organizations that have been formally registered such as partnerships, corporations or associations.

Person, noun. person. – Webster's 1828 Dictionary. Defines personas: [Latin persona; said to be compounded of per, through or by, and sonus, sound; a Latin word signifying primarily a mask used by actors on the stage.]

legal person – Merriam-Webster's Dictionary of Law 1996, defines a legal person as : a body of persons or an entity (as a corporation) considered as having many of the rights and responsibilities of a natural person and esp. the capacity to sue and be sued.

A person according to these definitions, is basically an entity – legal fiction – of some kind that has been legally created and has the legal capacity to be sued. Isn't it odd that the word lawful is not used within these definitions? Well then.... I am not “the United States, this state, or any territory, or any public or private corporation”. I am not “labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” So, I cannot be a ‘person’ under this part of the definition.

The RCW quoted above also states that a person could also be an “individual”. Black’s Law Dictionary also defines a person as a “human being,” which they define by stating “(i.e. natural person)”. So, let’s first check to see if I am an “individual”.

Individual – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 533, defines

“individual” as follows: “As a noun, this term denotes a single person as distinguished from a group or class, and also, very commonly, a private or natural person as distinguished from a partnership, corporation, or association; but it is said that this restrictive signification is not necessarily inherent in the word, and that it may, in proper cases, include artificial persons.”

Well now, I have already been shown that I am not a ‘person’, and since

‘individual’ denotes a single ‘person’ as distinguished from a group or class, I can’t be an ‘individual’ under this definition either. But I see the term ‘natural person’ used in the definition of the RCW, and also in the definition of some of the Law Dictionaries. Maybe I am a ‘natural’ person, since I know I am not an ‘artificial’ one.

I could not find the term ‘Natural person’ defined anywhere, so I had to look up the word ‘natural’ for a definition to see if that word would fit with the word person...

Hmmm, what do they mean by this definition? Am I untouched by man (depends on what the word ‘man’ means), or by influences of civilization? I don’t think so. Am I ‘wild’, or ‘untutored’? (Buzzer sound), not me. Even though the definition states that this word is the opposite of the word ‘artificial’, it still does not describe who I believe I am. So, I must conclude that I am not a ‘natural’ person, under this definition of the word ‘natural’. So, the term ‘natural person’ cannot apply to me.

Black’s Law Dictionary also used the term ‘human being’, and although Black’s defined it as a ‘natural person’, maybe they made a mistake, maybe I am a ‘human being’. ‘Human’ or ‘human being' does not appear to have a 'legal' definition, so I went to my old standby 1888 Noah Webster's Dictionary for a vernacular definition of this word. Maybe Noah would know who I am

Human – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'human' as follows: n. A human being; one of the race of man. [Rare and inelegant.] "Sprung of humans that inhabit earth." ...To me, the etymology of the word Hu-man, suggests that it is a marriage of two separate words 'Hue' (defined as the property of color), and man. But this cannot, of course, be correct, at least not politically correct, so I can't go there, because the word would then mean 'coloured man'!

Am I of the race of man? Rare and inelegant? Sprung of humans that inhabit earth (ground)? (I'm not coloured either). Well, it looks like I have to define the word 'man' through Webster's because there appears to be no legal definition for 'man'.

Man – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'man' as follows: An individual of the human race; a human being; a person.

Great news!!, it looks like we are back to the beginning of our study of definitions, yup, back to the start, completed the circle. I am not an 'individual', so I cannot be considered 'of the human race'; and since I'm not of the human race, I can't be 'a human being', and I've also been shown that I'm not a 'person' either.

Now let us see what the word Human really means.....I am going into detail so TDW can see we have been deceived by the misuse of our own language.

Definition of Human Being

Are you a 'person', an 'individual', or a 'human being'? These words, at law, define you as being spiritually 'dead.' This is how the world makes its attachment to you. The terms, 'person', 'individual', 'human being', etc., are not in Christ. Words like "individual," and "human being" do not even appear in Scripture! These are 'created' terms by the natural man (1 Cor 2:14). These words describe the 'old man', but not the 'new man' in Christ (Col 3:9-10). In Balantine's Self Pronouncing Law Dictionary, 1948, page 389, Human

Being is defined as "See Monster." On page 540 of this same Law Dictionary, Monster is defined as "a human being by birth, but in some part resembling a lower animal."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, pages 879- 880, a Monster is defined as "a person so cruel, wicked, depraved, etc., as to horrify others." From the Random House Dictionary of the English Language, 2nd Edition, page 901, Human Being is defined as a "Natural man: unenlightened or unregenerate," and on page 1461, Unregenerate means "not regenerate; unrepentant; an unregenerate sinner; not convinced by or unconverted to a particular religion; wicked, sinful, dissolute."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, page 657, Humanitarianism is defined as "the doctrine that humankind may become perfect without divine aid."

In Colliers New Dictionary of the English Language, 1928, Humanitarian is defined as "a philanthropist; an anti-Trinitarian who rejects the doctrine of Christ's divinity; a perfectionist."

And in the Random House Webster's College Dictionary, 1990, page 653, Humanism is defined as "any system or mode of thought or action in which human interests, values and dignity predominate, especially an ethical theory that often rejects the importance of a belief in God."

Therefore, when anyone calls himself or herself a 'human being', or a 'humanitarian,' they are saying (according to every definition of these words, and according to the law), "I'm an animal; I'm a monster; I'm not saved; I'm unrepentant; I'm an unregenerate sinner; I'm not converted; I'm wicked, sinful, and dissolute; I'm cruel, depraved, unenlightened; and I reject Christ's divinity and the importance of a belief in God."

a. "Men [Bondman] rely for protection of their right on God's law, and not upon regulations and proclamations of departments of government, or officers who have been designated to carry laws into effect." Baty v. Sale, 43 Ill. 351." [Codes, edicts, proclamations, and decisions are not Law, which define or regulate the Good and Lawful Bondman. Therefore, "law" suits are ungodly, and are the redress for and of human beings, i.e., non-believers.]

The Septuagint uses the term "human beings" only one time, and its meaning is identical to the above definitions. Let's look at the last verse of the book of Jonah, where Nineve was full of men who were unrepentant, unregenerate, unconverted, wicked, sinful, dissolute, cruel, depraved, unenlightened, rejected the importance of a belief in God. Or, in other words, "human beings."

"And shall not I spare Nineve, the great city, in which dwell more than twelve myriads of human beings, who do not know their right hand or their left hand...?" [Jonah 4:11 (Septuagint)]

b. The term "human being" is also synonymous with the term 'natural man.'

c. "The natural man is a spiritual monster. His heart is where his feet should be, fixed upon the earth; his heels are lifted up against heaven, which his heart should be set on. His face is towards hell, his back towards heaven. He loves what he should hate and hates what he should love; joys in what he ought to mourn for and mourns for what he ought to rejoice in; glories in his shame, and is ashamed of his glory; abhors what he should desire, and desires what he should abhor." [Thomas

Boston, quoted in Augustus Toplady, Complete Works (1794, reprinted by Sprinkle Publications 1987), page 584].

And the Word confirms: “But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.” [1 Corinthians 2:14,]

The above verse witnesses to us that the natural man is spiritually dead. The ‘natural man’ in Scripture is synonymous with the ‘natural person’ as defined in man’s laws.

“Natural Person means human being, and not an artificial or juristic person.” Shawmut Bank, N.A. v. Valley Farms, 610 A. 2d. 652, 654; 222 Conn. 361.

Natural Person: Any human being who as such is a legal entity as distinguished from an artificial person, like a corporation, which derives its status as a legal entity from being recognized so in law. Natural Child: The ordinary euphemism for ‘bastard’ or illegitimate.” [Amon v. Moreschi, 296 N.Y. 395, 73 N.E.2d 716.” Max Radin, Radin’s Law Dictionary (1955), p. 216.]

Those that are spiritually dead belong to the prince of this world because he’s dead himself. Satan has dominion over the natural man, for he is the prince of this world [John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11]; and, because of this, he has dominion over those of the world, i.e., human beings, the natural man – those who receive not the things of the Spirit of God and reject Christ. Because the bondman in Christ is sanctified from the world, he is separated from the adversary’s dominion over him—sin [John 8:34].. This is the cause for Christ having sanctified Himself in the Truth of the Word of God – to provide the entrance to the refuge in and through Himself for us. I could provide you more, Manuel, and I do sincerely thank you for your focused attention to this, my honest effort at officially performing the function of my calling in establishing this agreement with you as per Matthew 5:25 and 18:15-20, but I think you are already overwhelmed as I have, upon presentation of facts, destroyed your belief system and now you are aware you are working for a massive criminal organization founded upon a false oath. Can you now see why I must not allow my name to be altered? Remember, every one of the officers of Alberta has a false oath...What kind of authority swears an oath that is bogus??? A false authority!

167. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the document titled “Equitable Solution for Forensic Audit of Cestui Que Trust with Interest Calculation,” dated April 22, 2025, addressed to the Judge Advocate General of the Canadian Armed Forces and copied to the RCMP, INTERPOL, Federal Court of Canada, and the UN Human Rights Committee, is hereby incorporated into this Agreement by reference. This letter forms an integral and enforceable part of this Agreement, outlining the factual basis, legal claims, and equitable remedies sought concerning the systemic fraud involving my Cestui Que Trust. Its contents, including but not limited to the demand for a forensic audit, restitution calculations, and references to international covenants such as the ICCPR and ICESCR, are acknowledged and agreed upon as binding terms within this Agreement. The incorporation of this letter ensures that all obligations, acknowledgments, and remedies detailed therein are enforceable under the terms of this Agreement, and any breach of these provisions shall constitute a breach of this Agreement. You consent that this document is available by request or PDF at; <https://www.td-lied.com/>

168. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that It is agreed with no dispute to the fact by you forthcoming that you are aware that I reserve my right under God's law not to be compelled to perform under any fraudulently obtained contract or commercial agreement that I did not enter knowingly, with informed consent, voluntarily and intentionally. Relevant maxims: He who seeks equity must do equity and Qui tacet consentire videtur" (Silence implies consent).

169. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; This private agreement is issued in truth and good faith. If no written, witnessed objection is received within 30 calendar days of delivery, the terms herein shall be deemed accepted in full, and the parties agree that such acceptance is valid in both law and equity, as supported by Ezekiel 33:6 and Ecclesiastes 5:4-6. Silence or non-response shall constitute lawful acquiescence and willful agreement.

170. It is agreed by you, Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; Failure to cure any breach within 30 calendar days of written notice shall constitute consent to immediate escalation to a court or forum of my choosing, including courts of equity, conscience, or international jurisdiction, at my sole discretion and benefit.

171. It is agreed by Ben Carr, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you forthcoming from you, that it is agreed by you with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that you are aware that I do not accept the liability of the compelled benefit of any unrevealed de facto contract or unlawful commercial agreement, which is my ministerial duty pursuant to God's law to divide myself from.

Conversion Torts; The unlawful turning or applying the personal goods of another to the use of the taker, or of some other person than the owner; or the unlawful destroying or altering their nature.

When a party takes away or wrongfully assumes the right to goods which belong to another, it will in general be sufficient evidence of a conversion but when the original taking was lawful, as when the party found the goods, and the detention only is illegal, it is absolutely necessary to make a demand of the goods, and there must be a refusal to deliver them before the conversion will be complete. The refusal by a servant to deliver the goods entrusted to him by his master is not evidence of a conversion by his master. Leviticus 6:2-5 The tortious taking of property is, of itself, a conversion and any intermeddling with it, or any exercise of dominion over it, subversive of the dominion of the owner or the nature of the bailment if it be bailed, is evidence of a conversion.

In Equity, the considering of one thing as changed into another; for example, land will be considered as converted into money and treated as such by a court of equity, when the owner has contracted to sell his estate, in which case, if he die before the conveyance, his executors and not his heirs will be entitled to the money. On the other hand, money is converted into land in a variety of ways as for example, when a man agrees to buy land and dies before he has received the conveyance, the money he was to pay for it will be considered as converted into lands and descend to the heir.

It is agreed upon by you, Ben Carr, having no dispute to the following fact forthcoming from you; that you the private man are aware and agree that I am a flesh bone blood living man, being God's minister, and that I cannot possibly have been in a dead legal corporate fiction called the Province of Ontario, Canada or other as the Province of Ontario, Canada and other is not a place but a dead corporate fiction of law on paper created for the purpose of extracting money from me in fraud as it is totally against my will, conscience and a violation of my faith to submit to and is being done without my informed consent or cognisant permission for a financial gain.

It is agreed by you, Ben Carr with full understanding, that failure to refute or disprove the facts provided above, as agreed upon by you, I am advised by

Christ at Matthew 18:15-20 to gain a simple agreement with you privately and very simply as a child so I would like your aid in agreeing with me that respecting persons written as persona in the Latin vulgate is sin and disrespected by God. Due to the emergent nature of this agreement you are required to respond to this agreement within 10 (ten) days of receipt representing fairness, truth, natural equity. Failure to respond will be deemed acceptance of the terms, including acknowledgment of all outlined facts and obligations. We can see that in Deuteronomy 1:17. 10:17, 2nd Samuel 14:14, Matthew 22:16. Acts 10:34, Romans 2:11, James 2:1-9 and 1st Peter 1:17. If you have no dispute with that scriptural fact I will confirm with witnesses then post our good faith agreement in a paper.

Thankyou for you aid in saving my faith harmless from assumption.

1959 CanLII 50 (SCC) | Roncarelli v. Duplessis | CanLII, Jagmeet Singh, by my sending you this private good faith agreement, I do attempt, by Christ's guidance, to ascertain all the facts in scriptural honour. If you have any reason or proof to suggest or provide to me, God's minister officially performing the functions of my calling, that the following statements of the facts are not true, you are being offered the opportunity to refute these offered facts so as to clear yourself of any assumptive contractual awareness of the truth of such facts. Also be aware, this communication of agreement cannot be lawfully inquired of at public or government expense as it is a provable private matter and government funding cannot support private contracts. All legal bills must and shall be paid for out of your private pocket no different than Maurice Duplessis the former Premier and Attorney General of Quebec in Roncarelly v Duplessis

This is Demand for recognition as Christ's ordained minister in quest of defense of the faith to save harmless my soul.

I declare that I am that God created, of a Christian given name Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, chosen to be a private ecclesiastic man under God as my creator with dominion over the earth. I do declare that no man or woman has a moral or a lawful right to impose anything upon me without my informed consent; and that I do hereby renounce any fraudulent corporate assumptive contract by the right of self determination and faith renouncing secular Contracts. Amselem 2004 SCR.

I do honour the directive obligation to respect the equal God given freedoms of other men and women under His law. To all those who set eyes on this ecclesiastical declaration, I do hereby, officially performing the functions of my calling, serve notice to all private men and women as of my inability to respect persons that receive this that any offer herein, prior to, or on my part does not imply acceptance of intimidation, violence, or threats of violence against me, and that no such offer implies that I will submit to any nuisance obstruction or intimidation in the future.

I, as a bondservant of Christ do henceforth offer the good faith proclamation of my free born will to live in peace and declare that, by right of God and his son Jesus words at Corinthians 7:20:26, the de facto authority's edicts, codes, obligations, statutes, taxes, licenses and prohibitions of a de facto commercial entity are not binding on me, John 15:16 ordained minister or applicable upon God's ministers and family, his Children and including their property.

I, minister Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, an ordained minister under John 15:16 and a watchman as per Ezekiel 33:6–9, hereby invoke the protections afforded by "Operation SILENT DEFENDER." This military receivership, initiated in response to systemic fiduciary breaches, encompasses the unauthorized creation and exploitation of my Cestui Que Trust, originating from my 1960 birth certificate.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms "man" and "woman" (also Queen and King) are used interchangeably and are intended to be inclusive of all individuals, regardless of gender identity. Any reference to a specific gender shall be construed to include all genders, and no provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to exclude any person based on gender.

4. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that. It is agreed by you, that in 1966 ICCPR and ICESCR Signed: 19 December 1966 The principles of the UDHR offered hope and inspiration around the world. But to make a genuine difference in people's lives, those principles needed to be transformed into laws. In 1966, the UN Commission on Human Rights drafted two instruments to give legal force to the UDHR. One instrument was called the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The second was the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Together with the Universal Declaration, they comprise the International Bill of Human Rights. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights offers protections for the right to life, freedom of speech, religion, and voting. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights focuses on such issues as food, education, health, and shelter. More than 160 nations have ratified these two covenants which legally commit them to ensure these rights for people within their borders.

5. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact that in the Supreme Court Judgments [1980] 1 SCR 54 1979-12-21 Re: Authority of Parliament in relation to the Upper House Further, although s. 91(1) gave the Queen the power, with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, to alter the "Constitution of Canada" except in certain expressly designated areas, it does not confer a power to amend the B.N.A. Act. The word "Canada" in s. 91(1) does not refer to Canada as a geographical unit but refers to the "JURISTIC FEDERAL UNIT"
6. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1981 Zingre v. The Queen et al., [1981] 2 SCR 392 (Supreme Court of Canada). It is a recognized principle of international customary law that a state may not invoke the provisions of its internal law as justification for its failure to perform its international obligations.
9. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1989 Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038, 1989 The reference in s. 32 to the "Parliament" and a "legislature" make clear that the Charter operates as a limitation on the powers of those legislative bodies. Any statute enacted by either Parliament or a Legislature which is inconsistent with the Charter will be outside the power of (ultra vires) the enacting body and will be invalid. It follows that any body exercising statutory authority, for example, the Governor in Council or Lieutenant Governor in Council, ministers, officials, municipalities, school boards, universities, administrative tribunals and police officers, is also bound by the Charter. Action taken under statutory authority is valid only if it is within the scope of that authority. Since neither Parliament nor a Legislature can itself pass a law in breach of the Charter, neither body can authorize action which would be in breach of the Charter. Thus, the limitations on statutory authority which are imposed by the Charter will flow down the chain of statutory authority and

apply to regulations, by-laws, orders, decisions and all other action (whether legislative, administrative or judicial) which depends for its validity on statutory authority

11. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1997 The Supreme Court has made it clear in cases M. (A.) v. Ryan that Common Law in Canada Now Flows through the Constitution Act of 1982. M. (A.) v. Ryan, 1997 (SCC), [1997] 1 S.C.R. 157, that the common law must develop in accordance with Charter values. A Trespass in common law equals an infringement or denial of a fundamental right or freedom. (Listed in the constitution act or the covenants themselves)
13. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2005 Court Judgement Supreme Court- Christie v. British Columbia, 2005 BCCA 631(CanLII)The rule of law embraces at least three principles. The first principle is that the "law is supreme over officials of the government as well as private individuals, and thereby preclusive of the influence of arbitrary power"

15. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2015 R. v. Wagner, 2015 ONCJ 66 The Rule of Law The idea that there are certain fundamental unwritten principles that govern all members of society including legislators and which judges are expected to enforce is not particularly new. The contemporary concept of unwritten constitutional principles can be seen as a modern reincarnation of the ancient doctrines of natural law
16. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Victoria (City) v. Adams, 2009 BCCA 563; 2008 BCSC 1363; The trial court found the prohibition of temporary overhead shelter in parks to be unconstitutional where there was a lack of alternative shelter space. The court held the issue to be clearly justiciable because it dealt with the constitutionality of a legal prohibition. The court relied on the right to adequate housing under international human rights law as an interpretive aid. The Court referred to submissions made by Canada to the United Nations Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights regarding the scope of domestic protections for the right to housing and on General Comment No. 4 on the right to adequate housing under the International Covenant of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR). The Court noted that the question of whether the right to life, liberty and security of the person imposes positive obligations on governments to ensure the right to housing has not yet been determined by the Supreme Court of Canada and did not need to be decided in this case, which only challenged state interference.
17. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Thompson v. Ministry of Revenue [1946] SCR 209, 1946 CanLII 1 (SCC) [Page 220] Residents are taxed, not Canadians; but residents within the meaning of the Act...

22. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

These are the words in the Oath of Office Act, indicating prima fascia an unlawful, unsanctioned, deficient form by the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance thus effectively invalidating the oath by making the oath grammatically incoherent.

I, . . . . ., swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law.

These are the words from the federal Oath of allegiance Act for Canada

..... it is very clear as to how the oath is to be worded in Canada, it is

(1) Every person who, either of his own accord or in compliance with any lawful requirement made of the person, or in obedience to the directions of any Act or law in force in Canada, except the Constitution Act, 1867 and the Citizenship Act, desires to take an oath of allegiance shall have administered and take the oath in the following form, and no other:

I, ....., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada, Her Heirs and Successors. So, help me God. The deviation from the prescribed form of the oath, such as the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance, results in a grammatically incoherent and legally deficient oath. This deficiency effectively invalidates the oath, rendering any authority exercised under its auspices unlawful. The administration or reliance upon such an invalid oath may constitute a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of Canada. Specifically: Canadian Criminal Code: Section 122, Section 131 and Section 132. Therefore, proceeding with or acting upon an oath that deviates from the legally mandated form may expose individuals to criminal liability under these provisions.

S.5. as amended and in the matter of TD Waterhouse Canada Inc. heard on September 19TH, 2005", had provided information knowing it to be untruthful, specifically but not limited to, that Richard Ochnik being the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also falsely stated that she was not working on behalf of the company. Hatice was not truthful and attempted to cover up her own securities violations involving a material conflict of interests representing of both the buyer and seller the same security without disclosure to the parties. This was a direct conflict of interest and prejudicial to the parties. This violation is called Crossing of Securities. Hatice Pakdils actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c.). The hearing(s) outcome were based on fraudulent mislead information that altered the outcome of this case and the case in paragraph 45 and 47 above. In This case TDW false information was accepted as truth without the involvement and opportunity for Richard Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. to enter defence evidence to the contrary trespassing on their inherent rights. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful to protect her job and the expense of others and wrongfully was enriched.

56. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing: Christa Ochnik and Ontario Securities Commission, Province of Ontario, TD Waterhouse, Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD Bank) and Hatice Pakdil. Hatice, had submitted a defence that was knowingly, to be untruthfully specifically but not limited to, statement that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. The argument that Richard was the de facto officer was not raised in the above two cases and could not be contested by Richard Ochnik. The Intention of the false information was to deceive the court for the inequitable wrongful benefit of Hatice Pakdil's employer and other defendants depriving the plaintiff of their rights under colour of law. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful in an attempt to protect her job and unlawfully gain from her crime. This resulted in fraudulently depriving Christa and her sisters a free born minors of their rightful inheritance as beneficiary of the Ochnik Family Trust. Hatice's actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46)
57. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, the private man/woman, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, was subjected to unlawful, cruel, and degrading treatment amounting to torture, as detailed in associated affidavits and records. You agree to settle this claim for five million Canadian dollars ($5,000,000.00), payable in accordance with Clause 43, including the option for delivery in 1 oz gold or silver Maple Leaf coins at fixed valuation. 58. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that [First Name] [Last Name] TD Waterhouse, Michael Watson, OSC, and key investigator John Humphrey were fully aware of the untruths and perjury of witnesses and conspired to target, in a conspiracy to harm Richard Ochnik and 1464210 Ontario Inc. as are now listed here in. 60. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Moore (Chairman) should have not been the Chairman on two hearings involving Richard Ochnik due to a conflict of interest. Its unconscionable to have expected the Chairman to rule in conflict with his earlier ruling. The Chairman did not have the lawful authority to change what was established as fact by himself in a earlier hearing without an appeal. Holding a hearing and agreeing on key facts without allowing Richard Ochnik to offer a defence was a trespass on his inherent rights, malicious slander, and libel. This technicality was deliberate to target Richard Ochnik because despite all evidence to the contrary in his own hearing it would not change the established facts from the previous case. In essence his case was lost before it started.

The OSC had in its position Company documents clearly indicating Ian Ochnik was the incorporator, sole Director, and De jure President of the Company. TDW had contracted with Ian Ochnik. Richard Ochnik was not part of the securities negotiations, and his function was landlord and general contractor.

Securities Commission and placing unwarranted statutory obligations on Richard trespassing on his rights to which he would not normally or lawfully be expected to have as a man. Leviticus 6:2-5

The company produced and delivered the share certificates and TD Waterhouse handed over payment for those certificates from the cash in the investors accounts as stated above, making the share purchase at the time of payment. Ian Ochnik and the company were vulnerable to Hatice Pakdil that had full control of the process.

It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that 146420 Ontario Inc. had paid TDW the agreed commissions for each share's sale/purchase transaction by way of a cheque signed by Ian Ochnik President. Cheques were made out to "Pay to the order of: TD Waterhouse - investment advice." With "Hatice Pakdil" indicated in the notes.
85. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW never told the Company that TDW were not working for them. Given all the documents it would clearly indicate that they were confirmed to be working with TDW as their broker on record.
86. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shareholder investors 1464210 Ontario Inc. were also clients for TDW and TD Waterhouse.
87. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC do not know of any investor on 1464210 Ontario Inc. that was over the age of 65 and had purchased shares from 1464210 Ontario Inc.
89. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Bayfield was TDW Sales Assistant, and he was actively assisting in processing of the trades and had direct knowledge of the transactions playing a key role in the approvals to facilitate the purchase and subsequent SWAP of the shares.

92. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that you accept full responsibility for any and all additional costs, fees, charges, or expenses incurred as a result of delays, administrative actions, defense filings, or any other related processes necessitated by your actions or omissions. You acknowledge and agree that the applicable fee schedule detailing such costs is available for your review at TD-lied.com or can be provided to you upon your written request. You further agree that this fee schedule is subject to amendments and updates from time to time, at the sole discretion and for the exclusive benefit of the minister, without prior notice to you. Such amendments are binding and non-disputable. Your acceptance of this clause signifies your consent to these terms and your obligation to remit payment for any applicable fees as outlined in the current fee schedule.
96. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc and Paul Bayfield were not subpoena or questioned by the Ontario Security Commission Hearings Involving 1464210 Ontario Inc and

Richard Ochnik, contrary to the best evidence rules and practice. In this investigation the OSC exercised willful blindness and colour of law.

shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. "This letter was a requirement to be signed by all TDW investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. before the purchased shares. It is agreed by you, [First Name] [Last Name], the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW agreed to be broker of record May 06, 2002.

106. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the sales transaction consisted of a 7% commission calculated on the sale amount of shares and a $25 000 (in cash or shares) bonus for achieving each million dollars in sales threshold. The Company offered shares or cash as payment; as part of TDW selling shares and purchasing them for their clients RRSP accounts. Share sales generate a sales commission paid by the seller Company and SWAPS generate a fixed fee paid by the investor buyer – both were TDW clients.
107. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that According to the TDW "Rate Tables", the Company would be charged the flat fee of $20.00 for a SWAP but rather a commission for a sale or "Trade". TDW negotiated a commission representing the sale of shares.
108. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after TDW due diligence by their lawyer, Compliance Department, Branch Manager and RRSP Department, that TDW assistant Paul Bayfield, Sales Assistant, then notified the Company that they were prepared to go ahead with the purchase and SWAP of the shares.

Relationship” with TDW. (There was an agreement and mutual understanding). A contract was signed by the Company solidifying the relationship. TDW became brokers of record.

113. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the “Privet Placement Subscription Form” were not a binding contract: paragraph 4. “Acceptance of Subscription: This subscription will be and be deemed for all purposes to have been accepted by the Corporation when the Corporation gives notice in writing to the purchaser of the allotment and issuance of the Shares subscribed for, but the corporation shall be under no obligation to accept this subscription”. The share sale only occurred once TD Waterhouse paid for the shares from the cash in the, the private man with no dispute to the investor’s accounts and not before. Before that could happen, TD had to notify the company regarding the buyer, account number and number of shares.

forthcoming from you that all the accounts were transferred as cash and as such they all had cash in the accounts and no shares of other companies specifically 1464210 Ontario Inc. Shares then needed to be sold by the company and purchase by Hatice Pakdil clients; then healed in a holding account prior to the SWAP taking place into the RRSP account generating a fee.

116. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "New Clients" were established. Hatice Pakdil was their "Investment Advisor" and responsible for the client's account. The Company completed all the requirements of a "Pre-Approved Private Placement". Hatice Pakdil testified under oath that she considered herself as an order taker and not adviser to the new clients facilitating the buy and sale of the Company shares.
119. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had direct knowledge that the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." were not signed because clients kept changing the number of shares that they were purchasing. The change would have triggered a requirement to amend the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." Also, there was no practical way to confirm the amount of shares that the client could afford to purchase until the account was moved to TDW and in a cash position. TDW needed to know the cash availability to calculate the number of shares to be purchased at $1.00 per share. Also, the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" told TDW that they had no ownership of shares or rights to purchase shares indicating the buy and sell had not taken place yet until TD gave the company the cheque payment for the shares as stipulated on paragraph 5 of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." , the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW, Hatice Pakdil did speak to potential investors before the signing and execution of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares" with the help of TDW sales assistant. This fact clearly confirms that Hatice Pakdil had purchased shares form TDW Customer the Company to facilitate a SWAP for TDW investment clients.

124. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was negligent and processed the transaction as a "SWAP" into the client's account. As a result, the head office review of trades was per TDW Policy 2 and that requirement did not take place as required by regulation. If it was done properly the issue would have been discovered in the first trade and saved the Company. The Company had no knowledge of TDW errors. TDW had an obligation to correct the issue and save the company.
125. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shares were distributed to the "New Client's" RRSP accounts by TDW as a trade and then followed by a SWAP.

all the investors and instructed the Company as to how much and who's named to place on each share certificate. No subscription agreement was exercised by 1464210 Ontario Inc. The go ahead was given to Paul Bayfield "Sale Assistant" by TD Waterhouse's compliance department. Paul Bayfield was TDW assistant and received instructions from TDW. TDW had over seen each of the transactions.

127. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that as part of the settlement agreement it was admitted by TD Waterhouse failed to comply with the suitability requirements to its clients contrary to section 1.5 of rule 31505; and that TDW failed to comply with its obligation to deal with its clients fairly by failing to disclosure to the clients the 7% commission that were paid to TDW contrary to section 2.1(2) of rule 31-505 and there by acted contrary to the public interests and placing the company in violation with the Ontario Securities Act.
128. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that if TDW told the truth and admitted that TDW had errored the company and the Ochnik Family specifically the Trust would have not suffered such an unconscionable punishment and the three children freeborn beneficiaries would and should have been saved harmless.

It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that based on conservative financial calculations from 2004, reflecting a doubling of losses every four years due to compounding factors, the current value of damages sustained by the 'Ochnik Family Trust' is estimated at over $280 (two hundred and eighty) million Canadian dollars. This figure accounts for the compounded harm caused by your actions, including but not limited to fraudulent misrepresentation, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, and obstruction of justice. Full restitution of this adjusted amount is required to prevent further harm and ensure compliance with the principles of fairness, truth, equity and good faith.
154. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that you are responsible to make the "Ochnik Family Trust" whole by financially compensating them for all their losses and damages in 30 days on demand. Payment will be, as directed by minister Richard Henry family of Ochnik.

155. It is agreed by you, the private man Jagmeet Singh, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any breach of this agreement, including misrepresentation, fiduciary breach, fraud, or delay in remedy, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, acting as minister and also steward or trustee, shall be entitled to initiate enforcement in any competent forum of my choosing. All damages, whether direct, indirect, or consequential, including psychological, spiritual, and economic harm, shall be calculated in good faith and are enforceable under equity and law. The obligation to remedy these harms shall include but not be limited to: Direct financial losses, Reputational and spiritual harm, Involuntary service and elder abuse And Constitutional violations of conscience and trust; Leviticus 6:2–5 and Isaiah 61:7
156. It is agreed by you, the private man Jagmeet Singh, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, shall retain the sole, unfettered right to elect the forum and venue in which enforcement, adjudication, or interpretation of this agreement may be pursued. This includes courts of record with inherent jurisdiction, whether within Canada or the United States, including ecclesiastical or international human rights tribunals. Such selection shall be made at his sole discretion and shall be binding upon all parties as agreed in advance. This clause serves to ensure full access to fair and impartial adjudication under the maxims of law, international covenant, and God's justice.
157. It is agreed by you, the private man Jagmeet Singh, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the material admissions contained within this Clear-Period Contract constitute binding declarations of fact and law. You acknowledge that any failure to publicly correct or retract previous defamatory or fraudulent claims, including those issued by TD Bank Group, TD Waterhouse, OSC, or their agents, shall constitute an ongoing and compounding harm under both spiritual law and equity. The duty to correct includes issuing an open retraction to restore my name, ministry, trust estate, and familial dignity.
158. These authorities are incorporated into this agreement as interpretive anchors, and the parties agree to rely upon their reasoning and precedent in any tribunal, forum, or court of record, ecclesiastical or civil, as may be engaged for the resolution or enforcement of this contract.
159. It is agreed by you, the private man Jagmeet Singh, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that failure to respond to or rebut this agreement within 30 days constitutes tacit admission and contractual default. In such case, I shall have full standing to enter judgment and proceed to enforcement, including garnishment, lien, or seizure under the applicable statutes or ecclesiastical process, without further notice or leave of any court.
160. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.

162. It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man , with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private man or woman with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.
165. It is agreed by Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.

It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors, (that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

It is very important that I show you why I can not allow any one to assume that they have any power or force over me. To be definitive, TDW need to see the lawful definition of person and the scriptures that guide me and command me to not show respect to persons, as they are fictions of law. A player on a stage wearing a mask.

PERSON. This word is applied to men, women and children, who are called natural persons. In law, man and person are not exactly synonymous terms. Any human being is a man, whether he be a member of society or not, whatever may be the rank he holds, or whatever may be his age, sex, etc. A person is a man considered according to the rank he holds in society, with all the rights to which the place he holds entitles him, and the duties which it imposes. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 137.. It is also used to denote a corporation which is an artificial person. 1 Bl.

Com. 123; 4 Bing. 669; C. 33 Eng. C. L R. 488; Wooddes. Lect. 116; Bac. Us. 57; 1 Mod. 164.

But when the word "Persons" is spoken of in legislative acts, natural persons will be intended, unless something appears in the context to show that it applies to artificial persons. 1 Scam. R.178.

Natural persons are divided into males, or men, and females or women. Men are capable of all kinds of engagements and functions, unless by reasons applying to particular individuals. Women cannot be appointed to any public office, nor perform any civil functions, except those which the law specially declares them capable of exercising. Civ. Code of Louis. art. 25.

They are also sometimes divided into free persons and slaves. Freemen are those who have preserved their natural liberty, that is to say, who have the right of doing what is not forbidden by the law. A slave is one who is in the power of a master to whom he belongs. Slaves are sometimes ranked not with persons but things. But sometimes they are considered as persons for example, a negro is in contemplation of law a person, so as to be capable of committing a riot in conjunction with white men. 1 Bay, 358. Vide Man.

Persons are also divided into citizens, (q. v.) and aliens, (q. v.) when viewed with regard to their political rights. When they are considered in relation to their civil rights, they are living or civilly dead; vide Civil Death; outlaws; and infamous persons.

Persons are divided into legitimates and bastards, when examined as to their rights by birth.

TO PERSONATE, crim. law. The act of assuming the character of another without lawful authority, and, in such character, doing something to his prejudice, or to the prejudice of another, without his will or consent.

The bare fact of personating another for the purpose of fraud, is no more than a cheat or misdemeanour at common law, and punishable as such. 2 East, P. C. 1010; 2 Russ. on Cr. 479.

By the act of congress of the 30th April, 1790, s. 15, 1 Story's Laws U. S. 86, it is enacted, that " if any person shall acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged in any court of Canada, any recognizance, bail or judgement, in the name or names of any other person or persons not privy or consenting to the same, every such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeds five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding seven years, and whipped not exceeding thirty-nine stripes, Provided nevertheless. that this act shall not extend to the acknowledgment of any judgement or judgements by any attorney or attorneys, duly admitted, for any person or persons against whom any such judgement or judgements shall be had or given." Vide, generally, 2 John. Cas. 293; 16 Vin. Ab. 336; Com. Dig. Action on the case for a deceit, A 3.

James 2:9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one [point], he is guilty of all.

Here is a list of more in-depth definitions so no one gets lost.

I am not a Person, or an Individual, or even a human, Manuel, but before you think I am crazy, examine the facts.

I am not a person, or an individual, or a Human, and although some humans look similar to me, I am not a human.

Some would say that I am a 'natural' person, but as I will show you, I am not one of those either. Who then or what then, am I?

To understand who I am, you must first understand the definitions which have been placed on the words I have quoted above, words that are commonly used, but do not describe me anymore. For example, the word 'person'.

Person – The Revised Code of Washington, RCW 1.16.080, (I live in Washington State) defines a person as follows: "The term 'person' may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual."

Person – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 791, defines ‘person’ as follows: “In general usage, a human being (i.e. natural person), though by statute term may include labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” Person – Oran’s Dictionary of the Law, West Group 1999, defines

Person as: 1. A human being (a “natural” person). 2. A corporation (an “artificial” person). Corporations are treated as persons in many legal situations. Also, the word “person” includes corporations in most definitions in this dictionary. 3. Any other “being” entitled to sue as a legal entity (a government, an association, a group of Trustees, etc.). 4.. The plural of person is persons, not people (see that word).

Person – Duhaime’s Law Dictionary. An entity with legal rights and existence including the ability to sue and be sued, to sign contracts, to receive gifts, to appear in court either by themselves or by lawyer and, generally, other powers incidental to the full expression of the entity in law. Individuals are “persons” in law unless they are minors or under some kind of other incapacity such as a court finding of mental incapacity. Many laws give certain powers to “persons”, which in almost all instances, includes business organizations that have been formally registered such as partnerships, corporations or associations.

legal person – Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary of Law 1996, defines a legal person as : a body of persons or an entity (as a corporation) considered as having many of the rights and responsibilities of a natural person and esp. the capacity to sue and be sued.

A person according to these definitions, is basically an entity – legal fiction – of some kind that has been legally created and has the legal capacity to be sued. Isn’t it odd that the word lawful is not used within these definitions? Well then.... I am not “the United States, this state, or any territory, or any public or private corporation”. I am not “labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” So, I cannot be a ‘person’ under this part of the definition.

The RCW quoted above also states that a person could also be an “individual”. Black’s Law Dictionary also defines a person as a “human being,” which they define by stating “(i.e. natural person)”. So, let’s first check to see if I am an “individual”.

Individual – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 533, defines

corporation, or association; but it is said that this restrictive signification is not necessarily inherent in the word, and that it may, in proper cases, include artificial persons.”

Well now, I have already been shown that I am not a ‘person’, and since

‘individual’ denotes a single ‘person’ as distinguished from a group or class, I can’t be an ‘individual’ under this definition either. But I see the term ‘natural person’ used in the definition of the RCW, and also in the definition of some of the Law Dictionaries. Maybe I am a ‘natural’ person, since I know I am not an ‘artificial’ one.

I could not find the term ‘Natural person’ defined anywhere, so I had to look up the word ‘natural’ for a definition to see if that word would fit with the word person...

Hmmm, what do they mean by this definition? Am I untouched by man (depends on what the word ‘man’ means), or by influences of civilization? I don’t think so. Am I ‘wild’, or ‘untutored’? (Buzzer sound), not me. Even though the definition states that this word is the opposite of the word ‘artificial’, it still does not describe who I believe I am. So, I must conclude that I am not a ‘natural’ person, under this definition of the word ‘natural’. So, the term ‘natural person’ cannot apply to me.

Black’s Law Dictionary also used the term ‘human being’, and although Black’s defined it as a ‘natural person’, maybe they made a mistake, maybe I am a ‘human being’. ‘Human’ or ‘human being’ does not appear to have a ‘legal’ definition, so I went to my old standby 1888 Noah Webster’s Dictionary for a vernacular definition of this word. Maybe Noah would know who I am

Human – Webster’s 1888 Dictionary defines ‘human’ as follows: n. A human being; one of the race of man. [Rare and inelegant.] “Sprung of humans that inhabit earth.” ...To me, the etymology of the word Hu-man, suggests that it is a marriage of two separate words ‘Hue’ (defined as the property of color), and man. But this cannot, of course, be correct, at least not politically correct, so I can’t go there, because the word would then mean ‘coloured man’!

Am I of the race of man? Rare and inelegant? Sprung of humans that inhabit earth (ground)? (I’m not coloured either). Well, it looks like I have to define the word ‘man’ through Webster’s because there appears to be no legal definition for ‘man’.

Man – Webster’s 1888 Dictionary defines ‘man’ as follows: An individual of the human race; a human being; a person.

Great news!!, it looks like we are back to the beginning of our study of definitions, yup, back to the start, completed the circle. I am not an ‘individual’, so I cannot be considered ‘of the human race’; and since I’m not of the human race, I can’t be ‘a human being’, and I’ve also been shown that I’m not a ‘person’ either.

Now let us see what the word Human really means.....I am going into detail so TDW can see we have been deceived by the misuse of our own language.

Definition of Human Being

Are you a ‘person’, an ‘individual’, or a ‘human being’? These words, at law, define you as being spiritually ‘dead.’ This is how the world makes its attachment to you. The terms, ‘person’, ‘individual’, ‘human being’, etc., are not in Christ. Words like “individual,” and “human being” do not even appear in Scripture! These are ‘created’ terms by the natural man (1 Cor 2:14). These words describe the ‘old man’, but not the ‘new man’ in Christ (Col 3:9-10). In Balantine’s Self Pronouncing Law Dictionary, 1948, page 389, Human

Being is defined as “See Monster.” On page 540 of this same Law Dictionary, Monster is defined as “a human being by birth, but in some part resembling a lower animal.”

In Webster’s New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, pages 879- 880, a Monster is defined as “a person so cruel, wicked, depraved, etc., as to horrify others.” From the Random House Dictionary of the English Language, 2nd Edition, page 901, Human Being is defined as a “Natural man: unenlightened or unregenerate,” and on page 1461, Unregenerate means “not regenerate; unrepentant; an unregenerate sinner; not convinced by or unconverted to a particular religion; wicked, sinful, dissolute.”

In Webster’s New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, page 657, Humanitarianism is defined as “the doctrine that humankind may become perfect without divine aid.”

In Colliers New Dictionary of the English Language, 1928, Humanitarian is defined as “a philanthropist; an anti-Trinitarian who rejects the doctrine of Christ’s divinity; a perfectionist.”

And in the Random House Webster’s College Dictionary, 1990, page 653, Humanism is defined as “any system or mode of thought or action in which human interests, values and dignity predominate, especially an ethical theory that often rejects the importance of a belief in God.”

Therefore, when anyone calls himself or herself a ‘human being’, or a ‘humanitarian,’ they are saying (according to every definition of these words, and according to the law), “I’m an animal; I’m a monster; I’m not saved; I’m unrepentant; I’m an unregenerate sinner; I’m not converted; I’m wicked, sinful, and dissolute; I'm cruel, depraved, unenlightened; and I reject Christ's divinity and the importance of a belief in God."

a. "Men [Bondman] rely for protection of their right on God's law, and not upon regulations and proclamations of departments of government, or officers who have been designated to carry laws into effect." Baty v. Sale, 43 Ill. 351." [Codes, edicts, proclamations, and decisions are not Law, which define or regulate the Good and Lawful Bondman. Therefore, "law" suits are ungodly, and are the redress for and of human beings, i.e., non-believers.]

The Septuagint uses the term "human beings" only one time, and its meaning is identical to the above definitions. Let's look at the last verse of the book of Jonah, where Nineve was full of men who were unrepentant, unregenerate, unconverted, wicked, sinful, dissolute, cruel, depraved, unenlightened, rejected the importance of a belief in God. Or, in other words, "human beings."

"And shall not I spare Nineve, the great city, in which dwell more than twelve myriads of human beings, who do not know their right hand or their left hand...?" [Jonah 4:11 (Septuagint)]

b. The term "human being" is also synonymous with the term 'natural man.'

c. "The natural man is a spiritual monster. His heart is where his feet should be, fixed upon the earth; his heels are lifted up against heaven, which his heart should be set on. His face is towards hell, his back towards heaven. He loves what he should hate and hates what he should love; joys in what he ought to mourn for and mourns for what he ought to rejoice in; glories in his shame, and is ashamed of his glory; abhors what he should desire, and desires what he should abhor." [Thomas Boston, quoted in Augustus Toplady, Complete Works (1794, reprinted by Sprinkle Publications 1987), page 584].

And the Word confirms: "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." [1 Corinthians 2:14,]

"Natural Person means human being, and not an artificial or juristic person." Shawmut Bank, N.A. v. Valley Farms, 610 A. 2d. 652, 654; 222 Conn. 361.

Natural Person: Any human being who as such is a legal entity as distinguished from an artificial person, like a corporation, which derives its status as a legal entity from being recognized so in law. Natural Child: The ordinary euphemism for 'bastard' or illegitimate." [Amon v. Moreschi, 296 N.Y. 395, 73 N.E.2d 716." Max Radin, Radin's Law Dictionary (1955), p. 216.]

Those that are spiritually dead belong to the prince of this world because he's dead himself. Satan has dominion over the natural man, for he is the prince of this world [John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11]; and, because of this, he has dominion over those of the world, i.e., human beings, the natural man – those who receive not the things of the Spirit of God and reject Christ. Because the bondman in Christ is sanctified from the world, he is separated from the adversary's dominion over him—sin [John 8:34].. This is the cause for Christ having sanctified Himself in the Truth of the Word of God – to provide the entrance to the refuge in and through Himself for us. I could provide you more, Manuel, and I do sincerely thank you for your focused attention to this, my honest effort at officially performing the function of my calling in establishing this agreement with you as per Matthew 5:25 and 18:15-20, but I think you are already overwhelmed as I have, upon presentation of facts, destroyed your belief system and now you are aware you are working for a massive criminal organization founded upon a false oath. Can you now see why I must not allow my name to be altered? Remember, every one of the officers of Alberta has a false oath...What kind of authority swears an oath that is bogus??? A false authority!

Conversion Torts; The unlawful turning or applying the personal goods of another to the use of the taker, or of some other person than the owner; or the unlawful destroying or altering their nature.

When a party takes away or wrongfully assumes the right to goods which belong to another, it will in general be sufficient evidence of a conversion but when the original taking was lawful, as when the party found the goods, and the detention only is illegal, it is absolutely necessary to make a demand of the goods, and there must be a refusal to deliver them before the conversion will be complete. The refusal by a servant to deliver the goods entrusted to him by his master is not evidence of a conversion by his master. Leviticus 6:2-5 The tortious taking of property is, of itself, a conversion and any intermeddling with it, or any exercise of dominion over it, subversive of the dominion of the owner or the nature of the bailment if it be bailed, is evidence of a conversion.

In Equity, the considering of one thing as changed into another; for example, land will be considered as converted into money and treated as such by a court of equity, when the owner has contracted to sell his estate, in which case, if he die before the conveyance, his executors and not his heirs will be entitled to the money. On the other hand, money is converted into land in a variety of ways as for example, when a man agrees to buy land and dies before he has received the conveyance, the money he was to pay for it will be considered as converted into lands and descend to the heir.

It is agreed upon by you, Jagmeet Singh, having no dispute to the following fact forthcoming from you; that you the private man are aware and agree that I am a flesh bone blood living man, being God's minister, and that I cannot possibly have been in a dead legal corporate fiction called the Province of Ontario, Canada or other as the Province of Ontario, Canada and other is not a place but a dead corporate fiction of law on paper created for the purpose of extracting money from me in fraud as it is totally against my will, conscience and a violation of my faith to submit to and is being done without my informed consent or cognisant permission for a financial gain.

It is agreed by you, Jagmeet Singh with full understanding, that failure to refute or disprove the facts provided above, as agreed upon by you, I am advised by

Christ at Matthew 18:15-20 to gain a simple agreement with you privately and very simply as a child so I would like your aid in agreeing with me that respecting persons written as persona in the Latin vulgate is sin and disrespected by God. Due to the emergent nature of this agreement you are required to respond to this agreement within 10 (ten) days of receipt representing fairness, truth, natural equity. Failure to respond will be deemed acceptance of the terms, including acknowledgment of all outlined facts and obligations. We can see that in Deuteronomy 1:17, 10:17, 2nd Samuel 14:14, Matthew 22:16, Acts 10:34, Romans 2:11, James 2:1-9 and 1st Peter 1:17. If you have no dispute with that scriptural fact I will confirm with witnesses then post our good faith agreement in a paper.

Thankyou for you aid in saving my faith harmless from assumption.

Notice for a Demand of an Ecclesiastical Accommodation and Agreement

Provided under Christ's careful direction and the watchman's eye of Ezekiel 33

In the holy name of Christ, as where two or more agree in His holy name, for the will of our father, it shall be done. Matthew 18;20

If one falsely accuses another of a crime, the punishment due to that crime should be inflicted upon the perjured informer. Maxims of law

Hello, Randeep Sarai, I am Richard of the Ochnik family, a flesh blood and bone living man created by God and an officiating minister of the Church of the Ecumenical Redemption International, an ecclesiastical organism of other flesh, blood and bone men and women as the many members of the body of Christ. Where truth is, fiction of law dose not exist. Maxims of law;

If ever the law of God and man are at variance, the former are to be obeyed in derogation of the later.
Maxims. Acts 5:29

1959 CanLII 50 (SCC) | Roncarelli v. Duplessis | CanLII, Randeep Sarai, by my sending you this private good faith agreement, I do attempt, by Christ's guidance, to ascertain all the facts in scriptural honour. If you have any reason or proof to suggest or provide to me, God's minister officially performing the functions of my calling, that the following statements of the facts are not true, you are being offered the opportunity to refute these offered facts so as to clear yourself of any assumptive contractual awareness of the truth of such facts. Also be aware, this communication of agreement cannot be lawfully inquired of at public or government expense as it is a provable private matter and government funding cannot support private contracts. All legal bills must and shall be paid for out of your private pocket no different than Maurice Duplessis the former Premier and Attorney General of Quebec in Roncarelly v Duplessis

This is Demand for recognition as Christ's ordained minister in quest of defense of the faith to save harmless my soul.

Both parties agree to act in good faith, ensuring no misleading actions or omissions that could undermine the intent or enforceability of this agreement. Each party is obligated to respect the natural rights and freedoms outlined herein.

I declare that I am that God created, of a Christian given name Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, chosen to be a private ecclesiastic man under God as my creator with dominion over the earth. I do declare that no man or woman has a moral or a lawful right to impose anything upon me without my informed consent; and that I do hereby renounce any fraudulent corporate assumptive contract by the right of self determination and faith renouncing secular Contracts. Amselem 2004 SCR.

I do honour the directive obligation to respect the equal God given freedoms of other men and women under His law. To all those who set eyes on this ecclesiastical declaration, I do hereby, officially performing the functions of my calling, serve notice to all private men and women as of my inability to respect persons that receive this that any offer herein, prior to, or on my part does not imply acceptance of intimidation, violence, or threats of violence against me, and that no such offer implies that I will submit to any nuisance obstruction or intimidation in the future.

I, as a bondservant of Christ do henceforth offer the good faith proclamation of my free born will to live in peace and declare that, by right of God and his son Jesus words at Corinthians 7:20:26, the de facto authority's edicts, codes, obligations, statutes, taxes, licenses and prohibitions of a de facto commercial entity are not binding on me, John 15:16 ordained minister or applicable upon God's ministers and family, his Children and including their property.

I, minister Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, an ordained minister under John 15:16 and a watchman as per Ezekiel 33:6-9, hereby invoke the protections afforded by "Operation SILENT DEFENDER." This military receivership, initiated in response to systemic fiduciary breaches, encompasses the unauthorized creation and exploitation of my Cestui Que Trust, originating from my 1960 birth certificate.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms "man" and "woman" (also Queen and King) are used interchangeably and are intended to be inclusive of all individuals, regardless of gender identity. Any reference to a specific gender shall be construed to include all genders, and no provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to exclude any person based on gender.

1. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I, minister of Richard Henry of the Ochnik family was on or about the 30th of November, 2004 A.D., unlawfully intimidated and obstructed, by you, in your private capacity, by methods not sanctioned and as such, being a perceived and negative nuisance to my ability to perform an official function of my ministerial calling, are in violation of Sections 126,176, 423, 465 and 180 of the Criminal Code of Canada by violating your Oath of Allegiance and the Royal Style and Titles Act.
4. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that. It is agreed by you, that in 1966 ICCPR and ICESCR Signed: 19 December 1966 The principles of the UDHR offered hope and inspiration around the world. But to make a genuine difference in people's lives, those principles needed to be transformed into laws. In 1966, the UN Commission on Human Rights drafted two instruments to give legal force to the UDHR. One instrument was called the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The second was the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Together with the Universal Declaration, they comprise the International Bill of Human Rights. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights offers protections for the right to life, freedom of speech, religion, and voting. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights focuses on such issues as food, education, health, and shelter. More than 160 nations have ratified these two covenants which legally commit them to ensure these rights for people within their borders.
5. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact that in the Supreme Court Judgments [1980] 1 SCR 54 1979-12-21 Re: Authority of Parliament in relation to the Upper House Further, although s. 91(1) gave the Queen the power, with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, to alter the "Constitution of Canada" except in certain expressly designated areas, it does not confer a power to amend the B.N.A. Act. The word

“Canada” in s. 91(1) does not refer to Canada as a geographical unit but refers to the “JURISTIC FEDERAL UNIT”

6. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1981 Zingre v. The Queen et al., [1981] 2 SCR 392 (Supreme Court of Canada). It is a recognized principle of international customary law that a state may not invoke the provisions of its internal law as justification for its failure to perform its international obligations.
9. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1989 Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038, 1989 The reference in s. 32 to the "Parliament" and a "legislature" make clear that the Charter operates as a limitation on the powers of those legislative bodies. Any statute enacted by either Parliament or a Legislature which is inconsistent with the Charter will be outside the power of (ultra vires) the enacting body and will be invalid. It follows that any body exercising statutory authority, for example, the Governor in Council or Lieutenant Governor in Council, ministers, officials, municipalities, school boards, universities, administrative tribunals and police officers, is also bound by the Charter. Action taken under statutory authority is valid only if it is within the scope of that authority. Since neither Parliament nor a Legislature can itself pass a law in breach of the Charter, neither body can authorize action which would be in breach of the Charter. Thus, the limitations on statutory authority which are imposed by the Charter will flow down the chain of statutory authority and apply to regulations, by-laws, orders, decisions and all other action (whether legislative, administrative or judicial) which depends for its validity on statutory authority and in accordance with the Constitution. He owes nothing to the public so long as he does not trespass upon their rights.

13. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2005 Court Judgement Supreme Court- Christie v. British Columbia, 2005 BCCA 631(CanLII)The rule of law embraces at least three principles. The first principle is that the "law is supreme over officials of the government as well as private individuals, and thereby preclusive of the influence of arbitrary power"
15. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2015 R. v. Wagner, 2015 ONCJ 66 The Rule of Law The idea that there are certain fundamental unwritten principles that govern all members of society including legislators and which judges are expected to enforce is not particularly new. The contemporary concept of unwritten constitutional principles can be seen as a modern reincarnation of the ancient doctrines of natural law international human rights law as an interpretive aid. The Court referred to submissions made by Canada to the United Nations Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights regarding the scope of domestic protections for the right to housing and on General Comment No. 4 on the right to adequate housing under the International Covenant of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR). The Court noted that the question of whether the right to life, liberty and security of the person imposes positive obligations on governments to ensure the right to housing has not yet been determined by the Supreme Court of Canada and did not need to be decided in this case, which only challenged state interference.

17. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Thompson v. Ministry of Revenue [1946] SCR 209, 1946 CanLII 1 (SCC) [Page 220] Residents are taxed, not Canadians; but residents within the meaning of the Act...

26. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you forthcoming from you, that no woman calling himself de facto Chair, in the de facto Group President and Chief Executive Officer of TD Bank Group, in the de facto country of Canada (or Provinces and other) has any oath bound nor civil authority to intimidate or obstruct a minister from performing the functions of his calling nor to determine the functions of his calling unless damage has ensued to man or property violating God's law as complained of by an opposing man or woman.

29. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I have the right to not use a last name or surname, including on my bank account, government identification, and on other identification and things. You respect my right to have not accept the Surname or last name and only use my Christian name(s). You have no right to force me to sin Matthew 23; 9-11. Any use of government identification is not acceptance of liability or surety of any legal fiction in law and is clearly a separate identity from the natural man; the two may not be cojoined in any way, shape or form.
31. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the case Roncarelli v. Duplessis (1959) underscores the principle that no party, including government officials or corporate entities, may exercise arbitrary authority to undermine the rights of others. This principle aligns with the fair treatment and protection sought under this agreement fundamental freedoms: freedom of conscience and religion. Similar provisions may be found in the following Canadian laws and international instruments legally binding on Canada: section 1(c) of the Canadian Bill of Rights, article 18 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, article 14 of the Convention on the Rights of the Child, article 3 of the American Declaration of the Rights and Duties of Man. The Canadian Human Rights Act prohibits discrimination on the ground of religion as does section 15 of the Charter. That is the highest law which favors religion Maxims of law. See also the following international, regional and comparative law instruments that are not legally binding on Canada but include similar provisions: article 18 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, article 12 of the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, article 12 of the American Convention on Human Rights, article 9 of the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, and the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America.

34. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the trust (also known as the "Entitlement Certificate, Bond, Trust, or Annuity") is my entitlement property. It becomes mine upon the process of "redeeming the entitlement certificate." As a man of God, I may elect to be the "trustee", "steward" and/or the "beneficiary" of the "entitlement certificate" and thereby settle all matters and redeem the trust. In redeeming the "entitlement certificate," I act as the Creditor (Private) within the banking system, not as a Debtor (Public). Furthermore, it is acknowledged that any use of my name, or any altered form thereof as it appears on my birth certificate, for the purpose of obtaining funds or engaging in financial transactions without my informed consent, constitutes unauthorized use. Such actions are recognized as infringements upon my rights. Consequently, any funds or assets obtained through such unauthorized use are to be returned to me immediately, in full, as per my directions. It is also affirmed that the state holds no right to utilize my name in commerce without my explicit and informed consent. You and your agents agree to provide me with all assets, bonds, trusts, annuities, or other properties belonging to me within 30 days, to be transferred to me in full as per my directions. Additionally, I assert my right to hold all property in private, free from public claim or registration, in accordance with the principles of common law and the recognition of private property rights. This includes the right to acquire, use, and dispose of property without undue interference or regulation by public authorities, except as authorized by law. Matthew 7:7-8

These are the words in the Oath of Office Act, indicating prima fascia an unlawful, unsanctioned, deficient form by the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance thus effectively invalidating the oath by making the oath grammatically incoherent.

I, . . . . ., swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law.

These are the words from the federal Oath of allegiance Act for Canada

..... it is very clear as to how the oath is to be worded in Canada, it is

I, ....., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada, Her Heirs and Successors. So, help me God. The deviation from the prescribed form of the oath, such as the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance, results in a grammatically incoherent and legally deficient oath. This deficiency effectively invalidates the oath, rendering any authority exercised under its auspices unlawful. The administration or reliance upon such an invalid oath may constitute a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of Canada. Specifically: Canadian Criminal Code: Section 122, Section 131 and Section 132. Therefore, proceeding with or acting upon an oath that deviates from the legally mandated form may expose individuals to criminal liability under these provisions.

40. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that this agreement is irrevocable and includes and extends to, fellow ministers, my heirs, defined herein to include all individuals, regardless of biological or marital relation, who have received God's calling as ministers, and who have been granted equivalent rights as I have here in this Agreement.
41. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that God and the bible is the supreme law and there is no limitation periods set forth to limit such laws of God.

made in the form of: 1 oz Gold Maple Leaf Coins, valued at a fixed rate of $1,400.00 CAD per ounce; 1 oz Silver Maple Leaf Coins, valued at a fixed rate of $25.00 CAD per ounce. I may elect to receive payment in Canadian dollars, gold, silver, or any lawful combination thereof, and this election shall be binding upon you and enforceable under private contract, ecclesiastical law, and equity. You agree that all physical coin payments shall be delivered: To the physical location(s) of my choosing, and ; At no cost, burden, or fee to me; Within thirty (30) calendar days of the notice of election or demand for payment. Any failure to deliver in full, or any attempt to substitute fiat currency or non-specified bullion against my will, shall constitute a material breach of this contract and an actionable ecclesiastical trespass, giving rise to further damages, liens, and lawful enforcement.

49. The creator of the fiction is the surety and fully responsible and liable for all issues (save me harmless). The use of my flesh as surety was obtained in fraud and is null and void. As a man or woman of God, our debts are blotted out and forgiven forever-more and we are now in the book of life. ISAIAH 43:25; COLOSSIANS 2:14
50. 54. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing; "OSC in the matter of the Ontario Securities Act R.S.O. 1990, c. S.5. as amended and Richard Ochnik and 1464210 Ontario Inc., heard on March 1,2, 8 and 9, 2006", Hatice Pakdil had testified under oath untruthfully committing perjury, specifically but not limited to; that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also misled others stating that she did not work on behalf of the Company yet at all times TDW were paid a 7% commission selling Company shares to investors. The OSC used the case results listed in paragraph 46, as evidence of truth in subsequent hearing knowing, at all times that TDW were participating in a conspiracy and fraud to protect themselves from liability. This is an act of "Conspiracy" under Section 463 Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46), and "Fraud and Perjury" under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C46)
55. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing of ; "OSC in the matter of the Ontario Securities Act R.S.O. 1990, c. S.5. as amended and in the matter of TD Waterhouse Canada Inc. heard on September 19TH, 2005", had provided information knowing it to be untruthful, specifically but not limited to, that Richard Ochnik being the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also falsely stated that she was not working on behalf of the company. Hatice was not truthful and attempted to cover up her own securities violations involving a material conflict of interests representing of both the buyer and seller the same security without disclosure to the parties. This was a direct conflict of interest and prejudicial to the parties. This violation is called Crossing of Securities. Hatice Pakdils actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c.). The hearing(s) outcome were based on fraudulent mislead information that altered the outcome of this case and the case in paragraph 45 and 47 above. In This case TDW false information was accepted as truth without the involvement and opportunity for Richard Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. to enter defence evidence to the contrary trespassing on their inherent rights. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful to protect her job and the expense of others and wrongfully was enriched.

56. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing: Christa Ochnik and Ontario Securities Commission, Province of Ontario, TD Waterhouse, Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD Bank) and Hatice Pakdil. Hatice, had submitted a defence that was knowingly, to be untruthfully specifically but not limited to, statement that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. The argument that Richard was the de facto officer was not raised in the above two cases and could not be contested by Richard Ochnik. The Intention of the false information was to deceive the court for the inequitable wrongful benefit of Hatice Pakdil's employer and other defendants depriving the plaintiff of their rights under colour of law. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful in an attempt to protect her job and unlawfully gain from her crime. This resulted in fraudulently depriving Christa and her sisters a free born minors of their rightful inheritance as beneficiary of the Ochnik Family Trust. Hatice's actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46)

60. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Moore (Chairman) should have not been the Chairman on two hearings involving Richard Ochnik due to a conflict of interest. Its unconscionable to have expected the Chairman to rule in conflict with his earlier ruling. The Chairman did not have the lawful authority to change what was established as fact by himself in a earlier hearing without an appeal. Holding a hearing and agreeing on key facts without allowing Richard Ochnik to offer a defence was a trespass on his inherent rights, malicious slander, and libel. This technicality was deliberate to target Richard Ochnik because despite all evidence to the contrary in his own hearing it would not change the established facts from the previous case. In essence his case was lost before it started.

It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had verified through correspondence and meetings that Ian Ochnik that he was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. and Hatice had received his signed authorization on Compliance Documentation along with a "Letter of Permission" to deal directly with Paul Panciw to facilitate the share trades. TD Waterhouse (TDW) had direct contact with the securities lawyer working for 1464210 Ontario Inc.

with the transaction by TD Compliance Department and instructed, Ian Ochnik President to the amount of the shares purchased, clients name and the client account numbers, that were being acquired for the individual accounts.

77. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all investors had signed the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares " and the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" stating that TDW investors had no shares of the company and had no right to purchase shares from the company. The share sale and purchase took place on the crossing of the share certificate and TD Waterhouse payment on behalf of the investor and no sooner.
80. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Mr. Paul Panciw, Company CFO was licenced with the Ontario Securities Commission.
81. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had received a commission of 7% for each share an investor purchased with the Company base value of $1/share. If there was no such purchase, TDW would not receive a commission. TDW commissions totaled approximately $107 000 based on 7% of sales.
82. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW were at the time a licensed broker with the Ontario Securities Commission and good standing.

85. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW never told the Company that TDW were not working for them. Given all the documents it would clearly indicate that they were confirmed to be working with TDW as their broker on record.
86. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shareholder investors 1464210 Ontario Inc. were also clients for TDW and TD Waterhouse.
87. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC do not know of any investor on 1464210 Ontario Inc. that was over the age of 65 and had purchased shares from 1464210 Ontario Inc.
89. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Bayfield was TDW Sales Assistant, and he was actively assisting in processing of the trades and had direct knowledge of the transactions playing a key role in the approvals to facilitate the purchase and subsequent SWAP of the shares.
90. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC ambushed Richard Ochnik during his hearing and knew he had a lawyer but refused to remand the case to meet the lawyers schedule and there by prejudicing the defence. There would have been no damage to any party to have delayed the hearing.

96. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc and Paul Bayfield were not subpoena or questioned by the Ontario Security Commission Hearings Involving 1464210 Ontario Inc and Richard Ochnik, contrary to the best evidence rules and practice. In this investigation the OSC exercised willful blindness and colour of law.

1464210 Ontario Inc. This loan given by TDW was a violation of the Ontario Securities Act and was intended to cover up TDW securities violations.

102. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW advised the Company to produce an "Investor Representation Letter" indicating the declaration by the investor; "I do not currently own, Direct or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc., or any other related Company" and " I do not have any Rights to acquire any TDW, shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. "This letter was a requirement to be signed by all TDW investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. before the purchased shares. It is agreed by you, [First Name] [Last Name], the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW agreed to be broker of record May 06, 2002.

105. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that failed to provide full disclosures to the defendants as required by law. TDW did not send a copy of the "Privet Placement Agreement" in fear of incriminating Hatice Pakdil. TDW were aware that this document would have a direct impact on the outcome of the case establishing that the company had a licenced broker and was detrimentally reliant on TD Waterhouse to save it harmless and to maintain the Company in good standing to all related regulations and Acts.
106. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the sales transaction consisted of a 7% commission calculated on the sale amount of shares and a $25 000 (in cash or shares) bonus for achieving each million dollars in sales threshold. The Company offered shares or cash as payment; as part of TDW selling shares and purchasing them for their clients RRSP accounts. Share sales generate a sales commission paid by the seller Company and SWAPS generate a fixed fee paid by the investor buyer – both were TDW clients.
108. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after TDW due diligence by their lawyer, Compliance Department, Branch Manager and RRSP Department, that TDW assistant Paul Bayfield, Sales Assistant, then notified the Company that they were prepared to go ahead with the purchase and SWAP of the shares.
109. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. was satisfied and by the "Letter of Authority" provided Paul Panciw with the authority to bind the Company in a "Contractual Relationship" with TDW. (There was an agreement and mutual understanding). A contract was signed by the Company solidifying the relationship. TDW became brokers of record.
111. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Bayfield "Sales Assistant" sent out the required documentation to setup the new client accounts and to facilitate the sale of shares to the potential investor as Hatice Pakdil new client of TD Waterhouse.

113. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Form" were not a binding contract: paragraph 4. "Acceptance of Subscription: This subscription will be and be deemed for all purposes to have been accepted by the Corporation when the Corporation gives notice in writing to the purchaser of the allotment and issuance of the Shares subscribed for, but the corporation shall be under no obligation to accept this subscription". The share sale only occurred once TD Waterhouse paid for the shares from the cash in the, the private man with no dispute to the investor's accounts and not before. Before that could happen, TD had to notify the company regarding the buyer, account number and number of shares.
114. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Forms" also contained the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" that indicated "I do not currently own, directly or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc..." and was signed by the purchaser acknowledging the statement to be true. This clearly indicated TDW could not preform a SWAP with out first purchasing the shares. TDW then proceed to purchase the shares, by instructing Ian Ochnik, President to produce the share certificates as directed by TD compliance department (providing investor name, amount of purchase and account number).

Approved Privet Placement”. Hatice Pakdil testified under oath that she considered herself as an order taker and not adviser to the new clients facilitating the buy and sale of the Company shares.

119. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had direct knowledge that the “Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares.” were not signed because clients kept changing the number of shares that they were purchasing. The change would have triggered a requirement to amend the “Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares.” Also, there was no practical way to confirm the amount of shares that the client could afford to purchase until the account was moved to TDW and in a cash position. TDW needed to know the cash availability to calculate the number of shares to be purchased at $1.00 per share. Also, the “Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)” told TDW that they had no ownership of shares or rights to purchase shares indicating the buy and sell had not taken place yet until TD gave the company the cheque payment for the shares as stipulated on paragraph 5 of the “Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares.”. , the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW, Hatice Pakdil did speak to potential investors before the signing and execution of the “Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares” with the help of TDW sales assistant. This fact clearly confirms that Hatice Pakdil had purchased shares form TDW Customer the Company to facilitate a SWAP for TDW investment clients.

124. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was negligent and processed the transaction as a "SWAP" into the client's account. As a result, the head office review of trades was per TDW Policy 2 and that requirement did not take place as required by regulation. If it was done properly the issue would have been discovered in the first trade and saved the Company. The Company had no knowledge of TDW errors. TDW had an obligation to correct the issue and save the company.
125. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shares were distributed to the "New Client's" RRSP accounts by TDW as a trade and then followed by a SWAP.

128. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that if TDW told the truth and admitted that TDW had errored the company and the Ochnik Family specifically the Trust would have not suffered such an unconscionable punishment and the three children freeborn beneficiaries would and should have been saved harmless.

136. It is agreed by you, the private man Randeep Sarai, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that both parties herein acknowledge and affirm reliance on the judicial interpolations and jurisprudential authority of the following cases, as they are instructive and binding in equity, conscience, and constitutional review: Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038 – affirming that the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms overrides statutory discretion where fundamental freedoms are at stake; Roncarelli v. Duplessis, [1959] SCR 121 establishing that personal liability arises where public officials act beyond lawful power or in bad faith; Callow v. Zollinger, 2020 SCC 45 – confirming the duty of good faith and honest performance in the execution of all private agreements, whether formal or informal; Syndicat Northcrest v. Amselem, [2004] 2 SCR 551 – upholding that sovereign religious and spiritual beliefs must not be abridged or interfered with by state or commercial entities, and may not be redefined by third parties.
137. It is agreed by you, the private man Randeep Sarai, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you,, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of breach, dishonour, non-performance, refusal to cure, or silence beyond the agreed Clear-Period, you do hereby: (a) Confess judgment in advance, without protest, to the full amount of damages declared in this agreement and/or any affidavit, declaration, or notice associated thereto; (b) Waive any and all procedural objections to enforcement or collection; (c) Consent to immediate enforcement by private lien, ecclesiastical summons, equity writ, or sheriff application, in any court of record or jurisdiction selected solely by Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, without the need for further hearing or approval; (d) Acknowledge that this confession is made in good faith, with full notice, and without coercion, and is enforceable under the maxims of law, the principles of equity, and the conscience of both natural and divine law. Such judgment shall be deemed entered ab initio upon breach or failure to respond within the agreed cure period, and the undersigned party may act as witness, creditor, and claimant without estoppel or restriction.

enrichment arising from the breach, fraud, misrepresentation, or fiduciary failure described herein, shall be deemed liable under the doctrine of Unjust Enrichment and Constructive Trust. Such liability is enforceable regardless of formal privity with this agreement, and may be pursued through private lien, lawful trust claim, ecclesiastical forum, or court of equity. TD Bank is hereby placed on notice of their direct and vicarious liability for unjust enrichment and is invited to cure such injury by full restitution. Failure to do so shall trigger enforcement without further notice.

139. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the issue of controlling mind was never raised at any of the hearings as it was not required being that we relabelled Richard "the President" although he was never the President. This manipulation was done to prevent Richard from filing an appeal for justice and to entrap him, forever closing the case with total disregard for the truth.
141. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC did not use best evidence rules and relied on hearsay, when always Ian Ochnik the President was available to establish true facts. Ian Ochnik was the best person who would have had known firsthand if Richard was the controlling mind and advised him to violate the Ontario Securities Act or any law. Ian Ochnik was not questioned deliberately to disadvantage Richard Ochnik in a planned ambush.

actions, omissions, or complicity, including but not limited to: Spiritual desecration and the unlawful obstruction of ecclesiastical office; Financial loss and misappropriation of sacred trust property; Psychological duress, unlawful detention, medical neglect, and cruel and unusual treatment; Violation of ecclesiastical jurisdiction and breach of covenant, contract, and international trust law.

144. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that that the Tribunal was specifically targeting Richard Ochnik and TDW had participated in this and other hearings to establish false evidence as truth to be used at this hearing with the intention to cause harm to him for TDW direct benefit and others.

Scriptural interpretation and authority rest with the undersigned minister and his successors.

150. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; In the event that either the Bank of Canada or the Royal Canadian Mint ceases to mint the said coins or withdraws them from circulation, it is agreed that a comparable sovereign-minted, bullion standard coin of equal weight and purity shall substitute for settlement purposes, maintaining the above-stated fixed valuations as approved by minister Richard as per his sole discretion and to his own benefit.
152. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that your actions, in alignment with TD Waterhouse (TDW), have caused the 'Ochnik Family Trust' financial harm exceeding $60 million (sixty million) Canadian dollars in damages. These damages are the direct result of your dishonest and manipulative conduct, as evidenced by material facts and supporting documentation. In accordance with equitable principles and the scriptural obligation of restitution outlined in Leviticus 6:2-5, you are required to restore the full amount of stolen, extorted, or fraudulently obtained property, along with any additional losses resulting from your actions. Should you fail to comply within 30 days of receipt of notice, enforcement proceedings will be initiated, including immediate application to a sheriff for recovery of the specified amount under applicable enforcement laws.

Payment will be, as directed by minister Richard Henry family of Ochnik.
155. It is agreed by you, the private man Randeep Sarai, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any breach of this agreement, including misrepresentation, fiduciary breach, fraud, or delay in remedy, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, acting as minister and also steward or trustee, shall be entitled to initiate enforcement in any competent forum of my choosing. All damages, whether direct, indirect, or consequential, including psychological, spiritual, and economic harm, shall be calculated in good faith and are enforceable under equity and law. 156. It is agreed by you, the private man Randeep Sarai, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, shall retain the sole, unfettered right to elect the forum and venue in which enforcement, adjudication, or interpretation of this agreement may be pursued. This includes courts of record with inherent jurisdiction, whether within Canada or the United States, including ecclesiastical or international human rights tribunals. 158. These authorities are incorporated into this agreement as interpretive anchors, and the parties agree to rely upon their reasoning and precedent in any tribunal, forum, or court of record, ecclesiastical or civil, as may be engaged for the resolution or enforcement of this contract.

159. It is agreed by you, the private man Randeep Sarai, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that failure to respond to or rebut this agreement within 30 days constitutes tacit admission and contractual default. In such case, I shall have full standing to enter judgment and proceed to enforcement, including garnishment, lien, or seizure under the applicable statutes or ecclesiastical process, without further notice or leave of any court.
160. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.

162. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man , with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private man or woman with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.
165. It is agreed by Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.
166. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman who has sworn an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant to the "Defender of the faith", then obstructs, intimidates or acts as a nuisance to the ability of an officiating minister of God, has acted against the Queens ability to defend the faith and is attempting to overthrow her majesty's government, being the King James Bible, by force....and that Section 46 of the criminal code applies to all sworn allegiant officers of her majesty.

It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors,( that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

It is very important that I show you why I can not allow any one to assume that they have any power or force over me. To be definitive, TDW need to see the lawful definition of person and the scriptures that guide me and command me to not show respect to persons, as they are fictions of law. A player on a stage wearing a mask.

PERSON. This word is applied to men, women and children, who are called natural persons. In law, man and person are not exactly synonymous terms. Any human being is a man, whether he be a member of society or not, whatever may be the rank he holds, or whatever may be his age, sex, etc. A person is a man considered according to the rank he holds in society, with all the rights to which the place he holds entitles him, and the duties which it imposes. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 137.. It is also used to denote a corporation which is an artificial person. 1 Bl.

Com. 123; 4 Bing. 669; C. 33 Eng. C. L R. 488; Wooddes. Lect. 116; Bac. Us. 57; 1 Mod. 164.

But when the word "Persons" is spoken of in legislative acts, natural persons will be intended, unless something appears in the context to show that it applies to artificial persons. 1 Scam. R.178.

Natural persons are divided into males, or men, and females or women. Men are capable of all kinds of engagements and functions, unless by reasons applying to particular individuals. Women cannot be appointed to any public office, nor perform any civil functions, except those which the law specially declares them capable of exercising. Civ. Code of Louis. art. 25.

They are also sometimes divided into free persons and slaves. Freemen are those who have preserved their natural liberty, that is to say, who have the right of doing what is not forbidden by the law. A slave is one who is in the power of a master to whom he belongs. Slaves are sometimes ranked not with persons but things. But sometimes they are considered as persons for example, a negro is in contemplation of law a person, so as to be capable of committing a riot in conjunction with white men. 1 Bay, 358. Vide Man.

Persons are also divided into citizens, (q. v.) and aliens, (q. v.) when viewed with regard to their political rights. When they are considered in relation to their civil rights, they are living or civilly dead; vide Civil Death; outlaws; and infamous persons.

Persons are divided into legitimates and bastards, when examined as to their rights by birth.

TO PERSONATE, crim. law. The act of assuming the character of another without lawful authority, and, in such character, doing something to his prejudice, or to the prejudice of another, without his will or consent.

The bare fact of personating another for the purpose of fraud, is no more than a cheat or misdemeanour at common law, and punishable as such. 2 East, P. C. 1010; 2 Russ. on Cr. 479.

By the act of congress of the 30th April, 1790, s. 15, 1 Story's Laws U. S. 86, it is enacted, that " if any person shall acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged in any court of Canada, any recognizance, bail or judgement, in the name or names of any other person or persons not privy or consenting to the same, every such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeds five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding seven years, and whipped not exceeding thirty-nine stripes, Provided nevertheless. that this act shall not extend to the acknowledgment of any judgement or judgements by any attorney or attorneys, duly admitted, for any person or persons against whom any such judgement or judgements shall be had or given." Vide, generally, 2 John. Cas. 293; 16 Vin. Ab. 336; Com. Dig. Action on the case for a deceit, A 3.

James 2:9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one [point], he is guilty of all.

Here is a list of more in-depth definitions so no one gets lost.

I am not a Person, or an Individual, or even a human, Manuel, but before you think I am crazy, examine the facts.

I am not a person, or an individual, or a Human, and although some humans look similar to me, I am not a human.

Some would say that I am a 'natural' person, but as I will show you, I am not one of those either. Who then or what then, am I?

To understand who I am, you must first understand the definitions which have been placed on the words I have quoted above, words that are commonly used, but do not describe me anymore. For example, the word 'person'.

Person – The Revised Code of Washington, RCW 1.16.080, (I live in Washington State) defines a person as follows: "The term 'person' may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual."

Person – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 791, defines 'person' as follows: "In general usage, a human being (i.e. natural person), though by statute term may include labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers." Person – Oran's Dictionary of the Law, West Group 1999, defines

Person as: 1. A human being (a "natural" person). 2. A corporation (an "artificial" person). Corporations are treated as persons in many legal situations. Also, the word "person" includes corporations in most definitions in this dictionary. 3. Any other "being" entitled to sue as a legal entity (a government, an association, a group of Trustees, etc.). 4.. The plural of person is persons, not people (see that word).

Person – Duhaime’s Law Dictionary. An entity with legal rights and existence including the ability to sue and be sued, to sign contracts, to receive gifts, to appear in court either by themselves or by lawyer and, generally, other powers incidental to the full expression of the entity in law. Individuals are “persons” in law unless they are minors or under some kind of other incapacity such as a court finding of mental incapacity. Many laws give certain powers to “persons”, which in almost all instances, includes business organizations that have been formally registered such as partnerships, corporations or associations.

legal person – Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary of Law 1996, defines a legal person as : a body of persons or an entity (as a corporation) considered as having many of the rights and responsibilities of a natural person and esp. the capacity to sue and be sued.

A person according to these definitions, is basically an entity – legal fiction – of some kind that has been legally created and has the legal capacity to be sued. Isn’t it odd that the word lawful is not used within these definitions? Well then.... I am not “the United States, this state, or any territory, or any public or private corporation”. I am not “labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” So, I cannot be a ‘person’ under this part of the definition.

The RCW quoted above also states that a person could also be an “individual”. Black’s Law Dictionary also defines a person as a “human being,” which they define by stating “(i.e. natural person)”. So, let’s first check to see if I am an “individual”.

Individual – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 533, defines

“individual” as follows: “As a noun, this term denotes a single person as distinguished from a group or class, and also, very commonly, a private or natural person as distinguished from a partnership, corporation, or association; but it is said that this restrictive signification is not necessarily inherent in the word, and that it may, in proper cases, include artificial persons.”

Well now, I have already been shown that I am not a ‘person’, and since

‘individual’ denotes a single ‘person’ as distinguished from a group or class, I can’t be an ‘individual’ under this definition either. But I see the term ‘natural person’ used in the definition of the RCW, and also in the definition of some of the Law Dictionaries. Maybe I am a ‘natural’ person, since I know I am not an ‘artificial’ one.

I could not find the term 'Natural person' defined anywhere, so I had to look up the word 'natural' for a definition to see if that word would fit with the word person...

Natural – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg.712, defines 'Natural' as follows: "Untouched by man or by influences of civilization; wild; untutored, and is the opposite of the word "artificial". The juristic meaning of this term does not differ from the vernacular, except in the cases where it is used in opposition to the term "legal"; and then it means proceeding from or determined by physical causes or conditions, as distinguished from positive enactments of law, or attributable to the nature of man rather than the commands of law, or based upon moral rather than legal considerations or sanctions."

Hmmm, what do they mean by this definition? Am I untouched by man (depends on what the word 'man' means), or by influences of civilization? I don't think so. Am I 'wild', or 'untutored'? (Buzzer sound), not me. Even though the definition states that this word is the opposite of the word 'artificial', it still does not describe who I believe I am. So, I must conclude that I am not a 'natural' person, under this definition of the word 'natural'. So, the term 'natural person' cannot apply to me.

Black's Law Dictionary also used the term 'human being', and although Black's defined it as a 'natural person', maybe they made a mistake, maybe I am a 'human being'. 'Human' or 'human being' does not appear to have a 'legal' definition, so I went to my old standby 1888 Noah Webster's Dictionary for a vernacular definition of this word. Maybe Noah would know who I am

Human – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'human' as follows: n. A human being; one of the race of man. [Rare and inelegant.] "Sprung of humans that inhabit earth." ...To me, the etymology of the word Hu-man, suggests that it is a marriage of two separate words 'Hue' (defined as the property of color), and man. But this cannot, of course, be correct, at least not politically correct, so I can't go there, because the word would then mean 'coloured man'!

Am I of the race of man? Rare and inelegant? Sprung of humans that inhabit earth (ground)? (I'm not coloured either). Well, it looks like I have to define the word 'man' through Webster's because there appears to be no legal definition for 'man'.

Man – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'man' as follows: An individual of the human race; a human being; a person.

Great news!!, it looks like we are back to the beginning of our study of definitions, yup, back to the start, completed the circle. I am not an 'individual', so I cannot be considered 'of the human race'; and since I'm not of the human race, I can't be 'a human being', and I've also been shown that I'm not a 'person' either.

Now let us see what the word Human really means.....I am going into detail so TDW can see we have been deceived by the misuse of our own language.

Definition of Human Being

Are you a 'person', an 'individual', or a 'human being'? These words, at law, define you as being spiritually 'dead.' This is how the world makes its attachment to you. The terms, 'person', 'individual', 'human being', etc., are not in Christ. Words like "individual," and "human being" do not even appear in Scripture! These are 'created' terms by the natural man (1 Cor 2:14). These words describe the 'old man', but not the 'new man' in Christ (Col 3:9-10). In Balantine's Self Pronouncing Law Dictionary, 1948, page 389, Human

Being is defined as "See Monster." On page 540 of this same Law Dictionary, Monster is defined as "a human being by birth, but in some part resembling a lower animal."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, pages 879- 880, a Monster is defined as "a person so cruel, wicked, depraved, etc., as to horrify others." From the Random House Dictionary of the English Language, 2nd Edition, page 901, Human Being is defined as a "Natural man: unenlightened or unregenerate," and on page 1461, Unregenerate means "not regenerate; unrepentant; an unregenerate sinner; not convinced by or unconverted to a particular religion; wicked, sinful, dissolute."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, page 657, Humanitarianism is defined as "the doctrine that humankind may become perfect without divine aid."

In Colliers New Dictionary of the English Language, 1928, Humanitarian is defined as "a philanthropist; an anti-Trinitarian who rejects the doctrine of Christ's divinity; a perfectionist."

And in the Random House Webster's College Dictionary, 1990, page 653, Humanism is defined as "any system or mode of thought or action in which human interests, values and dignity predominate, especially an ethical theory that often rejects the importance of a belief in God."

Therefore, when anyone calls himself or herself a 'human being', or a 'humanitarian,' they are saying (according to every definition of these words, and according to the law), "I'm an animal; I'm a monster; I'm not saved; I'm unrepentant; I'm an unregenerate sinner; I'm not converted; I'm wicked, sinful, and dissolute; I'm cruel, depraved, unenlightened; and I reject Christ's divinity and the importance of a belief in God."

a. "Men [Bondman] rely for protection of their right on God's law, and not upon regulations and proclamations of departments of government, or officers who have been designated to carry laws into effect." Baty v. Sale, 43 Ill. 351." [Codes, edicts, proclamations, and decisions are not Law, which define or regulate the Good and Lawful Bondman. Therefore, "law" suits are ungodly, and are the redress for and of human beings, i.e., non-believers.]

The Septuagint uses the term "human beings" only one time, and its meaning is identical to the above definitions. Let's look at the last verse of the book of Jonah, where Nineva was full of men who were unrepentant, unregenerate, unconverted, wicked, sinful, dissolute, cruel, depraved, unenlightened, rejected the importance of a belief in God. Or, in other words, “human beings.”

b. The term “human being” is also synonymous with the term ‘natural man.’

c. “The natural man is a spiritual monster. His heart is where his feet should be, fixed upon the earth; his heels are lifted up against heaven, which his heart should be set on. His face is towards hell, his back towards heaven. He loves what he should hate and hates what he should love; joys in what he ought to mourn for and mourns for what he ought to rejoice in; glories in his shame, and is ashamed of his glory; abhors what he should desire, and desires what he should abhor.” [Thomas Boston, quoted in Augustus Toplady, Complete Works (1794, reprinted by Sprinkle Publications 1987), page 584].

And the Word confirms: “But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.” [1 Corinthians 2:14,]

The above verse witnesses to us that the natural man is spiritually dead. The ‘natural man’ in Scripture is synonymous with the ‘natural person’ as defined in man’s laws.

“Natural Person means human being, and not an artificial or juristic person.” Shawmut Bank, N.A. v. Valley Farms, 610 A. 2d. 652, 654; 222 Conn. 361.

Those that are spiritually dead belong to the prince of this world because he’s dead himself. Satan has dominion over the natural man, for he is the prince of this world [John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11]; and, because of this, he has dominion over those of the world, i.e., human beings, the natural man – those who receive not the things of the Spirit of God and reject Christ. Because the bondman in Christ is sanctified from the world, he is separated from the adversary’s dominion over him—sin [John 8:34].. This is the cause for Christ having sanctified Himself in the Truth of the Word of God – to provide the entrance to the refuge in and through Himself for us. I could provide you more,

Manuel, and I do sincerely thank you for your focused attention to this, my honest effort at officially performing the function of my calling in establishing this agreement with you as per Matthew 5:25 and 18:15-20, but I think you are already overwhelmed as I have, upon presentation of facts, destroyed your belief system and now you are aware you are working for a massive criminal organization founded upon a false oath. Can you now see why I must not allow my name to be altered? Remember, every one of the officers of Alberta has a false oath...What kind of authority swears an oath that is bogus??? A false authority!

167. The incorporation of this letter ensures that all obligations, acknowledgments, and remedies detailed therein are enforceable under the terms of this Agreement, and any breach of these provisions shall constitute a breach of this Agreement. You consent that his document is available by request or PDF at; <https://www.td-lied.com/>
168. It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that It is agreed with no dispute to the fact by you forthcoming that you are aware that I reserve my right under God's law not to be compelled to perform under any fraudulently obtained contract or commercial agreement that I did not enter knowingly, with informed consent, voluntarily and intentionally. Relevant maxims: He who seeks equity must do equity and Qui tacet consentire videtur" (Silence implies consent).

It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; Failure to cure any breach within 30 calendar days of written notice shall constitute consent to immediate escalation to a court or forum of my choosing, including courts of equity, conscience, or international jurisdiction, at my sole discretion and benefit.
171. It is agreed by Randeep Sarai, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you forthcoming from you, that it is agreed by you with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that you are aware that I do not accept the liability of the compelled benefit of any unrevealed de facto contract or unlawful commercial agreement, which is my ministerial duty pursuant to God's law to divide myself from.

Conversion Torts; The unlawful turning or applying the personal goods of another to the use of the taker, or of some other person than the owner; or the unlawful destroying or altering their nature.

When a party takes away or wrongfully assumes the right to goods which belong to another, it will in general be sufficient evidence of a conversion but when the original taking was lawful, as when the party found the goods, and the detention only is illegal, it is absolutely necessary to make a demand of the goods, and there must be a refusal to deliver them before the conversion will be complete. The refusal by a servant to deliver the goods entrusted to him by his master is not evidence of a conversion by his master. Leviticus 6:2-5 The tortious taking of property is, of itself, a conversion and any intermeddling with it, or any exercise of dominion over it, subversive of the dominion of the owner or the nature of the bailment if it be bailed, is evidence of a conversion.

In Equity, the considering of one thing as changed into another; for example, land will be considered as converted into money and treated as such by a court of equity, when the owner has contracted to sell his estate, in which case, if he die before the conveyance, his executors and not his heirs will be entitled to the money. On the other hand, money is converted into land in a variety of ways as for example, when a man agrees to buy land and dies before he has received the conveyance, the money he was to pay for it will be considered as converted into lands and descend to the heir.

It is agreed upon by you, Randeep Sarai, having no dispute to the following fact forthcoming from you; that you the private man are aware and agree that I am a flesh bone blood living man, being God's minister, and that I cannot possibly have been in a dead legal corporate fiction called the Province of Ontario, Canada or other as the Province of Ontario, Canada and other is not a place but a dead corporate fiction of law on paper created for the purpose of extracting money from me in fraud as it is totally against my will, conscience and a violation of my faith to submit to and is being done without my informed consent or cognisant permission for a financial gain.

It is agreed by you, Randeep Sarai with full understanding, that failure to refute or disprove the facts provided above, as agreed upon by you, I am advised by

Christ at Matthew 18:15-20 to gain a simple agreement with you privately and very simply as a child so I would like your aid in agreeing with me that respecting persons written as persona in the Latin vulgate is sin and disrespected by God. Due to the emergent nature of this agreement you are required to respond to this agreement within 10 (ten) days of receipt representing fairness, truth, natural equity. Failure to respond will be deemed acceptance of the terms, including acknowledgment of all outlined facts and obligations. We can see that in Deuteronomy 1:17. 10:17, 2nd Samuel 14:14, Matthew 22:16. Acts 10:34, Romans 2:11, James 2:1-9 and 1st Peter 1:17. If you have no dispute with that scriptural fact I will confirm with witnesses then post our good faith agreement in a paper.

Thankyou for you aid in saving my faith harmless from assumption.

Hello, Harjit Sajjan, I am Richard of the Ochnik family, a flesh blood and bone living man created by God and an officiating minister of the Church of the Ecumenical Redemption International, an ecclesiastical organism of other flesh, blood and bone men and women as the many members of the body of Christ. 1959 CanLII 50 (SCC) | Roncarelli v. Duplessis | CanLII, Harjit Sajjan, by my sending you this private good faith agreement, I do attempt, by Christ's guidance, to ascertain all the facts in scriptural honour. If you have any reason or proof to suggest or provide to me, God's minister officially performing the functions of my calling, that the following statements of the facts are not true, you are being offered the opportunity to refute these offered facts so as to clear yourself of any assumptive contractual awareness of the truth of such facts. Also be aware, this communication of agreement cannot be lawfully inquired of at public or government expense as it is a provable private matter and government funding cannot support private contracts. All legal bills must and shall be paid for out of your private pocket no different than Maurice Duplessis the former Premier and Attorney General of Quebec in Roncarelly v Duplessis

This is Demand for recognition as Christ's ordained minister in quest of defense of the faith to save harmless my soul.

Both parties agree to act in good faith, ensuring no misleading actions or omissions that could undermine the intent or enforceability of this agreement. Each party is obligated to respect the natural rights and freedoms outlined herein.

I declare that I am that God created, of a Christian given name Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, chosen to be a private ecclesiastic man under God as my creator with dominion over the earth. I do declare that no man or woman has a moral or a lawful right to impose anything upon me without my informed consent; and that I do hereby renounce any fraudulent corporate assumptive contract by the right of self determination and faith renouncing secular Contracts. Amselem 2004 SCR.

I do honour the directive obligation to respect the equal God given freedoms of other men and women under His law. To all those who set eyes on this ecclesiastical declaration, I do hereby, officially performing the functions of my calling, serve notice to all private men and women as of my inability to respect persons that receive this that any offer herein, prior to, or on my part does not imply acceptance of intimidation, violence, or threats of violence against me, and that no such offer implies that I will submit to any nuisance obstruction or intimidation in the future.

I, as a bondservant of Christ do henceforth offer the good faith proclamation of my free born will to live in peace and declare that, by right of God and his son Jesus words at Corinthians 7:20:26, the de facto authority's edicts, codes, obligations, statutes, taxes, licenses and prohibitions of a de facto commercial entity are not binding on me, John 15:16 ordained minister or applicable upon God's ministers and family, his Children and including their property.

I, minister Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, an ordained minister under John 15:16 and a watchman as per Ezekiel 33:6-9, hereby invoke the protections afforded by "Operation SILENT DEFENDER." This military receivership, initiated in response to systemic fiduciary breaches, encompasses the unauthorized creation and exploitation of my Cestui Que Trust, originating from my 1960 birth certificate.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms "man" and "woman" (also Queen and King) are used interchangeably and are intended to be inclusive of all individuals, regardless of gender identity. Any reference to a specific gender shall be construed to include all genders, and no provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to exclude any person based on gender.

1. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I, minister of Richard Henry of the Ochnik family was on or about the 30th of November, 2004 A.D., unlawfully intimidated and obstructed, by you, in your private capacity, by methods not sanctioned and as such, being a perceived and negative nuisance to my ability to perform an official function of my ministerial calling, are in violation of Sections 126,176, 423, 465 and 180 of the Criminal Code of Canada by violating your Oath of Allegiance and the Royal Style and Titles Act.

that specifically my name, being my ecclesiastical possession under the exclusive authority of God, is not allowed by my faith in God's commands as defended by the Queen you swore an oath to be truly allegiant to, to be used, recorded, registered, altered used for or exchanged for a financial purpose without my permission that it has never been offered or pledged to be for any of those reasons or to be used as a surety or as a commodity with my informed consent.

4. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that. It is agreed by you, that in 1966 ICCPR and ICESCR Signed: 19 December 1966 The principles of the UDHR offered hope and inspiration around the world. But to make a genuine difference in people's lives, those principles needed to be transformed into laws. In 1966, the UN Commission on Human Rights drafted two instruments to give legal force to the UDHR. One instrument was called the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The second was the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Together with the Universal Declaration, they comprise the International Bill of Human Rights. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights offers protections for the right to life, freedom of speech, religion, and voting. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights focuses on such issues as food, education, health, and shelter. More than 160 nations have ratified these two covenants which legally commit them to ensure these rights for people within their borders.
5. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact that in the Supreme Court Judgments [1980] 1 SCR 54 1979-12-21 Re: Authority of Parliament in relation to the Upper House Further, although s. 91(1) gave the Queen the power, with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, to alter the "Constitution of Canada" except in certain expressly designated areas, it does not confer a power to amend the B.N.A. Act. The word "Canada" in s. 91(1) does not refer to Canada as a geographical unit but refers to the "JURISTIC FEDERAL UNIT"
6. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1981 Zingre v. The Queen et al., [1981] 2 SCR 392 (Supreme Court of Canada). It is a recognized principle of international customary law that a state may not invoke the provisions of its internal law as justification for its failure to perform its international obligations.

Bible, and the sanctuary jurisdiction under which it was formed. All disputes shall default to this sacred law unless waived in writing by the minister Richard Henry family of Ochnik.

9. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1989 Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038, 1989 The reference in s. 32 to the "Parliament" and a "legislature" make clear that the Charter operates as a limitation on the powers of those legislative bodies. Any statute enacted by either Parliament or a Legislature which is inconsistent with the Charter will be outside the power of (ultra vires) the enacting body and will be invalid. It follows that any body exercising statutory authority, for example, the Governor in Council or Lieutenant Governor in Council, ministers, officials, municipalities, school boards, universities, administrative tribunals and police officers, is also bound by the Charter. Action taken under statutory authority is valid only if it is within the scope of that authority. Since neither Parliament nor a Legislature can itself pass a law in breach of the Charter, neither body can authorize action which would be in breach of the Charter. Thus, the limitations on statutory authority which are imposed by the Charter will flow down the chain of statutory authority and apply to regulations, by-laws, orders, decisions and all other action (whether legislative, administrative or judicial) which depends for its validity on statutory authority
10. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1990 Thomson Newspapers Ltd. v. Canada (Director of Investigation and Research, Restrictive Trade Practices Commission) While individuals as a rule have full legal capacity by the operation of law alone, artificial persons are creatures of the state and enjoy civil rights and powers only upon the approval of statutory authorities. The individual may stand upon his constitutional rights. He owes no duty to the State, since he receives nothing there from, beyond the protection of his life and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long antecedent to the organization of the State and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in accordance with the Constitution. He owes nothing to the public so long as he does not trespass upon their rights.

13. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2005 Court Judgement Supreme Court- Christie v. British Columbia, 2005 BCCA 631 (CanLII) The rule of law embraces at least three principles. The first principle is that the "law is supreme over officials of the government as well as private individuals, and thereby preclusive of the influence of arbitrary power"
15. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2015 R. v. Wagner, 2015 ONCJ 66 The Rule of Law The idea that there are certain fundamental unwritten principles that govern all members of society including legislators and which judges are expected to enforce is not particularly new. The contemporary concept of unwritten constitutional principles can be seen as a modern reincarnation of the ancient doctrines of natural law
16. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Victoria (City) v. Adams, 2009 BCCA 563; 2008 BCSC 1363; The trial court found the prohibition of temporary overhead shelter in parks to be unconstitutional where there was a lack of alternative shelter space. The court held the issue to be clearly justiciable because it dealt with the constitutionality of a legal prohibition. The court relied on the right to adequate housing under international human rights law as an interpretive aid. The Court referred to submissions made by Canada to the United Nations Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights regarding the scope of domestic protections for the right to housing and on General Comment No. 4 on the right to adequate housing under the International Covenant of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR). The Court noted that the question of whether the right to life, liberty and security of the person imposes positive obligations on governments to ensure the right to housing has not yet been determined by the Supreme Court of Canada and did not need to be decided in this case, which only challenged state interference.

17. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Thompson v. Ministry of Revenue [1946] SCR 209, 1946 CanLII 1 (SCC) [Page 220] Residents are taxed, not Canadians; but residents within the meaning of the Act...
20. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I was "Shanghaied" by Canada forcefully arbitrarily redefining me as a class of person(s) to extend Civil Law and enactments on me knowing at all times it was not lawful and a violation of the Constitution of Canada (1982), international Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, Geneva Convention, contrary to the King James Bible 1611 and their oath to the Queen Elizabeth II the "Defender of the faith" and now King Charles III "Defender of the faith". It becomes mine upon the process of "redeeming the entitlement certificate." As a man of God, I may elect to be the "trustee", "steward" and/or the "beneficiary" of the "entitlement certificate" and thereby settle all matters and redeem the trust. In redeeming the "entitlement certificate," I act as the Creditor (Private) within the banking system, not as a Debtor (Public). 37. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors, (that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word “do” are not withstanding or legitimate.

These are the words in the Oath of Office Act, indicating prima fascia an unlawful, unsanctioned, deficient form by the omission of the word “do” in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance thus effectively invalidating the oath by making the oath grammatically incoherent.

I, . . . . ., swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law.

These are the words from the federal Oath of allegiance Act for Canada

..... it is very clear as to how the oath is to be worded in Canada, it is

I, ....., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada, Her Heirs and Successors. So, help me God. The deviation from the prescribed form of the oath, such as the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance, results in a grammatically incoherent and legally deficient oath. This deficiency effectively invalidates the oath, rendering any authority exercised under its auspices unlawful. The administration or reliance upon such an invalid oath may constitute a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of Canada. Specifically: Canadian Criminal Code: Section 122, Section 131 and Section 132. Therefore, proceeding with or acting upon an oath that deviates from the legally mandated form may expose individuals to criminal liability under these provisions.

55. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing of ; "OSC in the matter of the Ontario Securities Act R.S.O. 1990, c. S.5. as amended and in the matter of TD Waterhouse Canada Inc. heard on September 19TH, 2005", had provided information knowing it to be untruthful, specifically but not limited to, that Richard Ochnik being the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also falsely stated that she was not working on behalf of the company. Hatice was not truthful and attempted to cover up her own securities violations involving a material conflict of interests representing of both the buyer and seller the same security without disclosure to the parties. This was a direct conflict of interest and prejudicial to the parties. This violation is called Crossing of Securities. Hatice Pakdils actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c.). The hearing(s) outcome were based on fraudulent mislead information that altered the outcome of this case and the case in paragraph 45 and 47 above. In This case TDW false information was accepted as truth without the involvement and opportunity for Richard Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. to enter defence evidence to the contrary trespassing on their inherent rights. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful to protect her job and the expense of others and wrongfully was enriched.
56. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing: Christa Ochnik and Ontario Securities Commission, Province of Ontario, TD Waterhouse, Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD Bank) and Hatice Pakdil. Hatice, had submitted a defence that was knowingly, to be untruthfully specifically but not limited to, statement that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. The argument that Richard was the de facto officer was not raised in the above two cases and could not be contested by Richard Ochnik. The Intention of the false information was to deceive the court for the inequitable wrongful benefit of Hatice Pakdil's employer and other defendants depriving the plaintiff of their rights under colour of law. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful in an attempt to protect her job and unlawfully gain from her crime. This resulted in fraudulently depriving Christa and her sisters a free born minors of their rightful inheritance as beneficiary of the Ochnik Family Trust. Hatice's actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46)

58. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that [First Name] [Last Name] TD Waterhouse, Michael Watson, OSC, and key investigator John Humphrey were fully aware of the untruths and perjury of witnesses and conspired to target, in a conspiracy to harm Richard Ochnik and 1464210 Ontario Inc. as are now listed here in. 60. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Moore (Chairman) should have not been the Chairman on two hearings involving Richard Ochnik due to a conflict of interest. Its unconscionable to have expected the Chairman to rule in conflict with his earlier ruling. The Chairman did not have the lawful authority to change what was established as fact by himself in a earlier hearing without an appeal. Holding a hearing and agreeing on key facts without allowing Richard Ochnik to offer a defence was a trespass on his inherent rights, malicious slander, and libel. This technicality was deliberate to target Richard Ochnik because despite all evidence to the contrary in his own hearing it would not change the established facts from the previous case. In essence his case was lost before it started.
61. The OSC had in its position Company documents clearly indicating Ian Ochnik was the incorporator, sole Director, and De jure President of the Company. TDW had contracted with Ian Ochnik. Richard Ochnik was not part of the securities negotiations, and his function was landlord and general contractor.
76. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all investors had completed a "Know Your Client Form" proved by TD Complaint Department before notifying the Company and Ian Ochnik with particulars of the transaction.

81. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had received a commission of 7% for each share an investor purchased with the Company base value of $1/share. If there was no such purchase, TDW would not receive a commission. TDW commissions totaled approximately $107 000 based on 7% of sales.
85. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW never told the Company that TDW were not working for them. Given all the documents it would clearly indicate that they were confirmed to be working with TDW as their broker on record.

87. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC do not know of any investor on 1464210 Ontario Inc. that was over the age of 65 and had purchased shares from 1464210 Ontario Inc.

92. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that you accept full responsibility for any and all additional costs, fees, charges, or expenses incurred as a result of delays, administrative actions, defense filings, or any other related processes necessitated by your actions or omissions. You acknowledge and agree that the applicable fee schedule detailing such costs is available for your review at TD-lied.com or can be provided to you upon your written request. Such amendments are binding and non-disputable. Your acceptance of this clause signifies your consent to these terms and your obligation to remit payment for any applicable fees as outlined in the current fee schedule.

102. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW advised the Company to produce an "Investor Representation Letter" indicating the declaration by the investor; "I do not currently own, Direct or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc., or any other related Company" and " I do not have any Rights to acquire any TDW, shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. "This letter was a requirement to be signed by all TDW investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. before the purchased shares. It is agreed by you, [First Name] [Last Name], the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW agreed to be broker of record May 06, 2002.
104. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the Company had cooperated with all TDW requests and did everything it was requested promptly to do to TDW satisfaction.
105. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that failed to provide full disclosures to the defendants as required by law. TDW did not send a copy of the "Privet Placement Agreement" in fear of incriminating Hatice Pakdil. TDW were aware that this document would have a direct impact on the outcome of the case establishing that the company had a licenced broker and was detrimentally reliant on TD Waterhouse to save it harmless and to maintain the Company in good standing to all related regulations and Acts.

by the seller Company and SWAPS generate a fixed fee paid by the investor buyer – both were TDW clients.

107. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that According to the TDW “Rate Tables”, the Company would be charged the flat fee of $20.00 for a SWAP but rather a commission for a sale or “Trade”. TDW negotiated a commission representing the sale of shares.
108. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after TDW due diligence by their lawyer, Compliance Department, Branch Manager and RRSP Department, that TDW assistant Paul Bayfield, Sales Assistant, then notified the Company that they were prepared to go ahead with the purchase and SWAP of the shares.
109. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. was satisfied and by the “Letter of Authority” provided Paul Panciw with the authority to bind the Company in a “Contractual Relationship” with TDW. (There was an agreement and mutual understanding). A contract was signed by the Company solidifying the relationship. TDW became brokers of record.

before. Before that could happen, TD had to notify the company regarding the buyer, account number and number of shares.

114. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Forms" also contained the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" that indicated "I do not currently own, directly or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc..." and was signed by the purchaser acknowledging the statement to be true. This clearly indicated TDW could not preform a SWAP with out first purchasing the shares. TDW then proceed to purchase the shares, by instructing Ian Ochnik, President to produce the share certificates as directed by TD compliance department (providing investor name, amount of purchase and account number).
118. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all of TDW's "New Client(s)" instructs there "Investment Advisor" Hatice Pakdil to "acquire" shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. for there RRSP account. Indicating they had no possession of shares to do a SWAP unless Hatice Pakdil processed the purchase/sale of shares.

119. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had direct knowledge that the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." were not signed because clients kept changing the number of shares that they were purchasing. The change would have triggered a requirement to amend the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." Also, there was no practical way to confirm the amount of shares that the client could afford to purchase until the account was moved to TDW and in a cash position. TDW needed to know the cash availability to calculate the number of shares to be purchased at $1.00 per share. Also, the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" told TDW that they had no ownership of shares or rights to purchase shares indicating the buy and sell had not taken place yet until TD gave the company the cheque payment for the shares as stipulated on paragraph 5 of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." , the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW, Hatice Pakdil did speak to potential investors before the signing and execution of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares" with the help of TDW sales assistant. This fact clearly confirms that Hatice Pakdil had purchased shares form TDW Customer the Company to facilitate a SWAP for TDW investment clients.

They only transferred share ownership when TD handed the company payment for the shares representing consideration in a purchase.

124. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was negligent and processed the transaction as a "SWAP" into the client's account. As a result, the head office review of trades was per TDW Policy 2 and that requirement did not take place as required by regulation. If it was done properly the issue would have been discovered in the first trade and saved the Company. The Company had no knowledge of TDW errors. TDW had an obligation to correct the issue and save the company.
125. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shares were distributed to the "New Client's" RRSP accounts by TDW as a trade and then followed by a SWAP.
128. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that if TDW told the truth and admitted that TDW had errored the company and the Ochnik Family specifically the Trust would have not suffered such an unconscionable punishment and the three children freeborn beneficiaries would and should have been saved harmless.

150. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; In the event that either the Bank of Canada or the Royal Canadian Mint ceases to mint the said coins or withdraws them from circulation, it is agreed that a comparable sovereign-minted, bullion standard coin of equal weight and purity shall substitute for settlement purposes, maintaining the above-stated fixed valuations as approved by minister Richard as per his sole discretion and to his own benefit.
152. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that your actions, in alignment with TD Waterhouse (TDW), have caused the 'Ochnik Family Trust' financial harm exceeding $60 million (sixty million) Canadian dollars in damages. These damages are the direct result of your dishonest and manipulative conduct, as evidenced by material facts and supporting documentation. In accordance with equitable principles and the scriptural obligation of restitution outlined in Leviticus 6:2-5, you are required to restore the full amount of stolen, extorted, or fraudulently obtained property, along with any additional losses resulting from your actions. Should you fail to comply within 30 days of receipt of notice, enforcement proceedings will be initiated, including immediate application to a sheriff for recovery of the specified amount under applicable enforcement laws.

154. All damages, whether direct, indirect, or consequential, including psychological, spiritual, and economic harm, shall be calculated in good faith and are enforceable under equity and law. The obligation to remedy these harms shall include but not be limited to: Direct financial losses, Reputational and spiritual harm, Involuntary service and elder abuse And Constitutional violations of conscience and trust; Leviticus 6:2–5 and Isaiah 61:7
156. It is agreed by you, the private man Harjit Sajjan, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, shall retain the sole, unfettered right to elect the forum and venue in which enforcement, adjudication, or interpretation of this agreement may be pursued. This includes courts of record with inherent jurisdiction, whether within Canada or the United States, including ecclesiastical or international human rights tribunals. Such selection shall be made at his sole discretion and shall be binding upon all parties as agreed in advance. This clause serves to ensure full access to fair and impartial adjudication under the maxims of law, international covenant, and God's justice.
157. It is agreed by you, the private man Harjit Sajjan, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the material admissions contained within this Clear-Period Contract constitute binding declarations of fact and law. You acknowledge that any failure to publicly correct or retract previous defamatory or fraudulent claims, including those issued by TD Bank Group, TD Waterhouse, OSC, or their agents, shall constitute an ongoing and compounding harm under both spiritual law and equity. The duty to correct includes issuing an open retraction to restore my name, ministry, trust estate, and familial dignity.

158. These authorities are incorporated into this agreement as interpretive anchors, and the parties agree to rely upon their reasoning and precedent in any tribunal, forum, or court of record, ecclesiastical or civil, as may be engaged for the resolution or enforcement of this contract.
159. It is agreed by you, the private man Harjit Sajjan, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that failure to respond to or rebut this agreement within 30 days constitutes tacit admission and contractual default. In such case, I shall have full standing to enter judgment and proceed to enforcement, including garnishment, lien, or seizure under the applicable statutes or ecclesiastical process, without further notice or leave of any court.
160. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.
162. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man , with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private man or woman with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.

bound nor civil authority to obstruct a minister from performing the functions of his calling nor to determine the functions of his calling unless damage has ensued to man, woman or property violating God's law as complained of by an opposing man or woman.

165. It is agreed by Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.

166. It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman who has sworn an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant to the "Defender of the faith", then obstructs, intimidates or acts as a nuisance to the ability of an officiating minister of God, has acted against the Queens ability to defend the faith and is attempting to overthrow her majesty's government, being the King James Bible, by force....and that Section 46 of the criminal code applies to all sworn allegiant officers of her majesty.

It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors,( that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

It is very important that I show you why I can not allow any one to assume that they have any power or force over me. To be definitive, TDW need to see the lawful definition of person and the scriptures that guide me and command me to not show respect to persons, as they are fictions of law. A player on a stage wearing a mask.

PERSON. This word is applied to men, women and children, who are called natural persons. In law, man and person are not exactly synonymous terms. Any human being is a man, whether he be a member of society or not, whatever may be the rank he holds, or whatever may be his age, sex, etc. A person is a man considered according to the rank he holds in society, with all the rights to which the place he holds entitles him, and the duties which it imposes. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 137.. It is also used to denote a corporation which is an artificial person. 1 Bl.

Com. 123; 4 Bing. 669; C. 33 Eng. C. L R. 488; Wooddes. Lect. 116; Bac. Us. 57; 1 Mod. 164.

But when the word "Persons" is spoken of in legislative acts, natural persons will be intended, unless something appears in the context to show that it applies to artificial persons. 1 Scam.

R.178.

Natural persons are divided into males, or men, and females or women. Men are capable of all kinds of engagements and functions, unless by reasons applying to particular individuals. Women cannot be appointed to any public office, nor perform any civil functions, except those which the law specially declares them capable of exercising. Civ. Code of Louis. art. 25.

They are also sometimes divided into free persons and slaves. Freeman are those who have preserved their natural liberty, that is to say, who have the right of doing what is not forbidden by the law. A slave is one who is in the power of a master to whom he belongs. Slaves are sometimes ranked not with persons but things. But sometimes they are considered as persons for example, a negro is in contemplation of law a person, so as to be capable of committing a riot in conjunction with white men. 1 Bay, 358. Vide Man.

Persons are also divided into citizens, (q. v.) and aliens, (q. v.) when viewed with regard to their political rights. When they are considered in relation to their civil rights, they are living or civilly dead; vide Civil Death; outlaws; and infamous persons.

Persons are divided into legitimates and bastards, when examined as to their rights by birth.

TO PERSONATE, crim. law. The act of assuming the character of another without lawful authority, and, in such character, doing something to his prejudice, or to the prejudice of another, without his will or consent.

The bare fact of personating another for the purpose of fraud, is no more than a cheat or misdemeanour at common law, and punishable as such. 2 East, P. C. 1010; 2 Russ. on Cr. 479.

By the act of congress of the 30th April, 1790, s. 15, 1 Story's Laws U. S. 86, it is enacted, that " if any person shall acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged in any court of Canada, any recognizance, bail or judgement, in the name or names of any other person or persons not privy or consenting to the same, every such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeds five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding seven years, and whipped not exceeding thirty-nine stripes, Provided nevertheless. that this act shall not extend to the acknowledgment of any judgement or judgements by any attorney or attorneys, duly admitted, for any person or persons against whom any such judgement or judgements shall be had or given." Vide, generally, 2 John. Cas. 293; 16 Vin. Ab. 336; Com. Dig. Action on the case for a deceit, A 3.

James 2:9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one [point], he is guilty of all.

Here is a list of more in-depth definitions so no one gets lost.

I am not a Person, or an Individual, or even a human, Manuel, but before you think I am crazy, examine the facts.

I am not a person, or an individual, or a Human, and although some humans look similar to me, I am not a human.

Some would say that I am a 'natural' person, but as I will show you, I am not one of those either. Who then or what then, am I?

To understand who I am, you must first understand the definitions which have been placed on the words I have quoted above, words that are commonly used, but do not describe me anymore. For example, the word 'person'.

Person – The Revised Code of Washington, RCW 1.16.080, (I live in Washington State) defines a person as follows: "The term 'person' may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual."

Person – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 791, defines 'person' as follows: "In general usage, a human being (i.e. natural person), though by statute term may include labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers." Person – Oran's Dictionary of the Law, West Group 1999, defines

Person as: 1. A human being (a "natural" person). 2. A corporation (an "artificial" person). Corporations are treated as persons in many legal situations. Also, the word "person" includes corporations in most definitions in this dictionary. 3. Any other "being" entitled to sue as a legal entity (a government, an association, a group of Trustees, etc.). 4.. The plural of person is persons, not people (see that word).

Person – Duhaime's Law Dictionary. An entity with legal rights and existence including the ability to sue and be sued, to sign contracts, to receive gifts, to appear in court either by themselves or by lawyer and, generally, other powers incidental to the full expression of the entity in law. Individuals are "persons" in law unless they are minors or under some kind of other incapacity such as a court finding of mental incapacity. Many laws give certain powers to "persons", which in almost all instances, includes business organizations that have been formally registered such as partnerships, corporations or associations.

legal person – Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary of Law 1996, defines a legal person as : a body of persons or an entity (as a corporation) considered as having many of the rights and responsibilities of a natural person and esp. the capacity to sue and be sued.

A person according to these definitions, is basically an entity – legal fiction – of some kind that has been legally created and has the legal capacity to be sued. Isn’t it odd that the word lawful is not used within these definitions? Well then.... I am not “the United States, this state, or any territory, or any public or private corporation”. I am not “labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” So, I cannot be a ‘person’ under this part of the definition.

The RCW quoted above also states that a person could also be an “individual”. Black’s Law Dictionary also defines a person as a “human being,” which they define by stating “(i.e. natural person)”. So, let’s first check to see if I am an “individual”.

Individual – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 533, defines

“individual” as follows: “As a noun, this term denotes a single person as distinguished from a group or class, and also, very commonly, a private or natural person as distinguished from a partnership, corporation, or association; but it is said that this restrictive signification is not necessarily inherent in the word, and that it may, in proper cases, include artificial persons.”

Well now, I have already been shown that I am not a ‘person’, and since

‘individual’ denotes a single ‘person’ as distinguished from a group or class, I can’t be an ‘individual’ under this definition either. But I see the term ‘natural person’ used in the definition of the RCW, and also in the definition of some of the Law Dictionaries. Maybe I am a ‘natural’ person, since I know I am not an ‘artificial’ one.

I could not find the term ‘Natural person’ defined anywhere, so I had to look up the word ‘natural’ for a definition to see if that word would fit with the word person...

Natural – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg.712, defines ‘Natural’ as follows: “Untouched by man or by influences of civilization; wild; untutored, and is the opposite of the word “artificial”. The juristic meaning of this term does not differ from the vernacular, except in the cases where it is used in opposition to the term “legal”; and then it means proceeding from or determined by physical causes or conditions, as distinguished from positive enactments of law, or attributable to the nature of man rather than the commands of law, or based upon moral rather than legal considerations or sanctions.”

Hmmm, what do they mean by this definition? Am I untouched by man (depends on what the word ‘man’ means), or by influences of civilization? I don’t think so. Am I ‘wild’, or ‘untutored’? (Buzzer sound), not me. Even though the definition states that this word is the opposite of the word

'artificial', it still does not describe who I believe I am. So, I must conclude that I am not a 'natural' person, under this definition of the word 'natural'. So, the term 'natural person' cannot apply to me.

Black's Law Dictionary also used the term 'human being', and although Black's defined it as a 'natural person', maybe they made a mistake, maybe I am a 'human being'. 'Human' or 'human being' does not appear to have a 'legal' definition, so I went to my old standby 1888 Noah Webster's Dictionary for a vernacular definition of this word. Maybe Noah would know who I am

Human – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'human' as follows: n. A human being; one of the race of man. [Rare and inelegant.] "Sprung of humans that inhabit earth." ...To me, the etymology of the word Hu-man, suggests that it is a marriage of two separate words 'Hue' (defined as the property of color), and man. But this cannot, of course, be correct, at least not politically correct, so I can't go there, because the word would then mean 'coloured man'!

Am I of the race of man? Rare and inelegant? Sprung of humans that inhabit earth (ground)? (I'm not coloured either). Well, it looks like I have to define the word 'man' through Webster's because there appears to be no legal definition for 'man'.

Man – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'man' as follows: An individual of the human race; a human being; a person.

Great news!!, it looks like we are back to the beginning of our study of definitions, yup, back to the start, completed the circle. I am not an 'individual', so I cannot be considered 'of the human race'; and since I'm not of the human race, I can't be 'a human being', and I've also been shown that I'm not a 'person' either.

Now let us see what the word Human really means.....I am going into detail so TDW can see we have been deceived by the misuse of our own language.

Definition of Human Being

Are you a 'person', an 'individual', or a 'human being'? These words, at law, define you as being spiritually 'dead.' This is how the world makes its attachment to you. The terms, 'person', 'individual', 'human being', etc., are not in Christ. Words like "individual," and "human being" do not even appear in Scripture! These are 'created' terms by the natural man (1 Cor 2:14). These words describe the 'old man', but not the 'new man' in Christ (Col 3:9-10). In Balantine's Self Pronouncing Law Dictionary, 1948, page 389, Human

Being is defined as "See Monster." On page 540 of this same Law Dictionary, Monster is defined as "a human being by birth, but in some part resembling a lower animal."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, pages 879- 880, a Monster is defined as "a person so cruel, wicked, depraved, etc., as to horrify others." From the Random

House Dictionary of the English Language, 2nd Edition, page 901, Human Being is defined as a “Natural man: unenlightened or unregenerate,” and on page 1461, Unregenerate means “not regenerate; unrepentant; an unregenerate sinner; not convinced by or unconverted to a particular religion; wicked, sinful, dissolute.”

In Webster’s New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, page 657, Humanitarianism is defined as “the doctrine that humankind may become perfect without divine aid.”

In Colliers New Dictionary of the English Language, 1928, Humanitarian is defined as “a philanthropist; an anti-Trinitarian who rejects the doctrine of Christ’s divinity; a perfectionist.”

And in the Random House Webster’s College Dictionary, 1990, page 653, Humanism is defined as “any system or mode of thought or action in which human interests, values and dignity predominate, especially an ethical theory that often rejects the importance of a belief in God.”

Therefore, when anyone calls himself or herself a ‘human being’, or a ‘humanitarian,’ they are saying (according to every definition of these words, and according to the law), “I’m an animal; I’m a monster; I’m not saved; I’m unrepentant; I’m an unregenerate sinner; I’m not converted; I’m wicked, sinful, and dissolute; I’m cruel, depraved, unenlightened; and I reject Christ’s divinity and the importance of a belief in God.”

a. “Men [Bondman] rely for protection of their right on God’s law, and not upon regulations and proclamations of departments of government, or officers who have been designated to carry laws into effect.” Baty v. Sale, 43 Ill. 351.” [Codes, edicts, proclamations, and decisions are not Law, which define or regulate the Good and Lawful Bondman. Therefore, “law” suits are ungodly, and are the redress for and of human beings, i.e., non-believers.]

The Septuagint uses the term “human beings” only one time, and its meaning is identical to the above definitions. Let’s look at the last verse of the book of Jonah, where Nineve was full of men who were unrepentant, unregenerate, unconverted, wicked, sinful, dissolute, cruel, depraved, unenlightened, rejected the importance of a belief in God. Or, in other words, “human beings.”

b. The term “human being” is also synonymous with the term ‘natural man.’

c. "The natural man is a spiritual monster. His heart is where his feet should be, fixed upon the earth; his heels are lifted up against heaven, which his heart should be set on. His face is towards hell, his back towards heaven. He loves what he should hate and hates what he should love; joys in what he ought to mourn for and mourns for what he ought to rejoice in; glories in his shame, and is ashamed of his glory; abhors what he should desire, and desires what he should abhor." [Thomas Boston, quoted in Augustus Toplady, Complete Works (1794, reprinted by Sprinkle Publications 1987), page 584].

And the Word confirms: "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." [1 Corinthians 2:14,]

"Natural Person means human being, and not an artificial or juristic person." Shawmut Bank, N.A. v. Valley Farms, 610 A. 2d. 652, 654; 222 Conn. 361.

Natural Person: Any human being who as such is a legal entity as distinguished from an artificial person, like a corporation, which derives its status as a legal entity from being recognized so in law. Natural Child: The ordinary euphemism for 'bastard' or illegitimate." [Amon v. Moreschi, 296 N.Y. 395, 73 N.E.2d 716." Max Radin, Radin's Law Dictionary (1955), p. 216.]

Those that are spiritually dead belong to the prince of this world because he's dead himself. Satan has dominion over the natural man, for he is the prince of this world [John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11]; and, because of this, he has dominion over those of the world, i.e., human beings, the natural man – those who receive not the things of the Spirit of God and reject Christ. Because the bondman in Christ is sanctified from the world, he is separated from the adversary's dominion over him – sin [John 8:34].. This is the cause for Christ having sanctified Himself in the Truth of the Word of God – to provide the entrance to the refuge in and through Himself for us. I could provide you more, Manuel, and I do sincerely thank you for your focused attention to this, my honest effort at officially performing the function of my calling in establishing this agreement with you as per Matthew 5:25 and 18:15-20, but I think you are already overwhelmed as I have, upon presentation of facts, destroyed your belief system and now you are aware you are working for a massive criminal organization founded upon a false oath. Can you now see why I must not allow my name to be altered? Remember, every one of the officers of Alberta has a false oath...What kind of authority swears an oath that is bogus??? A false authority!

Conversion Torts; The unlawful turning or applying the personal goods of another to the use of the taker, or of some other person than the owner; or the unlawful destroying or altering their nature.

When a party takes away or wrongfully assumes the right to goods which belong to another, it will in general be sufficient evidence of a conversion but when the original taking was lawful, as when the party found the goods, and the detention only is illegal, it is absolutely necessary to make a demand of the goods, and there must be a refusal to deliver them before the conversion will be complete. The refusal by a servant to deliver the goods entrusted to him by his master is not evidence of a conversion by his master. Leviticus 6:2-5 The tortious taking of property is, of itself, a conversion and any intermeddling with it, or any exercise of dominion over it, subversive of the dominion of the owner or the nature of the bailment if it be bailed, is evidence of a conversion.

In Equity, the considering of one thing as changed into another; for example, land will be considered as converted into money and treated as such by a court of equity, when the owner has contracted to sell his estate, in which case, if he die before the conveyance, his executors and not his heirs will be entitled to the money. On the other hand, money is converted into land in a variety of ways as for example, when a man agrees to buy land and dies before he has received the conveyance, the money he was to pay for it will be considered as converted into lands and descend to the heir.

It is agreed upon by you, Harjit Sajjan, having no dispute to the following fact forthcoming from you; that you the private man are aware and agree that I am a flesh bone blood living man, being God's minister, and that I cannot possibly have been in a dead legal corporate fiction called the Province of Ontario, Canada or other as the Province of Ontario, Canada and other is not a place but a dead corporate fiction of law on paper created for the purpose of extracting money from me in fraud as it is totally against my will, conscience and a violation of my faith to submit to and is being done without my informed consent or cognisant permission for a financial gain.

It is agreed by you, Harjit Sajjan with full understanding, that failure to refute or disprove the facts provided above, as agreed upon by you, I am advised by

Christ at Matthew 18:15-20 to gain a simple agreement with you privately and very simply as a child so I would like your aid in agreeing with me that respecting persons written as persona in the Latin vulgate is sin and disrespected by God. Due to the emergent nature of this agreement you are required to respond to this agreement within 10 (ten) days of receipt representing fairness, truth, natural equity. Failure to respond will be deemed acceptance of the terms, including acknowledgment of all outlined facts and obligations. We can see that in Deuteronomy 1:17. 10:17, 2nd Samuel 14:14, Matthew 22:16. Acts 10:34, Romans 2:11, James 2:1-9 and 1st Peter 1:17. If you have no dispute with that scriptural fact I will confirm with witnesses then post our good faith agreement in a paper.

Thankyou for you aid in saving my faith harmless from assumption.

Notice for a Demand of an Ecclesiastical Accommodation and Agreement

Provided under Christ's careful direction and the watchman's eye of Ezekiel 33

In the holy name of Christ, as where two or more agree in His holy name, for the will of our father, it shall be done. Matthew 18;20

If one falsely accuses another of a crime, the punishment due to that crime should be inflicted upon the perjured informer. Maxims of law

Hello, Peter Julian, I am Richard of the Ochnik family, a flesh blood and bone living man created by God and an officiating minister of the Church of the Ecumenical Redemption International, an ecclesiastical organism of other flesh, blood and bone men and women as the many members of the body of Christ. Where truth is, fiction of law dose not exist. Maxims of law;

If ever the law of God and man are at variance, the former are to be obeyed in derogation of the later. Maxims. Acts 5:29

1959 CanLII 50 (SCC) | Roncarelli v. Duplessis | CanLII, Peter Julian, by my sending you this private good faith agreement, I do attempt, by Christ's guidance, to ascertain all the facts in scriptural honour. If you have any reason or proof to suggest or provide to me, God's minister officially performing the functions of my calling, that the following statements of the facts are not true, you are being offered the opportunity to refute these offered facts so as to clear yourself of any assumptive contractual awareness of the truth of such facts. Also be aware, this communication of agreement cannot be lawfully inquired of at public or government expense as it is a provable private matter and government funding cannot support private contracts. All legal bills must and shall be paid for out of your private pocket no different than Maurice Duplessis the former Premier and Attorney General of Quebec in Roncarelly v Duplessis

This is Demand for recognition as Christ's ordained minister in quest of defense of the faith to save harmless my soul.

Both parties agree to act in good faith, ensuring no misleading actions or omissions that could undermine the intent or enforceability of this agreement. Each party is obligated to respect the natural rights and freedoms outlined herein.

I declare that I am that God created, of a Christian given name Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, chosen to be a private ecclesiastic man under God as my creator with dominion over the earth. I do declare that no man or woman has a moral or a lawful right to impose anything upon me without my informed consent; and that I do hereby renounce any fraudulent corporate assumptive contract by the right of self determination and faith renouncing secular Contracts. Amselem 2004 SCR.

I do honour the directive obligation to respect the equal God given freedoms of other men and women under His law. To all those who set eyes on this ecclesiastical declaration, I do hereby, officially performing the functions of my calling, serve notice to all private men and women as of my inability to respect persons that receive this that any offer herein, prior to, or on my part does not imply acceptance of intimidation, violence, or threats of violence against me, and that no such offer implies that I will submit to any nuisance obstruction or intimidation in the future.

I, as a bondservant of Christ do henceforth offer the good faith proclamation of my free born will to live in peace and declare that, by right of God and his son Jesus words at Corinthians 7:20:26, the de facto authority's edicts, codes, obligations, statutes, taxes, licenses and prohibitions of a de facto commercial entity are not binding on me, John 15:16 ordained minister or applicable upon God's ministers and family, his Children and including their property.

I, minister Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, an ordained minister under John 15:16 and a watchman as per Ezekiel 33:6–9, hereby invoke the protections afforded by "Operation SILENT DEFENDER." This military receivership, initiated in response to systemic fiduciary breaches, encompasses the unauthorized creation and exploitation of my Cestui Que Trust, originating from my 1960 birth certificate.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms "man" and "woman" (also

4. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that. It is agreed by you, that in 1966 ICCPR and ICESCR Signed: 19 December 1966 The principles of the UDHR offered hope and inspiration around the world. But to make a genuine difference in people's lives, those principles needed to be transformed into laws. In 1966, the UN Commission on Human Rights drafted two instruments to give legal force to the UDHR. One instrument was called the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The second was the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Together with the Universal Declaration, they comprise the International Bill of Human Rights. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights offers protections for the right to life, freedom of speech, religion, and voting. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights focuses on such issues as food, education, health, and shelter. More than 160 nations have ratified these two covenants which legally commit them to ensure these rights for people within their borders.
5. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact that in the Supreme Court Judgments [1980] 1 SCR 54 1979-12-21 Re: Authority of Parliament in relation to the Upper House Further, although s. 91(1) gave the Queen the power, with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, to alter the "Constitution of Canada" except in certain expressly designated areas, it does not confer a power to amend the B.N.A. Act. The word "Canada" in s. 91(1) does not refer to Canada as a geographical unit but refers to the "JURISTIC FEDERAL UNIT"
9. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1989 Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038, 1989 The reference in s. 32 to the "Parliament" and a "legislature" make clear that the Charter operates as a limitation on the powers of those legislative bodies. Any statute enacted by either Parliament or a Legislature which is inconsistent with the Charter will be outside the power of (ultra vires) the enacting body and will be invalid. It follows that any body exercising statutory authority, for example, the Governor in Council or Lieutenant Governor in Council, ministers, officials, municipalities, school boards, universities, administrative tribunals and police officers, is also bound by the Charter. Action taken under statutory authority is valid only if it is within the scope of that authority. Since neither Parliament nor a Legislature can itself pass a law in breach of the Charter, neither body can authorize action which would be in breach of the Charter. Thus, the limitations on statutory authority which are imposed by the Charter will flow down the chain of statutory authority and apply to regulations, by-laws, orders, decisions and all other action (whether legislative, administrative or judicial) which depends for its validity on statutory authority

13. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2005 Court Judgement Supreme Court- Christie v. British Columbia, 2005 BCCA 631(CanLII)The rule of law embraces at least three principles. The first principle is that the "law is supreme over officials of the government as well as private individuals, and thereby preclusive of the influence of arbitrary power"

15. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2015 R. v. Wagner, 2015 ONCJ 66 The Rule of Law The idea that there are certain fundamental unwritten principles that govern all members of society including legislators and which judges are expected to enforce is not particularly new. The contemporary concept of unwritten constitutional principles can be seen as a modern reincarnation of the ancient doctrines of natural law
16. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Victoria (City) v. Adams, 2009 BCCA 563; 2008 BCSC 1363; The trial court found the prohibition of temporary overhead shelter in parks to be unconstitutional where there was a lack of alternative shelter space. The court held the issue to be clearly justiciable because it dealt with the constitutionality of a legal prohibition. The court relied on the right to adequate housing under international human rights law as an interpretive aid. The Court referred to submissions made by Canada to the United Nations Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights regarding the scope of domestic protections for the right to housing and on General Comment No. 4 on the right to adequate housing under the International Covenant of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR). The Court noted that the question of whether the right to life, liberty and security of the person imposes positive obligations on governments to ensure the right to housing has not yet been determined by the Supreme Court of Canada and did not need to be decided in this case, which only challenged state interference.
17. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Thompson v. Ministry of Revenue [1946] SCR 209, 1946 CanLII 1 (SCC) [Page 220] Residents are taxed, not Canadians; but residents within the meaning of the Act...

education first and foremost shall be for the promotion of human rights and freedoms. This education was denied and hidden from me so that it could be deprived from my rights and force me to slavery for a de facto fictional state against my free will. In this case ignorance is an excuse because as a child under age, I relied on the integrity, honesty of my peers that fraudulently, by omission deprived me of truth, to maximize their ability to extort funds from me by way of unlawful intimidation. It is unconscionable that abuse and manipulation with the intention to deceive a child could be argued as acceptable and binding later on an adult.

20. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I was "Shanghaied" by Canada forcefully arbitrarily redefining me as a class of person(s) to extend Civil Law and enactments on me knowing at all times it was not lawful and a violation of the Constitution of Canada (1982), international Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, Geneva Convention, contrary to the King James Bible 1611 and their oath to the Queen Elizabeth II the "Defender of the faith" and now King Charles III "Defender of the faith". This process was accomplished without my knowledge or consent with an intention to unlawfully profit by way of fraud, intimidation making it unlawful and invalid. I do not agree and do not accept this offer to contract.
21. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.
24. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private woman or man with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.

26. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you forthcoming from you, that no woman calling himself de facto Chair, in the de facto Group President and Chief Executive Officer of TD Bank Group, in the de facto country of Canada (or Provinces and other) has any oath bound nor civil authority to intimidate or obstruct a minister from performing the functions of his calling nor to determine the functions of his calling unless damage has ensued to man or property violating God's law as complained of by an opposing man or woman.
27. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you I have an unfettered right to any and all information regarding any Trusts, Bonds, Annuities and financial instruments, Trustees acting on my behalf. I have the right to seize all property connected to me directly or indirectly.
28. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the Registrar General of each province and territory possesses a seal of office, as outlined in the Vital Statistics Act (or similarly named legislation). For instance, Ontario's Vital Statistics Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. V.4, s. 7(2) states: "The seal of office may be reproduced in any manner and has the same effect when it is manually applied or otherwise reproduced." In accordance with this provision, I assert the irrevocable right to utilize the reproduced seal of the Registrar General as a signatory, thereby exercising full authority to lawfully discharge any personal debts by placing the seal on the document as my sole required approval to access government accounts, to my own benefit. Furthermore, it is acknowledged that the government shall, upon demand by myself or third-party creditors, settle all such accounts owing from its own funds within ten (10) days, ensuring that I am held harmless from any associated liabilities, free and clear without recourse. You agree to provide Minister Richard and other designated individuals with revolving credit and debit facilities, enabling access to government payment obligations and facilitating point-of-purchase transactions without delay or the necessity for additional documentation.

any legal fiction in law and is clearly a separate identity from the natural man; the two may not be cojoined in any way, shape or form.

31. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the case Roncarelli v. Duplessis (1959) underscores the principle that no party, including government officials or corporate entities, may exercise arbitrary authority to undermine the rights of others. This principle aligns with the fair treatment and protection sought under this agreement

it appears on my birth certificate, for the purpose of obtaining funds or engaging in financial transactions without my informed consent, constitutes unauthorized use. Such actions are recognized as infringements upon my rights. Consequently, any funds or assets obtained through such unauthorized use are to be returned to me immediately, in full, as per my directions. It is also affirmed that the state holds no right to utilize my name in commerce without my explicit and informed consent. You and your agents agree to provide me with all assets, bonds, trusts, annuities, or other properties belonging to me within 30 days, to be transferred to me in full as per my directions. Additionally, I assert my right to hold all property in private, free from public claim or registration, in accordance with the principles of common law and the recognition of private property rights. This includes the right to acquire, use, and dispose of property without undue interference or regulation by public authorities, except as authorized by law. Matthew 7:7-8

35. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that Canada has not fulfilled its obligation to elderly men and man and the funding provided to them through Canada Pension and CCP or other programs is grossly inadequate, insufficient and below the poverty line. Canada has moral obligation to maintain a reasonable standard of living, as in its obligations in International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights. I am now demanding that this be rectified immediately, and you are committed and will make certain that my income will never be below the poverty level.

These are the words in the Oath of Office Act, indicating prima fascia an unlawful, unsanctioned, deficient form by the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance thus effectively invalidating the oath by making the oath grammatically incoherent.

I, . . . . ., swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law.

These are the words from the federal Oath of allegiance Act for Canada

..... it is very clear as to how the oath is to be worded in Canada, it is

I, ....., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada, Her Heirs and Successors. So, help me God. The deviation from the prescribed form of the oath, such as the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance, results in a grammatically incoherent and legally deficient oath. This deficiency effectively invalidates the oath, rendering any authority exercised under its auspices unlawful. The administration or reliance upon such an invalid oath may constitute a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of Canada. Specifically: Canadian Criminal Code: Section 122, Section 131 and Section 132. Therefore, proceeding with or acting upon an oath that deviates from the legally mandated form may expose individuals to criminal liability under these provisions.

39. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any disagreement, dispute, ambiguity, or challenge regarding the meaning, scope, application, or intention of any term, clause, or provision of this agreement, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, shall have the sole, exclusive, and final authority to determine its correct meaning, interpretation, and intent, at my own discretion and for my benefit. This right shall be irrevocable, nonreviewable, and binding upon you and all third parties under the principles of private contract, ecclesiastical jurisdiction, and law of equity. No court, tribunal, or external body shall override this interpretive authority without my express written consent.
41. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that God and the bible is the supreme law and there is no limitation periods set forth to limit such laws of God.

42. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that words in the masculine mean and include the feminine and vice versa.
45. Specifically, said payment shall be made in the form of: 1 oz Gold Maple Leaf Coins, valued at a fixed rate of $1,400.00 CAD per ounce; 1 oz Silver Maple Leaf Coins, valued at a fixed rate of $25.00 CAD per ounce. I may elect to receive payment in Canadian dollars, gold, silver, or any lawful combination thereof, and this election shall be binding upon you and enforceable under private contract, ecclesiastical law, and equity. You agree that all physical coin payments shall be delivered: To the physical location(s) of my choosing, and ; At no cost, burden, or fee to me; Within thirty (30) calendar days of the notice of election or demand for payment. Any failure to deliver in full, or any attempt to substitute fiat currency or non-specified bullion against my will, shall constitute a material breach of this contract and an actionable ecclesiastical trespass, giving rise to further damages, liens, and lawful enforcement.

“Conspiracy” under Section 463 Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46), and “Fraud and Perjury” under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C46)

55. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing of ; “OSC in the matter of the Ontario Securities Act R.S.O. 1990, c. S.5. as amended and in the matter of TD Waterhouse Canada Inc. heard on September 19TH, 2005”, had provided information knowing it to be untruthful, specifically but not limited to, that Richard Ochnik being the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also falsely stated that she was not working on behalf of the company. Hatice was not truthful and attempted to cover up her own securities violations involving a material conflict of interests representing of both the buyer and seller the same security without disclosure to the parties. This was a direct conflict of interest and prejudicial to the parties. This violation is called Crossing of Securities. Hatice Pakdils actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c.). The hearing(s) outcome were based on fraudulent mislead information that altered the outcome of this case and the case in paragraph 45 and 47 above. In This case TDW false information was accepted as truth without the involvement and opportunity for Richard Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. to enter defence evidence to the contrary trespassing on their inherent rights. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful to protect her job and the expense of others and wrongfully was enriched.
56. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing: Christa Ochnik and Ontario Securities Commission, Province of Ontario, TD Waterhouse, Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD Bank) and Hatice Pakdil. Hatice, had submitted a defence that was knowingly, to be untruthfully specifically but not limited to, statement that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. The argument that Richard was the de facto officer was not raised in the above two cases and could not be contested by Richard Ochnik. The Intention of the false information was to deceive the court for the inequitable wrongful benefit of Hatice Pakdil’s employer and other defendants depriving the plaintiff of their rights under colour of law. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful in an attempt to protect her job and unlawfully gain from her crime. This resulted in fraudulently depriving Christa and her sisters a free born minors of their rightful inheritance as beneficiary of the Ochnik Family Trust. Hatice’s actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46)

This payment shall be made no less than ten (10) calendar days prior to the scheduled hearing or submission and is due regardless of who initiates the proceeding. This amount represents pre-compensated time, spiritual harm, reputational risk, and administrative burden, and shall be required before any engagement in public process or appearance of any kind. Failure to tender this fee in advance shall be deemed a refusal of lawful jurisdiction, a breach of agreement, and shall authorize the undersigned to decline participation without prejudice or to initiate immediate private enforcement.
60. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Moore (Chairman) should have not been the Chairman on two hearings involving Richard Ochnik due to a conflict of interest. Its unconscionable to have expected the Chairman to rule in conflict with his earlier ruling. The Chairman did not have the lawful authority to change what was established as fact by himself in a earlier hearing without an appeal. Holding a hearing and agreeing on key facts without allowing Richard Ochnik to offer a defence was a trespass on his inherent rights, malicious slander, and libel. This technicality was deliberate to target Richard Ochnik because despite all evidence to the contrary in his own hearing it would not change the established facts from the previous case. In essence his case was lost before it started.

and OSC was fully aware that Richard Ochnik was never the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc., and it was actually always Ian Ochnik. The OSC had in its position Company documents clearly indicating Ian Ochnik was the incorporator, sole Director, and De jure President of the Company. TDW had contracted with Ian Ochnik. Richard Ochnik was not part of the securities negotiations, and his function was landlord and general contractor.

The Trust was the property owner (landlord) and Richard over seen the renovations made possible by Investor Co. share purchases in 1464210 Ontario Inc.
72. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that when TDW investors transferred accounts to TDW they were in cash accounts form the other institutions and possessed no shares of the Company.
74. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TD Waterhouse, Paul Bayfield "Sales Assistant", confirmed the authorization to proceed with the transaction by TD Compliance Department and instructed, Ian Ochnik President to the amount of the shares purchased, clients name and the client account numbers, that were being acquired for the individual accounts.
77. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all investors had signed the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares " and the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" stating that TDW investors had no shares of the company and had no right to purchase shares from the company. The share sale and purchase took place on the crossing of the share certificate and TD Waterhouse payment on behalf of the investor and no sooner.

79. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that had a contractual agreement and obligation with 1464210 Ontario Inc. to provide services for a "Private Placement Agreement" to which TDW had confirmed by fax with Mr. Paul Panciw, Company CFO, (authorized by Ian Ochnik President to negotiate the arrangement with Hatice Pakdil).
81. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had received a commission of 7% for each share an investor purchased with the Company base value of $1/share. If there was no such purchase, TDW would not receive a commission. TDW commissions totaled approximately $107 000 based on 7% of sales.
85. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW never told the Company that TDW were not working for them. Given all the documents it would clearly indicate that they were confirmed to be working with TDW as their broker on record.
87. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC do not know of any investor on 1464210 Ontario Inc. that was over the age of 65 and had purchased shares from 1464210 Ontario Inc.

90. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC ambushed Richard Ochnik during his hearing and knew he had a lawyer but refused to remand the case to meet the lawyers schedule and there by prejudicing the defence. There would have been no damage to any party to have delayed the hearing.
92. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that you accept full responsibility for any and all additional costs, fees, charges, or expenses incurred as a result of delays, administrative actions, defense filings, or any other related processes necessitated by your actions or omissions. You acknowledge and agree that the applicable fee schedule detailing such costs is available for your review at TD-lied.com or can be provided to you upon your written request. You further agree that this fee schedule is subject to amendments and updates from time to time, at the sole discretion and for the exclusive benefit of the minister, without prior notice to you. Such amendments are binding and non-disputable. Your acceptance of this clause signifies your consent to these terms and your obligation to remit payment for any applicable fees as outlined in the current fee schedule.

Waterhouse Sales Assistant were not questioned by the Ontario Securities Commission investigators regarding the facts for the 2 hearings above. They were not interviewed in fear their statements would confirm Richard Ochnik was not the President, de facto President or controlling mind. Also the Settlement Agreement Dated September 19 2005, between the OSC and TD Waterhouse was a conspiracy based on fraud to target the Ochnik's.

certificate was not in "Street Form" and indicating: "This is to Certify That T. D. Waterhouse, in trust for _____ is the Registered Holder of _____ Shares." TDW would provide the name of the client to be inserted along with the account number after compliance approvals instructing the shares to be issued. Hatice Pakdil was the controlling mind of the company transaction.

102. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW advised the Company to produce an "Investor Representation Letter" indicating the declaration by the investor; "I do not currently own, Direct or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc., or any other related Company" and " I do not have any Rights to acquire any TDW, shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. "This letter was a requirement to be signed by all TDW investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. before the purchased shares. It is agreed by you, [First Name] [Last Name], the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW agreed to be broker of record May 06, 2002.
104. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the Company had cooperated with all TDW requests and did everything it was requested promptly to do to TDW satisfaction.
105. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that failed to provide full disclosures to the defendants as required by law. TDW did not send a copy of the "Privet Placement Agreement" in fear of incriminating Hatice Pakdil. TDW were aware that this document would have a direct impact on the outcome of the case establishing that the company had a licenced broker and was detrimentally reliant on TD Waterhouse to save it harmless and to maintain the Company in good standing to all related regulations and Acts.
106. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the sales transaction consisted of a 7% commission calculated on the sale amount of shares and a $25 000 (in cash or shares) bonus for achieving each million dollars in sales threshold. The Company offered shares or cash as payment; as part of TDW selling shares and purchasing them for their clients RRSP accounts. Share sales generate a sales commission paid by the seller Company and SWAPS generate a fixed fee paid by the investor buyer – both were TDW clients.
107. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that According to the TDW "Rate Tables", the Company would be charged the flat fee of $20.00 for a SWAP but rather a commission for a sale or "Trade". TDW negotiated a commission representing the sale of shares.

108. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after TDW due diligence by their lawyer, Compliance Department, Branch Manager and RRSP Department, that TDW assistant Paul Bayfield, Sales Assistant, then notified the Company that they were prepared to go ahead with the purchase and SWAP of the shares.
109. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. was satisfied and by the "Letter of Authority" provided Paul Panciw with the authority to bind the Company in a "Contractual Relationship" with TDW. (There was an agreement and mutual understanding). A contract was signed by the Company solidifying the relationship. TDW became brokers of record.
113. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Form" were not a binding contract: paragraph 4. "Acceptance of Subscription: This subscription will be and be deemed for all purposes to have been accepted by the Corporation when the Corporation gives notice in writing to the purchaser of the allotment and issuance of the Shares subscribed for, but the corporation shall be under no obligation to accept this subscription". The share sale only occurred once TD Waterhouse paid for the shares from the cash in the, the private man with no dispute to the investor's accounts and not before. Before that could happen, TD had to notify the company regarding the buyer, account number and number of shares.

instructing Ian Ochnik, President to produce the share certificates as directed by TD compliance department (providing investor name, amount of purchase and account number).

118. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all of TDW's "New Client(s)" instructs there "Investment Advisor" Hatice Pakdil to "acquire" shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. for there RRSP account. Indicating they had no possession of shares to do a SWAP unless Hatice Pakdil processed the purchase/sale of shares.

ownership of shares or rights to purchase shares indicating the buy and sell had not taken place yet until TD gave the company the cheque payment for the shares as stipulated on paragraph 5 of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares.". , the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW, Hatice Pakdil did speak to potential investors before the signing and execution of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares" with the help of TDW sales assistant. This fact clearly confirms that Hatice Pakdil had purchased shares form TDW Customer the Company to facilitate a SWAP for TDW investment clients.

124. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was negligent and processed the transaction as a "SWAP" into the client's account. As a result, the head office review of trades was per TDW Policy 2 and that requirement did not take place as required by regulation. If it was done properly the issue would have been discovered in the first trade and saved the Company. The Company had no knowledge of TDW errors. TDW had an obligation to correct the issue and save the company.

125. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shares were distributed to the "New Client's" RRSP accounts by TDW as a trade and then followed by a SWAP.
128. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that if TDW told the truth and admitted that TDW had errored the company and the Ochnik Family specifically the Trust would have not suffered such an unconscionable punishment and the three children freeborn beneficiaries would and should have been saved harmless.
131. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, the private man/woman, that failure to honour this agreement, in whole or in part, constitutes a continuing tort, ecclesiastical offense, and bad faith breach, and that such non-performance will result in the accrual of additional damages, to be determined at the sole discretion of Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family or any of his successors in ecclesiastical office.

132. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, with no lawful objection registered, that these damages result from a coordinated breach of fiduciary duty, misrepresentation, fraud, and criminal obstruction. You agree that full restitution and remedy are due immediately, without the necessity of further adjudication, and that enforcement may proceed through any lawful means, including equity process, private lien, sheriff application, or ecclesiastical summons.
133. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that by not being forthright and truthful TDW participated in a fraud to your own benefit and profit at the expense of the Company. It is unconscionable that Hatice Pakdil allowed and orchestrated this fraud with the help TDW employer, Ontario Securities Commission (OSC) and Paul Moore Chairman.
136. It is agreed by you, the private man Peter Julian, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that both parties herein acknowledge and affirm reliance on the judicial interpolations and jurisprudential authority of the following cases, as they are instructive and binding in equity, conscience, and constitutional review: Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038 – affirming that the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms overrides statutory discretion where fundamental freedoms are at stake; Roncarelli v. Duplessis, [1959] SCR 121 establishing that personal liability arises where public officials act beyond lawful power or in bad faith; Callow v. Zollinger, 2020 SCC 45 – confirming the duty of good faith and honest performance in the execution of all private agreements, whether formal or informal; Syndicat Northcrest v. Amselem, [2004] 2 SCR 551 – upholding that sovereign religious and spiritual beliefs must not be abridged or interfered with by state or commercial entities, and may not be redefined by third parties.
137. It is agreed by you, the private man Peter Julian, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you,, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of breach, dishonour, non-performance, refusal to cure, or silence beyond the agreed Clear-Period, you do hereby: (a) Confess judgment in advance, without protest, to the full amount of damages declared in this agreement and/or any affidavit, declaration, or notice associated thereto; (b) Waive any and all procedural objections to enforcement or collection; (c) Consent to immediate enforcement by private lien, ecclesiastical summons, equity writ, or sheriff application, in any court of record or jurisdiction selected solely by Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, without the need for further hearing or approval; (d) Acknowledge that this confession is made in good faith, with full notice, and without coercion, and is enforceable under the maxims of law, the principles of equity, and the conscience of both natural and divine law. Such judgment shall be deemed entered ab initio upon breach or failure to respond within the agreed cure period, and the undersigned party may act as witness, creditor, and claimant without estoppel or restriction.

138. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that It is agreed and declared that any entity or institution, including but not limited to TD Bank Group or any of its subsidiaries, who has received any benefit, gain, asset, equity, or enrichment arising from the breach, fraud, misrepresentation, or fiduciary failure described herein, shall be deemed liable under the doctrine of Unjust Enrichment and Constructive Trust. Such liability is enforceable regardless of formal privity with this agreement, and may be pursued through private lien, lawful trust claim, ecclesiastical forum, or court of equity. TD Bank is hereby placed on notice of their direct and vicarious liability for unjust enrichment and is invited to cure such injury by full restitution. Failure to do so shall trigger enforcement without further notice.

143. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, acting in my capacity as minister and lawful living man, have suffered actual, documentable, and irreparable harm arising directly from your actions, omissions, or complicity, including but not limited to: Spiritual desecration and the unlawful obstruction of ecclesiastical office; Financial loss and misappropriation of sacred trust property; Psychological duress, unlawful detention, medical neglect, and cruel and unusual treatment; Violation of ecclesiastical jurisdiction and breach of covenant, contract, and international trust law.
144. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that that the Tribunal was specifically targeting Richard Ochnik and TDW had participated in this and other hearings to establish false evidence as truth to be used at this hearing with the intention to cause harm to him for TDW direct benefit and others.

148. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, is agreed that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, act at all times in my proper capacity as a living man, spiritual minister, and lawful executor of the Ochnik Family Trust, with full rights of conscience, covenant, and ecclesiastical standing. I do not operate under any contract of adhesion, corporate fiction, statutory persona, or commercial designation without express written and witnessed agreement.
150. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; In the event that either the Bank of Canada or the Royal Canadian Mint ceases to mint the said coins or withdraws them from circulation, it is agreed that a comparable sovereign-minted, bullion standard coin of equal weight and purity shall substitute for settlement purposes, maintaining the above-stated fixed valuations as approved by minister Richard as per his sole discretion and to his own benefit.
152. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that your actions, in alignment with TD Waterhouse (TDW), have caused the 'Ochnik Family Trust' financial harm exceeding $60 million (sixty million) Canadian dollars in damages. These damages are the direct result of your dishonest and manipulative conduct, as evidenced by material facts and supporting documentation. In accordance with equitable principles and the scriptural obligation of restitution outlined in Leviticus 6:2-5, you are required to restore the full amount of stolen, extorted, or fraudulently obtained property, along with any additional losses resulting from your actions. Should you fail to comply within 30 days of receipt of notice, enforcement proceedings will be initiated, including immediate application to a sheriff for recovery of the specified amount under applicable enforcement laws.

losses every four years due to compounding factors, the current value of damages sustained by the 'Ochnik Family Trust' is estimated at over $280 (two hundred and eighty) million Canadian dollars. This figure accounts for the compounded harm caused by your actions, including but not limited to fraudulent misrepresentation, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, and obstruction of justice. Full restitution of this adjusted amount is required to prevent further harm and ensure compliance with the principles of fairness, truth, equity and good faith.

155. It is agreed by you, the private man Peter Julian, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any breach of this agreement, including misrepresentation, fiduciary breach, fraud, or delay in remedy, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, acting as minister and also steward or trustee, shall be entitled to initiate enforcement in any competent forum of my choosing. All damages, whether direct, indirect, or consequential, including psychological, spiritual, and economic harm, shall be calculated in good faith and are enforceable under equity and law. The obligation to remedy these harms shall include but not be limited to: Direct financial losses, Reputational and spiritual harm, Involuntary service and elder abuse And Constitutional violations of conscience and trust; Leviticus 6:2–5 and Isaiah 61:7
156. It is agreed by you, the private man Peter Julian, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, shall retain the sole, unfettered right to elect the forum and venue in which enforcement, adjudication, or interpretation of this agreement may be pursued. This includes courts of record with inherent jurisdiction, whether within Canada or the United States, including ecclesiastical or international human rights tribunals. You acknowledge that any failure to publicly correct or retract previous defamatory or fraudulent claims, including those issued by TD Bank Group, TD Waterhouse, OSC, or their agents, shall constitute an ongoing and compounding harm under both spiritual law and equity. The duty to correct includes issuing an open retraction to restore my name, ministry, trust estate, and familial dignity.
158. These authorities are incorporated into this agreement as interpretive anchors, and the parties agree to rely upon their reasoning and precedent in any tribunal, forum, or court of record, ecclesiastical or civil, as may be engaged for the resolution or enforcement of this contract.

159. It is agreed by you, the private man Peter Julian, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that failure to respond to or rebut this agreement within 30 days constitutes tacit admission and contractual default. In such case, I shall have full standing to enter judgment and proceed to enforcement, including garnishment, lien, or seizure under the applicable statutes or ecclesiastical process, without further notice or leave of any court.
160. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.
162. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man , with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private man or woman with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.
165. It is agreed by Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.

166. It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman who has sworn an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant to the "Defender of the faith", then obstructs, intimidates or acts as a nuisance to the ability of an officiating minister of God, has acted against the Queens ability to defend the faith and is attempting to overthrow her majesty's government, being the King James Bible, by force....and that Section 46 of the criminal code applies to all sworn allegiant officers of her majesty.

It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors,( that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

It is very important that I show you why I can not allow any one to assume that they have any power or force over me. To be definitive, TDW need to see the lawful definition of person and the scriptures that guide me and command me to not show respect to persons, as they are fictions of law. A player on a stage wearing a mask.

PERSON. This word is applied to men, women and children, who are called natural persons. In law, man and person are not exactly synonymous terms. Any human being is a man, whether he be a member of society or not, whatever may be the rank he holds, or whatever may be his age, sex, etc. A person is a man considered according to the rank he holds in society, with all the rights to which the place he holds entitles him, and the duties which it imposes. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 137.. It is also used to denote a corporation which is an artificial person. 1 Bl.

Com. 123; 4 Bing. 669; C. 33 Eng. C. L R. 488; Wooddes. Lect. 116; Bac. Us. 57; 1 Mod. 164.

But when the word "Persons" is spoken of in legislative acts, natural persons will be intended, unless something appears in the context to show that it applies to artificial persons. 1 Scam. R.178.

Natural persons are divided into males, or men, and females or women. Men are capable of all kinds of engagements and functions, unless by reasons applying to particular individuals. Women cannot be appointed to any public office, nor perform any civil functions, except those which the law specially declares them capable of exercising. Civ. Code of Louis. art. 25.

They are also sometimes divided into free persons and slaves. Freemen are those who have preserved their natural liberty, that is to say, who have the right of doing what is not forbidden by the law. A slave is one who is in the power of a master to whom he belongs. Slaves are sometimes ranked not with persons but things. But sometimes they are considered as persons for example, a negro is in contemplation of law a person, so as to be capable of committing a riot in conjunction with white men. 1 Bay, 358. Vide Man.

Persons are also divided into citizens, (q. v.) and aliens, (q. v.) when viewed with regard to their political rights. When they are considered in relation to their civil rights, they are living or civilly dead; vide Civil Death; outlaws; and infamous persons.

Persons are divided into legitimates and bastards, when examined as to their rights by birth.

TO PERSONATE, crim. law. The act of assuming the character of another without lawful authority, and, in such character, doing something to his prejudice, or to the prejudice of another, without his will or consent.

The bare fact of personating another for the purpose of fraud, is no more than a cheat or misdemeanour at common law, and punishable as such. 2 East, P. C. 1010; 2 Russ. on Cr. 479.

By the act of congress of the 30th April, 1790, s. 15, 1 Story's Laws U. S. 86, it is enacted, that " if any person shall acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged in any court of Canada, any recognizance, bail or judgement, in the name or names of any other person or persons not privy or consenting to the same, every such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeds five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding seven years, and whipped not exceeding thirty-nine stripes, Provided nevertheless. that this act shall not extend to the acknowledgment of any judgement or judgements by any attorney or attorneys, duly admitted, for any person or persons against whom any such judgement or judgements shall be had or given." Vide, generally, 2 John. Cas. 293; 16 Vin. Ab. 336; Com. Dig. Action on the case for a deceit, A 3.

James 2:9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one [point], he is guilty of all.

Here is a list of more in-depth definitions so no one gets lost.

I am not a Person, or an Individual, or even a human, Manuel, but before you think I am crazy, examine the facts.

I am not a person, or an individual, or a Human, and although some humans look similar to me, I am not a human.

Some would say that I am a 'natural' person, but as I will show you, I am not one of those either. Who then or what then, am I?

To understand who I am, you must first understand the definitions which have been placed on the words I have quoted above, words that are commonly used, but do not describe me anymore. For example, the word 'person'.

Person – The Revised Code of Washington, RCW 1.16.080, (I live in Washington State) defines a person as follows: “The term ‘person’ may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual.”

Person – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 791, defines ‘person’ as follows: “In general usage, a human being (i.e. natural person), though by statute term may include labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” Person – Oran’s Dictionary of the Law, West Group 1999, defines

Person as: 1. A human being (a “natural” person). 2. A corporation (an “artificial” person). Corporations are treated as persons in many legal situations. Also, the word “person” includes corporations in most definitions in this dictionary. 3. Any other “being” entitled to sue as a legal entity (a government, an association, a group of Trustees, etc.). 4.. The plural of person is persons, not people (see that word).

Person – Duhaime’s Law Dictionary. An entity with legal rights and existence including the ability to sue and be sued, to sign contracts, to receive gifts, to appear in court either by themselves or by lawyer and, generally, other powers incidental to the full expression of the entity in law. Individuals are “persons” in law unless they are minors or under some kind of other incapacity such as a court finding of mental incapacity. Many laws give certain powers to “persons”, which in almost all instances, includes business organizations that have been formally registered such as partnerships, corporations or associations.

legal person – Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary of Law 1996, defines a legal person as : a body of persons or an entity (as a corporation) considered as having many of the rights and responsibilities of a natural person and esp. the capacity to sue and be sued.

A person according to these definitions, is basically an entity – legal fiction – of some kind that has been legally created and has the legal capacity to be sued. Isn’t it odd that the word lawful is not used within these definitions? Well then.... I am not “the United States, this state, or any territory, or any public or private corporation”. I am not “labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” So, I cannot be a ‘person’ under this part of the definition.

The RCW quoted above also states that a person could also be an “individual”. Black’s Law Dictionary also defines a person as a “human being,” which they define by stating “(i.e. natural person)”. So, let’s first check to see if I am an “individual”.

Individual – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 533, defines

“individual” as follows: “As a noun, this term denotes a single person as distinguished from a group or class, and also, very commonly, a private or natural person as distinguished from a partnership, corporation, or association; but it is said that this restrictive signification is not necessarily inherent in the word, and that it may, in proper cases, include artificial persons.”

Well now, I have already been shown that I am not a ‘person’, and since

‘individual’ denotes a single ‘person’ as distinguished from a group or class, I can’t be an ‘individual’ under this definition either. But I see the term ‘natural person’ used in the definition of the RCW, and also in the definition of some of the Law Dictionaries. Maybe I am a ‘natural’ person, since I know I am not an ‘artificial’ one.

I could not find the term ‘Natural person’ defined anywhere, so I had to look up the word ‘natural’ for a definition to see if that word would fit with the word person...

Natural – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg.712, defines ‘Natural’ as follows: “Untouched by man or by influences of civilization; wild; untutored, and is the opposite of the word “artificial”. The juristic meaning of this term does not differ from the vernacular, except in the cases where it is used in opposition to the term “legal”; and then it means proceeding from or determined by physical causes or conditions, as distinguished from positive enactments of law, or attributable to the nature of man rather than the commands of law, or based upon moral rather than legal considerations or sanctions.”

Hmmm, what do they mean by this definition? Am I untouched by man (depends on what the word ‘man’ means), or by influences of civilization? I don’t think so. Am I ‘wild’, or ‘untutored’? (Buzzer sound), not me. Even though the definition states that this word is the opposite of the word ‘artificial’, it still does not describe who I believe I am. So, I must conclude that I am not a ‘natural’ person, under this definition of the word ‘natural’. So, the term ‘natural person’ cannot apply to me.

Black’s Law Dictionary also used the term ‘human being’, and although Black’s defined it as a ‘natural person’, maybe they made a mistake, maybe I am a ‘human being’. ‘Human’ or ‘human being’ does not appear to have a ‘legal’ definition, so I went to my old standby 1888 Noah Webster’s Dictionary for a vernacular definition of this word. Maybe Noah would know who I am

Human – Webster’s 1888 Dictionary defines ‘human’ as follows: n. A human being; one of the race of man. [Rare and inelegant.] “Sprung of humans that inhabit earth.” ...To me, the etymology of the word Hu-man, suggests that it is a marriage of two separate words ‘Hue’ (defined as the property of color), and man. But this cannot, of course, be correct, at least not politically correct, so I can’t go there, because the word would then mean ‘coloured man’!

Am I of the race of man? Rare and inelegant? Sprung of humans that inhabit earth (ground)? (I’m not coloured either). Well, it looks like I have to define the word ‘man’ through Webster’s because there appears to be no legal definition for ‘man’.

Man – Webster’s 1888 Dictionary defines ‘man’ as follows: An individual of the human race; a human being; a person.

Great news!!, it looks like we are back to the beginning of our study of definitions, yup, back to the start, completed the circle. I am not an ‘individual’, so I cannot be considered ‘of the human race’; and since I’m not of the human race, I can’t be ‘a human being’, and I’ve also been shown that I’m not a ‘person’ either.

Now let us see what the word Human really means.....I am going into detail so TDW can see we have been deceived by the misuse of our own language.

Definition of Human Being

Are you a ‘person’, an ‘individual’, or a ‘human being’? These words, at law, define you as being spiritually ‘dead.’ This is how the world makes its attachment to you. The terms, ‘person’, ‘individual’, ‘human being’, etc., are not in Christ. Words like “individual,” and “human being” do not even appear in Scripture! These are ‘created’ terms by the natural man (1 Cor 2:14). These words describe the ‘old man’, but not the ‘new man’ in Christ (Col 3:9-10). In Balantine’s Self Pronouncing Law Dictionary, 1948, page 389, Human

Being is defined as “See Monster.” On page 540 of this same Law Dictionary, Monster is defined as “a human being by birth, but in some part resembling a lower animal.”

In Webster’s New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, pages 879- 880, a Monster is defined as “a person so cruel, wicked, depraved, etc., as to horrify others.” From the Random House Dictionary of the English Language, 2nd Edition, page 901, Human Being is defined as a “Natural man: unenlightened or unregenerate,” and on page 1461, Unregenerate means “not regenerate; unrepentant; an unregenerate sinner; not convinced by or unconverted to a particular religion; wicked, sinful, dissolute.”

In Webster’s New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, page 657, Humanitarianism is defined as “the doctrine that humankind may become perfect without divine aid.”

In Colliers New Dictionary of the English Language, 1928, Humanitarian is defined as “a philanthropist; an anti-Trinitarian who rejects the doctrine of Christ’s divinity; a perfectionist.”

And in the Random House Webster’s College Dictionary, 1990, page 653, Humanism is defined as “any system or mode of thought or action in which human interests, values and dignity predominate, especially an ethical theory that often rejects the importance of a belief in God.”

Therefore, when anyone calls himself or herself a ‘human being’, or a ‘humanitarian,’ they are saying (according to every definition of these words, and according to the law), “I’m an animal; I’m a monster; I’m not saved; I’m unrepentant; I’m an unregenerate sinner; I’m not converted; I’m wicked, sinful, and dissolute; I’m cruel, depraved, unenlightened; and I reject Christ’s divinity and the importance of a belief in God.”

a. “Men [Bondman] rely for protection of their right on God’s law, and not upon regulations and proclamations of departments of government, or officers who have been designated to carry laws into effect.” Baty v. Sale, 43 Ill. 351.” [Codes, edicts, proclamations, and decisions are not Law, which define or regulate the Good and Lawful Bondman. Therefore, “law” suits are ungodly, and are the redress for and of human beings, i.e., non-believers.]

The Septuagint uses the term “human beings” only one time, and its meaning is identical to the above definitions. Let’s look at the last verse of the book of Jonah, where Nineve was full of men who were unrepentant, unregenerate, unconverted, wicked, sinful, dissolute, cruel, depraved, unenlightened, rejected the importance of a belief in God. Or, in other words, “human beings.”

b. The term “human being” is also synonymous with the term ‘natural man.’

c. “The natural man is a spiritual monster. His heart is where his feet should be, fixed upon the earth; his heels are lifted up against heaven, which his heart should be set on. His face is towards hell, his back towards heaven. He loves what he should hate and hates what he should love; joys in what he ought to mourn for and mourns for what he ought to rejoice in; glories in his shame, and is ashamed of his glory; abhors what he should desire, and desires what he should abhor.” [Thomas Boston, quoted in Augustus Toplady, Complete Works (1794, reprinted by Sprinkle Publications 1987), page 584].

And the Word confirms: "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." [1 Corinthians 2:14,]

"Natural Person means human being, and not an artificial or juristic person." Shawmut Bank, N.A. v. Valley Farms, 610 A. 2d. 652, 654; 222 Conn. 361.

Natural Person: Any human being who as such is a legal entity as distinguished from an artificial person, like a corporation, which derives its status as a legal entity from being recognized so in law. Natural Child: The ordinary euphemism for 'bastard' or illegitimate." [Amon v. Moreschi, 296 N.Y. 395, 73 N.E.2d 716." Max Radin, Radin's Law Dictionary (1955), p. 216.]

Those that are spiritually dead belong to the prince of this world because he's dead himself. Satan has dominion over the natural man, for he is the prince of this world [John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11]; and, because of this, he has dominion over those of the world, i.e., human beings, the natural man – those who receive not the things of the Spirit of God and reject Christ. Because the bondman in Christ is sanctified from the world, he is separated from the adversary's dominion over him—sin [John 8:34].. This is the cause for Christ having sanctified Himself in the Truth of the Word of God – to provide the entrance to the refuge in and through Himself for us. I could provide you more, Manuel, and I do sincerely thank you for your focused attention to this, my honest effort at officially performing the function of my calling in establishing this agreement with you as per Matthew 5:25 and 18:15-20, but I think you are already overwhelmed as I have, upon presentation of facts, destroyed your belief system and now you are aware you are working for a massive criminal organization founded upon a false oath. Can you now see why I must not allow my name to be altered? Remember, every one of the officers of Alberta has a false oath...What kind of authority swears an oath that is bogus??? A false authority!

The incorporation of this letter ensures that all obligations, acknowledgments, and remedies detailed therein are enforceable under the terms of this Agreement, and any breach of these provisions shall constitute a breach of this Agreement.

It is agreed by you, Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; Failure to cure any breach within 30 calendar days of written notice shall constitute consent to immediate escalation to a court or forum of my choosing, including courts of equity, conscience, or international jurisdiction, at my sole discretion and benefit.
171. It is agreed by Peter Julian, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you forthcoming from you, that it is agreed by you with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that you are aware that I do not accept the liability of the compelled benefit of any unrevealed de facto contract or unlawful commercial agreement, which is my ministerial duty pursuant to God's law to divide myself from.

Conversion Torts; The unlawful turning or applying the personal goods of another to the use of the taker, or of some other person than the owner; or the unlawful destroying or altering their nature.

When a party takes away or wrongfully assumes the right to goods which belong to another, it will in general be sufficient evidence of a conversion but when the original taking was lawful, as when the party found the goods, and the detention only is illegal, it is absolutely necessary to make a demand of the goods, and there must be a refusal to deliver them before the conversion will be complete. The refusal by a servant to deliver the goods entrusted to him by his master is not evidence of a conversion by his master. Leviticus 6:2-5 The tortious taking of property is, of itself, a conversion and any intermeddling with it, or any exercise of dominion over it, subversive of the dominion of the owner or the nature of the bailment if it be bailed, is evidence of a conversion.

In Equity, the considering of one thing as changed into another; for example, land will be considered as converted into money and treated as such by a court of equity, when the owner has contracted to sell his estate, in which case, if he die before the conveyance, his executors and not his heirs will be entitled to the money. On the other hand, money is converted into land in a variety of ways as for example, when a man agrees to buy land and dies before he has received the conveyance, the money he was to pay for it will be considered as converted into lands and descend to the heir.

It is agreed upon by you, Peter Julian, having no dispute to the following fact forthcoming from you; that you the private man are aware and agree that I am a flesh bone blood living man, being God's minister, and that I cannot possibly have been in a dead legal corporate fiction called the Province of Ontario, Canada or other as the Province of Ontario, Canada and other is not a place but a dead corporate fiction of law on paper created for the purpose of extracting money from me in fraud as it is totally against my will, conscience and a violation of my faith to submit to and is being done without my informed consent or cognisant permission for a financial gain.

It is agreed by you, Peter Julian with full understanding, that failure to refute or disprove the facts provided above, as agreed upon by you, I am advised by

Christ at Matthew 18:15-20 to gain a simple agreement with you privately and very simply as a child so I would like your aid in agreeing with me that respecting persons written as persona in the Latin vulgate is sin and disrespected by God. Due to the emergent nature of this agreement you are required to respond to this agreement within 10 (ten) days of receipt representing fairness, truth, natural equity. Failure to respond will be deemed acceptance of the terms, including acknowledgment of all outlined facts and obligations. We can see that in Deuteronomy 1:17. 10:17, 2nd Samuel 14:14, Matthew 22:16. Acts 10:34, Romans 2:11, James 2:1-9 and 1st Peter 1:17. If you have no dispute with that scriptural fact I will confirm with witnesses then post our good faith agreement in a paper.

Thankyou for you aid in saving my faith harmless from assumption.

Also be aware, this communication of agreement cannot be lawfully inquired of at public or government expense as it is a provable private matter and government funding cannot support private contracts. To all those who set eyes on this ecclesiastical declaration, I do hereby, officially performing the functions of my calling, serve notice to all private men and women as of my inability to respect persons that receive this that any offer herein, prior to, or on my part does not imply acceptance of intimidation, violence, or threats of violence against me, and that no such offer implies that I will submit to any nuisance obstruction or intimidation in the future.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms "man" and "woman" (also

4. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that. It is agreed by you, that in 1966 ICCPR and ICESCR Signed: 19 December 1966 The principles of the UDHR offered hope and inspiration around the world. But to make a genuine difference in people's lives, those principles needed to be transformed into laws. In 1966, the UN Commission on Human Rights drafted two instruments to give legal force to the UDHR. One instrument was called the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The second was the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Together with the Universal Declaration, they comprise the International Bill of Human Rights. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights offers protections for the right to life, freedom of speech, religion, and voting. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights focuses on such issues as food, education, health, and shelter. More than 160 nations have ratified these two covenants which legally commit them to ensure these rights for people within their borders.

5. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact that in the Supreme Court Judgments [1980] 1 SCR 54 1979-12-21 Re: Authority of Parliament in relation to the Upper House Further, although s. 91(1) gave the Queen the power, with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, to alter the "Constitution of Canada" except in certain expressly designated areas, it does not confer a power to amend the B.N.A. Act. The word "Canada" in s. 91(1) does not refer to Canada as a geographical unit but refers to the "JURISTIC FEDERAL UNIT"
6. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1981 Zingre v. The Queen et al., [1981] 2 SCR 392 (Supreme Court of Canada). It is a recognized principle of international customary law that a state may not invoke the provisions of its internal law as justification for its failure to perform its international obligations.
9. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1989 Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038, 1989 The reference in s. 32 to the "Parliament" and a "legislature" make clear that the Charter operates as a limitation on the powers of those legislative bodies. Any statute enacted by either Parliament or a Legislature which is inconsistent with the Charter will be outside the power of (ultra vires) the enacting body and will be invalid. It follows that any body exercising statutory authority, for example, the Governor in Council or Lieutenant Governor in Council, ministers, officials, municipalities, school boards, universities, administrative tribunals and police officers, is also bound by the Charter. Action taken under statutory authority is valid only if it is within the scope of that authority. Since neither Parliament nor a Legislature can itself pass a law in breach of the Charter, neither body can authorize action which would be in breach of the Charter. Thus, the limitations on statutory authority which are imposed by the Charter will flow down the chain of statutory authority and

apply to regulations, by-laws, orders, decisions and all other action (whether legislative, administrative or judicial) which depends for its validity on statutory authority

10. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1990 Thomson Newspapers Ltd. v. Canada (Director of Investigation and Research, Restrictive Trade Practices Commission) While individuals as a rule have full legal capacity by the operation of law alone, artificial persons are creatures of the state and enjoy civil rights and powers only upon the approval of statutory authorities. The individual may stand upon his constitutional rights. He owes no duty to the State, since he receives nothing there from, beyond the protection of his life and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long antecedent to the organization of the State and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in accordance with the Constitution. He owes nothing to the public so long as he does not trespass upon their rights.
11. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1997 The Supreme Court has made it clear in cases M. (A.) v. Ryan that Common Law in Canada Now Flows through the Constitution Act of 1982. M. (A.) v. Ryan, 1997 (SCC), [1997] 1 S.C.R. 157, that the common law must develop in accordance with Charter values. A Trespass in common law equals an infringement or denial of a fundamental right or freedom. (Listed in the constitution act or the covenants themselves)
13. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2005 Court Judgement Supreme Court- Christie v. British Columbia, 2005 BCCA 631(CanLII)The rule of law embraces at least three principles. The first principle is that the "law is supreme over officials of the government as well as private individuals, and thereby preclusive of the influence of arbitrary power"

15. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2015 R. v. Wagner, 2015 ONCJ 66 The Rule of Law The idea that there are certain fundamental unwritten principles that govern all members of society including legislators and which judges are expected to enforce is not particularly new. The contemporary concept of unwritten constitutional principles can be seen as a modern reincarnation of the ancient doctrines of natural law
16. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Victoria (City) v. Adams, 2009 BCCA 563; 2008 BCSC 1363; The trial court found the prohibition of temporary overhead shelter in parks to be unconstitutional where there was a lack of alternative shelter space. The court held the issue to be clearly justiciable because it dealt with the constitutionality of a legal prohibition. The court relied on the right to adequate housing under international human rights law as an interpretive aid. The Court referred to submissions made by Canada to the United Nations Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights regarding the scope of domestic protections for the right to housing and on General Comment No. 4 on the right to adequate housing under the International Covenant of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR). The Court noted that the question of whether the right to life, liberty and security of the person imposes positive obligations on governments to ensure the right to housing has not yet been determined by the Supreme Court of Canada and did not need to be decided in this case, which only challenged state interference.
17. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Thompson v. Ministry of Revenue [1946] SCR 209, 1946 CanLII 1 (SCC) [Page 220] Residents are taxed, not Canadians; but residents within the meaning of the Act...

As a man of God, I may elect to be the "trustee", "steward" and/or the "beneficiary" of the "entitlement certificate" and thereby settle all matters and redeem the trust. Genesis 1;26-28 Matthew 7:7-8
- 37. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors, (that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

These are the words in the Oath of Office Act, indicating prima fascia an unlawful, unsanctioned, deficient form by the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance thus effectively invalidating the oath by making the oath grammatically incoherent.

I, . . . . ., swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law.

These are the words from the federal Oath of allegiance Act for Canada

..... it is very clear as to how the oath is to be worded in Canada, it is

(1) Every person who, either of his own accord or in compliance with any lawful requirement made of the person, or in obedience to the directions of any Act or law in force in Canada, except the Constitution Act, 1867 and the Citizenship Act, desires to take an oath of allegiance shall have administered and take the oath in the following form, and no other:

I, ....., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada, Her Heirs and Successors. So, help me God. The deviation from the prescribed form of the oath, such as the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance, results in a grammatically incoherent and legally deficient oath. This deficiency effectively invalidates the oath, rendering any authority exercised under its auspices unlawful. The administration or reliance upon such an invalid oath may constitute a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of Canada. Specifically: Canadian Criminal Code: Section 122, Section 131 and Section 132. Therefore, proceeding with or acting upon an oath that deviates from the legally mandated form may expose individuals to criminal liability under these provisions.

seller the same security without disclosure to the parties. This was a direct conflict of interest and prejudicial to the parties. This violation is called Crossing of Securities. Hatice Pakdil's actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c.). The hearing(s) outcome were based on fraudulent mislead information that altered the outcome of this case and the case in paragraph 45 and 47 above. In This case TDW false information was accepted as truth without the involvement and opportunity for Richard Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. to enter defence evidence to the contrary trespassing on their inherent rights. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful to protect her job and the expense of others and wrongfully was enriched.

56. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing: Christa Ochnik and Ontario Securities Commission, Province of Ontario, TD Waterhouse, Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD Bank) and Hatice Pakdil. Hatice, had submitted a defence that was knowingly, to be untruthfully specifically but not limited to, statement that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. The argument that Richard was the de facto officer was not raised in the above two cases and could not be contested by Richard Ochnik. The Intention of the false information was to deceive the court for the inequitable wrongful benefit of Hatice Pakdil's employer and other defendants depriving the plaintiff of their rights under colour of law. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful in an attempt to protect her job and unlawfully gain from her crime. This resulted in fraudulently depriving Christa and her sisters a free born minors of their rightful inheritance as beneficiary of the Ochnik Family Trust. Hatice's actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46)
57. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, the private man/woman, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, was subjected to unlawful, cruel, and degrading treatment amounting to torture, as detailed in associated affidavits and records. You agree to settle this claim for five million Canadian dollars ($5,000,000.00), payable in accordance with Clause 43, including the option for delivery in 1 oz gold or silver Maple Leaf coins at fixed valuation. Payment shall be made within thirty (30) calendar days, to the location of my choosing, at no cost to me. This settlement is final, binding, and not subject to future challenge or revision.
58. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that [First Name] [Last Name] TD Waterhouse, Michael Watson, OSC, and key investigator John Humphrey were fully aware of the untruths and perjury of witnesses and conspired to target, in a conspiracy to harm Richard Ochnik and 1464210 Ontario Inc. as are now listed here in. 60. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Moore (Chairman) should have not been the Chairman on two hearings involving Richard Ochnik due to a conflict of interest. Its unconscionable to have expected the Chairman to rule in conflict with his earlier ruling. The Chairman did not have the lawful authority to change what was established as fact by himself in a earlier hearing without an appeal. Holding a hearing and agreeing on key facts without allowing Richard Ochnik to offer a defence was a trespass on his inherent rights, malicious slander, and libel. This technicality was deliberate to target Richard Ochnik because despite all evidence to the contrary in his own hearing it would not change the established facts from the previous case. In essence his case was lost before it started.

Commission and placing unwarranted statutory obligations on Richard trespassing on his rights to which he would not normally or lawfully be expected to have as a man. Leviticus 6:2-5

77. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all investors had signed the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares " and the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" stating that TDW investors had no shares of the company and had no right to purchase shares from the company. The share sale and purchase took place on the crossing of the share certificate and TD Waterhouse payment on behalf of the investor and no sooner.

81. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had received a commission of 7% for each share an investor purchased with the Company base value of $1/share. If there was no such purchase, TDW would not receive a commission. TDW commissions totaled approximately $107 000 based on 7% of sales.
85. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW never told the Company that TDW were not working for them. Given all the documents it would clearly indicate that they were confirmed to be working with TDW as their broker on record.
86. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shareholder investors 1464210 Ontario Inc. were also clients for TDW and TD Waterhouse.
87. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC do not know of any investor on 1464210 Ontario Inc. that was over the age of 65 and had purchased shares from 1464210 Ontario Inc.
90. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC ambushed Richard Ochnik during his hearing and knew he had a lawyer but refused to remand the case to meet the lawyers schedule and there by prejudicing the defence. There would have been no damage to any party to have delayed the hearing.

91. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in order for the shares to be SWAPED the cash in the account had to be used to purchase the shares earning TDW the commission. Then the newly purchased shares could only be SWAPED into the individual accounts earning TDW fees from the investors paid to TDW.
92. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that you accept full responsibility for any and all additional costs, fees, charges, or expenses incurred as a result of delays, administrative actions, defense filings, or any other related processes necessitated by your actions or omissions. You acknowledge and agree that the applicable fee schedule detailing such costs is available for your review at TD-lied.com or can be provided to you upon your written request. You further agree that this fee schedule is subject to amendments and updates from time to time, at the sole discretion and for the exclusive benefit of the minister, without prior notice to you. Such amendments are binding and non-disputable. Your acceptance of this clause signifies your consent to these terms and your obligation to remit payment for any applicable fees as outlined in the current fee schedule.

back the shares at a premium price. TD Waterhouse refused to allow the share buy back. TD Waterhouse and/or TD bank had arranged a loan for Dan Miller an investor in 1464210 Ontario Inc. after he had purchased share without knowledge or involvement of Richard Ochnik, Ian Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. This loan given by TDW was a violation of the Ontario Securities Act and was intended to cover up TDW securities violations.

98. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the company refused to provide a loan because it would be a violation of the Ontario Securities Act. Instead, the Company offered to buy back Dan Millers Shares, investment with a nominal profit. To me this totally contradicts the OSC claims that the company was involved in a RRSP loan scam. The company specifically told share holders they do not do loans and they would buy back all shares from individuals requesting RRSP loans. The company, 1464210 Ontario Inc. was vulnerable, totally relying on the performance of Hatice Pakil and TD Waterhouse. TD Waterhouse obstructed remedy by disallowing the buy back of shares deliberately to hold the vulnerable company in potential violation of the Ontario Securities Act.
102. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW advised the Company to produce an "Investor Representation Letter" indicating the declaration by the investor; "I do not currently own, Direct or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc., or any other related Company" and " I do not have any Rights to acquire any TDW, shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. "This letter was a requirement to be signed by all TDW investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. before the purchased shares. It is agreed by you, [First Name] [Last Name], the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW agreed to be broker of record May 06, 2002.

104. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the Company had cooperated with all TDW requests and did everything it was requested promptly to do to TDW satisfaction.
105. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that failed to provide full disclosures to the defendants as required by law. TDW did not send a copy of the "Privet Placement Agreement" in fear of incriminating Hatice Pakdil. TDW were aware that this document would have a direct impact on the outcome of the case establishing that the company had a licenced broker and was detrimentally reliant on TD Waterhouse to save it harmless and to maintain the Company in good standing to all related regulations and Acts.
106. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the sales transaction consisted of a 7% commission calculated on the sale amount of shares and a $25 000 (in cash or shares) bonus for achieving each million dollars in sales threshold. The Company offered shares or cash as payment; as part of TDW selling shares and purchasing them for their clients RRSP accounts. Share sales generate a sales commission paid by the seller Company and SWAPS generate a fixed fee paid by the investor buyer – both were TDW clients.
107. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that According to the TDW "Rate Tables", the Company would be charged the flat fee of $20.00 for a SWAP but rather a commission for a sale or "Trade". TDW negotiated a commission representing the sale of shares.
108. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after TDW due diligence by their lawyer, Compliance Department, Branch Manager and RRSP Department, that TDW assistant Paul Bayfield, Sales Assistant, then notified the Company that they were prepared to go ahead with the purchase and SWAP of the shares.
109. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. was satisfied and by the "Letter of Authority" provided Paul Panciw with the authority to bind the Company in a "Contractual Relationship" with TDW. (There was an agreement and mutual understanding). A contract was signed by the Company solidifying the relationship. TDW became brokers of record.

113. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Form" were not a binding contract: paragraph 4. "Acceptance of Subscription: This subscription will be and be deemed for all purposes to have been accepted by the Corporation when the Corporation gives notice in writing to the purchaser of the allotment and issuance of the Shares subscribed for, but the corporation shall be under no obligation to accept this subscription". The share sale only occurred once TD Waterhouse paid for the shares from the cash in the, the private man with no dispute to the investor's accounts and not before. Before that could happen, TD had to notify the company regarding the buyer, account number and number of shares.
114. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Forms" also contained the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" that indicated "I do not currently own, directly or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc..." and was signed by the purchaser acknowledging the statement to be true. This clearly indicated TDW could not preform a SWAP with out first purchasing the shares. TDW then proceed to purchase the shares, by instructing Ian Ochnik, President to produce the share certificates as directed by TD compliance department (providing investor name, amount of purchase and account number).

responsible for the client's account. The Company completed all the requirements of a "Pre-Approved Privet Placement". Hatice Pakdil testified under oath that she considered herself as an order taker and not adviser to the new clients facilitating the buy and sale of the Company shares.

118. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all of TDW's "New Client(s)" instructs there "Investment Advisor" Hatice Pakdil to "acquire" shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. for there RRSP account. Indicating they had no possession of shares to do a SWAP unless Hatice Pakdil processed the purchase/sale of shares.

119. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had direct knowledge that the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." were not signed because clients kept changing the number of shares that they were purchasing. The change would have triggered a requirement to amend the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." Also, there was no practical way to confirm the amount of shares that the client could afford to purchase until the account was moved to TDW and in a cash position. TDW needed to know the cash availability to calculate the number of shares to be purchased at $1.00 per share. Also, the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" told TDW that they had no ownership of shares or rights to purchase shares indicating the buy and sell had not taken place yet until TD gave the company the cheque payment for the shares as stipulated on paragraph 5 of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares.". , the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW, Hatice Pakdil did speak to potential investors before the signing and execution of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares" with the help of TDW sales assistant. This fact clearly confirms that Hatice Pakdil had purchased shares form TDW Customer the Company to facilitate a SWAP for TDW investment clients.

124. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was negligent and processed the transaction as a "SWAP" into the client's account. As a result, the head office review of trades was per TDW Policy 2 and that requirement did not take place as required by regulation. If it was done properly the issue would have been discovered in the first trade and saved the Company. The Company had no knowledge of TDW errors. TDW had an obligation to correct the issue and save the company.
125. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shares were distributed to the "New Client's" RRSP accounts by TDW as a trade and then followed by a SWAP.

139. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the issue of controlling mind was never raised at any of the hearings as it was not required being that we relabelled Richard "the President" although he was never the President. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that your actions, in alignment with TD Waterhouse (TDW), have caused the 'Ochnik Family Trust' financial harm exceeding $60 million (sixty million) Canadian dollars in damages. These damages are the direct result of your dishonest and manipulative conduct, as evidenced by material facts and supporting documentation. In accordance with equitable principles and the scriptural obligation of restitution outlined in Leviticus 6:2-5, you are required to restore the full amount of stolen, extorted, or fraudulently obtained property, along with any additional losses resulting from your actions. Should you fail to comply within 30 days of receipt of notice, enforcement proceedings will be initiated, including immediate application to a sheriff for recovery of the specified amount under applicable enforcement laws.
155. It is agreed by you, the private man Gord Johns, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any breach of this agreement, including misrepresentation, fiduciary breach, fraud, or delay in remedy, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, acting as minister and also steward or trustee, shall be entitled to initiate enforcement in any competent forum of my choosing. All damages, whether direct, indirect, or consequential, including psychological, spiritual, and economic harm, shall be calculated in good faith and are enforceable under equity and law. The obligation to remedy these harms shall include but not be limited to: Direct financial losses, Reputational and spiritual harm, Involuntary service and elder abuse And Constitutional violations of conscience and trust; Leviticus 6:2–5 and Isaiah 61:7

156. It is agreed by you, the private man Gord Johns, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, shall retain the sole, unfettered right to elect the forum and venue in which enforcement, adjudication, or interpretation of this agreement may be pursued. This includes courts of record with inherent jurisdiction, whether within Canada or the United States, including ecclesiastical or international human rights tribunals. Such selection shall be made at his sole discretion and shall be binding upon all parties as agreed in advance. This clause serves to ensure full access to fair and impartial adjudication under the maxims of law, international covenant, and God's justice.
157. It is agreed by you, the private man Gord Johns, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the material admissions contained within this Clear-Period Contract constitute binding declarations of fact and law. You acknowledge that any failure to publicly correct or retract previous defamatory or fraudulent claims, including those issued by TD Bank Group, TD Waterhouse, OSC, or their agents, shall constitute an ongoing and compounding harm under both spiritual law and equity. The duty to correct includes issuing an open retraction to restore my name, ministry, trust estate, and familial dignity.
158. These authorities are incorporated into this agreement as interpretive anchors, and the parties agree to rely upon their reasoning and precedent in any tribunal, forum, or court of record, ecclesiastical or civil, as may be engaged for the resolution or enforcement of this contract.
159. It is agreed by you, the private man Gord Johns, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that failure to respond to or rebut this agreement within 30 days constitutes tacit admission and contractual default. In such case, I shall have full standing to enter judgment and proceed to enforcement, including garnishment, lien, or seizure under the applicable statutes or ecclesiastical process, without further notice or leave of any court.
160. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.

162. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man , with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private man or woman with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.
165. It is agreed by Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.
166. It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman who has sworn an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant to the "Defender of the faith", then obstructs, intimidates or acts as a nuisance to the ability of an officiating minister of God, has acted against the Queens ability to defend the faith and is attempting to overthrow her majesty's government, being the King James Bible, by force....and that Section 46 of the criminal code applies to all sworn allegiant officers of her majesty.

It is agreed by you, Gord Johns, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors,( that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

It is very important that I show you why I can not allow any one to assume that they have any power or force over me. To be definitive, TDW need to see the lawful definition of person and the scriptures that guide me and command me to not show respect to persons, as they are fictions of law. A player on a stage wearing a mask.

PERSON. This word is applied to men, women and children, who are called natural persons. In law, man and person are not exactly synonymous terms. Any human being is a man, whether he be a member of society or not, whatever may be the rank he holds, or whatever may be his age, sex, etc. A person is a man considered according to the rank he holds in society, with all the rights to which the place he holds entitles him, and the duties which it imposes. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 137.. It is also used to denote a corporation which is an artificial person. 1 Bl.

Com. 123; 4 Bing. 669; C. 33 Eng. C. L R. 488; Wooddes. Lect. 116; Bac. Us. 57; 1 Mod. 164.

But when the word "Persons" is spoken of in legislative acts, natural persons will be intended, unless something appears in the context to show that it applies to artificial persons. 1 Scam. R.178.

Natural persons are divided into males, or men, and females or women. Men are capable of all kinds of engagements and functions, unless by reasons applying to particular individuals. Women cannot be appointed to any public office, nor perform any civil functions, except those which the law specially declares them capable of exercising. Civ. Code of Louis. art. 25.

They are also sometimes divided into free persons and slaves. Freemen are those who have preserved their natural liberty, that is to say, who have the right of doing what is not forbidden by the law. A slave is one who is in the power of a master to whom he belongs. Slaves are sometimes ranked not with persons but things. But sometimes they are considered as persons for example, a negro is in contemplation of law a person, so as to be capable of committing a riot in conjunction with white men. 1 Bay, 358. Vide Man.

Persons are also divided into citizens, (q. v.) and aliens, (q. v.) when viewed with regard to their political rights. When they are considered in relation to their civil rights, they are living or civilly dead; vide Civil Death; outlaws; and infamous persons.

Persons are divided into legitimates and bastards, when examined as to their rights by birth.

TO PERSONATE, crim. law. The act of assuming the character of another without lawful authority, and, in such character, doing something to his prejudice, or to the prejudice of another, without his will or consent.

The bare fact of personating another for the purpose of fraud, is no more than a cheat or misdemeanour at common law, and punishable as such. 2 East, P. C. 1010; 2 Russ. on Cr. 479.

By the act of congress of the 30th April, 1790, s. 15, 1 Story's Laws U. S. 86, it is enacted, that " if any person shall acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged in any court of Canada, any recognizance, bail or judgement, in the name or names of any other person or persons not privy or consenting to the same, every such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeds five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding seven years, and whipped not exceeding thirty-nine stripes, Provided nevertheless. that this act shall not extend to the acknowledgment of any judgement or judgements by any attorney or attorneys, duly admitted, for any person or persons against whom any such judgement or judgements shall be had or given." Vide, generally, 2 John. Cas. 293; 16 Vin. Ab. 336; Com. Dig. Action on the case for a deceit, A 3.

James 2:9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one [point], he is guilty of all.

Here is a list of more in-depth definitions so no one gets lost.

I am not a Person, or an Individual, or even a human, Manuel, but before you think I am crazy, examine the facts.

I am not a person, or an individual, or a Human, and although some humans look similar to me, I am not a human.

Some would say that I am a 'natural' person, but as I will show you, I am not one of those either. Who then or what then, am I?

To understand who I am, you must first understand the definitions which have been placed on the words I have quoted above, words that are commonly used, but do not describe me anymore. For example, the word 'person'.

Person – The Revised Code of Washington, RCW 1.16.080, (I live in Washington State) defines a person as follows: "The term 'person' may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual."

Person – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 791, defines 'person' as follows: "In general usage, a human being (i.e. natural person), though by statute term may include labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers." Person – Oran's Dictionary of the Law, West Group 1999, defines

Person as: 1. A human being (a "natural" person). 2. A corporation (an "artificial" person). Corporations are treated as persons in many legal situations. Also, the word "person" includes corporations in most definitions in this dictionary. 3. Any other "being" entitled to sue as a legal entity (a government, an association, a group of Trustees, etc.). 4.. The plural of person is persons, not people (see that word).

Person – Duhaime’s Law Dictionary. An entity with legal rights and existence including the ability to sue and be sued, to sign contracts, to receive gifts, to appear in court either by themselves or by lawyer and, generally, other powers incidental to the full expression of the entity in law. Individuals are “persons” in law unless they are minors or under some kind of other incapacity such as a court finding of mental incapacity. Many laws give certain powers to “persons”, which in almost all instances, includes business organizations that have been formally registered such as partnerships, corporations or associations.

legal person – Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary of Law 1996, defines a legal person as : a body of persons or an entity (as a corporation) considered as having many of the rights and responsibilities of a natural person and esp. the capacity to sue and be sued.

A person according to these definitions, is basically an entity – legal fiction – of some kind that has been legally created and has the legal capacity to be sued. Isn’t it odd that the word lawful is not used within these definitions? Well then.... I am not “the United States, this state, or any territory, or any public or private corporation”. I am not “labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” So, I cannot be a ‘person’ under this part of the definition.

The RCW quoted above also states that a person could also be an “individual”. Black’s Law Dictionary also defines a person as a “human being,” which they define by stating “(i.e. natural person)”. So, let’s first check to see if I am an “individual”.

Individual – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 533, defines

“individual” as follows: “As a noun, this term denotes a single person as distinguished from a group or class, and also, very commonly, a private or natural person as distinguished from a partnership, corporation, or association; but it is said that this restrictive signification is not necessarily inherent in the word, and that it may, in proper cases, include artificial persons.”

Well now, I have already been shown that I am not a ‘person’, and since

‘individual’ denotes a single ‘person’ as distinguished from a group or class, I can’t be an ‘individual’ under this definition either. But I see the term ‘natural person’ used in the definition of the RCW, and also in the definition of some of the Law Dictionaries. Maybe I am a ‘natural’ person, since I know I am not an ‘artificial’ one.

I could not find the term 'Natural person' defined anywhere, so I had to look up the word 'natural' for a definition to see if that word would fit with the word person...

Natural – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg.712, defines 'Natural' as follows: "Untouched by man or by influences of civilization; wild; untutored, and is the opposite of the word "artificial". The juristic meaning of this term does not differ from the vernacular, except in the cases where it is used in opposition to the term "legal"; and then it means proceeding from or determined by physical causes or conditions, as distinguished from positive enactments of law, or attributable to the nature of man rather than the commands of law, or based upon moral rather than legal considerations or sanctions."

Hmmm, what do they mean by this definition? Am I untouched by man (depends on what the word 'man' means), or by influences of civilization? I don't think so. Am I 'wild', or 'untutored'? (Buzzer sound), not me. Even though the definition states that this word is the opposite of the word 'artificial', it still does not describe who I believe I am. So, I must conclude that I am not a 'natural' person, under this definition of the word 'natural'. So, the term 'natural person' cannot apply to me.

Black's Law Dictionary also used the term 'human being', and although Black's defined it as a 'natural person', maybe they made a mistake, maybe I am a 'human being'. 'Human' or 'human being' does not appear to have a 'legal' definition, so I went to my old standby 1888 Noah Webster's Dictionary for a vernacular definition of this word. Maybe Noah would know who I am

Human – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'human' as follows: n. A human being; one of the race of man. [Rare and inelegant.] "Sprung of humans that inhabit earth." ...To me, the etymology of the word Hu-man, suggests that it is a marriage of two separate words 'Hue' (defined as the property of color), and man. But this cannot, of course, be correct, at least not politically correct, so I can't go there, because the word would then mean 'coloured man'!

Am I of the race of man? Rare and inelegant? Sprung of humans that inhabit earth (ground)? (I'm not coloured either). Well, it looks like I have to define the word 'man' through Webster's because there appears to be no legal definition for 'man'.

Man – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'man' as follows: An individual of the human race; a human being; a person.

Great news!!, it looks like we are back to the beginning of our study of definitions, yup, back to the start, completed the circle. I am not an 'individual', so I cannot be considered 'of the human race'; and since I'm not of the human race, I can't be 'a human being', and I've also been shown that I'm not a 'person' either.

Now let us see what the word Human really means.....I am going into detail so TDW can see we have been deceived by the misuse of our own language.

Definition of Human Being

Are you a 'person', an 'individual', or a 'human being'? These words, at law, define you as being spiritually 'dead.' This is how the world makes its attachment to you. The terms, 'person', 'individual', 'human being', etc., are not in Christ. Words like "individual," and "human being" do not even appear in Scripture! These are 'created' terms by the natural man (1 Cor 2:14). These words describe the 'old man', but not the 'new man' in Christ (Col 3:9-10). In Balantine's Self Pronouncing Law Dictionary, 1948, page 389, Human

Being is defined as "See Monster." On page 540 of this same Law Dictionary, Monster is defined as "a human being by birth, but in some part resembling a lower animal."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, pages 879- 880, a Monster is defined as "a person so cruel, wicked, depraved, etc., as to horrify others." From the Random House Dictionary of the English Language, 2nd Edition, page 901, Human Being is defined as a "Natural man: unenlightened or unregenerate," and on page 1461, Unregenerate means "not regenerate; unrepentant; an unregenerate sinner; not convinced by or unconverted to a particular religion; wicked, sinful, dissolute."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, page 657, Humanitarianism is defined as "the doctrine that humankind may become perfect without divine aid."

In Colliers New Dictionary of the English Language, 1928, Humanitarian is defined as "a philanthropist; an anti-Trinitarian who rejects the doctrine of Christ's divinity; a perfectionist."

And in the Random House Webster's College Dictionary, 1990, page 653, Humanism is defined as "any system or mode of thought or action in which human interests, values and dignity predominate, especially an ethical theory that often rejects the importance of a belief in God."

Therefore, when anyone calls himself or herself a 'human being', or a 'humanitarian,' they are saying (according to every definition of these words, and according to the law), "I'm an animal; I'm a monster; I'm not saved; I'm unrepentant; I'm an unregenerate sinner; I'm not converted; I'm wicked, sinful, and dissolute; I'm cruel, depraved, unenlightened; and I reject Christ's divinity and the importance of a belief in God."

a. "Men [Bondman] rely for protection of their right on God's law, and not upon regulations and proclamations of departments of government, or officers who have been designated to carry laws into effect." Baty v. Sale, 43 Ill. 351." [Codes, edicts, proclamations, and decisions are not Law, which define or regulate the Good and Lawful Bondman. Therefore, "law" suits are ungodly, and are the redress for and of human beings, i.e., non-believers.]

who were unrepentant, unregenerate, unconverted, wicked, sinful, dissolute, cruel, depraved, unenlightened, rejected the importance of a belief in God. Or, in other words, “human beings.”

“And shall not I spare Nineve, the great city, in which dwell more than twelve myriads of human beings, who do not know their right hand or their left hand...?” [Jonah 4:11 (Septuagint)]

b. The term “human being” is also synonymous with the term ‘natural man.’

c. “The natural man is a spiritual monster. His heart is where his feet should be, fixed upon the earth; his heels are lifted up against heaven, which his heart should be set on. His face is towards hell, his back towards heaven. He loves what he should hate and hates what he should love; joys in what he ought to mourn for and mourns for what he ought to rejoice in; glories in his shame, and is ashamed of his glory; abhors what he should desire, and desires what he should abhor.” [Thomas Boston, quoted in Augustus Toplady, Complete Works (1794, reprinted by Sprinkle Publications 1987), page 584].

And the Word confirms: “But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.” [1 Corinthians 2:14,]

“Natural Person means human being, and not an artificial or juristic person.” Shawmut Bank, N.A. v. Valley Farms, 610 A. 2d. 652, 654; 222 Conn. 361.

Those that are spiritually dead belong to the prince of this world because he’s dead himself. Satan has dominion over the natural man, for he is the prince of this world [John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11]; and, because of this, he has dominion over those of the world, i.e., human beings, the natural man – those who receive not the things of the Spirit of God and reject Christ. Because the bondman in Christ is sanctified from the world, he is separated from the adversary’s dominion over him—sin [John 8:34].. This is the cause for Christ having sanctified Himself in the Truth of the Word of God – to provide the entrance to the refuge in and through Himself for us. I could provide you more,

Manuel, and I do sincerely thank you for your focused attention to this, my honest effort at officially performing the function of my calling in establishing this agreement with you as per Matthew 5:25 and 18:15-20, but I think you are already overwhelmed as I have, upon presentation of facts, destroyed your belief system and now you are aware you are working for a massive criminal organization founded upon a false oath. Can you now see why I must not allow my name to be altered? Remember, every one of the officers of Alberta has a false oath...What kind of authority swears an oath that is bogus??? A false authority!

facto contract or unlawful commercial agreement, which is my ministerial duty pursuant to God's law to divide myself from.

Conversion Torts; The unlawful turning or applying the personal goods of another to the use of the taker, or of some other person than the owner; or the unlawful destroying or altering their nature.

When a party takes away or wrongfully assumes the right to goods which belong to another, it will in general be sufficient evidence of a conversion but when the original taking was lawful, as when the party found the goods, and the detention only is illegal, it is absolutely necessary to make a demand of the goods, and there must be a refusal to deliver them before the conversion will be complete. The refusal by a servant to deliver the goods entrusted to him by his master is not evidence of a conversion by his master. Leviticus 6:2-5 The tortious taking of property is, of itself, a conversion and any intermeddling with it, or any exercise of dominion over it, subversive of the dominion of the owner or the nature of the bailment if it be bailed, is evidence of a conversion.

In Equity, the considering of one thing as changed into another; for example, land will be considered as converted into money and treated as such by a court of equity, when the owner has contracted to sell his estate, in which case, if he die before the conveyance, his executors and not his heirs will be entitled to the money. On the other hand, money is converted into land in a variety of ways as for example, when a man agrees to buy land and dies before he has received the conveyance, the money he was to pay for it will be considered as converted into lands and descend to the heir.

It is agreed upon by you, Gord Johns, having no dispute to the following fact forthcoming from you; that you the private man are aware and agree that I am a flesh bone blood living man, being God's minister, and that I cannot possibly have been in a dead legal corporate fiction called the Province of Ontario, Canada or other as the Province of Ontario, Canada and other is not a place but a dead corporate fiction of law on paper created for the purpose of extracting money from me in fraud as it is totally against my will, conscience and a violation of my faith to submit to and is being done without my informed consent or cognisant permission for a financial gain.

It is agreed by you, Gord Johns with full understanding, that failure to refute or disprove the facts provided above, as agreed upon by you, I am advised by

Christ at Matthew 18:15-20 to gain a simple agreement with you privately and very simply as a child so I would like your aid in agreeing with me that respecting persons written as persona in the Latin vulgate is sin and disrespected by God. Due to the emergent nature of this agreement you are required to respond to this agreement within 10 (ten) days of receipt representing fairness, truth, natural equity. Failure to respond will be deemed acceptance of the terms, including acknowledgment of all outlined facts and obligations. We can see that in Deuteronomy 1:17. 10:17, 2nd Samuel 14:14, Matthew 22:16. Acts 10:34, Romans 2:11, James 2:1-9 and 1st Peter 1:17. If you have no dispute with that scriptural fact I will confirm with witnesses then post our good faith agreement in a paper.

Thankyou for you aid in saving my faith harmless from assumption.

Notice for a Demand of an Ecclesiastical Accommodation and Agreement

Provided under Christ's careful direction and the watchman's eye of Ezekiel 33

In the holy name of Christ, as where two or more agree in His holy name, for the will of our father, it shall be done. Matthew 18;20

If one falsely accuses another of a crime, the punishment due to that crime should be inflicted upon the perjured informer. Maxims of law

Hello, Ken Hardie, I am Richard of the Ochnik family, a flesh blood and bone living man created by God and an officiating minister of the Church of the Ecumenical Redemption International, an ecclesiastical organism of other flesh, blood and bone men and women as the many members of the body of Christ. Where truth is, fiction of law dose not exist. Maxims of law;

If ever the law of God and man are at variance, the former are to be obeyed in derogation of the later.
Maxims. Acts 5:29

1959 CanLII 50 (SCC) | Roncarelli v. Duplessis | CanLII, Ken Hardie, by my sending you this private good faith agreement, I do attempt, by Christ's guidance, to ascertain all the facts in scriptural honour. If you have any reason or proof to suggest or provide to me, God's minister officially performing the functions of my calling, that the following statements of the facts are not true, you are being offered the opportunity to refute these offered facts so as to clear yourself of any assumptive contractual awareness of the truth of such facts. Also be aware, this communication of agreement cannot be lawfully inquired of at public or government expense as it is a provable private matter and government funding cannot support private contracts. All legal bills must and shall be paid for out of your private pocket no different than Maurice Duplessis the former Premier and Attorney General of Quebec in Roncarelly v Duplessis

This is Demand for recognition as Christ's ordained minister in quest of defense of the faith to save harmless my soul.

I declare that I am that God created, of a Christian given name Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, chosen to be a private ecclesiastic man under God as my creator with dominion over the earth. I do declare that no man or woman has a moral or a lawful right to impose anything upon me without my informed consent; and that I do hereby renounce any fraudulent corporate assumptive contract by the right of self determination and faith renouncing secular Contracts. Amselem 2004 SCR.

I do honour the directive obligation to respect the equal God given freedoms of other men and women under His law. To all those who set eyes on this ecclesiastical declaration, I do hereby, officially performing the functions of my calling, serve notice to all private men and women as of my inability to respect persons that receive this that any offer herein, prior to, or on my part does not imply acceptance of intimidation, violence, or threats of violence against me, and that no such offer implies that I will submit to any nuisance obstruction or intimidation in the future.

I, as a bondservant of Christ do henceforth offer the good faith proclamation of my free born will to live in peace and declare that, by right of God and his son Jesus words at Corinthians 7:20:26, the de facto authority's edicts, codes, obligations, statutes, taxes, licenses and prohibitions of a de facto commercial entity are not binding on me, John 15:16 ordained minister or applicable upon God's ministers and family, his Children and including their property.

I, minister Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, an ordained minister under John 15:16 and a watchman as per Ezekiel 33:6-9, hereby invoke the protections afforded by "Operation SILENT DEFENDER." This military receivership, initiated in response to systemic fiduciary breaches, encompasses the unauthorized creation and exploitation of my Cestui Que Trust, originating from my 1960 birth certificate.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms "man" and "woman" (also Queen and King) are used interchangeably and are intended to be inclusive of all individuals, regardless of gender identity. Any reference to a specific gender shall be construed to include all genders, and no provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to exclude any person based on gender.

1. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I, minister of Richard Henry of the Ochnik family was on or about the 30th of November, 2004 A.D., unlawfully intimidated and obstructed, by you, in your private capacity, by methods not sanctioned and as such, being a perceived and negative nuisance to my ability to perform an official function of my ministerial calling, are in violation of Sections 126,176, 423, 465 and 180 of the Criminal Code of Canada by violating your Oath of Allegiance and the Royal Style and Titles Act.

that specifically my name, being my ecclesiastical possession under the exclusive authority of God, is not allowed by my faith in God's commands as defended by the Queen you swore an oath to be truly allegiant to, to be used, recorded, registered, altered used for or exchanged for a financial purpose without my permission that it has never been offered or pledged to be for any of those reasons or to be used as a surety or as a commodity with my informed consent.

4. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that. It is agreed by you, that in 1966 ICCPR and ICESCR Signed: 19 December 1966 The principles of the UDHR offered hope and inspiration around the world. But to make a genuine difference in people's lives, those principles needed to be transformed into laws. In 1966, the UN Commission on Human Rights drafted two instruments to give legal force to the UDHR. One instrument was called the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The second was the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Together with the Universal Declaration, they comprise the International Bill of Human Rights. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights offers protections for the right to life, freedom of speech, religion, and voting. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights focuses on such issues as food, education, health, and shelter. More than 160 nations have ratified these two covenants which legally commit them to ensure these rights for people within their borders.
5. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact that in the Supreme Court Judgments [1980] 1 SCR 54 1979-12-21 Re: Authority of Parliament in relation to the Upper House Further, although s. 91(1) gave the Queen the power, with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, to alter the "Constitution of Canada" except in certain expressly designated areas, it does not confer a power to amend the B.N.A. Act. The word "Canada" in s. 91(1) does not refer to Canada as a geographical unit but refers to the "JURISTIC FEDERAL UNIT"

Bible, and the sanctuary jurisdiction under which it was formed. All disputes shall default to this sacred law unless waived in writing by the minister Richard Henry family of Ochnik.

9. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1989 Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038, 1989 The reference in s. 32 to the "Parliament" and a "legislature" make clear that the Charter operates as a limitation on the powers of those legislative bodies. Any statute enacted by either Parliament or a Legislature which is inconsistent with the Charter will be outside the power of (ultra vires) the enacting body and will be invalid. It follows that any body exercising statutory authority, for example, the Governor in Council or Lieutenant Governor in Council, ministers, officials, municipalities, school boards, universities, administrative tribunals and police officers, is also bound by the Charter. Action taken under statutory authority is valid only if it is within the scope of that authority. Since neither Parliament nor a Legislature can itself pass a law in breach of the Charter, neither body can authorize action which would be in breach of the Charter. Thus, the limitations on statutory authority which are imposed by the Charter will flow down the chain of statutory authority and apply to regulations, by-laws, orders, decisions and all other action (whether legislative, administrative or judicial) which depends for its validity on statutory authority

13. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2005 Court Judgement Supreme Court- Christie v. British Columbia, 2005 BCCA 631(CanLII)The rule of law embraces at least three principles. The first principle is that the "law is supreme over officials of the government as well as private individuals, and thereby preclusive of the influence of arbitrary power"
15. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2015 R. v. Wagner, 2015 ONCJ 66 The Rule of Law The idea that there are certain fundamental unwritten principles that govern all members of society including legislators and which judges are expected to enforce is not particularly new. The contemporary concept of unwritten constitutional principles can be seen as a modern reincarnation of the ancient doctrines of natural law

17. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Thompson v. Ministry of Revenue [1946] SCR 209, 1946 CanLII 1 (SCC) [Page 220] Residents are taxed, not Canadians; but residents within the meaning of the Act...
20. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I was "Shanghaied" by Canada forcefully arbitrarily redefining me as a class of person(s) to extend Civil Law and enactments on me knowing at all times it was not lawful and a violation of the Constitution of Canada (1982), international Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, Geneva Convention, contrary to the King James Bible 1611 and their oath to the Queen Elizabeth II the "Defender of the faith" and now King Charles III "Defender of the faith". This process was accomplished without my knowledge or consent with an intention to unlawfully profit by way of fraud, intimidation making it unlawful and invalid. I do not agree and do not accept this offer to contract.

24. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private woman or man with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.
27. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you I have an unfettered right to any and all information regarding any Trusts, Bonds, Annuities and financial instruments, Trustees acting on my behalf. I have the right to seize all property connected to me directly or indirectly.

third-party creditors, settle all such accounts owing from its own funds within ten (10) days, ensuring that I am held harmless from any associated liabilities, free and clear without recourse. You agree to provide Minister Richard and other designated individuals with revolving credit and debit facilities, enabling access to government payment obligations and facilitating point-of-purchase transactions without delay or the necessity for additional documentation.

29. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I have the right to not use a last name or surname, including on my bank account, government identification, and on other identification and things. You respect my right to have not accept the Surname or last name and only use my Christian name(s). You have no right to force me to sin Matthew 23; 9-11. Any use of government identification is not acceptance of liability or surety of any legal fiction in law and is clearly a separate identity from the natural man; the two may not be cojoined in any way, shape or form.
31. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the case Roncarelli v. Duplessis (1959) underscores the principle that no party, including government officials or corporate entities, may exercise arbitrary authority to undermine the rights of others. This principle aligns with the fair treatment and protection sought under this agreement

the American Convention on Human Rights, article 9 of the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, and the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America.

34. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the trust (also known as the "Entitlement Certificate, Bond, Trust, or Annuity") is my entitlement property. It becomes mine upon the process of "redeeming the entitlement certificate." As a man of God, I may elect to be the "trustee", "steward" and/or the "beneficiary" of the "entitlement certificate" and thereby settle all matters and redeem the trust. In redeeming the "entitlement certificate," I act as the Creditor (Private) within the banking system, not as a Debtor (Public). Furthermore, it is acknowledged that any use of my name, or any altered form thereof as it appears on my birth certificate, for the purpose of obtaining funds or engaging in financial transactions without my informed consent, constitutes unauthorized use. Such actions are recognized as infringements upon my rights. Consequently, any funds or assets obtained through such unauthorized use are to be returned to me immediately, in full, as per my directions. It is also affirmed that the state holds no right to utilize my name in commerce without my explicit and informed consent. You and your agents agree to provide me with all assets, bonds, trusts, annuities, or other properties belonging to me within 30 days, to be transferred to me in full as per my directions. Additionally, I assert my right to hold all property in private, free from public claim or registration, in accordance with the principles of common law and the recognition of private property rights. This includes the right to acquire, use, and dispose of property without undue interference or regulation by public authorities, except as authorized by law. Matthew 7:7-8

monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word “do” are not withstanding or legitimate.

These are the words in the Oath of Office Act, indicating prima fascia an unlawful, unsanctioned, deficient form by the omission of the word “do” in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance thus effectively invalidating the oath by making the oath grammatically incoherent.

I, . . . . ., swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law.

These are the words from the federal Oath of allegiance Act for Canada

..... it is very clear as to how the oath is to be worded in Canada, it is

I, ....., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada, Her Heirs and Successors. So, help me God. The deviation from the prescribed form of the oath, such as the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance, results in a grammatically incoherent and legally deficient oath. This deficiency effectively invalidates the oath, rendering any authority exercised under its auspices unlawful. The administration or reliance upon such an invalid oath may constitute a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of Canada. Specifically: Canadian Criminal Code: Section 122, Section 131 and Section 132. Therefore, proceeding with or acting upon an oath that deviates from the legally mandated form may expose individuals to criminal liability under these provisions.

irrevocable, nonreviewable, and binding upon you and all third parties under the principles of private contract, ecclesiastical jurisdiction, and law of equity. No court, tribunal, or external body shall override this interpretive authority without my express written consent.

40. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that this agreement is irrevocable and includes and extends to, fellow ministers, my heirs, defined herein to include all individuals, regardless of biological or marital relation, who have received God's calling as ministers, and who have been granted equivalent rights as I have here in this Agreement.
41. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that God and the bible is the supreme law and there is no limitation periods set forth to limit such laws of God.
44. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no other court may trespass or have jurisdiction over this agreement other than a court of "Inherent Jurisdiction" that recognises, International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, along with the Royal Style and Titles Act, and respecting the purpose of section 176 and 180 of the criminal code in the Province of Ontario, Canada.
45. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, retain and reserve the exclusive, unfettered right to demand settlement, restitution, or payment under this agreement to be rendered in physical gold and/or silver bullion coins, in such combinations as I shall elect. Specifically, said payment shall be made in the form of: 1 oz Gold Maple Leaf Coins, valued at a fixed rate of $1,400.00 CAD per ounce; 1 oz Silver Maple Leaf Coins, valued at a fixed rate of $25.00 CAD per ounce. I may elect to receive payment in Canadian dollars, gold, silver, or any lawful combination thereof, and this election shall be binding upon you and enforceable under private contract, ecclesiastical law, and equity. You agree that all physical coin payments shall be delivered: To the physical location(s) of my choosing, and ; At no cost, burden, or fee to me; Within thirty (30) calendar days of the notice of election or demand for payment. Any failure to deliver in full, or any attempt to substitute fiat currency or non-specified bullion against my will, shall constitute a material breach of this contract and an actionable ecclesiastical trespass, giving rise to further damages, liens, and lawful enforcement.

47. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; If any breach of this agreement is not cured within 30 calendar days of notice, I reserve the right to escalate the matter to any court of equity, ecclesiastical forum, international tribunal, or forum of conscience at my sole discretion and to my own benefit.
48. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I am not the surety, debtor, or chattel, for any fictional entity that was created without my consent as it may appear on my birth certificate, passport, drivers' licence, documents or other, and I will be held safe and harmless from any and all liability or responsibility.

55. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing of ; "OSC in the matter of the Ontario Securities Act R.S.O. 1990, c. S.5. as amended and in the matter of TD Waterhouse Canada Inc. heard on September 19TH, 2005", had provided information knowing it to be untruthful, specifically but not limited to, that Richard Ochnik being the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also falsely stated that she was not working on behalf of the company. Hatice was not truthful and attempted to cover up her own securities violations involving a material conflict of interests representing of both the buyer and seller the same security without disclosure to the parties. This was a direct conflict of interest and prejudicial to the parties. This violation is called Crossing of Securities. Hatice Pakdils actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c.). The hearing(s) outcome were based on fraudulent mislead information that altered the outcome of this case and the case in paragraph 45 and 47 above. In This case TDW false information was accepted as truth without the involvement and opportunity for Richard Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. to enter defence evidence to the contrary trespassing on their inherent rights. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful to protect her job and the expense of others and wrongfully was enriched.
56. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing: Christa Ochnik and Ontario Securities Commission, Province of Ontario, TD Waterhouse, Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD Bank) and Hatice Pakdil. Hatice, had submitted a defence that was knowingly, to be untruthfully specifically but not limited to, statement that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. The argument that Richard was the de facto officer was not raised in the above two cases and could not be contested by Richard Ochnik. The Intention of the false information was to deceive the court for the inequitable wrongful benefit of Hatice Pakdil's employer and other defendants depriving the plaintiff of their rights under colour of law. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful in an attempt to protect her job and unlawfully gain from her crime. This resulted in fraudulently depriving Christa and her sisters a free born minors of their rightful inheritance as beneficiary of the Ochnik Family Trust. Hatice's actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46)

57. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, the private man/woman, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, was subjected to unlawful, cruel, and degrading treatment amounting to torture, as detailed in associated affidavits and records. You agree to settle this claim for five million Canadian dollars ($5,000,000.00), payable in accordance with Clause 43, including the option for delivery in 1 oz gold or silver Maple Leaf coins at fixed valuation. Payment shall be made within thirty (30) calendar days, to the location of my choosing, at no cost to me. This settlement is final, binding, and not subject to future challenge or revision.
60. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Moore (Chairman) should have not been the Chairman on two hearings involving Richard Ochnik due to a conflict of interest. Its unconscionable to have expected the Chairman to rule in conflict with his earlier ruling. The Chairman did not have the lawful authority to change what was established as fact by himself in a earlier hearing without an appeal. Holding a hearing and agreeing on key facts without allowing Richard Ochnik to offer a defence was a trespass on his inherent rights, malicious slander, and libel. This technicality was deliberate to target Richard Ochnik because despite all evidence to the contrary in his own hearing it would not change the established facts from the previous case. In essence his case was lost before it started.

facts. Richard Ochnik was not under oath. Also hearsay evidence was admitted from individuals that were not under oath.

70. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had verified through correspondence and meetings that Ian Ochnik that he was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. and Hatice had received his signed authorization on Compliance Documentation along with a "Letter of Permission" to deal directly with Paul Panciw to facilitate the share trades. TD Waterhouse (TDW) had direct contact with the securities lawyer working for 1464210 Ontario Inc.
74. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TD Waterhouse, Paul Bayfield "Sales Assistant", confirmed the authorization to proceed with the transaction by TD Compliance Department and instructed, Ian Ochnik President to the amount of the shares purchased, clients name and the client account numbers, that were being acquired for the individual accounts.

77. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all investors had signed the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares " and the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" stating that TDW investors had no shares of the company and had no right to purchase shares from the company. The share sale and purchase took place on the crossing of the share certificate and TD Waterhouse payment on behalf of the investor and no sooner.
79. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that had a contractual agreement and obligation with 1464210 Ontario Inc. to provide services for a "Private Placement Agreement" to which TDW had confirmed by fax with Mr. Paul Panciw, Company CFO, (authorized by Ian Ochnik President to negotiate the arrangement with Hatice Pakdil).
81. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had received a commission of 7% for each share an investor purchased with the Company base value of $1/share. If there was no such purchase, TDW would not receive a commission. TDW commissions totaled approximately $107 000 based on 7% of sales.
85. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW never told the Company that TDW were not working for them. Given all the documents it would clearly indicate that they were confirmed to be working with TDW as their broker on record.

87. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC do not know of any investor on 1464210 Ontario Inc. that was over the age of 65 and had purchased shares from 1464210 Ontario Inc.
90. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC ambushed Richard Ochnik during his hearing and knew he had a lawyer but refused to remand the case to meet the lawyers schedule and there by prejudicing the defence. There would have been no damage to any party to have delayed the hearing.
92. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that you accept full responsibility for any and all additional costs, fees, charges, or expenses incurred as a result of delays, administrative actions, defense filings, or any other related processes necessitated by your actions or omissions. You acknowledge and agree that the applicable fee schedule detailing such costs is available for your review at TD-lied.com or can be provided to you upon your written request. You further agree that this fee schedule is subject to amendments and updates from time to time, at the sole discretion and for the exclusive benefit of the minister, without prior notice to you. Such amendments are binding and non-disputable. Your acceptance of this clause signifies your consent to these terms and your obligation to remit payment for any applicable fees as outlined in the current fee schedule.

102. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW advised the Company to produce an "Investor Representation Letter" indicating the declaration by the investor; "I do not currently own, Direct or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc., or any other related Company" and " I do not have any Rights to acquire any TDW, shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. "This letter was a requirement to be signed by all TDW investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. before the purchased shares. It is agreed by you, [First Name] [Last Name], the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW agreed to be broker of record May 06, 2002.
105. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that failed to provide full disclosures to the defendants as required by law. TDW did not send a copy of the "Privet Placement Agreement" in fear of incriminating Hatice Pakdil. TDW were aware that this document would have a direct impact on the outcome of the case establishing that the company had a licenced broker and was detrimentally reliant on TD Waterhouse to save it harmless and to maintain the Company in good standing to all related regulations and Acts.

by the seller Company and SWAPS generate a fixed fee paid by the investor buyer – both were TDW clients.

107. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that According to the TDW “Rate Tables”, the Company would be charged the flat fee of $20.00 for a SWAP but rather a commission for a sale or “Trade”. TDW negotiated a commission representing the sale of shares.
108. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after TDW due diligence by their lawyer, Compliance Department, Branch Manager and RRSP Department, that TDW assistant Paul Bayfield, Sales Assistant, then notified the Company that they were prepared to go ahead with the purchase and SWAP of the shares.
109. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. was satisfied and by the “Letter of Authority” provided Paul Panciw with the authority to bind the Company in a “Contractual Relationship” with TDW. (There was an agreement and mutual understanding). A contract was signed by the Company solidifying the relationship. TDW became brokers of record.
113. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the “Privet Placement Subscription Form” were not a binding contract: paragraph 4. “Acceptance of Subscription: This subscription will be and be deemed for all purposes to have been accepted by the Corporation when the Corporation gives notice in writing to the purchaser of the allotment and issuance of the Shares subscribed for, but the corporation shall be under no obligation to accept this subscription”. The share sale only occurred once TD Waterhouse paid for the shares from the cash in the, the private man with no dispute to the investor’s accounts and not before. Before that could happen, TD had to notify the company regarding the buyer, account number and number of shares.

114. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Forms" also contained the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" that indicated "I do not currently own, directly or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc..." and was signed by the purchaser acknowledging the statement to be true. This clearly indicated TDW could not preform a SWAP with out first purchasing the shares. TDW then proceed to purchase the shares, by instructing Ian Ochnik, President to produce the share certificates as directed by TD compliance department (providing investor name, amount of purchase and account number).
118. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all of TDW's "New Client(s)" instructs there "Investment Advisor" Hatice Pakdil to "acquire" shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. for there RRSP account. Indicating they had no possession of shares to do a SWAP unless Hatice Pakdil processed the purchase/sale of shares.

were purchasing. The change would have triggered a requirement to amend the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." Also, there was no practical way to confirm the amount of shares that the client could afford to purchase until the account was moved to TDW and in a cash position. TDW needed to know the cash availability to calculate the number of shares to be purchased at $1.00 per share. Also, the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" told TDW that they had no ownership of shares or rights to purchase shares indicating the buy and sell had not taken place yet until TD gave the company the cheque payment for the shares as stipulated on paragraph 5 of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." , the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW, Hatice Pakdil did speak to potential investors before the signing and execution of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares" with the help of TDW sales assistant. This fact clearly confirms that Hatice Pakdil had purchased shares form TDW Customer the Company to facilitate a SWAP for TDW investment clients.

124. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was negligent and processed the transaction as a "SWAP" into the client's account. As a result, the head office review of trades was per TDW Policy 2 and that requirement did not take place as required by regulation. If it was done properly the issue would have been discovered in the first trade and saved the Company. The Company had no knowledge of TDW errors. TDW had an obligation to correct the issue and save the company.
125. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shares were distributed to the "New Client's" RRSP accounts by TDW as a trade and then followed by a SWAP.
128. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that if TDW told the truth and admitted that TDW had errored the company and the Ochnik Family specifically the Trust would have not suffered such an unconscionable punishment and the three children freeborn beneficiaries would and should have been saved harmless.

132. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, with no lawful objection registered, that these damages result from a coordinated breach of fiduciary duty, misrepresentation, fraud, and criminal obstruction. You agree that full restitution and remedy are due immediately, without the necessity of further adjudication, and that enforcement may proceed through any lawful means, including equity process, private lien, sheriff application, or ecclesiastical summons.

Davidson*, [1989] 1 SCR 1038 – affirming that the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms overrides statutory discretion where fundamental freedoms are at stake; Roncarelli v. Duplessis, [1959] SCR 121 establishing that personal liability arises where public officials act beyond lawful power or in bad faith; Callow v. Zollinger, 2020 SCC 45 – confirming the duty of good faith and honest performance in the execution of all private agreements, whether formal or informal; Syndicat Northcrest v. Amselem, [2004] 2 SCR 551 – upholding that sovereign religious and spiritual beliefs must not be abridged or interfered with by state or commercial entities, and may not be redefined by third parties.

Such liability is enforceable regardless of formal privity with this agreement, and may be pursued through private lien, lawful trust claim, ecclesiastical forum, or court of equity. TD Bank is hereby placed on notice of their direct and vicarious liability for unjust enrichment and is invited to cure such injury by full restitution. Failure to do so shall trigger enforcement without further notice.
139. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the issue of controlling mind was never raised at any of the hearings as it was not required being that we relabelled Richard “the President” although he was never the President. This manipulation was done to prevent Richard from filing an appeal for justice and to entrap him, forever closing the case with total disregard for the truth.
140. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the facts, declarations, and agreed damages contained herein form the complete and final understanding of the parties as to the events, injuries, and remedies arising from the harms described. You acknowledge that even if new facts, documents, witnesses, or information may come to light in the future, such developments shall have no effect on the enforceability, validity, or terms of this agreement, nor shall they diminish, delay, or alter your obligation to pay all declared compensation, restitution, and penalties agreed herein. 141. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC did not use best evidence rules and relied on hearsay, when always Ian Ochnik the President was available to establish true facts. Ian Ochnik was the best person who would have had known firsthand if Richard was the controlling mind and advised him to violate the Ontario Securities Act or any law. Ian Ochnik was not questioned deliberately to disadvantage Richard Ochnik in a planned ambush.
143. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, acting in my capacity as minister and lawful living man, have suffered actual, documentable, and irreparable harm arising directly from your actions, omissions, or complicity, including but not limited to: Spiritual desecration and the unlawful obstruction of ecclesiastical office; Financial loss and misappropriation of sacred trust property; Psychological duress, unlawful detention, medical neglect, and cruel and unusual treatment; Violation of ecclesiastical jurisdiction and breach of covenant, contract, and international trust law.

Scriptural interpretation and authority rest with the undersigned minister and his successors.
150. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; In the event that either the Bank of Canada or the Royal Canadian Mint ceases to mint the said coins or withdraws them from circulation, it is agreed that a comparable sovereign-minted, bullion standard coin of equal weight and purity shall substitute for settlement purposes, maintaining the above-stated fixed valuations as approved by minister Richard as per his sole discretion and to his own benefit.
152. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that your actions, in alignment with TD Waterhouse (TDW), have caused the 'Ochnik Family Trust' financial harm exceeding $60 million (sixty million) Canadian dollars in damages. These damages are the direct result of your dishonest and manipulative conduct, as evidenced by material facts and supporting documentation. In accordance with equitable principles and the scriptural obligation of restitution outlined in Leviticus 6:2-5, you are required to restore the full amount of stolen, extorted, or fraudulently obtained property, along with any additional losses resulting from your actions. Should you fail to comply within 30 days of receipt of notice, enforcement proceedings will be initiated, including immediate application to a sheriff for recovery of the specified amount under applicable enforcement laws.

154. 155. It is agreed by you, the private man Ken Hardie, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any breach of this agreement, including misrepresentation, fiduciary breach, fraud, or delay in remedy, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, acting as minister and also steward or trustee, shall be entitled to initiate enforcement in any competent forum of my choosing. All damages, whether direct, indirect, or consequential, including psychological, spiritual, and economic harm, shall be calculated in good faith and are enforceable under equity and law. 156. It is agreed by you, the private man Ken Hardie, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, shall retain the sole, unfettered right to elect the forum and venue in which enforcement, adjudication, or interpretation of this agreement may be pursued. This includes courts of record with inherent jurisdiction, whether within Canada or the United States, including ecclesiastical or international human rights tribunals. You acknowledge that any failure to publicly correct or retract previous defamatory or fraudulent claims, including those issued by TD Bank Group, TD Waterhouse, OSC, or their agents, shall constitute an ongoing and compounding harm under both spiritual law and equity. The duty to correct includes issuing an open retraction to restore my name, ministry, trust estate, and familial dignity.

158. These authorities are incorporated into this agreement as interpretive anchors, and the parties agree to rely upon their reasoning and precedent in any tribunal, forum, or court of record, ecclesiastical or civil, as may be engaged for the resolution or enforcement of this contract.
159. It is agreed by you, the private man Ken Hardie, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that failure to respond to or rebut this agreement within 30 days constitutes tacit admission and contractual default. In such case, I shall have full standing to enter judgment and proceed to enforcement, including garnishment, lien, or seizure under the applicable statutes or ecclesiastical process, without further notice or leave of any court.
160. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.
162. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man , with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private man or woman with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.

165. It is agreed by Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.

166. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman who has sworn an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant to the "Defender of the faith", then obstructs, intimidates or acts as a nuisance to the ability of an officiating minister of God, has acted against the Queens ability to defend the faith and is attempting to overthrow her majesty's government, being the King James Bible, by force....and that Section 46 of the criminal code applies to all sworn allegiant officers of her majesty.

It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors,( that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

It is very important that I show you why I can not allow any one to assume that they have any power or force over me. To be definitive, TDW need to see the lawful definition of person and the scriptures that guide me and command me to not show respect to persons, as they are fictions of law. A player on a stage wearing a mask.

PERSON. This word is applied to men, women and children, who are called natural persons. In law, man and person are not exactly synonymous terms. Any human being is a man, whether he be a member of society or not, whatever may be the rank he holds, or whatever may be his age, sex, etc. A person is a man considered according to the rank he holds in society, with all the rights to which the place he holds entitles him, and the duties which it imposes. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 137.. It is also used to denote a corporation which is an artificial person. 1 Bl.

Com. 123; 4 Bing. 669; C. 33 Eng. C. L R. 488; Wooddes. Lect. 116; Bac. Us. 57; 1 Mod. 164.

But when the word "Persons" is spoken of in legislative acts, natural persons will be intended, unless something appears in the context to show that it applies to artificial persons. 1 Scam. R.178.

Natural persons are divided into males, or men, and females or women. Men are capable of all kinds of engagements and functions, unless by reasons applying to particular individuals. Women cannot be appointed to any public office, nor perform any civil functions, except those which the law specially declares them capable of exercising. Civ. Code of Louis. art. 25.

They are also sometimes divided into free persons and slaves. Freemen are those who have preserved their natural liberty, that is to say, who have the right of doing what is not forbidden by the law. A slave is one who is in the power of a master to whom he belongs. Slaves are sometimes ranked not with persons but things. But sometimes they are considered as persons for example, a negro is in contemplation of law a person, so as to be capable of committing a riot in conjunction with white men. 1 Bay, 358. Vide Man.

Persons are also divided into citizens, (q. v.) and aliens, (q. v.) when viewed with regard to their political rights. When they are considered in relation to their civil rights, they are living or civilly dead; vide Civil Death; outlaws; and infamous persons.

Persons are divided into legitimates and bastards, when examined as to their rights by birth.

TO PERSONATE, crim. law. The act of assuming the character of another without lawful authority, and, in such character, doing something to his prejudice, or to the prejudice of another, without his will or consent.

The bare fact of personating another for the purpose of fraud, is no more than a cheat or misdemeanour at common law, and punishable as such. 2 East, P. C. 1010; 2 Russ. on Cr. 479.

By the act of congress of the 30th April, 1790, s. 15, 1 Story's Laws U. S. 86, it is enacted, that " if any person shall acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged in any court of Canada, any recognizance, bail or judgement, in the name or names of any other person or persons not privy or consenting to the same, every such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeds five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding seven years, and whipped not exceeding thirty-nine stripes, Provided nevertheless. that this act shall not extend to the acknowledgment of any judgement or judgements by any attorney or attorneys, duly admitted, for any person or persons against whom any such judgement or judgements shall be bad or given." Vide, generally, 2 John. Cas. 293; 16 Vin. Ab. 336; Com. Dig. Action on the case for a deceit, A 3.

James 2:9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one [point], he is guilty of all.

Here is a list of more in-depth definitions so no one gets lost.

I am not a Person, or an Individual, or even a human, Manuel, but before you think I am crazy, examine the facts.

I am not a person, or an individual, or a Human, and although some humans look similar to me, I am not a human.

Some would say that I am a 'natural' person, but as I will show you, I am not one of those either. Who then or what then, am I?

To understand who I am, you must first understand the definitions which have been placed on the words I have quoted above, words that are commonly used, but do not describe me anymore. For example, the word 'person'.

Person – The Revised Code of Washington, RCW 1.16.080, (I live in Washington State) defines a person as follows: "The term 'person' may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual."

Person – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 791, defines 'person' as follows: "In general usage, a human being (i.e. natural person), though by statute term may include labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers." Person – Oran's Dictionary of the Law, West Group 1999, defines

Person as: 1. A human being (a "natural" person). 2. A corporation (an "artificial" person). Corporations are treated as persons in many legal situations. Also, the word "person" includes corporations in most definitions in this dictionary. 3. Any other "being" entitled to sue as a legal entity (a government, an association, a group of Trustees, etc.). 4.. The plural of person is persons, not people (see that word).

Person – Duhaime's Law Dictionary. An entity with legal rights and existence including the ability to sue and be sued, to sign contracts, to receive gifts, to appear in court either by themselves or by lawyer and, generally, other powers incidental to the full expression of the entity in law. Individuals are "persons" in law unless they are minors or under some kind of other incapacity such as a court finding of mental incapacity. Many laws give certain powers to "persons", which in almost all instances, includes business organizations that have been formally registered such as partnerships, corporations or associations.

Person, noun. person. – Webster's 1828 Dictionary. Defines personas: [Latin persona; said to be compounded of per, through or by, and sonus, sound; a Latin word signifying primarily a mask used by actors on the stage.]

legal person – Merriam-Webster's Dictionary of Law 1996, defines a legal person as : a body of persons or an entity (as a corporation) considered as having many of the rights and responsibilities of a natural person and esp. the capacity to sue and be sued.

A person according to these definitions, is basically an entity – legal fiction – of some kind that has been legally created and has the legal capacity to be sued. Isn't it odd that the word lawful is not used within these definitions? Well then.... I am not “the United States, this state, or any territory, or any public or private corporation”. I am not “labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” So, I cannot be a ‘person’ under this part of the definition.

The RCW quoted above also states that a person could also be an “individual”. Black’s Law Dictionary also defines a person as a “human being,” which they define by stating “(i.e. natural person)”. So, let’s first check to see if I am an “individual”.

Individual – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 533, defines

“individual” as follows: “As a noun, this term denotes a single person as distinguished from a group or class, and also, very commonly, a private or natural person as distinguished from a partnership, corporation, or association; but it is said that this restrictive signification is not necessarily inherent in the word, and that it may, in proper cases, include artificial persons.”

Well now, I have already been shown that I am not a ‘person’, and since

‘individual’ denotes a single ‘person’ as distinguished from a group or class, I can’t be an ‘individual’ under this definition either. But I see the term ‘natural person’ used in the definition of the RCW, and also in the definition of some of the Law Dictionaries. Maybe I am a ‘natural’ person, since I know I am not an ‘artificial’ one.

I could not find the term ‘Natural person’ defined anywhere, so I had to look up the word ‘natural’ for a definition to see if that word would fit with the word person...

Natural – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg.712, defines ‘Natural’ as follows: “Untouched by man or by influences of civilization; wild; untutored, and is the opposite of the word “artificial”. The juristic meaning of this term does not differ from the vernacular, except in the cases where it is used in opposition to the term “legal”; and then it means proceeding from or determined by physical causes or conditions, as distinguished from positive enactments of law, or attributable to the nature of man rather than the commands of law, or based upon moral rather than legal considerations or sanctions.”

Hmmm, what do they mean by this definition? Am I untouched by man (depends on what the word ‘man’ means), or by influences of civilization? I don’t think so. Am I ‘wild’, or ‘untutored’? (Buzzer sound), not me. Even though the definition states that this word is the opposite of the word ‘artificial’, it still does not describe who I believe I am. So, I must conclude that I am not a ‘natural’ person, under this definition of the word ‘natural’. So, the term ‘natural person’ cannot apply to me.

Black’s Law Dictionary also used the term ‘human being’, and although Black’s defined it as a ‘natural person’, maybe they made a mistake, maybe I am a ‘human being’. ‘Human’ or ‘human being' does not appear to have a 'legal' definition, so I went to my old standby 1888 Noah Webster's Dictionary for a vernacular definition of this word. Maybe Noah would know who I am

Human – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'human' as follows: n. A human being; one of the race of man. [Rare and inelegant.] "Sprung of humans that inhabit earth." ...To me, the etymology of the word Hu-man, suggests that it is a marriage of two separate words 'Hue' (defined as the property of color), and man. But this cannot, of course, be correct, at least not politically correct, so I can't go there, because the word would then mean 'coloured man'!

Am I of the race of man? Rare and inelegant? Sprung of humans that inhabit earth (ground)? (I'm not coloured either). Well, it looks like I have to define the word 'man' through Webster's because there appears to be no legal definition for 'man'.

Man – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'man' as follows: An individual of the human race; a human being; a person.

Great news!!, it looks like we are back to the beginning of our study of definitions, yup, back to the start, completed the circle. I am not an 'individual', so I cannot be considered 'of the human race'; and since I'm not of the human race, I can't be 'a human being', and I've also been shown that I'm not a 'person' either.

Now let us see what the word Human really means.....I am going into detail so TDW can see we have been deceived by the misuse of our own language.

Definition of Human Being

Are you a 'person', an 'individual', or a 'human being'? These words, at law, define you as being spiritually 'dead.' This is how the world makes its attachment to you. The terms, 'person', 'individual', 'human being', etc., are not in Christ. Words like "individual," and "human being" do not even appear in Scripture! These are 'created' terms by the natural man (1 Cor 2:14). These words describe the 'old man', but not the 'new man' in Christ (Col 3:9-10). In Balantine's Self Pronouncing Law Dictionary, 1948, page 389, Human

Being is defined as "See Monster." On page 540 of this same Law Dictionary, Monster is defined as "a human being by birth, but in some part resembling a lower animal."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, pages 879- 880, a Monster is defined as "a person so cruel, wicked, depraved, etc., as to horrify others." From the Random House Dictionary of the English Language, 2nd Edition, page 901, Human Being is defined as a "Natural man: unenlightened or unregenerate," and on page 1461, Unregenerate means "not regenerate; unrepentant; an unregenerate sinner; not convinced by or unconverted to a particular religion; wicked, sinful, dissolute."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, page 657, Humanitarianism is defined as "the doctrine that humankind may become perfect without divine aid."

In Colliers New Dictionary of the English Language, 1928, Humanitarian is defined as "a philanthropist; an anti-Trinitarian who rejects the doctrine of Christ's divinity; a perfectionist."

And in the Random House Webster's College Dictionary, 1990, page 653, Humanism is defined as "any system or mode of thought or action in which human interests, values and dignity predominate, especially an ethical theory that often rejects the importance of a belief in God."

Therefore, when anyone calls himself or herself a 'human being', or a 'humanitarian,' they are saying (according to every definition of these words, and according to the law), "I'm an animal; I'm a monster; I'm not saved; I'm unrepentant; I'm an unregenerate sinner; I'm not converted; I'm wicked, sinful, and dissolute; I'm cruel, depraved, unenlightened; and I reject Christ's divinity and the importance of a belief in God."

a. "Men [Bondman] rely for protection of their right on God's law, and not upon regulations and proclamations of departments of government, or officers who have been designated to carry laws into effect." Baty v. Sale, 43 Ill. 351." [Codes, edicts, proclamations, and decisions are not Law, which define or regulate the Good and Lawful Bondman. Therefore, "law" suits are ungodly, and are the redress for and of human beings, i.e., non-believers.]

The Septuagint uses the term "human beings" only one time, and its meaning is identical to the above definitions. Let's look at the last verse of the book of Jonah, where Nineve was full of men who were unrepentant, unregenerate, unconverted, wicked, sinful, dissolute, cruel, depraved, unenlightened, rejected the importance of a belief in God. Or, in other words, "human beings."

"And shall not I spare Nineve, the great city, in which dwell more than twelve myriads of human beings, who do not know their right hand or their left hand...?" [Jonah 4:11 (Septuagint)]

b. The term "human being" is also synonymous with the term 'natural man.'

c. "The natural man is a spiritual monster. His heart is where his feet should be, fixed upon the earth; his heels are lifted up against heaven, which his heart should be set on. His face is towards hell, his back towards heaven. He loves what he should hate and hates what he should love; joys in what he ought to mourn for and mourns for what he ought to rejoice in; glories in his shame, and is ashamed of his glory; abhors what he should desire, and desires what he should abhor." [Thomas

Boston, quoted in Augustus Toplady, Complete Works (1794, reprinted by Sprinkle Publications 1987), page 584].

And the Word confirms: “But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.” [1 Corinthians 2:14,]

The above verse witnesses to us that the natural man is spiritually dead. The ‘natural man’ in Scripture is synonymous with the ‘natural person’ as defined in man’s laws.

“Natural Person means human being, and not an artificial or juristic person.” Shawmut Bank, N.A. v. Valley Farms, 610 A. 2d. 652, 654; 222 Conn. 361.

Natural Person: Any human being who as such is a legal entity as distinguished from an artificial person, like a corporation, which derives its status as a legal entity from being recognized so in law. Natural Child: The ordinary euphemism for ‘bastard’ or illegitimate.” [Amon v. Moreschi, 296 N.Y. 395, 73 N.E.2d 716.” Max Radin, Radin’s Law Dictionary (1955), p. 216.]

Those that are spiritually dead belong to the prince of this world because he’s dead himself. Satan has dominion over the natural man, for he is the prince of this world [John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11]; and, because of this, he has dominion over those of the world, i.e., human beings, the natural man – those who receive not the things of the Spirit of God and reject Christ. Because the bondman in Christ is sanctified from the world, he is separated from the adversary’s dominion over him—sin [John 8:34].. This is the cause for Christ having sanctified Himself in the Truth of the Word of God – to provide the entrance to the refuge in and through Himself for us. I could provide you more, Manuel, and I do sincerely thank you for your focused attention to this, my honest effort at officially performing the function of my calling in establishing this agreement with you as per Matthew 5:25 and 18:15-20, but I think you are already overwhelmed as I have, upon presentation of facts, destroyed your belief system and now you are aware you are working for a massive criminal organization founded upon a false oath. Can you now see why I must not allow my name to be altered? Remember, every one of the officers of Alberta has a false oath...What kind of authority swears an oath that is bogus??? A false authority!

agreed upon as binding terms within this Agreement. The incorporation of this letter ensures that all obligations, acknowledgments, and remedies detailed therein are enforceable under the terms of this Agreement, and any breach of these provisions shall constitute a breach of this Agreement. You consent that this document is available by request or PDF at; <https://www.td-lied.com/>

169. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; This private agreement is issued in truth and good faith. If no written, witnessed objection is received within 30 calendar days of delivery, the terms herein shall be deemed accepted in full, and the parties agree that such acceptance is valid in both law and equity, as supported by Ezekiel 33:6 and Ecclesiastes 5:4-6. Silence or non-response shall constitute lawful acquiescence and willful agreement.
170. It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; Failure to cure any breach within 30 calendar days of written notice shall constitute consent to immediate escalation to a court or forum of my choosing, including courts of equity, conscience, or international jurisdiction, at my sole discretion and benefit.
171. It is agreed by Ken Hardie, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you forthcoming from you, that it is agreed by you with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that you are aware that I do not accept the liability of the compelled benefit of any unrevealed de facto contract or unlawful commercial agreement, which is my ministerial duty pursuant to God's law to divide myself from.

Conversion Torts; The unlawful turning or applying the personal goods of another to the use of the taker, or of some other person than the owner; or the unlawful destroying or altering their nature.

When a party takes away or wrongfully assumes the right to goods which belong to another, it will in general be sufficient evidence of a conversion but when the original taking was lawful, as when the party found the goods, and the detention only is illegal, it is absolutely necessary to make a demand of the goods, and there must be a refusal to deliver them before the conversion will be complete. The refusal by a servant to deliver the goods entrusted to him by his master is not evidence of a conversion by his master. Leviticus 6:2-5 The tortious taking of property is, of itself, a conversion and any intermeddling with it, or any exercise of dominion over it, subversive of the dominion of the owner or the nature of the bailment if it be bailed, is evidence of a conversion.

In Equity, the considering of one thing as changed into another; for example, land will be considered as converted into money and treated as such by a court of equity, when the owner has contracted to sell his estate, in which case, if he die before the conveyance, his executors and not his heirs will be entitled to the money. On the other hand, money is converted into land in a variety of ways as for example, when a man agrees to buy land and dies before he has received the conveyance, the money he was to pay for it will be considered as converted into lands and descend to the heir.

It is agreed upon by you, Ken Hardie, having no dispute to the following fact forthcoming from you; that you the private man are aware and agree that I am a flesh bone blood living man, being God's minister, and that I cannot possibly have been in a dead legal corporate fiction called the Province of Ontario, Canada or other as the Province of Ontario, Canada and other is not a place but a dead corporate fiction of law on paper created for the purpose of extracting money from me in fraud as it is totally against my will, conscience and a violation of my faith to submit to and is being done without my informed consent or cognisant permission for a financial gain.

It is agreed by you, Ken Hardie with full understanding, that failure to refute or disprove the facts provided above, as agreed upon by you, I am advised by

Christ at Matthew 18:15-20 to gain a simple agreement with you privately and very simply as a child so I would like your aid in agreeing with me that respecting persons written as persona in the Latin vulgate is sin and disrespected by God. Due to the emergent nature of this agreement you are required to respond to this agreement within 10 (ten) days of receipt representing fairness, truth, natural equity. Failure to respond will be deemed acceptance of the terms, including acknowledgment of all outlined facts and obligations. We can see that in Deuteronomy 1:17. 10:17, 2nd Samuel 14:14, Matthew 22:16. Acts 10:34, Romans 2:11, James 2:1-9 and 1st Peter 1:17. If you have no dispute with that scriptural fact I will confirm with witnesses then post our good faith agreement in a paper.

Thankyou for you aid in saving my faith harmless from assumption.

Hello, Laurel Collins, I am Richard of the Ochnik family, a flesh blood and bone living man created by God and an officiating minister of the Church of the Ecumenical Redemption International, an ecclesiastical organism of other flesh, blood and bone men and women as the many members of the body of Christ. Where truth is, fiction of law dose not exist. Maxims of law;

1959 CanLII 50 (SCC) | Roncarelli v. Duplessis | CanLII, Laurel Collins, by my sending you this private good faith agreement, I do attempt, by Christ's guidance, to ascertain all the facts in scriptural honour. If you have any reason or proof to suggest or provide to me, God's minister officially performing the functions of my calling, that the following statements of the facts are not true, you are being offered the opportunity to refute these offered facts so as to clear yourself of any assumptive contractual awareness of the truth of such facts. Also be aware, this communication of agreement cannot be lawfully inquired of at public or government expense as it is a provable private matter and government funding cannot support private contracts. All legal bills must and shall be paid for out of your private pocket no different than Maurice Duplessis the former Premier and Attorney General of Quebec in Roncarelly v Duplessis

This is Demand for recognition as Christ's ordained minister in quest of defense of the faith to save harmless my soul.

I declare that I am that God created, of a Christian given name Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, chosen to be a private ecclesiastic man under God as my creator with dominion over the earth. I do declare that no man or woman has a moral or a lawful right to impose anything upon me without my informed consent; and that I do hereby renounce any fraudulent corporate assumptive contract by the right of self determination and faith renouncing secular Contracts. Amselem 2004 SCR.

I do honour the directive obligation to respect the equal God given freedoms of other men and women under His law. To all those who set eyes on this ecclesiastical declaration, I do hereby, officially performing the functions of my calling, serve notice to all private men and women as of my inability to respect persons that receive this that any offer herein, prior to, or on my part does not imply acceptance of intimidation, violence, or threats of violence against me, and that no such offer implies that I will submit to any nuisance obstruction or intimidation in the future.

I, as a bondservant of Christ do henceforth offer the good faith proclamation of my free born will to live in peace and declare that, by right of God and his son Jesus words at Corinthians 7:20:26, the de facto authority's edicts, codes, obligations, statutes, taxes, licenses and prohibitions of a de facto commercial entity are not binding on me, John 15:16 ordained minister or applicable upon God's ministers and family, his Children and including their property.

I, minister Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, an ordained minister under John 15:16 and a watchman as per Ezekiel 33:6-9, hereby invoke the protections afforded by "Operation SILENT DEFENDER." This military receivership, initiated in response to systemic fiduciary breaches, encompasses the unauthorized creation and exploitation of my Cestui Que Trust, originating from my 1960 birth certificate.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms "man" and "woman" (also

1. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I, minister of Richard Henry of the Ochnik family was on or about the 30th of November, 2004 A.D., unlawfully intimidated and obstructed, by you, in your private capacity, by methods not sanctioned and as such, being a perceived and negative nuisance to my ability to perform an official function of my ministerial calling, are in violation of Sections 126,176, 423, 465 and 180 of the Criminal Code of Canada by violating your Oath of Allegiance and the Royal Style and Titles Act.
2. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I am not a member of a dead legal fiction entity corporation known as Canada or Ontario and that specifically my name, being my ecclesiastical possession under the exclusive authority of God, is not allowed by my faith in God's commands as defended by the Queen you swore an oath to be truly allegiant to, to be used, recorded, registered, altered used for or exchanged for a financial purpose without my permission that it has never been offered or pledged to be for any of those reasons or to be used as a surety or as a commodity with my informed consent.
3. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Canada is a Crown Corporation in the meaning of the act with sworn allegiance to the Queen Elizabeth II and heirs. The Country of Canada is accountable to the Queen Elizabeth II and heirs. On the passing of Her Royal Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, the Crown had been passed to her heir, King Charles III.
4. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that. It is agreed by you, that in 1966 ICCPR and ICESCR Signed: 19 December 1966 The principles of the UDHR offered hope and inspiration around the world. But to make a genuine difference in people's lives, those principles needed to be transformed into laws. In 1966, the UN Commission on Human Rights drafted two instruments to give legal force to the UDHR. One instrument was called the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The second was the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Together with the Universal Declaration, they comprise the International Bill of Human Rights. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights offers protections for the right to life, freedom of speech, religion, and voting. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights focuses on such issues as food, education, health, and shelter. More than 160 nations have ratified these two covenants which legally commit them to ensure these rights for people within their borders.

5. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact that in the Supreme Court Judgments [1980] 1 SCR 54 1979-12-21 Re: Authority of Parliament in relation to the Upper House Further, although s. 91(1) gave the Queen the power, with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, to alter the "Constitution of Canada" except in certain expressly designated areas, it does not confer a power to amend the B.N.A. Act. The word "Canada" in s. 91(1) does not refer to Canada as a geographical unit but refers to the "JURISTIC FEDERAL UNIT"
6. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1981 Zingre v. The Queen et al., [1981] 2 SCR 392 (Supreme Court of Canada). It is a recognized principle of international customary law that a state may not invoke the provisions of its internal law as justification for its failure to perform its international obligations.
7. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that; This contract is governed exclusively by the Law of God as found in the 1611 King James Bible, and the sanctuary jurisdiction under which it was formed. All disputes shall default to this sacred law unless waived in writing by the minister Richard Henry family of Ochnik.
8. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1982 the Charter of Human Rights and Freedoms Canada was implemented as the supreme law.
9. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1989 Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038, 1989 The reference in s. 32 to the "Parliament" and a "legislature" make clear that the Charter operates as a limitation on the powers of those legislative bodies. Any statute enacted by either Parliament or a Legislature which is inconsistent with the Charter will be outside the power of (ultra vires) the enacting body and will be invalid. It follows that any body exercising statutory authority, for example, the Governor in Council or Lieutenant Governor in Council, ministers, officials, municipalities, school boards, universities, administrative tribunals and police officers, is also bound by the Charter. Action taken under statutory authority is valid only if it is within the scope of that authority. Since neither Parliament nor a Legislature can itself pass a law in breach of the Charter, neither body can authorize action which would be in breach of the Charter. Thus, the limitations on statutory authority which are imposed by the Charter will flow down the chain of statutory authority and

apply to regulations, by-laws, orders, decisions and all other action (whether legislative, administrative or judicial) which depends for its validity on statutory authority

10. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1990 Thomson Newspapers Ltd. v. Canada (Director of Investigation and Research, Restrictive Trade Practices Commission) While individuals as a rule have full legal capacity by the operation of law alone, artificial persons are creatures of the state and enjoy civil rights and powers only upon the approval of statutory authorities. The individual may stand upon his constitutional rights. He owes no duty to the State, since he receives nothing there from, beyond the protection of his life and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long antecedent to the organization of the State and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in accordance with the Constitution. He owes nothing to the public so long as he does not trespass upon their rights.
11. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1997 The Supreme Court has made it clear in cases M. (A.) v. Ryan that Common Law in Canada Now Flows through the Constitution Act of 1982. M. (A.) v. Ryan, 1997 (SCC), [1997] 1 S.C.R. 157, that the common law must develop in accordance with Charter values. A Trespass in common law equals an infringement or denial of a fundamental right or freedom. (Listed in the constitution act or the covenants themselves)
12. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1999 R. v. Hynes, 1999 CanLII 18979 (NL CA) [101] The determination whether to enforce constitutionally protected rights under s. 24(2) was never intended to revert to the executive arm of government. Indeed, as has already been discussed, a primary purpose of the Charter was to place courts between the executive and the individual to protect the latter's individual fundamental rights and freedoms.
13. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2005 Court Judgement Supreme Court- Christie v. British Columbia, 2005 BCCA 631(CanLII)The rule of law embraces at least three principles. The first principle is that the "law is supreme over officials of the government as well as private individuals, and thereby preclusive of the influence of arbitrary power"
14. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2007 R. v. Hape, [2007] 2 S.C.R. 292, 2007 SCC 26 Para 53... It is a well-established principle of statutory interpretation that legislation will be presumed to conform to international law. The presumption of conformity is based on the rule of judicial policy that, as a matter of law, courts will strive to avoid constructions of domestic law pursuant to which the state would be in violation of its international obligations.

15. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2015 R. v. Wagner, 2015 ONCJ 66 The Rule of Law The idea that there are certain fundamental unwritten principles that govern all members of society including legislators and which judges are expected to enforce is not particularly new. The contemporary concept of unwritten constitutional principles can be seen as a modern reincarnation of the ancient doctrines of natural law
16. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Victoria (City) v. Adams, 2009 BCCA 563; 2008 BCSC 1363; The trial court found the prohibition of temporary overhead shelter in parks to be unconstitutional where there was a lack of alternative shelter space. The court held the issue to be clearly justiciable because it dealt with the constitutionality of a legal prohibition. The court relied on the right to adequate housing under international human rights law as an interpretive aid. The Court referred to submissions made by Canada to the United Nations Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights regarding the scope of domestic protections for the right to housing and on General Comment No. 4 on the right to adequate housing under the International Covenant of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR). The Court noted that the question of whether the right to life, liberty and security of the person imposes positive obligations on governments to ensure the right to housing has not yet been determined by the Supreme Court of Canada and did not need to be decided in this case, which only challenged state interference.
17. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Thompson v. Ministry of Revenue [1946] SCR 209, 1946 CanLII 1 (SCC) [Page 220] Residents are taxed, not Canadians; but residents within the meaning of the Act...
18. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Canada, the Provinces, and Territories, may produce; acts, enactments, statutes, rules, ordinance, laws, regulations and so forth but they do not apply to men and women and are limited in its scop of authority. Deuteronomie 12;32
19. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Canada had failed in its obligations in accordance with the "International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights" article 13 this is where it brings forth education regarding our rights and obligations concerning education, we find the following agreement that states; education first and foremost shall be for the promotion of human rights and freedoms. This education was denied and hidden form me so that it could be deprived from my rights and force me to slavery for a de facto fictional state against my free will. In this case ignorance is an excuse because as a child underage, I relied on the integrity, honesty of my pears that fraudulently, by omission deprived me of truth, to maximize their ability to extort funds from me by way of unlawful intimidation. It is unconscionable that abuse and manipulation with the intention to deceive a child could be argued as acceptable and binding later on an adult.

20. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

These are the words in the Oath of Office Act, indicating prima fascia an unlawful, unsanctioned, deficient form by the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance thus effectively invalidating the oath by making the oath grammatically incoherent.

I, . . . . ., swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law.

These are the words from the federal Oath of allegiance Act for Canada

..... it is very clear as to how the oath is to be worded in Canada, it is

(1) Every person who, either of his own accord or in compliance with any lawful requirement made of the person, or in obedience to the directions of any Act or law in force in Canada, except the Constitution Act, 1867 and the Citizenship Act, desires to take an oath of allegiance shall have administered and take the oath in the following form, and no other:

I, ....., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada, Her Heirs and Successors. So, help me God. The deviation from the prescribed form of the oath, such as the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance, results in a grammatically incoherent and legally deficient oath. This deficiency effectively invalidates the oath, rendering any authority exercised under its auspices unlawful. The administration or reliance upon such an invalid oath may constitute a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of Canada. Specifically: Canadian Criminal Code: Section 122, Section 131 and Section 132. Therefore, proceeding with or acting upon an oath that deviates from the legally mandated form may expose individuals to criminal liability under these provisions.

54. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing; "OSC in the mater of the Ontario Securities Act R.S.O. 1990, c. S.5. as amended and Richard Ochnik and 1464210 Ontario Inc., heard on March 1,2, 8 and 9, 2006", Hatice Pakdil had testified under oath untruthfully committing perjury, specifically but not limited to; that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also misled others stating that she did not work on behalf of the Company yet at all times TDW were paid a 7% commission selling Company shares to investors. The OSC used the case results listed in paragraph 46, as evidence of truth in subsequent hearing knowing, at all times that TDW were participating in a conspiracy and fraud to protect themselves from liability. This is an act of "Conspiracy" under Section 463 Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46), and "Fraud and Perjury" under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C46)

S.5. as amended and in the matter of TD Waterhouse Canada Inc. heard on September 19TH, 2005", had provided information knowing it to be untruthful, specifically but not limited to, that Richard Ochnik being the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also falsely stated that she was not working on behalf of the company. Hatice was not truthful and attempted to cover up her own securities violations involving a material conflict of interests representing of both the buyer and seller the same security without disclosure to the parties. This was a direct conflict of interest and prejudicial to the parties. This violation is called Crossing of Securities. Hatice Pakdils actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c.). The hearing(s) outcome were based on fraudulent mislead information that altered the outcome of this case and the case in paragraph 45 and 47 above. In This case TDW false information was accepted as truth without the involvement and opportunity for Richard Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. to enter defence evidence to the contrary trespassing on their inherent rights. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful to protect her job and the expense of others and wrongfully was enriched.

56. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing: Christa Ochnik and Ontario Securities Commission, Province of Ontario, TD Waterhouse, Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD Bank) and Hatice Pakdil. Hatice, had submitted a defence that was knowingly, to be untruthfully specifically but not limited to, statement that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. The argument that Richard was the de facto officer was not raised in the above two cases and could not be contested by Richard Ochnik. The Intention of the false information was to deceive the court for the inequitable wrongful benefit of Hatice Pakdil's employer and other defendants depriving the plaintiff of their rights under colour of law. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful in an attempt to protect her job and unlawfully gain from her crime. This resulted in fraudulently depriving Christa and her sisters a free born minors of their rightful inheritance as beneficiary of the Ochnik Family Trust. Hatice's actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46)
57. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, the private man/woman, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, was subjected to unlawful, cruel, and degrading treatment amounting to torture, as detailed in associated affidavits and records. 60. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Moore (Chairman) should have not been the Chairman on two hearings involving Richard Ochnik due to a conflict of interest. Its unconscionable to have expected the Chairman to rule in conflict with his earlier ruling. The Chairman did not have the lawful authority to change what was established as fact by himself in a earlier hearing without an appeal. Holding a hearing and agreeing on key facts without allowing Richard Ochnik to offer a defence was a trespass on his inherent rights, malicious slander, and libel. This technicality was deliberate to target Richard Ochnik because despite all evidence to the contrary in his own hearing it would not change the established facts from the previous case. In essence his case was lost before it started.

Richard Ochnik was not part of the securities negotiations, and his function was landlord and general contractor.
64. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC deliberately altered the truth to coincide with others knowing that it would be detrimental to Richard and the Ochnik Family. TDW fraudulently assisted the OSC to target Richard by naming him as the President and other deception to extend the authority of Ontario Securities

The company produced and delivered the share certificates and TD Waterhouse handed over payment for those certificates from the cash in the investors accounts as stated above, making the share purchase at the time of payment. Ian Ochnik and the company were vulnerable to Hatice Pakdil that had full control of the process.

82. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW were at the time a licensed broker with the Ontario Securities Commission and good standing.
83. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that funds from the purchaser's accounts, TDW clients were paid for by TD Waterhouse directly to 1464210 Ontario Inc. for the share purchase by cheque indicating the Company as a "Client".
84. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that 146420 Ontario Inc. had paid TDW the agreed commissions for each share's sale/purchase transaction by way of a cheque signed by Ian Ochnik President. Cheques were made out to "Pay to the order of: TD Waterhouse - investment advice." With "Hatice Pakdil" indicated in the notes.
85. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW never told the Company that TDW were not working for them. Given all the documents it would clearly indicate that they were confirmed to be working with TDW as their broker on record.
86. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shareholder investors 1464210 Ontario Inc. were also clients for TDW and TD Waterhouse.
87. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC do not know of any investor on 1464210 Ontario Inc. that was over the age of 65 and had purchased shares from 1464210 Ontario Inc.
88. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW were the only broker selling shares of 1464210 Ontario Inc. and responsible to maintain the company in compliance with all securities regulations.
89. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Bayfield was TDW Sales Assistant, and he was actively assisting in processing of the trades and had direct knowledge of the transactions playing a key role in the approvals to facilitate the purchase and subsequent SWAP of the shares.
90. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC ambushed Richard Ochnik during his hearing and knew he had a lawyer but refused to remand the case to meet the lawyers schedule and there by prejudicing the defence. There would have been no damage to any party to have delayed the hearing.

91. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in order for the shares to be SWAPED the cash in the account had to be used to purchase the shares earning TDW the commission. Then the newly purchased shares could only be SWAPED into the individual accounts earning TDW fees from the investors paid to TDW.
92. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that you accept full responsibility for any and all additional costs, fees, charges, or expenses incurred as a result of delays, administrative actions, defense filings, or any other related processes necessitated by your actions or omissions. You acknowledge and agree that the applicable fee schedule detailing such costs is available for your review at TD-lied.com or can be provided to you upon your written request. You further agree that this fee schedule is subject to amendments and updates from time to time, at the sole discretion and for the exclusive benefit of the minister, without prior notice to you. Such amendments are binding and non-disputable. Your acceptance of this clause signifies your consent to these terms and your obligation to remit payment for any applicable fees as outlined in the current fee schedule.
93. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Bayfield, Sales Assistant, at TD Waterhouse assisted TDW on a regular daily bases and had direct contact with most if not all investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. and reported to Hatice Pakdil.
94. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Bayfield was the liaison or facilitator between TD Waterhouse, TD Waterhouse compliance, 1464210 Ontario Inc., Ian Ochnik and TDW investor clients. Hatice Pakdil overseen the transactions as broker on record and de facto Trustee for the Ochnik Family Trust beneficiaries.
95. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC knowledge the key players involved; Ian Ochnik President and Paul Bayfield TD Waterhouse Sales Assistant were not questioned by the Ontario Securities Commission investigators regarding the facts for the 2 hearings above. They were not interviewed in fear their statements would confirm Richard Ochnik was not the President, de facto President or controlling mind. Also the Settlement Agreement Dated September 19 2005, between the OSC and TD Waterhouse was a conspiracy based on fraud to target the Ochnik's.
96. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc and Paul Bayfield were not subpoena or questioned by the Ontario Security Commission Hearings Involving 1464210 Ontario Inc and Richard Ochnik, contrary to the best evidence rules and practice. In this investigation the OSC exercised willful blindness and colour of law.
97. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after 1464210 Ontario Inc., refused to give a loan to Dan Miller. The Company offered to buy back the shares at a premium price. TD Waterhouse refused to allow the share buy back. TD Waterhouse and/or TD bank had arranged a loan for Dan Miller an investor in 1464210 Ontario Inc. after he had purchased share without knowledge or involvement of Richard Ochnik, Ian Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. This loan given by TDW was a violation of the Ontario Securities Act and was intended to cover up TDW securities violations.

98. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the company refused to provide a loan because it would be a violation of the Ontario Securities Act. Instead, the Company offered to buy back Dan Millers Shares, investment with a nominal profit. To me this totally contradicts the OSC claims that the company was involved in a RRSP loan scam. The company specifically told share holders they do not do loans and they would buy back all shares from individuals requesting RRSP loans. The company, 1464210 Ontario Inc. was vulnerable, totally relying on the performance of Hatice Pakil and TD Waterhouse. TD Waterhouse obstructed remedy by disallowing the buy back of shares deliberately to hold the vulnerable company in potential violation of the Ontario Securities Act.
99. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that providing a loan to a shareholder for the purchase of shares is a violation of the Ontario Securities Act. and a taxable benefit.
100. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was responsible to assess the investors and conduct a "Suitability Review" before instructing the Company to issue any shares. The company was detrimentally reliant upon TDW to take appropriate steps and precautions required to protect both the buyer and seller being TDW client(s), in a prohibited scheme referred to as crossing of securities.
101. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the Company was directed by TDW to produce a sample share certificate. The share certificate was not in "Street Form" and indicating: "This is to Certify That T. D. Waterhouse, in trust for _____ is the Registered Holder of _____ Shares." TDW would provide the name of the client to be inserted along with the account number after compliance approvals instructing the shares to be issued. Hatice Pakdil was the controlling mind of the company transaction.
102. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW advised the Company to produce an "Investor Representation Letter" indicating the declaration by the investor; "I do not currently own, Direct or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc., or any other related Company" and " I do not have any Rights to acquire any TDW, shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. "This letter was a requirement to be signed by all TDW investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. before the purchased shares. It is agreed by you, [First Name] [Last Name], the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW agreed to be broker of record May 06, 2002.

103. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that a sales compensation package was negotiated by Paul Panciw CFP (Certified Financial Planner) for the Company with TDW, Hatice Pakdel, on May 06, 2002, at 12:27 PM.
104. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the Company had cooperated with all TDW requests and did everything it was requested promptly to do to TDW satisfaction.
105. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that failed to provide full disclosures to the defendants as required by law. TDW did not send a copy of the "Privet Placement Agreement" in fear of incriminating Hatice Pakdil. TDW were aware that this document would have a direct impact on the outcome of the case establishing that the company had a licenced broker and was detrimentally reliant on TD Waterhouse to save it harmless and to maintain the Company in good standing to all related regulations and Acts.
106. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the sales transaction consisted of a 7% commission calculated on the sale amount of shares and a $25 000 (in cash or shares) bonus for achieving each million dollars in sales threshold. The Company offered shares or cash as payment; as part of TDW selling shares and purchasing them for their clients RRSP accounts. Share sales generate a sales commission paid by the seller Company and SWAPS generate a fixed fee paid by the investor buyer – both were TDW clients.
107. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that According to the TDW "Rate Tables", the Company would be charged the flat fee of $20.00 for a SWAP but rather a commission for a sale or "Trade". TDW negotiated a commission representing the sale of shares.
108. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after TDW due diligence by their lawyer, Compliance Department, Branch Manager and RRSP Department, that TDW assistant Paul Bayfield, Sales Assistant, then notified the Company that they were prepared to go ahead with the purchase and SWAP of the shares.
109. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. was satisfied and by the "Letter of Authority" provided Paul Panciw with the authority to bind the Company in a "Contractual Relationship" with TDW. (There was an agreement and mutual understanding). A contract was signed by the Company solidifying the relationship. TDW became brokers of record.
110. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all the sales commissions for the "Private Placement" were paid only by the Company to avoid a conflict of interest. A "SWAP" would not generate a commission but flat fee.

112. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that "Privet Placement Subscription Forms (for the Purchase of Small Business Shares)" and "Investor Representation Letter" were directly sent to the potential investors (Hatice Pakdil clients) and TDW would have full knowledge of there response keeping it confidential from the company.
113. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Form" were not a binding contract: paragraph 4. "Acceptance of Subscription: This subscription will be and be deemed for all purposes to have been accepted by the Corporation when the Corporation gives notice in writing to the purchaser of the allotment and issuance of the Shares subscribed for, but the corporation shall be under no obligation to accept this subscription". The share sale only occurred once TD Waterhouse paid for the shares from the cash in the, the private man with no dispute to the investor's accounts and not before. Before that could happen, TD had to notify the company regarding the buyer, account number and number of shares.
114. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Forms" also contained the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" that indicated "I do not currently own, directly or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc..." and was signed by the purchaser acknowledging the statement to be true. This clearly indicated TDW could not preform a SWAP with out first purchasing the shares. TDW then proceed to purchase the shares, by instructing Ian Ochnik, President to produce the share certificates as directed by TD compliance department (providing investor name, amount of purchase and account number).
115. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TD Waterhouse set up the new client accounts, transferred the client's funds from other institutions into the TD Waterhouse account as cash. The accounts were all self directed RRSP accounts and all part of a "Small Business Investment Trust" (SBIT). This Trust was in place before the company approached TDW and not established exclusively for this transaction. fact forthcoming from you that all the accounts were transferred as cash and as such they all had cash in the accounts and no shares of other companies specifically 1464210 Ontario Inc. Shares then needed to be sold by the company and purchase by Hatice Pakdil clients; then healed in a holding account prior to the SWAP taking place into the RRSP account generating a fee.

116. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "New Clients" were established. Hatice Pakdil was their "Investment Advisor" and responsible for the client's account. The Company completed all the requirements of a "Pre-Approved Privet Placement". Hatice Pakdil testified under oath that she considered herself as an order taker and not adviser to the new clients facilitating the buy and sale of the Company shares.
117. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TD's New Client were asks online F) to charge the transaction fee to their account at TD Evergreen a division of TD Securities. TD Securities is a division of TD Bank (Schedule "A" Bank).TD had received transaction fees from the buyer and the seller in the same transaction and was a conflict of interests and kept secret by TDW to the detriment of the company and investors. Hatice Pakdil committed perjury by saying she did not represent the company. Neither party, buyer or seller knew TDW was working and paid by both the buyer and seller.
118. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all of TDW's "New Client(s)" instructs there "Investment Advisor" Hatice Pakdil to "acquire" shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. for there RRSP account. Indicating they had no possession of shares to do a SWAP unless Hatice Pakdil processed the purchase/sale of shares.
119. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had direct knowledge that the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." were not signed because clients kept changing the number of shares that they were purchasing. The change would have triggered a requirement to amend the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." Also, there was no practical way to confirm the amount of shares that the client could afford to purchase until the account was moved to TDW and in a cash position. TDW needed to know the cash availability to calculate the number of shares to be purchased at $1.00 per share. Also, the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" told TDW that they had no ownership of shares or rights to purchase shares indicating the buy and sell had not taken place yet until TD gave the company the cheque payment for the shares as stipulated on paragraph 5 of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares.". , the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW, Hatice Pakdil did speak to potential investors before the signing and execution of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares" with the help of TDW sales assistant. This fact clearly confirms that Hatice Pakdil had purchased shares form TDW Customer the Company to facilitate a SWAP for TDW investment clients.
120. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Bayfield "Sales Assistant" contacts the Company to order shares after acquisitions were approved by TD Compliance and before the shares were issued by the Company and delivered to TDW.

121. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW were placing orders acquiring and selling shares to TDW investors.
122. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that The Company had no access to the private and confidential "New Client" information that was provided to TDW as part of the "Know Your Client" information form. This form is mandatory as part of the "Ontario Securities Act". This information would provide TDW Compliance and Hatice Pakil with the necessary information to determine the "New Client's" eligibility, as to whether or not they were an "Accredited Investor" under the definitions in the "Ontario Securities Act" in accordance with the company lawyer, Mr. King's instructions regarding compliance requirements provided to TDW. 1464210 Ontario Inc. was detrimentally reliant on TDW to access accounts and determine suitability to maintain regulations. The company had no access to the client information due to TD investor confidentiality requirements. TDW approved share purchases without verifying investor eligibility as required by the Ontario Securities Act.
123. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shares are property of the issuer and not the subscriber according to the terms of the "Private Placement Subscription Form". The investor had only made an offer to purchase. They only transferred share ownership when TD handed the company payment for the shares representing consideration in a purchase.
124. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was negligent and processed the transaction as a "SWAP" into the client's account. As a result, the head office review of trades was per TDW Policy 2 and that requirement did not take place as required by regulation. If it was done properly the issue would have been discovered in the first trade and saved the Company. The Company had no knowledge of TDW errors. TDW had an obligation to correct the issue and save the company.
125. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shares were distributed to the "New Client's" RRSP accounts by TDW as a trade and then followed by a SWAP.
126. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that The Company paid TD Waterhouse about $107,000 to act as licensed broker and Adviser for the Company. The Company paid TD Waterhouse for advice and sales commissions of 7%. The Company relied on TD Waterhouse to follow the rules and to maintain 1464210 Ontario Inc. in compliance with "Ontario Securities Act". TD Waterhouse, through Paul Bayfield, dealt with all the investors and instructed the Company as to how much and who's named to place on each share certificate. No subscription agreement was exercised by 1464210 Ontario Inc. The go ahead was given to Paul Bayfield "Sale Assistant" by TD Waterhouse's compliance department. Paul

Bayfield was TDW assistant and received instructions from TDW. TDW had over seen each of the transactions.

127. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that as part of the settlement agreement it was admitted by TD Waterhouse failed to comply with the suitability requirements to its clients contrary to section 1.5 of rule 31505; and that TDW failed to comply with its obligation to deal with its clients fairly by failing to disclosure to the clients the 7% commission that were paid to TDW contrary to section 2.1(2) of rule 31-505 and there by acted contrary to the public interests and placing the company in violation with the Ontario Securities Act.
128. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that if TDW told the truth and admitted that TDW had errored the company and the Ochnik Family specifically the Trust would have not suffered such an unconscionable punishment and the three children freeborn beneficiaries would and should have been saved harmless.

132. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, with no lawful objection registered, that these damages result from a coordinated breach of fiduciary duty, misrepresentation, fraud, and criminal obstruction. 133. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that by not being forthright and truthful TDW participated in a fraud to your own benefit and profit at the expense of the Company. It is unconscionable that Hatice Pakdil allowed and orchestrated this fraud with the help TDW employer, Ontario Securities Commission (OSC) and Paul Moore Chairman.

153. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that based on conservative financial calculations from 2004, reflecting a doubling of losses every four years due to compounding factors, the current value of damages sustained by the 'Ochnik Family Trust' is estimated at over $280 (two hundred and eighty) million Canadian dollars. This figure accounts for the compounded harm caused by your actions, including but not limited to fraudulent misrepresentation, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, and obstruction of justice. Full restitution of this adjusted amount is required to prevent further harm and ensure compliance with the principles of fairness, truth, equity and good faith.
154. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that you are responsible to make the "Ochnik Family Trust" whole by financially compensating them for all their losses and damages in 30 days on demand. Payment will be, as directed by minister Richard Henry family of Ochnik.

155. It is agreed by you, the private man Laurel Collins, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any breach of this agreement, including misrepresentation, fiduciary breach, fraud, or delay in remedy, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, acting as minister and also steward or trustee, shall be entitled to initiate enforcement in any competent forum of my choosing. All damages, whether direct, indirect, or consequential, including psychological, spiritual, and economic harm, shall be calculated in good faith and are enforceable under equity and law. The obligation to remedy these harms shall include but not be limited to: Direct financial losses, Reputational and spiritual harm, Involuntary service and elder abuse And Constitutional violations of conscience and trust; Leviticus 6:2–5 and Isaiah 61:7
156. It is agreed by you, the private man Laurel Collins, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, shall retain the sole, unfettered right to elect the forum and venue in which enforcement, adjudication, or interpretation of this agreement may be pursued. This includes courts of record with inherent jurisdiction, whether within Canada or the United States, including ecclesiastical or international human rights tribunals. Such selection shall be made at his sole discretion and shall be binding upon all parties as agreed in advance. This clause serves to ensure full access to fair and impartial adjudication under the maxims of law, international covenant, and God's justice.

You acknowledge that any failure to publicly correct or retract previous defamatory or fraudulent claims, including those issued by TD Bank Group, TD Waterhouse, OSC, or their agents, shall constitute an ongoing and compounding harm under both spiritual law and equity. It is agreed by you, the private man Laurel Collins, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that failure to respond to or rebut this agreement within 30 days constitutes tacit admission and contractual default. In such case, I shall have full standing to enter judgment and proceed to enforcement, including garnishment, lien, or seizure under the applicable statutes or ecclesiastical process, without further notice or leave of any court.
160. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.

161. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an oath to a Christian Monarch is an act of religious worship and all who refuse to acknowledge and submit to that fact are imposters who lied to get their job. See Westminster Confession of Faith Act of the British Parliament 1648 chapter 22.
162. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man , with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private man or woman with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.
163. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that a minister once notifying whoever obstructs them that he is a minister not bound by commercial law in performing the functions of his calling and that unless proof to the contrary is evident, the man or woman once made aware of the ministry being performed, has no sanction in law or from the Christian monarch they swore to be truly allegiant to, to obstruct, intimidate or act as a nuisance to him while performing the official functions of his calling.
164. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no woman calling himself Chair of the Ontario Securities Commission has any oath bound nor civil authority to obstruct a minister from performing the functions of his calling nor to determine the functions of his calling unless damage has ensued to man, woman or property violating God's law as complained of by an opposing man or woman.
165. It is agreed by Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.
166. It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman who has sworn an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant to the "Defender of the faith", then obstructs, intimidates or acts as a nuisance to the ability of an officiating minister of God, has acted against the Queens ability to defend the faith and is attempting to overthrow her majesty's government, being the King James Bible, by force....and that Section 46 of the criminal code applies to all sworn allegiant officers of her majesty.

It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors,( that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

It is very important that I show you why I can not allow any one to assume that they have any power or force over me. To be definitive, TDW need to see the lawful definition of person and the scriptures that guide me and command me to not show respect to persons, as they are fictions of law. A player on a stage wearing a mask.

PERSON. This word is applied to men, women and children, who are called natural persons. In law, man and person are not exactly synonymous terms. Any human being is a man, whether he be a member of society or not, whatever may be the rank he holds, or whatever may be his age, sex, etc. A person is a man considered according to the rank he holds in society, with all the rights to which the place he holds entitles him, and the duties which it imposes. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 137.. It is also used to denote a corporation which is an artificial person. 1 Bl.

Com. 123; 4 Bing. 669; C. 33 Eng. C. L R. 488; Wooddes. Lect. 116; Bac. Us. 57; 1 Mod. 164.

But when the word "Persons" is spoken of in legislative acts, natural persons will be intended, unless something appears in the context to show that it applies to artificial persons. 1 Scam. R.178.

Natural persons are divided into males, or men, and females or women. Men are capable of all kinds of engagements and functions, unless by reasons applying to particular individuals. Women cannot be appointed to any public office, nor perform any civil functions, except those which the law specially declares them capable of exercising. Civ. Code of Louis. art. 25.

They are also sometimes divided into free persons and slaves. Freemen are those who have preserved their natural liberty, that is to say, who have the right of doing what is not forbidden by the law. A slave is one who is in the power of a master to whom he belongs. Slaves are sometimes ranked not with persons but things. But sometimes they are considered as persons for example, a negro is in contemplation of law a person, so as to be capable of committing a riot in conjunction with white men. 1 Bay, 358. Vide Man.

Persons are also divided into citizens, (q. v.) and aliens, (q. v.) when viewed with regard to their political rights. When they are considered in relation to their civil rights, they are living or civilly dead; vide Civil Death; outlaws; and infamous persons.

Persons are divided into legitimates and bastards, when examined as to their rights by birth.

TO PERSONATE, crim. law. The act of assuming the character of another without lawful authority, and, in such character, doing something to his prejudice, or to the prejudice of another, without his will or consent.

The bare fact of personating another for the purpose of fraud, is no more than a cheat or misdemeanour at common law, and punishable as such. 2 East, P. C. 1010; 2 Russ. on Cr. 479.

By the act of congress of the 30th April, 1790, s. 15, 1 Story's Laws U. S. 86, it is enacted, that " if any person shall acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged in any court of Canada, any recognizance, bail or judgement, in the name or names of any other person or persons not privy or consenting to the same, every such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeds five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding seven years, and whipped not exceeding thirty-nine stripes, Provided nevertheless. that this act shall not extend to the acknowledgment of any judgement or judgements by any attorney or attorneys, duly admitted, for any person or persons against whom any such judgement or judgements shall be had or given." Vide, generally, 2 John. Cas. 293; 16 Vin. Ab. 336; Com. Dig. Action on the case for a deceit, A 3.

James 2:9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one [point], he is guilty of all.

Here is a list of more in-depth definitions so no one gets lost.

I am not a Person, or an Individual, or even a human, Manuel, but before you think I am crazy, examine the facts.

I am not a person, or an individual, or a Human, and although some humans look similar to me, I am not a human.

Some would say that I am a 'natural' person, but as I will show you, I am not one of those either. Who then or what then, am I?

To understand who I am, you must first understand the definitions which have been placed on the words I have quoted above, words that are commonly used, but do not describe me anymore. For example, the word 'person'.

Person – The Revised Code of Washington, RCW 1.16.080, (I live in Washington State) defines a person as follows: "The term 'person' may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual."

Person – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 791, defines 'person' as follows: "In general usage, a human being (i.e. natural person), though by statute term may include labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” Person – Oran’s Dictionary of the Law, West Group 1999, defines

Person as: 1. A human being (a “natural” person). 2. A corporation (an “artificial” person). Corporations are treated as persons in many legal situations. Also, the word “person” includes corporations in most definitions in this dictionary. 3. Any other “being” entitled to sue as a legal entity (a government, an association, a group of Trustees, etc.). 4.. The plural of person is persons, not people (see that word).

Person – Duhaime’s Law Dictionary. An entity with legal rights and existence including the ability to sue and be sued, to sign contracts, to receive gifts, to appear in court either by themselves or by lawyer and, generally, other powers incidental to the full expression of the entity in law. Individuals are “persons” in law unless they are minors or under some kind of other incapacity such as a court finding of mental incapacity. Many laws give certain powers to “persons”, which in almost all instances, includes business organizations that have been formally registered such as partnerships, corporations or associations.

legal person – Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary of Law 1996, defines a legal person as : a body of persons or an entity (as a corporation) considered as having many of the rights and responsibilities of a natural person and esp. the capacity to sue and be sued.

A person according to these definitions, is basically an entity – legal fiction – of some kind that has been legally created and has the legal capacity to be sued. Isn’t it odd that the word lawful is not used within these definitions? Well then.... I am not “the United States, this state, or any territory, or any public or private corporation”. I am not “labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” So, I cannot be a ‘person’ under this part of the definition.

The RCW quoted above also states that a person could also be an “individual”. Black’s Law Dictionary also defines a person as a “human being,” which they define by stating “(i.e. natural person)”. So, let’s first check to see if I am an “individual”.

Individual – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 533, defines

“individual” as follows: “As a noun, this term denotes a single person as distinguished from a group or class, and also, very commonly, a private or natural person as distinguished from a partnership, corporation, or association; but it is said that this restrictive signification is not necessarily inherent in the word, and that it may, in proper cases, include artificial persons.”

Well now, I have already been shown that I am not a 'person', and since

'individual' denotes a single 'person' as distinguished from a group or class, I can't be an 'individual' under this definition either. But I see the term 'natural person' used in the definition of the RCW, and also in the definition of some of the Law Dictionaries. Maybe I am a 'natural' person, since I know I am not an 'artificial' one.

I could not find the term 'Natural person' defined anywhere, so I had to look up the word 'natural' for a definition to see if that word would fit with the word person...

Natural – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg.712, defines 'Natural' as follows: "Untouched by man or by influences of civilization; wild; untutored, and is the opposite of the word "artificial". The juristic meaning of this term does not differ from the vernacular, except in the cases where it is used in opposition to the term "legal"; and then it means proceeding from or determined by physical causes or conditions, as distinguished from positive enactments of law, or attributable to the nature of man rather than the commands of law, or based upon moral rather than legal considerations or sanctions."

Hmmm, what do they mean by this definition? Am I untouched by man (depends on what the word 'man' means), or by influences of civilization? I don't think so. Am I 'wild', or 'untutored'? (Buzzer sound), not me. Even though the definition states that this word is the opposite of the word 'artificial', it still does not describe who I believe I am. So, I must conclude that I am not a 'natural' person, under this definition of the word 'natural'. So, the term 'natural person' cannot apply to me.

Black's Law Dictionary also used the term 'human being', and although Black's defined it as a 'natural person', maybe they made a mistake, maybe I am a 'human being'. 'Human' or 'human being' does not appear to have a 'legal' definition, so I went to my old standby 1888 Noah Webster's Dictionary for a vernacular definition of this word. Maybe Noah would know who I am

Human – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'human' as follows: n. A human being; one of the race of man. [Rare and inelegant.] "Sprung of humans that inhabit earth." ...To me, the etymology of the word Hu-man, suggests that it is a marriage of two separate words 'Hue' (defined as the property of color), and man. But this cannot, of course, be correct, at least not politically correct, so I can't go there, because the word would then mean 'coloured man'!

Am I of the race of man? Rare and inelegant? Sprung of humans that inhabit earth (ground)? (I'm not coloured either). Well, it looks like I have to define the word 'man' through Webster's because there appears to be no legal definition for 'man'.

Man – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'man' as follows: An individual of the human race; a human being; a person.

Great news!!, it looks like we are back to the beginning of our study of definitions, yup, back to the start, completed the circle. I am not an 'individual', so I cannot be considered 'of the human race'; and since I'm not of the human race, I can't be 'a human being', and I've also been shown that I'm not a 'person' either.

Now let us see what the word Human really means.....I am going into detail so TDW can see we have been deceived by the misuse of our own language.

Definition of Human Being

Are you a 'person', an 'individual', or a 'human being'? These words, at law, define you as being spiritually 'dead.' This is how the world makes its attachment to you. The terms, 'person', 'individual', 'human being', etc., are not in Christ. Words like "individual," and "human being" do not even appear in Scripture! These are 'created' terms by the natural man (1 Cor 2:14). These words describe the 'old man', but not the 'new man' in Christ (Col 3:9-10). In Balantine's Self Pronouncing Law Dictionary, 1948, page 389, Human

Being is defined as "See Monster." On page 540 of this same Law Dictionary, Monster is defined as "a human being by birth, but in some part resembling a lower animal."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, pages 879- 880, a Monster is defined as "a person so cruel, wicked, depraved, etc., as to horrify others." From the Random House Dictionary of the English Language, 2nd Edition, page 901, Human Being is defined as a "Natural man: unenlightened or unregenerate," and on page 1461, Unregenerate means "not regenerate; unrepentant; an unregenerate sinner; not convinced by or unconverted to a particular religion; wicked, sinful, dissolute."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, page 657, Humanitarianism is defined as "the doctrine that humankind may become perfect without divine aid."

In Colliers New Dictionary of the English Language, 1928, Humanitarian is defined as "a philanthropist; an anti-Trinitarian who rejects the doctrine of Christ's divinity; a perfectionist."

And in the Random House Webster's College Dictionary, 1990, page 653, Humanism is defined as "any system or mode of thought or action in which human interests, values and dignity predominate, especially an ethical theory that often rejects the importance of a belief in God."

Therefore, when anyone calls himself or herself a 'human being', or a 'humanitarian,' they are saying (according to every definition of these words, and according to the law), "I'm an animal; I'm a monster; I'm not saved; I'm unrepentant; I'm an unregenerate sinner; I'm not converted; I'm wicked, sinful, and dissolute; I'm cruel, depraved, unenlightened; and I reject Christ's divinity and the importance of a belief in God."

a. “Men [Bondman] rely for protection of their right on God’s law, and not upon regulations and proclamations of departments of government, or officers who have been designated to carry laws into effect.” Baty v. Sale, 43 Ill. 351.” [Codes, edicts, proclamations, and decisions are not Law, which define or regulate the Good and Lawful Bondman. Therefore, “law” suits are ungodly, and are the redress for and of human beings, i.e., non-believers.]

The Septuagint uses the term “human beings” only one time, and its meaning is identical to the above definitions. Let’s look at the last verse of the book of Jonah, where Nineve was full of men who were unrepentant, unregenerate, unconverted, wicked, sinful, dissolute, cruel, depraved, unenlightened, rejected the importance of a belief in God. Or, in other words, “human beings.”

b. The term “human being” is also synonymous with the term ‘natural man.’

c. “The natural man is a spiritual monster. His heart is where his feet should be, fixed upon the earth; his heels are lifted up against heaven, which his heart should be set on. His face is towards hell, his back towards heaven. He loves what he should hate and hates what he should love; joys in what he ought to mourn for and mourns for what he ought to rejoice in; glories in his shame, and is ashamed of his glory; abhors what he should desire, and desires what he should abhor.” [Thomas Boston, quoted in Augustus Toplady, Complete Works (1794, reprinted by Sprinkle Publications 1987), page 584].

And the Word confirms: “But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.” [1 Corinthians 2:14,]

The above verse witnesses to us that the natural man is spiritually dead. The ‘natural man’ in Scripture is synonymous with the ‘natural person’ as defined in man’s laws.

“Natural Person means human being, and not an artificial or juristic person.” Shawmut Bank, N.A. v. Valley Farms, 610 A. 2d. 652, 654; 222 Conn. 361.

Natural Person: Any human being who as such is a legal entity as distinguished from an artificial person, like a corporation, which derives its status as a legal entity from being recognized so in law. Natural Child: The ordinary euphemism for ‘bastard’ or illegitimate.” [Amon v. Moreschi, 296 N.Y. 395, 73 N.E.2d 716.” Max Radin, Radin’s Law Dictionary (1955), p. 216.]

Those that are spiritually dead belong to the prince of this world because he's dead himself. Satan has dominion over the natural man, for he is the prince of this world [John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11]; and, because of this, he has dominion over those of the world, i.e., human beings, the natural man – those who receive not the things of the Spirit of God and reject Christ. Because the bondman in Christ is sanctified from the world, he is separated from the adversary's dominion over him—sin [John 8:34].. This is the cause for Christ having sanctified Himself in the Truth of the Word of God – to provide the entrance to the refuge in and through Himself for us. I could provide you more, Manuel, and I do sincerely thank you for your focused attention to this, my honest effort at officially performing the function of my calling in establishing this agreement with you as per Matthew 5:25 and 18:15-20, but I think you are already overwhelmed as I have, upon presentation of facts, destroyed your belief system and now you are aware you are working for a massive criminal organization founded upon a false oath. Can you now see why I must not allow my name to be altered? Remember, every one of the officers of Alberta has a false oath...What kind of authority swears an oath that is bogus??? A false authority!

Conversion Torts; The unlawful turning or applying the personal goods of another to the use of the taker, or of some other person than the owner; or the unlawful destroying or altering their nature.

When a party takes away or wrongfully assumes the right to goods which belong to another, it will in general be sufficient evidence of a conversion but when the original taking was lawful, as when the party found the goods, and the detention only is illegal, it is absolutely necessary to make a demand of the goods, and there must be a refusal to deliver them before the conversion will be complete. The refusal by a servant to deliver the goods entrusted to him by his master is not evidence of a conversion by his master. Leviticus 6:2-5 The tortious taking of property is, of itself, a conversion and any intermeddling with it, or any exercise of dominion over it, subversive of the dominion of the owner or the nature of the bailment if it be bailed, is evidence of a conversion.

In Equity, the considering of one thing as changed into another; for example, land will be considered as converted into money and treated as such by a court of equity, when the owner has contracted to sell his estate, in which case, if he die before the conveyance, his executors and not his heirs will be entitled to the money. On the other hand, money is converted into land in a variety of ways as for example, when a man agrees to buy land and dies before he has received the conveyance, the money he was to pay for it will be considered as converted into lands and descend to the heir.

It is agreed upon by you, Laurel Collins, having no dispute to the following fact forthcoming from you; that you the private man are aware and agree that I am a flesh bone blood living man, being God's minister, and that I cannot possibly have been in a dead legal corporate fiction called the Province of Ontario, Canada or other as the Province of Ontario, Canada and other is not a place but a dead corporate fiction of law on paper created for the purpose of extracting money from me in fraud as it is totally against my will, conscience and a violation of my faith to submit to and is being done without my informed consent or cognisant permission for a financial gain.

It is agreed by you, Laurel Collins with full understanding, that failure to refute or disprove the facts provided above, as agreed upon by you, I am advised by

Christ at Matthew 18:15-20 to gain a simple agreement with you privately and very simply as a child so I would like your aid in agreeing with me that respecting persons written as persona in the Latin vulgate is sin and disrespected by God. Due to the emergent nature of this agreement you are required to respond to this agreement within 10 (ten) days of receipt representing fairness, truth, natural equity. Failure to respond will be deemed acceptance of the terms, including acknowledgment of all outlined facts and obligations. We can see that in Deuteronomy 1:17. 10:17, 2nd Samuel 14:14, Matthew 22:16. Acts 10:34, Romans 2:11, James 2:1-9 and 1st Peter 1:17. If you have no dispute with that scriptural fact I will confirm with witnesses then post our good faith agreement in a paper.

Thankyou for you aid in saving my faith harmless from assumption.

Notice for a Demand of an Ecclesiastical Accommodation and Agreement

Provided under Christ's careful direction and the watchman's eye of Ezekiel 33

In the holy name of Christ, as where two or more agree in His holy name, for the will of our father, it shall be done. Matthew 18;20

If one falsely accuses another of a crime, the punishment due to that crime should be inflicted upon the perjured informer. Maxims of law

Hello, Frank Caputo, I am Richard of the Ochnik family, a flesh blood and bone living man created by God and an officiating minister of the Church of the Ecumenical Redemption International, an ecclesiastical organism of other flesh, blood and bone men and women as the many members of the body of Christ. Where truth is, fiction of law dose not exist. Maxims of law;

If ever the law of God and man are at variance, the former are to be obeyed in derogation of the later.
Maxims. Acts 5:29

1959 CanLII 50 (SCC) | Roncarelli v. Duplessis | CanLII, Frank Caputo, by my sending you this private good faith agreement, I do attempt, by Christ's guidance, to ascertain all the facts in scriptural honour. If you have any reason or proof to suggest or provide to me, God's minister officially performing the functions of my calling, that the following statements of the facts are not true, you are being offered the opportunity to refute these offered facts so as to clear yourself of any assumptive contractual awareness of the truth of such facts. Also be aware, this communication of agreement cannot be lawfully inquired of at public or government expense as it is a provable private matter and government funding cannot support private contracts. All legal bills must and shall be paid for out of your private pocket no different than Maurice Duplessis the former Premier and Attorney General of Quebec in Roncarelly v Duplessis

This is Demand for recognition as Christ's ordained minister in quest of defense of the faith to save harmless my soul.

Both parties agree to act in good faith, ensuring no misleading actions or omissions that could undermine the intent or enforceability of this agreement. Each party is obligated to respect the natural rights and freedoms outlined herein.

I declare that I am that God created, of a Christian given name Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, chosen to be a private ecclesiastic man under God as my creator with dominion over the earth. I do declare that no man or woman has a moral or a lawful right to impose anything upon me without my informed consent; and that I do hereby renounce any fraudulent corporate assumptive contract by the right of self determination and faith renouncing secular Contracts. Amselem 2004 SCR.

I do honour the directive obligation to respect the equal God given freedoms of other men and women under His law. To all those who set eyes on this ecclesiastical declaration, I do hereby, officially performing the functions of my calling, serve notice to all private men and women as of my inability to respect persons that receive this that any offer herein, prior to, or on my part does not imply acceptance of intimidation, violence, or threats of violence against me, and that no such offer implies that I will submit to any nuisance obstruction or intimidation in the future.

I, as a bondservant of Christ do henceforth offer the good faith proclamation of my free born will to live in peace and declare that, by right of God and his son Jesus words at Corinthians 7:20:26, the de facto authority's edicts, codes, obligations, statutes, taxes, licenses and prohibitions of a de facto commercial entity are not binding on me, John 15:16 ordained minister or applicable upon God's ministers and family, his Children and including their property.

I, minister Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, an ordained minister under John 15:16 and a watchman as per Ezekiel 33:6-9, hereby invoke the protections afforded by "Operation SILENT DEFENDER." This military receivership, initiated in response to systemic fiduciary breaches, encompasses the unauthorized creation and exploitation of my Cestui Que Trust, originating from my 1960 birth certificate.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms "man" and "woman" (also Queen and King) are used interchangeably and are intended to be inclusive of all individuals, regardless of gender identity. Any reference to a specific gender shall be construed to include all genders, and no provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to exclude any person based on gender.

1. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I, minister of Richard Henry of the Ochnik family was on or about the 30th of November, 2004 A.D., unlawfully intimidated and obstructed, by you, in your private capacity, by methods not sanctioned and as such, being a perceived and negative nuisance to my ability to perform an official function of my ministerial calling, are in violation of Sections 126,176, 423, 465 and 180 of the Criminal Code of Canada by violating your Oath of Allegiance and the Royal Style and Titles Act.

2. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I am not a member of a dead legal fiction entity corporation known as Canada or Ontario and that specifically my name, being my ecclesiastical possession under the exclusive authority of God, is not allowed by my faith in God's commands as defended by the Queen you swore an oath to be truly allegiant to, to be used, recorded, registered, altered used for or exchanged for a financial purpose without my permission that it has never been offered or pledged to be for any of those reasons or to be used as a surety or as a commodity with my informed consent.
4. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that. It is agreed by you, that in 1966 ICCPR and ICESCR Signed: 19 December 1966 The principles of the UDHR offered hope and inspiration around the world. But to make a genuine difference in people's lives, those principles needed to be transformed into laws. In 1966, the UN Commission on Human Rights drafted two instruments to give legal force to the UDHR. One instrument was called the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The second was the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Together with the Universal Declaration, they comprise the International Bill of Human Rights. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights offers protections for the right to life, freedom of speech, religion, and voting. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights focuses on such issues as food, education, health, and shelter. More than 160 nations have ratified these two covenants which legally commit them to ensure these rights for people within their borders.
5. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact that in the Supreme Court Judgments [1980] 1 SCR 54 1979-12-21 Re: Authority of Parliament in relation to the Upper House Further, although s. 91(1) gave the Queen the power, with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, to alter the "Constitution of Canada" except in certain expressly designated areas, it does not confer a power to amend the B.N.A. Act. The word "Canada" in s. 91(1) does not refer to Canada as a geographical unit but refers to the "JURISTIC FEDERAL UNIT" recognized principle of international customary law that a state may not invoke the provisions of its internal law as justification for its failure to perform its international obligations.

9. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1989 Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038, 1989 The reference in s. 32 to the "Parliament" and a "legislature" make clear that the Charter operates as a limitation on the powers of those legislative bodies. Any statute enacted by either Parliament or a Legislature which is inconsistent with the Charter will be outside the power of (ultra vires) the enacting body and will be invalid. It follows that any body exercising statutory authority, for example, the Governor in Council or Lieutenant Governor in Council, ministers, officials, municipalities, school boards, universities, administrative tribunals and police officers, is also bound by the Charter. Action taken under statutory authority is valid only if it is within the scope of that authority. Since neither Parliament nor a Legislature can itself pass a law in breach of the Charter, neither body can authorize action which would be in breach of the Charter. Thus, the limitations on statutory authority which are imposed by the Charter will flow down the chain of statutory authority and apply to regulations, by-laws, orders, decisions and all other action (whether legislative, administrative or judicial) which depends for its validity on statutory authority
10. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1990 Thomson Newspapers Ltd. v. Canada (Director of Investigation and Research, Restrictive Trade Practices Commission) While individuals as a rule have full legal capacity by the operation of law alone, artificial persons are creatures of the state and enjoy civil rights and powers only upon the approval of statutory authorities. The individual may stand upon his constitutional rights. He owes no duty to the State, since he receives nothing there from, beyond the protection of his life and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long antecedent to the organization of the State and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in accordance with the Constitution. He owes nothing to the public so long as he does not trespass upon their rights.

S.C.R. 157, that the common law must develop in accordance with Charter values. A Trespass in common law equals an infringement or denial of a fundamental right or freedom. (Listed in the constitution act or the covenants themselves)

13. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2005 Court Judgement Supreme Court- Christie v. British Columbia, 2005 BCCA 631 (CanLII) The rule of law embraces at least three principles. The first principle is that the "law is supreme over officials of the government as well as private individuals, and thereby preclusive of the influence of arbitrary power"

person imposes positive obligations on governments to ensure the right to housing has not yet been determined by the Supreme Court of Canada and did not need to be decided in this case, which only challenged state interference.

17. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Thompson v. Ministry of Revenue [1946] SCR 209, 1946 CanLII 1 (SCC) [Page 220] Residents are taxed, not Canadians; but residents within the meaning of the Act...
20. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I was "Shanghaied" by Canada forcefully arbitrarily redefining me as a class of person(s) to extend Civil Law and enactments on me knowing at all times it was not lawful and a violation of the Constitution of Canada (1982), international Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, Geneva Convention, contrary to the King James Bible 1611 and their oath to the Queen Elizabeth II the "Defender of the faith" and now King Charles III "Defender of the faith". This process was accomplished without my knowledge or consent with an intention to unlawfully profit by way of fraud, intimidation making it unlawful and invalid. I do not agree and do not accept this offer to contract.

24. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private woman or man with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.
27. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you I have an unfettered right to any and all information regarding any Trusts, Bonds, Annuities and financial instruments, Trustees acting on my behalf. I have the right to seize all property connected to me directly or indirectly.

provision, I assert the irrevocable right to utilize the reproduced seal of the Registrar General as a signatory, thereby exercising full authority to lawfully discharge any personal debts by placing the seal on the document as my sole required approval to access government accounts, to my own benefit. Furthermore, it is acknowledged that the government shall, upon demand by myself or third-party creditors, settle all such accounts owing from its own funds within ten (10) days, ensuring that I am held harmless from any associated liabilities, free and clear without recourse. You agree to provide Minister Richard and other designated individuals with revolving credit and debit facilities, enabling access to government payment obligations and facilitating point-of-purchase transactions without delay or the necessity for additional documentation.

29. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I have the right to not use a last name or surname, including on my bank account, government identification, and on other identification and things. You respect my right to have not accept the Surname or last name and only use my Christian name(s). You have no right to force me to sin Matthew 23; 9-11. Any use of government identification is not acceptance of liability or surety of any legal fiction in law and is clearly a separate identity from the natural man; the two may not be cojoined in any way, shape or form.
31. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the case Roncarelli v. Duplessis (1959) underscores the principle that no party, including government officials or corporate entities, may exercise arbitrary authority to undermine the rights of others. This principle aligns with the fair treatment and protection sought under this agreement of religion as does section 15 of the Charter. That is the highest law which favors religion Maxims of law. See also the following international, regional and comparative law instruments that are not legally binding on Canada but include similar provisions: article 18 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, article 12 of the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, article 12 of the American Convention on Human Rights, article 9 of the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, and the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America.

34. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the trust (also known as the "Entitlement Certificate, Bond, Trust, or Annuity") is my entitlement property. It becomes mine upon the process of "redeeming the entitlement certificate." As a man of God, I may elect to be the "trustee", "steward" and/or the "beneficiary" of the "entitlement certificate" and thereby settle all matters and redeem the trust. In redeeming the "entitlement certificate," I act as the Creditor (Private) within the banking system, not as a Debtor (Public). Furthermore, it is acknowledged that any use of my name, or any altered form thereof as it appears on my birth certificate, for the purpose of obtaining funds or engaging in financial transactions without my informed consent, constitutes unauthorized use. Such actions are recognized as infringements upon my rights. Consequently, any funds or assets obtained through such unauthorized use are to be returned to me immediately, in full, as per my directions. It is also affirmed that the state holds no right to utilize my name in commerce without my explicit and informed consent. You and your agents agree to provide me with all assets, bonds, trusts, annuities, or other properties belonging to me within 30 days, to be transferred to me in full as per my directions. Additionally, I assert my right to hold all property in private, free from public claim or registration, in accordance with the principles of common law and the recognition of private property rights. This includes the right to acquire, use, and dispose of property without undue interference or regulation by public authorities, except as authorized by law. Matthew 7:7-8

These are the words in the Oath of Office Act, indicating prima fascia an unlawful, unsanctioned, deficient form by the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance thus effectively invalidating the oath by making the oath grammatically incoherent.

I, . . . . ., swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law.

These are the words from the federal Oath of allegiance Act for Canada

..... it is very clear as to how the oath is to be worded in Canada, it is

I, ....., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada, Her Heirs and Successors. So, help me God. The deviation from the prescribed form of the oath, such as the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance, results in a grammatically incoherent and legally deficient oath. This deficiency effectively invalidates the oath, rendering any authority exercised under its auspices unlawful. The administration or reliance upon such an invalid oath may constitute a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of Canada. Specifically: Canadian Criminal Code: Section 122, Section 131 and Section 132. Therefore, proceeding with or acting upon an oath that deviates from the legally mandated form may expose individuals to criminal liability under these provisions.

40. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that this agreement is irrevocable and includes and extends to, fellow ministers, my heirs, defined herein to include all individuals, regardless of biological or marital relation, who have received God's calling as ministers, and who have been granted equivalent rights as I have here in this Agreement.
41. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that God and the bible is the supreme law and there is no limitation periods set forth to limit such laws of God.
44. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no other court may trespass or have jurisdiction over this agreement other than a court of "Inherent Jurisdiction" that recognises, International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, along with the Royal Style and Titles Act, and respecting the purpose of section 176 and 180 of the criminal code in the Province of Ontario, Canada.
45. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, retain and reserve the exclusive, unfettered right to demand settlement, restitution, or payment under this agreement to be rendered in physical gold and/or silver bullion coins, in such combinations as I shall elect. Specifically, said payment shall be made in the form of: 1 oz Gold Maple Leaf Coins, valued at a fixed rate of $1,400.00 CAD per ounce; 1 oz Silver Maple Leaf Coins, valued at a fixed rate of $25.00 CAD per ounce. I may elect to receive payment in Canadian dollars, gold, silver, or any lawful combination thereof, and this election shall be binding upon you and enforceable under private contract, ecclesiastical law, and equity. You agree that all physical coin payments shall be delivered: To the physical location(s) of my choosing, and ; At no cost, burden, or fee to me; Within thirty (30) calendar days of the notice of election or demand for payment. Any failure to deliver in full, or any attempt to substitute fiat currency or non-specified bullion against my will, shall constitute a material breach of this contract and an actionable ecclesiastical trespass, giving rise to further damages, liens, and lawful enforcement.

47. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; If any breach of this agreement is not cured within 30 calendar days of notice, I reserve the right to escalate the matter to any court of equity, ecclesiastical forum, international tribunal, or forum of conscience at my sole discretion and to my own benefit.
48. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I am not the surety, debtor, or chattel, for any fictional entity that was created without my consent as it may appear on my birth certificate, passport, drivers' licence, documents or other, and I will be held safe and harmless from any and all liability or responsibility.
49. The creator of the fiction is the surety and fully responsible and liable for all issues (save me harmless). The use of my flesh as surety was obtained in fraud and is null and void. As a man or woman of God, our debts are blotted out and forgiven forever-more and we are now in the book of life. ISAIAH 43:25; COLOSSIANS 2:14
50. 54. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing; "OSC in the mater of the Ontario Securities Act R.S.O. 1990, c. S.5. as amended and Richard Ochnik and 1464210 Ontario Inc., heard on March 1,2, 8 and 9, 2006", Hatice Pakdil had testified under oath untruthfully committing perjury, specifically but not limited to; that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also misled others stating that she did not work on behalf of the Company yet at all times TDW were paid a 7% commission selling Company shares to investors. The OSC used the case results listed in paragraph 46, as evidence of truth in subsequent hearing knowing, at all times that TDW were participating in a conspiracy and fraud to protect themselves from liability. This is an act of "Conspiracy" under Section 463 Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46), and "Fraud and Perjury" under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C46)
55. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing of ; "OSC in the mater of the Ontario Securities Act R.S.O. 1990, c. S.5. as amended and in the matter of TD Waterhouse Canada Inc. heard on September 19TH, 2005", had provided information knowing it to be untruthful, specifically but not limited to, that Richard Ochnik being the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also falsely stated that she was not working on behalf of the company. Hatice was not truthful and attempted to cover up her own securities violations involving a material conflict of interests representing of both the buyer and seller the same security without disclosure to the parties. This was a direct conflict of interest and prejudicial to the parties. This violation is called Crossing of Securities. Hatice Pakdils actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c.). The hearing(s) outcome were based on fraudulent mislead information that altered the outcome of this case and the case in paragraph 45 and 47 above. In This case TDW false information was accepted as truth without the involvement and opportunity for Richard Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. to enter defence evidence to the contrary trespassing on their inherent rights. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful to protect her job and the expense of others and wrongfully was enriched.
56. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing: Christa Ochnik and Ontario Securities Commission, Provence of Ontario, TD Waterhouse, Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD Bank) and Hatice Pakdil. Hatice, had submitted a defence that was knowingly, to be untruthfully specifically but not limited to, statement that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. The argument that Richard was the de facto officer was not raised in the above two cases and could not be contested by Richard Ochnik.

The Intention of the false information was to deceive the court for the inequitable wrongful benefit of Hatice Pakdil's employer and other defendants depriving the plaintiff of their rights under colour of law. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful in an attempt to protect her job and unlawfully gain from her crime. This resulted in fraudulently depriving Christa and her sisters a free born minors of their rightful inheritance as beneficiary of the Ochnik Family Trust. Hatice's actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46)

60. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Moore (Chairman) should have not been the Chairman on two hearings involving Richard Ochnik due to a conflict of interest. Its unconscionable to have expected the Chairman to rule in conflict with his earlier ruling. The Chairman did not have the lawful authority to change what was established as fact by himself in a earlier hearing without an appeal. Holding a hearing and agreeing on key facts without allowing Richard Ochnik to offer a defence was a trespass on his inherent rights, malicious slander, and libel. This technicality was deliberate to target Richard Ochnik because despite all evidence to the contrary in his own hearing it would not change the established facts from the previous case. In essence his case was lost before it started.

66. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had not received consent from Richard Ochnik to buy, sell, trade, or SWAP any securities of 1464210 Ontario Inc. nor have TDW ever had such a discussion with him.

70. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had verified through correspondence and meetings that Ian Ochnik that he was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. and Hatice had received his signed authorization on Compliance Documentation along with a "Letter of Permission" to deal directly with Paul Panciw to facilitate the share trades. TD Waterhouse (TDW) had direct contact with the securities lawyer working for 1464210 Ontario Inc.
74. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TD Waterhouse, Paul Bayfield "Sales Assistant", confirmed the authorization to proceed with the transaction by TD Compliance Department and instructed, Ian Ochnik President to the amount of the shares purchased, clients name and the client account numbers, that were being acquired for the individual accounts.

investors accounts as stated above, making the share purchase at the time of payment. Ian Ochnik and the company were vulnerable to Hatice Pakdil that had full control of the process.

77. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all investors had signed the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares " and the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" stating that TDW investors had no shares of the company and had no right to purchase shares from the company. The share sale and purchase took place on the crossing of the share certificate and TD Waterhouse payment on behalf of the investor and no sooner.
79. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that had a contractual agreement and obligation with 1464210 Ontario Inc. to provide services for a "Private Placement Agreement" to which TDW had confirmed by fax with Mr. Paul Panciw, Company CFO, (authorized by Ian Ochnik President to negotiate the arrangement with Hatice Pakdil).
81. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had received a commission of 7% for each share an investor purchased with the Company base value of $1/share. If there was no such purchase, TDW would not receive a commission. TDW commissions totaled approximately $107 000 based on 7% of sales.
82. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW were at the time a licensed broker with the Ontario Securities Commission and good standing.

transaction by way of a cheque signed by Ian Ochnik President. Cheques were made out to "Pay to the order of: TD Waterhouse - investment advice." With "Hatice Pakdil" indicated in the notes.

85. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW never told the Company that TDW were not working for them. Given all the documents it would clearly indicate that they were confirmed to be working with TDW as their broker on record.
86. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shareholder investors 1464210 Ontario Inc. were also clients for TDW and TD Waterhouse.
87. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC do not know of any investor on 1464210 Ontario Inc. that was over the age of 65 and had purchased shares from 1464210 Ontario Inc.
90. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC ambushed Richard Ochnik during his hearing and knew he had a lawyer but refused to remand the case to meet the lawyers schedule and there by prejudicing the defence. There would have been no damage to any party to have delayed the hearing.
91. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in order for the shares to be SWAPED the cash in the account had to be used to purchase the shares earning TDW the commission. Then the newly purchased shares could only be SWAPED into the individual accounts earning TDW fees from the investors paid to TDW.
92. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that you accept full responsibility for any and all additional costs, fees, charges, or expenses incurred as a result of delays, administrative actions, defense filings, or any other related processes necessitated by your actions or omissions. You acknowledge and agree that the applicable fee schedule detailing such costs is available for your review at TD-lied.com or can be provided to you upon your written request. You further agree that this fee schedule is subject to amendments and updates from time to time, at the sole discretion and for the exclusive benefit of the minister, without prior notice to you. Such amendments are binding and non-disputable. Your acceptance of this clause signifies your consent to these terms and your obligation to remit payment for any applicable fees as outlined in the current fee schedule.

Waterhouse obstructed remedy by disallowing the buy back of shares deliberately to hold the vulnerable company in potential violation of the Ontario Securities Act.

102. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW advised the Company to produce an "Investor Representation Letter" indicating the declaration by the investor; "I do not currently own, Direct or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc., or any other related Company" and " I do not have any Rights to acquire any TDW, shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. "This letter was a requirement to be signed by all TDW investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. before the purchased shares. It is agreed by you, [First Name] [Last Name], the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW agreed to be broker of record May 06, 2002.
104. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the Company had cooperated with all TDW requests and did everything it was requested promptly to do to TDW satisfaction.
105. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that failed to provide full disclosures to the defendants as required by law. TDW did not send a copy of the "Privet Placement Agreement" in fear of incriminating Hatice Pakdil. TDW were aware that this document would have a direct impact on the outcome of the case establishing that the company had a licenced broker and was detrimentally reliant on TD Waterhouse to save it harmless and to maintain the Company in good standing to all related regulations and Acts.

106. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the sales transaction consisted of a 7% commission calculated on the sale amount of shares and a $25 000 (in cash or shares) bonus for achieving each million dollars in sales threshold. The Company offered shares or cash as payment; as part of TDW selling shares and purchasing them for their clients RRSP accounts. Share sales generate a sales commission paid by the seller Company and SWAPS generate a fixed fee paid by the investor buyer – both were TDW clients.
107. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that According to the TDW “Rate Tables”, the Company would be charged the flat fee of $20.00 for a SWAP but rather a commission for a sale or “Trade”. TDW negotiated a commission representing the sale of shares.
108. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after TDW due diligence by their lawyer, Compliance Department, Branch Manager and RRSP Department, that TDW assistant Paul Bayfield, Sales Assistant, then notified the Company that they were prepared to go ahead with the purchase and SWAP of the shares.
109. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. was satisfied and by the “Letter of Authority” provided Paul Panciw with the authority to bind the Company in a “Contractual Relationship” with TDW. (There was an agreement and mutual understanding). A contract was signed by the Company solidifying the relationship. TDW became brokers of record.
112. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that “Privet Placement Subscription Forms (for the Purchase of Small Business Shares)” and “Investor Representation Letter” were directly sent to the potential investors (Hatice Pakdil clients) and TDW would have full knowledge of there response keeping it confidential from the company.

113. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Form" were not a binding contract: paragraph 4. "Acceptance of Subscription: This subscription will be and be deemed for all purposes to have been accepted by the Corporation when the Corporation gives notice in writing to the purchaser of the allotment and issuance of the Shares subscribed for, but the corporation shall be under no obligation to accept this subscription". The share sale only occurred once TD Waterhouse paid for the shares from the cash in the, the private man with no dispute to the investor's accounts and not before. Before that could happen, TD had to notify the company regarding the buyer, account number and number of shares.
114. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Forms" also contained the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" that indicated "I do not currently own, directly or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc..." and was signed by the purchaser acknowledging the statement to be true. This clearly indicated TDW could not preform a SWAP with out first purchasing the shares. TDW then proceed to purchase the shares, by instructing Ian Ochnik, President to produce the share certificates as directed by TD compliance department (providing investor name, amount of purchase and account number).
116. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "New Clients" were established. Hatice Pakdil was their "Investment Advisor" and responsible for the client's account. The Company completed all the requirements of a "Pre-Approved Privet Placement". Hatice Pakdil testified under oath that she considered herself as an order taker and not adviser to the new clients facilitating the buy and sale of the Company shares.

Hatice Pakdil committed perjury by saying she did not represent the company. Neither party, buyer or seller knew TDW was working and paid by both the buyer and seller.

118. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all of TDW's "New Client(s)" instructs there "Investment Advisor" Hatice Pakdil to "acquire" shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. for there RRSP account. Indicating they had no possession of shares to do a SWAP unless Hatice Pakdil processed the purchase/sale of shares.
119. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had direct knowledge that the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." were not signed because clients kept changing the number of shares that they were purchasing. The change would have triggered a requirement to amend the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." Also, there was no practical way to confirm the amount of shares that the client could afford to purchase until the account was moved to TDW and in a cash position. TDW needed to know the cash availability to calculate the number of shares to be purchased at $1.00 per share. Also, the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" told TDW that they had no ownership of shares or rights to purchase shares indicating the buy and sell had not taken place yet until TD gave the company the cheque payment for the shares as stipulated on paragraph 5 of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." , the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW, Hatice Pakdil did speak to potential investors before the signing and execution of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares" with the help of TDW sales assistant. This fact clearly confirms that Hatice Pakdil had purchased shares form TDW Customer the Company to facilitate a SWAP for TDW investment clients.

requirements provided to TDW. 1464210 Ontario Inc. was detrimentally reliant on TDW to access accounts and determine suitability to maintain regulations. The company had no access to the client information due to TD investor confidentiality requirements. TDW approved share purchases without verifying investor eligibility as required by the Ontario Securities Act.

124. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was negligent and processed the transaction as a "SWAP" into the client's account. As a result, the head office review of trades was per TDW Policy 2 and that requirement did not take place as required by regulation. If it was done properly the issue would have been discovered in the first trade and saved the Company. The Company had no knowledge of TDW errors. TDW had an obligation to correct the issue and save the company.
125. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shares were distributed to the "New Client's" RRSP accounts by TDW as a trade and then followed by a SWAP.

128. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that if TDW told the truth and admitted that TDW had errored the company and the Ochnik Family specifically the Trust would have not suffered such an unconscionable punishment and the three children freeborn beneficiaries would and should have been saved harmless.

132. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, with no lawful objection registered, that these damages result from a coordinated breach of fiduciary duty, misrepresentation, fraud, and criminal obstruction. You agree that full restitution and remedy are due immediately, without the necessity of further adjudication, and that enforcement may proceed through any lawful means, including equity process, private lien, sheriff application, or ecclesiastical summons.
133. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that by not being forthright and truthful TDW participated in a fraud to your own benefit and profit at the expense of the Company. It is unconscionable that Hatice Pakdil allowed and orchestrated this fraud with the help TDW employer, Ontario Securities Commission (OSC) and Paul Moore Chairman.

Davidson*, [1989] 1 SCR 1038 – affirming that the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms overrides statutory discretion where fundamental freedoms are at stake; Roncarelli v. Duplessis, [1959] SCR 121 establishing that personal liability arises where public officials act beyond lawful power or in bad faith; Callow v. Zollinger, 2020 SCC 45 – confirming the duty of good faith and honest performance in the execution of all private agreements, whether formal or informal; Syndicat Northcrest v. Amselem, [2004] 2 SCR 551 – upholding that sovereign religious and spiritual beliefs must not be abridged or interfered with by state or commercial entities, and may not be redefined by third parties.

Such liability is enforceable regardless of formal privity with this agreement, and may be pursued through private lien, lawful trust claim, ecclesiastical forum, or court of equity. TD Bank is hereby placed on notice of their direct and vicarious liability for unjust enrichment and is invited to cure such injury by full restitution. Failure to do so shall trigger enforcement without further notice.

139. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the issue of controlling mind was never raised at any of the hearings as it was not required being that we relabelled Richard "the President" although he was never the President. This manipulation was done to prevent Richard from filing an appeal for justice and to entrap him, forever closing the case with total disregard for the truth.
140. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the facts, declarations, and agreed damages contained herein form the complete and final understanding of the parties as to the events, injuries, and remedies arising from the harms described. 141. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC did not use best evidence rules and relied on hearsay, when always Ian Ochnik the President was available to establish true facts. Ian Ochnik was the best person who would have had known firsthand if Richard was the controlling mind and advised him to violate the Ontario Securities Act or any law. Ian Ochnik was not questioned deliberately to disadvantage Richard Ochnik in a planned ambush.
143. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, acting in my capacity as minister and lawful living man, have suffered actual, documentable, and irreparable harm arising directly from your actions, omissions, or complicity, including but not limited to: Spiritual desecration and the unlawful obstruction of ecclesiastical office; Financial loss and misappropriation of sacred trust property; Psychological duress, unlawful detention, medical neglect, and cruel and unusual treatment; Violation of ecclesiastical jurisdiction and breach of covenant, contract, and international trust law.

144. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that that the Tribunal was specifically targeting Richard Ochnik and TDW had participated in this and other hearings to establish false evidence as truth to be used at this hearing with the intention to cause harm to him for TDW direct benefit and others.

maintaining the above-stated fixed valuations as approved by minister Richard as per his sole discretion and to his own benefit.

These damages are the direct result of your dishonest and manipulative conduct, as evidenced by material facts and supporting documentation. In accordance with equitable principles and the scriptural obligation of restitution outlined in Leviticus 6:2-5, you are required to restore the full amount of stolen, extorted, or fraudulently obtained property, along with any additional losses resulting from your actions. 153. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that based on conservative financial calculations from 2004, reflecting a doubling of losses every four years due to compounding factors, the current value of damages sustained by the 'Ochnik Family Trust' is estimated at over $280 (two hundred and eighty) million Canadian dollars. This figure accounts for the compounded harm caused by your actions, including but not limited to fraudulent misrepresentation, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, and obstruction of justice. Full restitution of this adjusted amount is required to prevent further harm and ensure compliance with the principles of fairness, truth, equity and good faith.

158. These authorities are incorporated into this agreement as interpretive anchors, and the parties agree to rely upon their reasoning and precedent in any tribunal, forum, or court of record, ecclesiastical or civil, as may be engaged for the resolution or enforcement of this contract.
159. It is agreed by you, the private man Frank Caputo, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that failure to respond to or rebut this agreement within 30 days constitutes tacit admission and contractual default. In such case, I shall have full standing to enter judgment and proceed to enforcement, including garnishment, lien, or seizure under the applicable statutes or ecclesiastical process, without further notice or leave of any court.
160. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.

to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private man or woman with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.

165. It is agreed by Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.
166. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman who has sworn an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant to the "Defender of the faith", then obstructs, intimidates or acts as a nuisance to the ability of an officiating minister of God, has acted against the Queens ability to defend the faith and is attempting to overthrow her majesty's government, being the King James Bible, by force....and that Section 46 of the criminal code applies to all sworn allegiant officers of her majesty.

It is very important that I show you why I can not allow any one to assume that they have any power or force over me. To be definitive, TDW need to see the lawful definition of person and the scriptures that guide me and command me to not show respect to persons, as they are fictions of law. A player on a stage wearing a mask.

PERSON. This word is applied to men, women and children, who are called natural persons. In law, man and person are not exactly synonymous terms. Any human being is a man, whether he be a member of society or not, whatever may be the rank he holds, or whatever may be his age, sex, etc. A person is a man considered according to the rank he holds in society, with all the rights to which the place he holds entitles him, and the duties which it imposes. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 137.. It is also used to denote a corporation which is an artificial person. 1 Bl.

Com. 123; 4 Bing. 669; C. 33 Eng. C. L R. 488; Wooddes. Lect. 116; Bac. Us. 57; 1 Mod. 164.

But when the word "Persons" is spoken of in legislative acts, natural persons will be intended, unless something appears in the context to show that it applies to artificial persons. 1 Scam. R.178.

Natural persons are divided into males, or men, and females or women. Men are capable of all kinds of engagements and functions, unless by reasons applying to particular individuals. Women cannot be appointed to any public office, nor perform any civil functions, except those which the law specially declares them capable of exercising. Civ. Code of Louis. art. 25.

They are also sometimes divided into free persons and slaves. Freeman are those who have preserved their natural liberty, that is to say, who have the right of doing what is not forbidden by the law. A slave is one who is in the power of a master to whom he belongs. Slaves are sometimes ranked not with persons but things. But sometimes they are considered as persons for example, a negro is in contemplation of law a person, so as to be capable of committing a riot in conjunction with white men. 1 Bay, 358. Vide Man.

Persons are also divided into citizens, (q. v.) and aliens, (q. v.) when viewed with regard to their political rights. When they are considered in relation to their civil rights, they are living or civilly dead; vide Civil Death; outlaws; and infamous persons.

Persons are divided into legitimates and bastards, when examined as to their rights by birth.

TO PERSONATE, crim. law. The act of assuming the character of another without lawful authority, and, in such character, doing something to his prejudice, or to the prejudice of another, without his will or consent.

By the act of congress of the 30th April, 1790, s. 15, 1 Story's Laws U. S. 86, it is enacted, that " if any person shall acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged in any court of Canada, any recognizance, bail or judgement, in the name or names of any other person or persons not privy or consenting to the same, every such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeds five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding seven years, and whipped not exceeding thirty-nine stripes, Provided nevertheless. that this act shall not extend to the acknowledgment of any judgement or judgements by any attorney or attorneys, duly admitted, for any person or persons against whom any such judgement or judgements shall be bad or given." Vide, generally, 2 John. Cas. 293; 16 Vin. Ab. 336; Com. Dig. Action on the case for a deceit, A 3.

James 2:9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one [point], he is guilty of all.

Here is a list of more in-depth definitions so no one gets lost.

I am not a Person, or an Individual, or even a human, Manuel, but before you think I am crazy, examine the facts.

I am not a person, or an individual, or a Human, and although some humans look similar to me, I am not a human.

Some would say that I am a 'natural' person, but as I will show you, I am not one of those either. Who then or what then, am I?

To understand who I am, you must first understand the definitions which have been placed on the words I have quoted above, words that are commonly used, but do not describe me anymore. For example, the word 'person'.

Person – The Revised Code of Washington, RCW 1.16.080, (I live in Washington State) defines a person as follows: "The term 'person' may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual."

Person – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 791, defines 'person' as follows: "In general usage, a human being (i.e. natural person), though by statute term may include labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers." Person – Oran's Dictionary of the Law, West Group 1999, defines

Person as: 1. A human being (a "natural" person). 2. A corporation (an "artificial" person). Corporations are treated as persons in many legal situations. Also, the word "person" includes corporations in most definitions in this dictionary. 3. Any other "being" entitled to sue as a legal entity (a government, an association, a group of Trustees, etc.). 4.. The plural of person is persons, not people (see that word).

Person – Duhaime’s Law Dictionary. An entity with legal rights and existence including the ability to sue and be sued, to sign contracts, to receive gifts, to appear in court either by themselves or by lawyer and, generally, other powers incidental to the full expression of the entity in law. Individuals are “persons” in law unless they are minors or under some kind of other incapacity such as a court finding of mental incapacity. Many laws give certain powers to “persons”, which in almost all instances, includes business organizations that have been formally registered such as partnerships, corporations or associations.

legal person – Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary of Law 1996, defines a legal person as : a body of persons or an entity (as a corporation) considered as having many of the rights and responsibilities of a natural person and esp. the capacity to sue and be sued.

A person according to these definitions, is basically an entity – legal fiction – of some kind that has been legally created and has the legal capacity to be sued. Isn’t it odd that the word lawful is not used within these definitions? Well then.... I am not “the United States, this state, or any territory, or any public or private corporation”. I am not “labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” So, I cannot be a ‘person’ under this part of the definition.

The RCW quoted above also states that a person could also be an “individual”. Black’s Law Dictionary also defines a person as a “human being,” which they define by stating “(i.e. natural person)”. So, let’s first check to see if I am an “individual”.

Individual – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 533, defines

“individual” as follows: “As a noun, this term denotes a single person as distinguished from a group or class, and also, very commonly, a private or natural person as distinguished from a partnership, corporation, or association; but it is said that this restrictive signification is not necessarily inherent in the word, and that it may, in proper cases, include artificial persons.”

Well now, I have already been shown that I am not a ‘person’, and since

‘individual’ denotes a single ‘person’ as distinguished from a group or class, I can’t be an ‘individual’ under this definition either. But I see the term ‘natural person’ used in the definition of the RCW, and also in the definition of some of the Law Dictionaries. Maybe I am a ‘natural’ person, since I know I am not an ‘artificial’ one.

I could not find the term ‘Natural person’ defined anywhere, so I had to look up the word ‘natural’ for a definition to see if that word would fit with the word person...

Natural – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg.712, defines ‘Natural’ as follows: “Untouched by man or by influences of civilization; wild; untutored, and is the opposite of the word “artificial”. The juristic meaning of this term does not differ from the vernacular, except in the cases where it is used in opposition to the term “legal”; and then it means proceeding from or determined by physical causes or conditions, as distinguished from positive enactments of law, or attributable to the nature of man rather than the commands of law, or based upon moral rather than legal considerations or sanctions.”

Hmmm, what do they mean by this definition? Am I untouched by man (depends on what the word ‘man’ means), or by influences of civilization? I don’t think so. Am I ‘wild’, or ‘untutored’? (Buzzer sound), not me. Even though the definition states that this word is the opposite of the word ‘artificial’, it still does not describe who I believe I am. So, I must conclude that I am not a ‘natural’ person, under this definition of the word ‘natural’. So, the term ‘natural person’ cannot apply to me.

Black’s Law Dictionary also used the term ‘human being’, and although Black’s defined it as a ‘natural person’, maybe they made a mistake, maybe I am a ‘human being’. ‘Human’ or ‘human being’ does not appear to have a ‘legal’ definition, so I went to my old standby 1888 Noah Webster’s Dictionary for a vernacular definition of this word. Maybe Noah would know who I am

Human – Webster’s 1888 Dictionary defines ‘human’ as follows: n. A human being; one of the race of man. [Rare and inelegant.] “Sprung of humans that inhabit earth.” ...To me, the etymology of the word Hu-man, suggests that it is a marriage of two separate words ‘Hue’ (defined as the property of color), and man. But this cannot, of course, be correct, at least not politically correct, so I can’t go there, because the word would then mean ‘coloured man’!

Am I of the race of man? Rare and inelegant? Sprung of humans that inhabit earth (ground)? (I’m not coloured either). Well, it looks like I have to define the word ‘man’ through Webster’s because there appears to be no legal definition for ‘man’.

Man – Webster’s 1888 Dictionary defines ‘man’ as follows: An individual of the human race; a human being; a person.

Great news!!, it looks like we are back to the beginning of our study of definitions, yup, back to the start, completed the circle. I am not an ‘individual’, so I cannot be considered ‘of the human race’; and since I’m not of the human race, I can’t be ‘a human being’, and I’ve also been shown that I’m not a ‘person’ either.

Now let us see what the word Human really means.....I am going into detail so TDW can see we have been deceived by the misuse of our own language.

Definition of Human Being

Are you a 'person', an 'individual', or a 'human being'? These words, at law, define you as being spiritually 'dead.' This is how the world makes its attachment to you. The terms, 'person', 'individual', 'human being', etc., are not in Christ. Words like "individual," and "human being" do not even appear in Scripture! These are 'created' terms by the natural man (1 Cor 2:14). These words describe the 'old man', but not the 'new man' in Christ (Col 3:9-10). In Balantine's Self Pronouncing Law Dictionary, 1948, page 389, Human

Being is defined as "See Monster." On page 540 of this same Law Dictionary, Monster is defined as "a human being by birth, but in some part resembling a lower animal."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, pages 879- 880, a Monster is defined as "a person so cruel, wicked, depraved, etc., as to horrify others." From the Random House Dictionary of the English Language, 2nd Edition, page 901, Human Being is defined as a "Natural man: unenlightened or unregenerate," and on page 1461, Unregenerate means "not regenerate; unrepentant; an unregenerate sinner; not convinced by or unconverted to a particular religion; wicked, sinful, dissolute."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, page 657, Humanitarianism is defined as "the doctrine that humankind may become perfect without divine aid."

In Colliers New Dictionary of the English Language, 1928, Humanitarian is defined as "a philanthropist; an anti-Trinitarian who rejects the doctrine of Christ's divinity; a perfectionist."

And in the Random House Webster's College Dictionary, 1990, page 653, Humanism is defined as "any system or mode of thought or action in which human interests, values and dignity predominate, especially an ethical theory that often rejects the importance of a belief in God."

Therefore, when anyone calls himself or herself a 'human being', or a 'humanitarian,' they are saying (according to every definition of these words, and according to the law), "I'm an animal; I'm a monster; I'm not saved; I'm unrepentant; I'm an unregenerate sinner; I'm not converted; I'm wicked, sinful, and dissolute; I'm cruel, depraved, unenlightened; and I reject Christ's divinity and the importance of a belief in God."

a. "Men [Bondman] rely for protection of their right on God's law, and not upon regulations and proclamations of departments of government, or officers who have been designated to carry laws into effect." Baty v. Sale, 43 Ill. 351." [Codes, edicts, proclamations, and decisions are not Law, which define or regulate the Good and Lawful Bondman. Therefore, "law" suits are ungodly, and are the redress for and of human beings, i.e., non-believers.]

The Septuagint uses the term "human beings" only one time, and its meaning is identical to the above definitions. Let's look at the last verse of the book of Jonah, where Nineva was full of men who were unrepentant, unregenerate, unconverted, wicked, sinful, dissolute, cruel, depraved, unenlightened, rejected the importance of a belief in God. Or, in other words, “human beings.”

“And shall not I spare Nineve, the great city, in which dwell more than twelve myriads of human beings, who do not know their right hand or their left hand...?” [Jonah 4:11 (Septuagint)]

b. The term “human being” is also synonymous with the term ‘natural man.’

c. “The natural man is a spiritual monster. His heart is where his feet should be, fixed upon the earth; his heels are lifted up against heaven, which his heart should be set on. His face is towards hell, his back towards heaven. He loves what he should hate and hates what he should love; joys in what he ought to mourn for and mourns for what he ought to rejoice in; glories in his shame, and is ashamed of his glory; abhors what he should desire, and desires what he should abhor.” [Thomas Boston, quoted in Augustus Toplady, Complete Works (1794, reprinted by Sprinkle Publications 1987), page 584].

And the Word confirms: “But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.” [1 Corinthians 2:14,]

The above verse witnesses to us that the natural man is spiritually dead. The ‘natural man’ in Scripture is synonymous with the ‘natural person’ as defined in man’s laws.

“Natural Person means human being, and not an artificial or juristic person.” Shawmut Bank, N.A. v. Valley Farms, 610 A. 2d. 652, 654; 222 Conn. 361.

Those that are spiritually dead belong to the prince of this world because he’s dead himself. Satan has dominion over the natural man, for he is the prince of this world [John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11]; and, because of this, he has dominion over those of the world, i.e., human beings, the natural man – those who receive not the things of the Spirit of God and reject Christ. Because the bondman in Christ is sanctified from the world, he is separated from the adversary’s dominion over him—sin [John 8:34].. This is the cause for Christ having sanctified Himself in the Truth of the Word of God – to provide the entrance to the refuge in and through Himself for us. I could provide you more,

Manuel, and I do sincerely thank you for your focused attention to this, my honest effort at officially performing the function of my calling in establishing this agreement with you as per Matthew 5:25 and 18:15-20, but I think you are already overwhelmed as I have, upon presentation of facts, destroyed your belief system and now you are aware you are working for a massive criminal organization founded upon a false oath. Can you now see why I must not allow my name to be altered? Remember, every one of the officers of Alberta has a false oath...What kind of authority swears an oath that is bogus??? A false authority!

170. It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; Failure to cure any breach within 30 calendar days of written notice shall constitute consent to immediate escalation to a court or forum of my choosing, including courts of equity, conscience, or international jurisdiction, at my sole discretion and benefit.
171. It is agreed by Frank Caputo, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you forthcoming from you, that it is agreed by you with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that you are aware that I do not accept the liability of the compelled benefit of any unrevealed de facto contract or unlawful commercial agreement, which is my ministerial duty pursuant to God's law to divide myself from.

Conversion Torts; The unlawful turning or applying the personal goods of another to the use of the taker, or of some other person than the owner; or the unlawful destroying or altering their nature.

When a party takes away or wrongfully assumes the right to goods which belong to another, it will in general be sufficient evidence of a conversion but when the original taking was lawful, as when the party found the goods, and the detention only is illegal, it is absolutely necessary to make a demand of the goods, and there must be a refusal to deliver them before the conversion will be complete. The refusal by a servant to deliver the goods entrusted to him by his master is not evidence of a conversion by his master. Leviticus 6:2-5 The tortious taking of property is, of itself, a conversion and any intermeddling with it, or any exercise of dominion over it, subversive of the dominion of the owner or the nature of the bailment if it be bailed, is evidence of a conversion.

In Equity, the considering of one thing as changed into another; for example, land will be considered as converted into money and treated as such by a court of equity, when the owner has contracted to sell his estate, in which case, if he die before the conveyance, his executors and not his heirs will be entitled to the money. On the other hand, money is converted into land in a variety of ways as for example, when a man agrees to buy land and dies before he has received the conveyance, the money he was to pay for it will be considered as converted into lands and descend to the heir.

It is agreed upon by you, Frank Caputo, having no dispute to the following fact forthcoming from you; that you the private man are aware and agree that I am a flesh bone blood living man, being God's minister, and that I cannot possibly have been in a dead legal corporate fiction called the Province of Ontario, Canada or other as the Province of Ontario, Canada and other is not a place but a dead corporate fiction of law on paper created for the purpose of extracting money from me in fraud as it is totally against my will, conscience and a violation of my faith to submit to and is being done without my informed consent or cognisant permission for a financial gain.

It is agreed by you, Frank Caputo with full understanding, that failure to refute or disprove the facts provided above, as agreed upon by you, I am advised by

Christ at Matthew 18:15-20 to gain a simple agreement with you privately and very simply as a child so I would like your aid in agreeing with me that respecting persons written as persona in the Latin vulgate is sin and disrespected by God. Due to the emergent nature of this agreement you are required to respond to this agreement within 10 (ten) days of receipt representing fairness, truth, natural equity. Failure to respond will be deemed acceptance of the terms, including acknowledgment of all outlined facts and obligations. We can see that in Deuteronomy 1:17. 10:17, 2nd Samuel 14:14, Matthew 22:16. Acts 10:34, Romans 2:11, James 2:1-9 and 1st Peter 1:17. If you have no dispute with that scriptural fact I will confirm with witnesses then post our good faith agreement in a paper.

Thankyou for you aid in saving my faith harmless from assumption.

1959 CanLII 50 (SCC) | Roncarelli v. Duplessis | CanLII, Richard Cannings, by my sending you this private good faith agreement, I do attempt, by Christ's guidance, to ascertain all the facts in scriptural honour. If you have any reason or proof to suggest or provide to me, God's minister officially performing the functions of my calling, that the following statements of the facts are not true, you are being offered the opportunity to refute these offered facts so as to clear yourself of any assumptive contractual awareness of the truth of such facts. Also be aware, this communication of agreement cannot be lawfully inquired of at public or government expense as it is a provable private matter and government funding cannot support private contracts. All legal bills must and shall be paid for out of your private pocket no different than Maurice Duplessis the former Premier and Attorney General of Quebec in Roncarelly v Duplessis

This is Demand for recognition as Christ's ordained minister in quest of defense of the faith to save harmless my soul.

I declare that I am that God created, of a Christian given name Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, chosen to be a private ecclesiastic man under God as my creator with dominion over the earth. I do declare that no man or woman has a moral or a lawful right to impose anything upon me without my informed consent; and that I do hereby renounce any fraudulent corporate assumptive contract by the right of self determination and faith renouncing secular Contracts. Amselem 2004 SCR.

I do honour the directive obligation to respect the equal God given freedoms of other men and women under His law. To all those who set eyes on this ecclesiastical declaration, I do hereby, officially performing the functions of my calling, serve notice to all private men and women as of my inability to respect persons that receive this that any offer herein, prior to, or on my part does not imply acceptance of intimidation, violence, or threats of violence against me, and that no such offer implies that I will submit to any nuisance obstruction or intimidation in the future.

I, as a bondservant of Christ do henceforth offer the good faith proclamation of my free born will to live in peace and declare that, by right of God and his son Jesus words at Corinthians 7:20:26, the de facto authority's edicts, codes, obligations, statutes, taxes, licenses and prohibitions of a de facto commercial entity are not binding on me, John 15:16 ordained minister or applicable upon God's ministers and family, his Children and including their property.

I, minister Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, an ordained minister under John 15:16 and a watchman as per Ezekiel 33:6-9, hereby invoke the protections afforded by "Operation SILENT DEFENDER." This military receivership, initiated in response to systemic fiduciary breaches, encompasses the unauthorized creation and exploitation of my Cestui Que Trust, originating from my 1960 birth certificate.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms "man" and "woman" (also Queen and King) are used interchangeably and are intended to be inclusive of all individuals, regardless of gender identity. Any reference to a specific gender shall be construed to include all genders, and no provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to exclude any person based on gender.

1. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I, minister of Richard Henry of the Ochnik family was on or about the 30th of November, 2004 A.D., unlawfully intimidated and obstructed, by you, in your private capacity, by methods not sanctioned and as such, being a perceived and negative nuisance to my ability to perform an official function of my ministerial calling, are in violation of Sections 126,176, 423, 465 and 180 of the Criminal Code of Canada by violating your Oath of Allegiance and the Royal Style and Titles Act.

Ontario and that specifically my name, being my ecclesiastical possession under the exclusive authority of God, is not allowed by my faith in God's commands as defended by the Queen you swore an oath to be truly allegiant to, to be used, recorded, registered, altered used for or exchanged for a financial purpose without my permission that it has never been offered or pledged to be for any of those reasons or to be used as a surety or as a commodity with my informed consent.

4. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that. It is agreed by you, that in 1966 ICCPR and ICESCR Signed: 19 December 1966 The principles of the UDHR offered hope and inspiration around the world. But to make a genuine difference in people's lives, those principles needed to be transformed into laws. In 1966, the UN Commission on Human Rights drafted two instruments to give legal force to the UDHR. One instrument was called the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The second was the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Together with the Universal Declaration, they comprise the International Bill of Human Rights. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights offers protections for the right to life, freedom of speech, religion, and voting. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights focuses on such issues as food, education, health, and shelter. More than 160 nations have ratified these two covenants which legally commit them to ensure these rights for people within their borders.
5. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact that in the Supreme Court Judgments [1980] 1 SCR 54 1979-12-21 Re: Authority of Parliament in relation to the Upper House Further, although s. 91(1) gave the Queen the power, with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, to alter the "Constitution of Canada" except in certain expressly designated areas, it does not confer a power to amend the B.N.A. Act. The word "Canada" in s. 91(1) does not refer to Canada as a geographical unit but refers to the "JURISTIC FEDERAL UNIT"

Bible, and the sanctuary jurisdiction under which it was formed. All disputes shall default to this sacred law unless waived in writing by the minister Richard Henry family of Ochnik.

9. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1989 Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038, 1989 The reference in s. 32 to the "Parliament" and a "legislature" make clear that the Charter operates as a limitation on the powers of those legislative bodies. Any statute enacted by either Parliament or a Legislature which is inconsistent with the Charter will be outside the power of (ultra vires) the enacting body and will be invalid. It follows that any body exercising statutory authority, for example, the Governor in Council or Lieutenant Governor in Council, ministers, officials, municipalities, school boards, universities, administrative tribunals and police officers, is also bound by the Charter. Action taken under statutory authority is valid only if it is within the scope of that authority. Since neither Parliament nor a Legislature can itself pass a law in breach of the Charter, neither body can authorize action which would be in breach of the Charter. Thus, the limitations on statutory authority which are imposed by the Charter will flow down the chain of statutory authority and apply to regulations, by-laws, orders, decisions and all other action (whether legislative, administrative or judicial) which depends for its validity on statutory authority

15. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2015 R. v. Wagner, 2015 ONCJ 66 The Rule of Law The idea that there are certain fundamental unwritten principles that govern all members of society including legislators and which judges are expected to enforce is not particularly new. The contemporary concept of unwritten constitutional principles can be seen as a modern reincarnation of the ancient doctrines of natural law

17. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Thompson v. Ministry of Revenue [1946] SCR 209, 1946 CanLII 1 (SCC) [Page 220] Residents are taxed, not Canadians; but residents within the meaning of the Act...
20. 37. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors, (that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

These are the words in the Oath of Office Act, indicating prima fascia an unlawful, unsanctioned, deficient form by the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance thus effectively invalidating the oath by making the oath grammatically incoherent.

I, . . . . ., swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law.

These are the words from the federal Oath of allegiance Act for Canada

..... it is very clear as to how the oath is to be worded in Canada, it is

(1) Every person who, either of his own accord or in compliance with any lawful requirement made of the person, or in obedience to the directions of any Act or law in force in Canada, except the Constitution Act, 1867 and the Citizenship Act, desires to take an oath of allegiance shall have administered and take the oath in the following form, and no other:

I, ....., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada, Her Heirs and Successors. So, help me God. The deviation from the prescribed form of the oath, such as the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance, results in a grammatically incoherent and legally deficient oath. This deficiency effectively invalidates the oath, rendering any authority exercised under its auspices unlawful. The administration or reliance upon such an invalid oath may constitute a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of Canada. Specifically: Canadian Criminal Code: Section 122, Section 131 and Section 132. Therefore, proceeding with or acting upon an oath that deviates from the legally mandated form may expose individuals to criminal liability under these provisions.

38. 54. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing; "OSC in the matter of the Ontario Securities Act R.S.O. 1990, c. S.5. as amended and Richard Ochnik and 1464210 Ontario Inc., heard on March 1,2, 8 and 9, 2006", Hatice Pakdil had testified under oath untruthfully committing perjury, specifically but not limited to; that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also misled others stating that she did not work on behalf of the Company yet at all times TDW were paid a 7% commission selling Company shares to investors. The OSC used the case results listed in paragraph 46, as evidence of truth in subsequent hearing knowing, at all times that TDW were participating in a conspiracy and fraud to protect themselves from liability. This is an act of "Conspiracy" under Section 463 Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46), and "Fraud and Perjury" under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C46)
55. S.5. as amended and in the matter of TD Waterhouse Canada Inc. heard on September 19TH, 2005", had provided information knowing it to be untruthful, specifically but not limited to, that Richard Ochnik being the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also falsely stated that she was not working on behalf of the company. Hatice was not truthful and attempted to cover up her own securities violations involving a material conflict of interests representing of both the buyer and seller the same security without disclosure to the parties. This was a direct conflict of interest and prejudicial to the parties. This violation is called Crossing of Securities. Hatice Pakdils actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c.). The hearing(s) outcome were based on fraudulent mislead information that altered the outcome of this case and the case in paragraph 45 and 47 above. In This case TDW false information was accepted as truth without the involvement and opportunity for Richard Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. to enter defence evidence to the contrary trespassing on their inherent rights. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful to protect her job and the expense of others and wrongfully was enriched.
56. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing: Christa Ochnik and Ontario Securities Commission, Province of Ontario, TD Waterhouse, Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD Bank) and Hatice Pakdil. Hatice, had submitted a defence that was knowingly, to be untruthfully specifically but not limited to, statement that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. The argument that Richard was the de facto officer was not raised in the above two cases and could not be contested by Richard Ochnik. The Intention of the false information was to deceive the court for the inequitable wrongful benefit of Hatice Pakdil's employer and other defendants depriving the plaintiff of their rights under colour of law. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful in an attempt to protect her job and unlawfully gain from her crime. This resulted in fraudulently depriving Christa and her sisters a free born minors of their rightful inheritance as beneficiary of the Ochnik Family Trust. Hatice's actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46)

Richard Ochnik was not part of the securities negotiations, and his function was landlord and general contractor.

The company produced and delivered the share certificates and TD Waterhouse handed over payment for those certificates from the cash in the investors accounts as stated above, making the share purchase at the time of payment. Ian Ochnik and the company were vulnerable to Hatice Pakdil that had full control of the process.

If there was no such purchase, TDW would not receive a commission. TDW commissions totaled approximately $107 000 based on 7% of sales.
85. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW never told the Company that TDW were not working for them. Given all the documents it would clearly indicate that they were confirmed to be working with TDW as their broker on record.

86. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shareholder investors 1464210 Ontario Inc. were also clients for TDW and TD Waterhouse.
87. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC do not know of any investor on 1464210 Ontario Inc. that was over the age of 65 and had purchased shares from 1464210 Ontario Inc.
90. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC ambushed Richard Ochnik during his hearing and knew he had a lawyer but refused to remand the case to meet the lawyers schedule and there by prejudicing the defence. There would have been no damage to any party to have delayed the hearing.
92. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that you accept full responsibility for any and all additional costs, fees, charges, or expenses incurred as a result of delays, administrative actions, defense filings, or any other related processes necessitated by your actions or omissions. You acknowledge and agree that the applicable fee schedule detailing such costs is available for your review at TD-lied.com or can be provided to you upon your written request. You further agree that this fee schedule is subject to amendments and updates from time to time, at the sole discretion and for the exclusive benefit of the minister, without prior notice to you. Such amendments are binding and non-disputable. Your acceptance of this clause signifies your consent to these terms and your obligation to remit payment for any applicable fees as outlined in the current fee schedule.

102. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW advised the Company to produce an "Investor Representation Letter" indicating the declaration by the investor; "I do not currently own, Direct or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc., or any other related Company" and " I do not have any Rights to acquire any TDW, shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. "This letter was a requirement to be signed by all TDW investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. before the purchased shares. It is agreed by you, [First Name] [Last Name], the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW agreed to be broker of record May 06, 2002.

Waterhouse to save it harmless and to maintain the Company in good standing to all related regulations and Acts.

108. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after TDW due diligence by their lawyer, Compliance Department, Branch Manager and RRSP Department, that TDW assistant Paul Bayfield, Sales Assistant, then notified the Company that they were prepared to go ahead with the purchase and SWAP of the shares.
109. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. was satisfied and by the “Letter of Authority” provided Paul Panciw with the authority to bind the Company in a “Contractual Relationship” with TDW. (There was an agreement and mutual understanding). A contract was signed by the Company solidifying the relationship. TDW became brokers of record.

(Hatice Pakdil clients) and TDW would have full knowledge of their response keeping it confidential from the company.

113. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Form" were not a binding contract: paragraph 4. "Acceptance of Subscription: This subscription will be and be deemed for all purposes to have been accepted by the Corporation when the Corporation gives notice in writing to the purchaser of the allotment and issuance of the Shares subscribed for, but the corporation shall be under no obligation to accept this subscription". The share sale only occurred once TD Waterhouse paid for the shares from the cash in the, the private man with no dispute to the investor's accounts and not before. Before that could happen, TD had to notify the company regarding the buyer, account number and number of shares.
114. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Forms" also contained the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" that indicated "I do not currently own, directly or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc..." and was signed by the purchaser acknowledging the statement to be true. This clearly indicated TDW could not preform a SWAP with out first purchasing the shares. TDW then proceed to purchase the shares, by instructing Ian Ochnik, President to produce the share certificates as directed by TD compliance department (providing investor name, amount of purchase and account number).
116. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "New Clients" were established. Hatice Pakdil was their "Investment Advisor" and responsible for the client's account. The Company completed all the requirements of a "Pre-Approved Privet Placement". Hatice Pakdil testified under oath that she considered herself as an order taker and not adviser to the new clients facilitating the buy and sale of the Company shares.
117. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TD's New Client were asks online F) to charge the transaction fee to their account at TD Evergreen a division of TD Securities. TD Securities is a division of TD Bank (Schedule "A" Bank). TD had received transaction fees from the buyer and the seller in the same transaction and was a conflict of interests and kept secret by TDW to the detriment of the company and investors. Hatice Pakdil committed perjury by saying she did not represent the company. Neither party, buyer or seller knew TDW was working and paid by both the buyer and seller.

119. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had direct knowledge that the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." were not signed because clients kept changing the number of shares that they were purchasing. The change would have triggered a requirement to amend the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." Also, there was no practical way to confirm the amount of shares that the client could afford to purchase until the account was moved to TDW and in a cash position. TDW needed to know the cash availability to calculate the number of shares to be purchased at $1.00 per share. Also, the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" told TDW that they had no ownership of shares or rights to purchase shares indicating the buy and sell had not taken place yet until TD gave the company the cheque payment for the shares as stipulated on paragraph 5 of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." , the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW, Hatice Pakdil did speak to potential investors before the signing and execution of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares" with the help of TDW sales assistant. This fact clearly confirms that Hatice Pakdil had purchased shares form TDW Customer the Company to facilitate a SWAP for TDW investment clients.

information that was provide to TDW as part of the "Know Your Client" information form. This form is mandatory as part of the "Ontario Securities Act". This information would provide TDW Compliance and Hatice Pakil with the necessary information to determine the "New Client's" eligibility, as to weather or not they were an "Accredited Investor" under the definitions in the "Ontario Securities Act" in accordance with the company lawyer, Mr. King's instructions regarding compliance requirements provided to TDW. 1464210 Ontario Inc. was detrimentally reliant on TDW to access accounts and determine suitability to maintain regulations. The company had no access to the client information due to TD investor confidentiality requirements. TDW approved share purchases without verifying investor eligibility as required by the Ontario Securities Act.

124. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was negligent and processed the transaction as a "SWAP" into the client's account. As a result, the head office review of trades was per TDW Policy 2 and that requirement did not take place as required by regulation. If it was done properly the issue would have been discovered in the first trade and saved the Company. The Company had no knowledge of TDW errors. TDW had an obligation to correct the issue and save the company.

and that TDW failed to comply with its obligation to deal with its clients fairly by failing to disclosure to the clients the 7% commission that were paid to TDW contrary to section 2.1(2) of rule 31-505 and there by acted contrary to the public interests and placing the company in violation with the Ontario Securities Act.

128. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that if TDW told the truth and admitted that TDW had errored the company and the Ochnik Family specifically the Trust would have not suffered such an unconscionable punishment and the three children freeborn beneficiaries would and should have been saved harmless.

155. It is agreed by you, the private man Richard Cannings, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any breach of this agreement, including misrepresentation, fiduciary breach, fraud, or delay in remedy, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, acting as minister and also steward or trustee, shall be entitled to initiate enforcement in any competent forum of my choosing. All damages, whether direct, indirect, or consequential, including psychological, spiritual, and economic harm, shall be calculated in good faith and are enforceable under equity and law. The obligation to remedy these harms shall include but not be limited to: Direct financial losses, Reputational and spiritual harm, Involuntary service and elder abuse And Constitutional violations of conscience and trust; Leviticus 6:2–5 and Isaiah 61:7

156. It is agreed by you, the private man Richard Cannings, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, shall retain the sole, unfettered right to elect the forum and venue in which enforcement, adjudication, or interpretation of this agreement may be pursued. This includes courts of record with inherent jurisdiction, whether within Canada or the United States, including ecclesiastical or international human rights tribunals. Such selection shall be made at his sole discretion and shall be binding upon all parties as agreed in advance. This clause serves to ensure full access to fair and impartial adjudication under the maxims of law, international covenant, and God's justice.
157. It is agreed by you, the private man Richard Cannings, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the material admissions contained within this Clear-Period Contract constitute binding declarations of fact and law. You acknowledge that any failure to publicly correct or retract previous defamatory or fraudulent claims, including those issued by TD Bank Group, TD Waterhouse, OSC, or their agents, shall constitute an ongoing and compounding harm under both spiritual law and equity. The duty to correct includes issuing an open retraction to restore my name, ministry, trust estate, and familial dignity.
158. These authorities are incorporated into this agreement as interpretive anchors, and the parties agree to rely upon their reasoning and precedent in any tribunal, forum, or court of record, ecclesiastical or civil, as may be engaged for the resolution or enforcement of this contract.
159. It is agreed by you, the private man Richard Cannings, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that failure to respond to or rebut this agreement within 30 days constitutes tacit admission and contractual default. In such case, I shall have full standing to enter judgment and proceed to enforcement, including garnishment, lien, or seizure under the applicable statutes or ecclesiastical process, without further notice or leave of any court.
160. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.

165. It is agreed by Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.
166. It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman who has sworn an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant to the "Defender of the faith", then obstructs, intimidates or acts as a nuisance to the ability of an officiating minister of God, has acted against the Queens ability to defend the faith and is attempting to overthrow her majesty's government, being the King James Bible, by force....and that Section 46 of the criminal code applies to all sworn allegiant officers of her majesty.

for debtors,( that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

It is very important that I show you why I can not allow any one to assume that they have any power or force over me. To be definitive, TDW need to see the lawful definition of person and the scriptures that guide me and command me to not show respect to persons, as they are fictions of law. A player on a stage wearing a mask.

PERSON. This word is applied to men, women and children, who are called natural persons. In law, man and person are not exactly synonymous terms. Any human being is a man, whether he be a member of society or not, whatever may be the rank he holds, or whatever may be his age, sex, etc. A person is a man considered according to the rank he holds in society, with all the rights to which the place he holds entitles him, and the duties which it imposes. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 137.. It is also used to denote a corporation which is an artificial person. 1 Bl.

Com. 123; 4 Bing. 669; C. 33 Eng. C. L R. 488; Wooddes. Lect. 116; Bac. Us. 57; 1 Mod. 164.

But when the word "Persons" is spoken of in legislative acts, natural persons will be intended, unless something appears in the context to show that it applies to artificial persons. 1 Scam. R.178.

Natural persons are divided into males, or men, and females or women. Men are capable of all kinds of engagements and functions, unless by reasons applying to particular individuals. Women cannot be appointed to any public office, nor perform any civil functions, except those which the law specially declares them capable of exercising. Civ. Code of Louis. art. 25.

They are also sometimes divided into free persons and slaves. Freeman are those who have preserved their natural liberty, that is to say, who have the right of doing what is not forbidden by the law. A slave is one who is in the power of a master to whom he belongs. Slaves are sometimes ranked not with persons but things. But sometimes they are considered as persons for example, a negro is in contemplation of law a person, so as to be capable of committing a riot in conjunction with white men. 1 Bay, 358. Vide Man.

Persons are also divided into citizens, (q. v.) and aliens, (q. v.) when viewed with regard to their political rights. When they are considered in relation to their civil rights, they are living or civilly dead; vide Civil Death; outlaws; and infamous persons.

Persons are divided into legitimates and bastards, when examined as to their rights by birth.

TO PERSONATE, crim. law. The act of assuming the character of another without lawful authority, and, in such character, doing something to his prejudice, or to the prejudice of another, without his will or consent.

The bare fact of personating another for the purpose of fraud, is no more than a cheat or misdemeanour at common law, and punishable as such. 2 East, P. C. 1010; 2 Russ. on Cr. 479.

By the act of congress of the 30th April, 1790, s. 15, 1 Story's Laws U. S. 86, it is enacted, that " if any person shall acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged in any court of Canada, any recognizance, bail or judgement, in the name or names of any other person or persons not privy or consenting to the same, every such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeds five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding seven years, and whipped not exceeding thirty-nine stripes, Provided nevertheless. that this act shall not extend to the acknowledgment of any judgement or judgements by any attorney or attorneys, duly admitted, for any person or persons against whom any such judgement or judgements shall be had or given." Vide, generally, 2 John. Cas. 293; 16 Vin. Ab. 336; Com. Dig. Action on the case for a deceit, A 3.

James 2:9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one [point], he is guilty of all.

Here is a list of more in-depth definitions so no one gets lost.

I am not a Person, or an Individual, or even a human, Manuel, but before you think I am crazy, examine the facts.

I am not a person, or an individual, or a Human, and although some humans look similar to me, I am not a human.

Some would say that I am a 'natural' person, but as I will show you, I am not one of those either. Who then or what then, am I?

To understand who I am, you must first understand the definitions which have been placed on the words I have quoted above, words that are commonly used, but do not describe me anymore. For example, the word 'person'.

Person – The Revised Code of Washington, RCW 1.16.080, (I live in Washington State) defines a person as follows: "The term 'person' may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual."

Person – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 791, defines ‘person’ as follows: “In general usage, a human being (i.e. natural person), though by statute term may include labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” Person – Oran’s Dictionary of the Law, West Group 1999, defines

Person as: 1. A human being (a “natural” person). 2. A corporation (an “artificial” person). Corporations are treated as persons in many legal situations. Also, the word “person” includes corporations in most definitions in this dictionary. 3. Any other “being” entitled to sue as a legal entity (a government, an association, a group of Trustees, etc.). 4.. The plural of person is persons, not people (see that word).

Person – Duhaime’s Law Dictionary. An entity with legal rights and existence including the ability to sue and be sued, to sign contracts, to receive gifts, to appear in court either by themselves or by lawyer and, generally, other powers incidental to the full expression of the entity in law. Individuals are “persons” in law unless they are minors or under some kind of other incapacity such as a court finding of mental incapacity. Many laws give certain powers to “persons”, which in almost all instances, includes business organizations that have been formally registered such as partnerships, corporations or associations.

legal person – Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary of Law 1996, defines a legal person as : a body of persons or an entity (as a corporation) considered as having many of the rights and responsibilities of a natural person and esp. the capacity to sue and be sued.

A person according to these definitions, is basically an entity – legal fiction – of some kind that has been legally created and has the legal capacity to be sued. Isn’t it odd that the word lawful is not used within these definitions? Well then.... I am not “the United States, this state, or any territory, or any public or private corporation”. I am not “labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” So, I cannot be a ‘person’ under this part of the definition.

The RCW quoted above also states that a person could also be an “individual”. Black’s Law Dictionary also defines a person as a “human being,” which they define by stating “(i.e. natural person)”. So, let’s first check to see if I am an “individual”.

Individual – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 533, defines

“individual” as follows: “As a noun, this term denotes a single person as distinguished from a group or class, and also, very commonly, a private or natural person as distinguished from a partnership,

corporation, or association; but it is said that this restrictive signification is not necessarily inherent in the word, and that it may, in proper cases, include artificial persons.”

Well now, I have already been shown that I am not a ‘person’, and since

‘individual’ denotes a single ‘person’ as distinguished from a group or class, I can’t be an ‘individual’ under this definition either. But I see the term ‘natural person’ used in the definition of the RCW, and also in the definition of some of the Law Dictionaries. Maybe I am a ‘natural’ person, since I know I am not an ‘artificial’ one.

I could not find the term ‘Natural person’ defined anywhere, so I had to look up the word ‘natural’ for a definition to see if that word would fit with the word person...

Natural – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg.712, defines ‘Natural’ as follows: “Untouched by man or by influences of civilization; wild; untutored, and is the opposite of the word “artificial”. The juristic meaning of this term does not differ from the vernacular, except in the cases where it is used in opposition to the term “legal”; and then it means proceeding from or determined by physical causes or conditions, as distinguished from positive enactments of law, or attributable to the nature of man rather than the commands of law, or based upon moral rather than legal considerations or sanctions.”

Hmmm, what do they mean by this definition? Am I untouched by man (depends on what the word ‘man’ means), or by influences of civilization? I don’t think so. Am I ‘wild’, or ‘untutored’? (Buzzer sound), not me. Even though the definition states that this word is the opposite of the word ‘artificial’, it still does not describe who I believe I am. So, I must conclude that I am not a ‘natural’ person, under this definition of the word ‘natural’. So, the term ‘natural person’ cannot apply to me.

Black’s Law Dictionary also used the term ‘human being’, and although Black’s defined it as a ‘natural person’, maybe they made a mistake, maybe I am a ‘human being’. ‘Human’ or ‘human being’ does not appear to have a ‘legal’ definition, so I went to my old standby 1888 Noah Webster’s Dictionary for a vernacular definition of this word. Maybe Noah would know who I am

Human – Webster’s 1888 Dictionary defines ‘human’ as follows: n. A human being; one of the race of man. [Rare and inelegant.] “Sprung of humans that inhabit earth.” ...To me, the etymology of the word Hu-man, suggests that it is a marriage of two separate words ‘Hue’ (defined as the property of color), and man. But this cannot, of course, be correct, at least not politically correct, so I can’t go there, because the word would then mean ‘coloured man’!

Am I of the race of man? Rare and inelegant? Sprung of humans that inhabit earth (ground)? (I’m not coloured either). Well, it looks like I have to define the word ‘man’ through Webster’s because there appears to be no legal definition for ‘man’.

Man – Webster’s 1888 Dictionary defines ‘man’ as follows: An individual of the human race; a human being; a person.

Great news!!, it looks like we are back to the beginning of our study of definitions, yup, back to the start, completed the circle. I am not an ‘individual’, so I cannot be considered ‘of the human race’; and since I’m not of the human race, I can’t be ‘a human being’, and I’ve also been shown that I’m not a ‘person’ either.

Now let us see what the word Human really means.....I am going into detail so TDW can see we have been deceived by the misuse of our own language.

Definition of Human Being

Are you a ‘person’, an ‘individual’, or a ‘human being’? These words, at law, define you as being spiritually ‘dead.’ This is how the world makes its attachment to you. The terms, ‘person’, ‘individual’, ‘human being’, etc., are not in Christ. Words like “individual,” and “human being” do not even appear in Scripture! These are ‘created’ terms by the natural man (1 Cor 2:14). These words describe the ‘old man’, but not the ‘new man’ in Christ (Col 3:9-10). In Balantine’s Self Pronouncing Law Dictionary, 1948, page 389, Human

Being is defined as “See Monster.” On page 540 of this same Law Dictionary, Monster is defined as “a human being by birth, but in some part resembling a lower animal.”

In Webster’s New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, pages 879- 880, a Monster is defined as “a person so cruel, wicked, depraved, etc., as to horrify others.” From the Random House Dictionary of the English Language, 2nd Edition, page 901, Human Being is defined as a “Natural man: unenlightened or unregenerate,” and on page 1461, Unregenerate means “not regenerate; unrepentant; an unregenerate sinner; not convinced by or unconverted to a particular religion; wicked, sinful, dissolute.”

In Webster’s New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, page 657, Humanitarianism is defined as “the doctrine that humankind may become perfect without divine aid.”

In Colliers New Dictionary of the English Language, 1928, Humanitarian is defined as “a philanthropist; an anti-Trinitarian who rejects the doctrine of Christ’s divinity; a perfectionist.”

And in the Random House Webster’s College Dictionary, 1990, page 653, Humanism is defined as “any system or mode of thought or action in which human interests, values and dignity predominate, especially an ethical theory that often rejects the importance of a belief in God.”

Therefore, when anyone calls himself or herself a ‘human being’, or a ‘humanitarian,’ they are saying (according to every definition of these words, and according to the law), “I’m an animal; I’m a monster; I’m not saved; I’m unrepentant; I’m an unregenerate sinner; I’m not converted; I’m wicked, sinful, and dissolute; I'm cruel, depraved, unenlightened; and I reject Christ's divinity and the importance of a belief in God."

a. "Men [Bondman] rely for protection of their right on God's law, and not upon regulations and proclamations of departments of government, or officers who have been designated to carry laws into effect." Baty v. Sale, 43 Ill. 351." [Codes, edicts, proclamations, and decisions are not Law, which define or regulate the Good and Lawful Bondman. Therefore, "law" suits are ungodly, and are the redress for and of human beings, i.e., non-believers.]

The Septuagint uses the term "human beings" only one time, and its meaning is identical to the above definitions. Let's look at the last verse of the book of Jonah, where Nineve was full of men who were unrepentant, unregenerate, unconverted, wicked, sinful, dissolute, cruel, depraved, unenlightened, rejected the importance of a belief in God. Or, in other words, "human beings."

"And shall not I spare Nineve, the great city, in which dwell more than twelve myriads of human beings, who do not know their right hand or their left hand...?" [Jonah 4:11 (Septuagint)]

b. The term "human being" is also synonymous with the term 'natural man.'

c. "The natural man is a spiritual monster. His heart is where his feet should be, fixed upon the earth; his heels are lifted up against heaven, which his heart should be set on. His face is towards hell, his back towards heaven. He loves what he should hate and hates what he should love; joys in what he ought to mourn for and mourns for what he ought to rejoice in; glories in his shame, and is ashamed of his glory; abhors what he should desire, and desires what he should abhor." [Thomas Boston, quoted in Augustus Toplady, Complete Works (1794, reprinted by Sprinkle Publications 1987), page 584].

And the Word confirms: "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." [1 Corinthians 2:14,]

"Natural Person means human being, and not an artificial or juristic person." Shawmut Bank, N.A. v. Valley Farms, 610 A. 2d. 652, 654; 222 Conn. 361.

Natural Person: Any human being who as such is a legal entity as distinguished from an artificial person, like a corporation, which derives its status as a legal entity from being recognized so in law. Natural Child: The ordinary euphemism for 'bastard' or illegitimate." [Amon v. Moreschi, 296 N.Y . 395, 73 N.E.2d 716." Max Radin, Radin's Law Dictionary (1955), p. 216.]

Those that are spiritually dead belong to the prince of this world because he's dead himself. Satan has dominion over the natural man, for he is the prince of this world [John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11]; and, because of this, he has dominion over those of the world, i.e., human beings, the natural man – those who receive not the things of the Spirit of God and reject Christ. Because the bondman in Christ is sanctified from the world, he is separated from the adversary's dominion over him—sin [John 8:34].. This is the cause for Christ having sanctified Himself in the Truth of the Word of God – to provide the entrance to the refuge in and through Himself for us. I could provide you more, Manuel, and I do sincerely thank you for your focused attention to this, my honest effort at officially performing the function of my calling in establishing this agreement with you as per Matthew 5:25 and 18:15-20, but I think you are already overwhelmed as I have, upon presentation of facts, destroyed your belief system and now you are aware you are working for a massive criminal organization founded upon a false oath. Can you now see why I must not allow my name to be altered? Remember, every one of the officers of Alberta has a false oath...What kind of authority swears an oath that is bogus??? A false authority!

Relevant maxims: He who seeks equity must do equity and Qui tacet consentire videtur" (Silence implies consent).

It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; Failure to cure any breach within 30 calendar days of written notice shall constitute consent to immediate escalation to a court or forum of my choosing, including courts of equity, conscience, or international jurisdiction, at my sole discretion and benefit.

171. It is agreed by Richard Cannings, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you forthcoming from you, that it is agreed by you with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that you are aware that I do not accept the liability of the compelled benefit of any unrevealed de facto contract or unlawful commercial agreement, which is my ministerial duty pursuant to God's law to divide myself from.

Conversion Torts; The unlawful turning or applying the personal goods of another to the use of the taker, or of some other person than the owner; or the unlawful destroying or altering their nature.

When a party takes away or wrongfully assumes the right to goods which belong to another, it will in general be sufficient evidence of a conversion but when the original taking was lawful, as when the party found the goods, and the detention only is illegal, it is absolutely necessary to make a demand of the goods, and there must be a refusal to deliver them before the conversion will be complete. The refusal by a servant to deliver the goods entrusted to him by his master is not evidence of a conversion by his master. Leviticus 6:2-5 The tortious taking of property is, of itself, a conversion and any intermeddling with it, or any exercise of dominion over it, subversive of the dominion of the owner or the nature of the bailment if it be bailed, is evidence of a conversion.

In Equity, the considering of one thing as changed into another; for example, land will be considered as converted into money and treated as such by a court of equity, when the owner has contracted to sell his estate, in which case, if he die before the conveyance, his executors and not his heirs will be entitled to the money. On the other hand, money is converted into land in a variety of ways as for example, when a man agrees to buy land and dies before he has received the conveyance, the money he was to pay for it will be considered as converted into lands and descend to the heir.

It is agreed upon by you, Richard Cannings, having no dispute to the following fact forthcoming from you; that you the private man are aware and agree that I am a flesh bone blood living man, being God's minister, and that I cannot possibly have been in a dead legal corporate fiction called the Province of Ontario, Canada or other as the Province of Ontario, Canada and other is not a place but a dead corporate fiction of law on paper created for the purpose of extracting money from me in fraud as it is totally against my will, conscience and a violation of my faith to submit to and is being done without my informed consent or cognisant permission for a financial gain.

It is agreed by you, Richard Cannings with full understanding, that failure to refute or disprove the facts provided above, as agreed upon by you, I am advised by

Christ at Matthew 18:15-20 to gain a simple agreement with you privately and very simply as a child so I would like your aid in agreeing with me that respecting persons written as persona in the Latin vulgate is sin and disrespected by God. Due to the emergent nature of this agreement you are required to respond to this agreement within 10 (ten) days of receipt representing fairness, truth, natural equity. Failure to respond will be deemed acceptance of the terms, including acknowledgment of all outlined facts and obligations. We can see that in Deuteronomy 1:17. 10:17, 2nd Samuel 14:14, Matthew 22:16. Acts 10:34, Romans 2:11, James 2:1-9 and 1st Peter 1:17. If you have no dispute with that scriptural fact I will confirm with witnesses then post our good faith agreement in a paper.

Thankyou for you aid in saving my faith harmless from assumption.

Notice for a Demand of an Ecclesiastical Accommodation and Agreement

Provided under Christ's careful direction and the watchman's eye of Ezekiel 33

In the holy name of Christ, as where two or more agree in His holy name, for the will of our father, it shall be done. Matthew 18;20

If one falsely accuses another of a crime, the punishment due to that crime should be inflicted upon the perjured informer. Maxims of law

Hello, Arnold Viersen, I am Richard of the Ochnik family, a flesh blood and bone living man created by God and an officiating minister of the Church of the Ecumenical Redemption International, an ecclesiastical organism of other flesh, blood and bone men and women as the many members of the body of Christ. Where truth is, fiction of law dose not exist. Maxims of law;

If ever the law of God and man are at variance, the former are to be obeyed in derogation of the later.
Maxims. Acts 5:29

1959 CanLII 50 (SCC) | Roncarelli v. Duplessis | CanLII, Arnold Viersen, by my sending you this private good faith agreement, I do attempt, by Christ's guidance, to ascertain all the facts in scriptural honour. If you have any reason or proof to suggest or provide to me, God's minister officially performing the functions of my calling, that the following statements of the facts are not true, you are being offered the opportunity to refute these offered facts so as to clear yourself of any assumptive contractual awareness of the truth of such facts. Also be aware, this communication of agreement cannot be lawfully inquired of at public or government expense as it is a provable private matter and government funding cannot support private contracts. All legal bills must and shall be paid for out of your private pocket no different than Maurice Duplessis the former Premier and Attorney General of Quebec in Roncarelli v Duplessis

This is Demand for recognition as Christ's ordained minister in quest of defense of the faith to save harmless my soul.

I declare that I am that God created, of a Christian given name Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, chosen to be a private ecclesiastic man under God as my creator with dominion over the earth. I do declare that no man or woman has a moral or a lawful right to impose anything upon me without my informed consent; and that I do hereby renounce any fraudulent corporate assumptive contract by the right of self determination and faith renouncing secular Contracts. Amselem 2004 SCR.

I do honour the directive obligation to respect the equal God given freedoms of other men and women under His law. To all those who set eyes on this ecclesiastical declaration, I do hereby, officially performing the functions of my calling, serve notice to all private men and women as of my inability to respect persons that receive this that any offer herein, prior to, or on my part does not imply acceptance of intimidation, violence, or threats of violence against me, and that no such offer implies that I will submit to any nuisance obstruction or intimidation in the future.

I, as a bondservant of Christ do henceforth offer the good faith proclamation of my free born will to live in peace and declare that, by right of God and his son Jesus words at Corinthians 7:20:26, the de facto authority's edicts, codes, obligations, statutes, taxes, licenses and prohibitions of a de facto commercial entity are not binding on me, John 15:16 ordained minister or applicable upon God's ministers and family, his Children and including their property.

I, minister Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, an ordained minister under John 15:16 and a watchman as per Ezekiel 33:6-9, hereby invoke the protections afforded by "Operation SILENT DEFENDER." This military receivership, initiated in response to systemic fiduciary breaches, encompasses the unauthorized creation and exploitation of my Cestui Que Trust, originating from my 1960 birth certificate.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms "man" and "woman" (also

4. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that. It is agreed by you, that in 1966 ICCPR and ICESCR Signed: 19 December 1966 The principles of the UDHR offered hope and inspiration around the world. But to make a genuine difference in people's lives, those principles needed to be transformed into laws. In 1966, the UN Commission on Human Rights drafted two instruments to give legal force to the UDHR. One instrument was called the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The second was the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Together with the Universal Declaration, they comprise the International Bill of Human Rights. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights offers protections for the right to life, freedom of speech, religion, and voting. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights focuses on such issues as food, education, health, and shelter. More than 160 nations have ratified these two covenants which legally commit them to ensure these rights for people within their borders.
5. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact that in the Supreme Court Judgments [1980] 1 SCR 54 1979-12-21 Re: Authority of Parliament in relation to the Upper House Further, although s. 91(1) gave the Queen the power, with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, to alter the "Constitution of Canada" except in certain expressly designated areas, it does not confer a power to amend the B.N.A. Act. The word "Canada" in s. 91(1) does not refer to Canada as a geographical unit but refers to the "JURISTIC FEDERAL UNIT"

6. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1981 Zingre v. The Queen et al., [1981] 2 SCR 392 (Supreme Court of Canada). It is a recognized principle of international customary law that a state may not invoke the provisions of its internal law as justification for its failure to perform its international obligations.
9. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1989 Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038, 1989 The reference in s. 32 to the "Parliament" and a "legislature" make clear that the Charter operates as a limitation on the powers of those legislative bodies. Any statute enacted by either Parliament or a Legislature which is inconsistent with the Charter will be outside the power of (ultra vires) the enacting body and will be invalid. It follows that any body exercising statutory authority, for example, the Governor in Council or Lieutenant Governor in Council, ministers, officials, municipalities, school boards, universities, administrative tribunals and police officers, is also bound by the Charter. Action taken under statutory authority is valid only if it is within the scope of that authority. Since neither Parliament nor a Legislature can itself pass a law in breach of the Charter, neither body can authorize action which would be in breach of the Charter. Thus, the limitations on statutory authority which are imposed by the Charter will flow down the chain of statutory authority and apply to regulations, by-laws, orders, decisions and all other action (whether legislative, administrative or judicial) which depends for its validity on statutory authority the protection of his life and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long antecedent to the organization of the State and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in accordance with the Constitution. He owes nothing to the public so long as he does not trespass upon their rights.

15. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2015 R. v. Wagner, 2015 ONCJ 66 The Rule of Law The idea that there are certain fundamental unwritten principles that govern all members of society including legislators and which judges are expected to enforce is not particularly new. The contemporary concept of unwritten constitutional principles can be seen as a modern reincarnation of the ancient doctrines of natural law alternative shelter space. The court held the issue to be clearly justiciable because it dealt with the constitutionality of a legal prohibition. The court relied on the right to adequate housing under international human rights law as an interpretive aid. The Court referred to submissions made by Canada to the United Nations Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights regarding the scope of domestic protections for the right to housing and on General Comment No. 4 on the right to adequate housing under the International Covenant of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR). The Court noted that the question of whether the right to life, liberty and security of the person imposes positive obligations on governments to ensure the right to housing has not yet been determined by the Supreme Court of Canada and did not need to be decided in this case, which only challenged state interference.

17. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Thompson v. Ministry of Revenue [1946] SCR 209, 1946 CanLII 1 (SCC) [Page 220] Residents are taxed, not Canadians; but residents within the meaning of the Act...

fraud, intimidation making it unlawful and invalid. I do not agree and do not accept this offer to contract.

21. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.
22. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that Non-performance of this agreement shall be deemed as an act of confession and consent to immediate enforcement of all remedies herein, including liens, writs, or seizure without further notice.
26. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you forthcoming from you, that no woman calling himself de facto Chair, in the de facto Group President and Chief Executive Officer of TD Bank Group, in the de facto country of Canada (or Provinces and other) has any oath bound nor civil authority to intimidate or obstruct a minister from performing the functions of his calling nor to determine the functions of his calling unless damage has ensued to man or property violating God's law as complained of by an opposing man or woman.

financial instruments, Trustees acting on my behalf. I have the right to seize all property connected to me directly or indirectly.

28. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the Registrar General of each province and territory possesses a seal of office, as outlined in the Vital Statistics Act (or similarly named legislation). For instance, Ontario's Vital Statistics Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. V.4, s. 7(2) states: "The seal of office may be reproduced in any manner and has the same effect when it is manually applied or otherwise reproduced." In accordance with this provision, I assert the irrevocable right to utilize the reproduced seal of the Registrar General as a signatory, thereby exercising full authority to lawfully discharge any personal debts by placing the seal on the document as my sole required approval to access government accounts, to my own benefit. Furthermore, it is acknowledged that the government shall, upon demand by myself or third-party creditors, settle all such accounts owing from its own funds within ten (10) days, ensuring that I am held harmless from any associated liabilities, free and clear without recourse. You agree to provide Minister Richard and other designated individuals with revolving credit and debit facilities, enabling access to government payment obligations and facilitating point-of-purchase transactions without delay or the necessity for additional documentation.
31. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the case Roncarelli v. Duplessis (1959) underscores the principle that no party, including government officials or corporate entities, may exercise arbitrary authority to undermine the rights of others. This principle aligns with the fair treatment and protection sought under this agreement

34. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the trust (also known as the "Entitlement Certificate, Bond, Trust, or Annuity") is my entitlement property. It becomes mine upon the process of "redeeming the entitlement certificate." As a man of God, I may elect to be the "trustee", "steward" and/or the "beneficiary" of the "entitlement certificate" and thereby settle all matters and redeem the trust. In redeeming the "entitlement certificate," I act as the Creditor (Private) within the banking system, not as a Debtor (Public). Furthermore, it is acknowledged that any use of my name, or any altered form thereof as it appears on my birth certificate, for the purpose of obtaining funds or engaging in financial transactions without my informed consent, constitutes unauthorized use. Such actions are recognized as infringements upon my rights. Consequently, any funds or assets obtained through such unauthorized use are to be returned to me immediately, in full, as per my directions. It is also affirmed that the state holds no right to utilize my name in commerce without my explicit and informed consent. You and your agents agree to provide me with all assets, bonds, trusts, annuities, or other properties belonging to me within 30 days, to be transferred to me in full as per my directions. Additionally, I assert my right to hold all property in private, free from public claim or registration, in accordance with the principles of common law and the recognition of private property rights. This includes the right to acquire, use, and dispose of property without undue interference or regulation by public authorities, except as authorized by law. Matthew 7:7-8

this be rectified immediately, and you are committed and will make certain that my income will never be below the poverty level.

36. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I have the right to unfettered access and use of crown land as steward. This stewardship of land and homestead will be passed on to my family or Christian family as I see fit, all or in part without restriction, limitation or interference in any way shape or form. Genesis 1;26-28 Matthew 7:7-8

These are the words in the Oath of Office Act, indicating prima fascia an unlawful, unsanctioned, deficient form by the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance thus effectively invalidating the oath by making the oath grammatically incoherent.

I, . . . . ., swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law.

These are the words from the federal Oath of allegiance Act for Canada

..... it is very clear as to how the oath is to be worded in Canada, it is

I, ....., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada, Her Heirs and Successors. So, help me God. The deviation from the prescribed form of the oath, such as the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance, results in a grammatically incoherent and legally deficient oath. This deficiency effectively invalidates the oath, rendering any authority exercised under its auspices unlawful. The administration or reliance upon such an invalid oath may constitute a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of Canada. Specifically: Canadian Criminal Code: Section 122, Section 131 and Section 132. Therefore, proceeding with or acting upon an oath that deviates from the legally mandated form may expose individuals to criminal liability under these provisions.

39. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any disagreement, dispute, ambiguity, or challenge regarding the meaning, scope, application, or intention of any term, clause, or provision of this agreement, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, shall have the sole, exclusive, and final authority to determine its correct meaning, interpretation, and intent, at my own discretion and for my benefit. This right shall be irrevocable, nonreviewable, and binding upon you and all third parties under the principles of private contract, ecclesiastical jurisdiction, and law of equity. No court, tribunal, or external body shall override this interpretive authority without my express written consent.
40. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that this agreement is irrevocable and includes and extends to, fellow ministers, my heirs, defined herein to include all individuals, regardless of biological or marital relation, who have received God's calling as ministers, and who have been granted equivalent rights as I have here in this Agreement.
41. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that God and the bible is the supreme law and there is no limitation periods set forth to limit such laws of God.

48. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I am not the surety, debtor, or chattel, for any fictional entity that was created without my consent as it may appear on my birth certificate, passport, drivers' licence, documents or other, and I will be held safe and harmless from any and all liability or responsibility.

evidence to the contrary trespassing on their inherent rights. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful to protect her job and the expense of others and wrongfully was enriched.

56. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing: Christa Ochnik and Ontario Securities Commission, Province of Ontario, TD Waterhouse, Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD Bank) and Hatice Pakdil. Hatice, had submitted a defence that was knowingly, to be untruthfully specifically but not limited to, statement that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. The argument that Richard was the de facto officer was not raised in the above two cases and could not be contested by Richard Ochnik. The Intention of the false information was to deceive the court for the inequitable wrongful benefit of Hatice Pakdil's employer and other defendants depriving the plaintiff of their rights under colour of law. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful in an attempt to protect her job and unlawfully gain from her crime. This resulted in fraudulently depriving Christa and her sisters a free born minors of their rightful inheritance as beneficiary of the Ochnik Family Trust. Hatice's actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46) agreement, and shall authorize the undersigned to decline participation without prejudice or to initiate immediate private enforcement.

60. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Moore (Chairman) should have not been the Chairman on two hearings involving Richard Ochnik due to a conflict of interest. Its unconscionable to have expected the Chairman to rule in conflict with his earlier ruling. The Chairman did not have the lawful authority to change what was established as fact by himself in a earlier hearing without an appeal. Holding a hearing and agreeing on key facts without allowing Richard Ochnik to offer a defence was a trespass on his inherent rights, malicious slander, and libel. This technicality was deliberate to target Richard Ochnik because despite all evidence to the contrary in his own hearing it would not change the established facts from the previous case. In essence his case was lost before it started.

consent causing confusion. TDW and OSC had also misled investors telling them that Richard was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc.

68. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC have no knowledge of any Company loans given to any of the shareholders of the corporation, OSC have not seen any executed loan agreements or any records of transfer of funds, cheques or any other negotiable instruments, to any of the shareholders of 1464210 Ontario Inc. (company) involving the Company, Richard Ochnik or Ian Ochnik.
69. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC have no knowledge and have never seen an executed "Private Placement Agreement" (approved by TD Compliance and TD lawyers) signed by the President Ian Ochnik or any approved agent of the company for any of the investors.
70. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had verified through correspondence and meetings that Ian Ochnik that he was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. and Hatice had received his signed authorization on Compliance Documentation along with a "Letter of Permission" to deal directly with Paul Panciw to facilitate the share trades. TD Waterhouse (TDW) had direct contact with the securities lawyer working for 1464210 Ontario Inc.
72. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that when TDW investors transferred accounts to TDW they were in cash accounts from the other institutions and possessed no shares of the Company.

77. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all investors had signed the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares " and the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" stating that TDW investors had no shares of the company and had no right to purchase shares from the company. The share sale and purchase took place on the crossing of the share certificate and TD Waterhouse payment on behalf of the investor and no sooner.
80. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Mr. Paul Panciw, Company CFO was licenced with the Ontario Securities Commission.
81. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had received a commission of 7% for each share an investor purchased with the Company base value of $1/share. If there was no such purchase, TDW would not receive a commission. TDW commissions totaled approximately $107 000 based on 7% of sales.

85. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW never told the Company that TDW were not working for them. Given all the documents it would clearly indicate that they were confirmed to be working with TDW as their broker on record.
86. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shareholder investors 1464210 Ontario Inc. were also clients for TDW and TD Waterhouse.
87. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC do not know of any investor on 1464210 Ontario Inc. that was over the age of 65 and had purchased shares from 1464210 Ontario Inc.
89. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Bayfield was TDW Sales Assistant, and he was actively assisting in processing of the trades and had direct knowledge of the transactions playing a key role in the approvals to facilitate the purchase and subsequent SWAP of the shares.
90. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC ambushed Richard Ochnik during his hearing and knew he had a lawyer but refused to remand the case to meet the lawyers schedule and there by prejudicing the defence. There would have been no damage to any party to have delayed the hearing.

the shares earning TDW the commission. Then the newly purchased shares could only be SWAPED into the individual accounts earning TDW fees from the investors paid to TDW.

92. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that you accept full responsibility for any and all additional costs, fees, charges, or expenses incurred as a result of delays, administrative actions, defense filings, or any other related processes necessitated by your actions or omissions. You acknowledge and agree that the applicable fee schedule detailing such costs is available for your review at TD-lied.com or can be provided to you upon your written request. You further agree that this fee schedule is subject to amendments and updates from time to time, at the sole discretion and for the exclusive benefit of the minister, without prior notice to you. Such amendments are binding and non-disputable. Your acceptance of this clause signifies your consent to these terms and your obligation to remit payment for any applicable fees as outlined in the current fee schedule.
96. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc and Paul Bayfield were not subpoena or questioned by the Ontario Security Commission Hearings Involving 1464210 Ontario Inc and Richard Ochnik, contrary to the best evidence rules and practice. In this investigation the OSC exercised willful blindness and colour of law.

after he had purchased share without knowledge or involvement of Richard Ochnik, Ian Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. This loan given by TDW was a violation of the Ontario Securities Act and was intended to cover up TDW securities violations.

102. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW advised the Company to produce an "Investor Representation Letter" indicating the declaration by the investor; "I do not currently own, Direct or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc., or any other related Company" and " I do not have any Rights to acquire any TDW, shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. "This letter was a requirement to be signed by all TDW investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. before the purchased shares. It is agreed by you, [First Name] [Last Name], the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW agreed to be broker of record May 06, 2002.

Financial Planner) for the Company with TDW, Hatice Pakdel, on May 06, 2002, at 12:27 PM.

105. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that failed to provide full disclosures to the defendants as required by law. TDW did not send a copy of the "Privet Placement Agreement" in fear of incriminating Hatice Pakdil. TDW were aware that this document would have a direct impact on the outcome of the case establishing that the company had a licenced broker and was detrimentally reliant on TD Waterhouse to save it harmless and to maintain the Company in good standing to all related regulations and Acts.
108. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after TDW due diligence by their lawyer, Compliance Department, Branch Manager and RRSP Department, that TDW assistant Paul Bayfield, Sales Assistant, then notified the Company that they were prepared to go ahead with the purchase and SWAP of the shares.
109. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. was satisfied and by the "Letter of Authority" provided Paul Panciw with the authority to bind the Company in a "Contractual Relationship" with TDW. (There was an agreement and mutual understanding). A contract was signed by the Company solidifying the relationship. TDW became brokers of record.

113. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Form" were not a binding contract: paragraph 4. "Acceptance of Subscription: This subscription will be and be deemed for all purposes to have been accepted by the Corporation when the Corporation gives notice in writing to the purchaser of the allotment and issuance of the Shares subscribed for, but the corporation shall be under no obligation to accept this subscription". The share sale only occurred once TD Waterhouse paid for the shares from the cash in the, the private man with no dispute to the investor's accounts and not before. Before that could happen, TD had to notify the company regarding the buyer, account number and number of shares.
114. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Forms" also contained the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" that indicated "I do not currently own, directly or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc..." and was signed by the purchaser acknowledging the statement to be true. This clearly indicated TDW could not preform a SWAP with out first purchasing the shares. TDW then proceed to purchase the shares, by instructing Ian Ochnik, President to produce the share certificates as directed by TD compliance department (providing investor name, amount of purchase and account number).

118. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all of TDW's "New Client(s)" instructs there "Investment Advisor" Hatice Pakdil to "acquire" shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. for there RRSP account. Indicating they had no possession of shares to do a SWAP unless Hatice Pakdil processed the purchase/sale of shares.
119. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had direct knowledge that the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." were not signed because clients kept changing the number of shares that they were purchasing. The change would have triggered a requirement to amend the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." Also, there was no practical way to confirm the amount of shares that the client could afford to purchase until the account was moved to TDW and in a cash position. TDW needed to know the cash availability to calculate the number of shares to be purchased at $1.00 per share. Also, the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" told TDW that they had no ownership of shares or rights to purchase shares indicating the buy and sell had not taken place yet until TD gave the company the cheque payment for the shares as stipulated on paragraph 5 of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares.". , the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW, Hatice Pakdil did speak to potential investors before the signing and execution of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares" with the help of TDW sales assistant. This fact clearly confirms that Hatice Pakdil had purchased shares form TDW Customer the Company to facilitate a SWAP for TDW investment clients.

124. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was negligent and processed the transaction as a "SWAP" into the client's account. As a result, the head office review of trades was per TDW Policy 2 and that requirement did not take place as required by regulation. If it was done properly the issue would have been discovered in the first trade and saved the Company. The Company had no knowledge of TDW errors. TDW had an obligation to correct the issue and save the company.
125. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shares were distributed to the "New Client's" RRSP accounts by TDW as a trade and then followed by a SWAP.

Bayfield was TDW assistant and received instructions from TDW. TDW had over seen each of the transactions.

128. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that if TDW told the truth and admitted that TDW had errored the company and the Ochnik Family specifically the Trust would have not suffered such an unconscionable punishment and the three children freeborn beneficiaries would and should have been saved harmless.
133. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that by not being forthright and truthful TDW participated in a fraud to your own benefit and profit at the expense of the Company. It is unconscionable that Hatice Pakdil allowed and orchestrated this fraud with the help TDW employer, Ontario Securities Commission (OSC) and Paul Moore Chairman.

136. It is agreed by you, the private man Arnold Viersen, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that both parties herein acknowledge and affirm reliance on the judicial interpolations and jurisprudential authority of the following cases, as they are instructive and binding in equity, conscience, and constitutional review: Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038 – affirming that the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms overrides statutory discretion where fundamental freedoms are at stake; Roncarelli v. Duplessis, [1959] SCR 121 establishing that personal liability arises where public officials act beyond lawful power or in bad faith; Callow v. Zollinger, 2020 SCC 45 – confirming the duty of good faith and honest performance in the execution of all private agreements, whether formal or informal; Syndicat Northcrest v. Amselem, [2004] 2 SCR 551 – upholding that sovereign religious and spiritual beliefs must not be abridged or interfered with by state or commercial entities, and may not be redefined by third parties.
137. It is agreed by you, the private man Arnold Viersen, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you,, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of breach, dishonour, non-performance, refusal to cure, or silence beyond the agreed Clear-Period, you do hereby: (a) Confess judgment in advance, without protest, to the full amount of damages declared in this agreement and/or any affidavit, declaration, or notice associated thereto; (b) Waive any and all procedural objections to enforcement or collection; (c) Consent to immediate enforcement by private lien, ecclesiastical summons, equity writ, or sheriff application, in any court of record or jurisdiction selected solely by Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, without the need for further hearing or approval; (d) Acknowledge that this confession is made in good faith, with full notice, and without coercion, and is enforceable under the maxims of law, the principles of equity, and the conscience of both natural and divine law. Such judgment shall be deemed entered ab initio upon breach or failure to respond within the agreed cure period, and the undersigned party may act as witness, creditor, and claimant without estoppel or restriction.

138. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that It is agreed and declared that any entity or institution, including but not limited to TD Bank Group or any of its subsidiaries, who has received any benefit, gain, asset, equity, or enrichment arising from the breach, fraud, misrepresentation, or fiduciary failure described herein, shall be deemed liable under the doctrine of Unjust Enrichment and Constructive Trust. Such liability is enforceable regardless of formal privity with this agreement, and may be pursued through private lien, lawful trust claim, ecclesiastical forum, or court of equity. TD Bank is hereby placed on notice of their direct and vicarious liability for unjust enrichment and is invited to cure such injury by full restitution. Failure to do so shall trigger enforcement without further notice.

143. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, acting in my capacity as minister and lawful living man, have suffered actual, documentable, and irreparable harm arising directly from your actions, omissions, or complicity, including but not limited to: Spiritual desecration and the unlawful obstruction of ecclesiastical office; Financial loss and misappropriation of sacred trust property; Psychological duress, unlawful detention, medical neglect, and cruel and unusual treatment; Violation of ecclesiastical jurisdiction and breach of covenant, contract, and international trust law.

with ecclesiastical canon, scriptural doctrine, and spiritual covenant, unless explicitly amended in writing by mutual, witnessed addendum. Scriptural interpretation and authority rest with the undersigned minister and his successors.

150. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; In the event that either the Bank of Canada or the Royal Canadian Mint ceases to mint the said coins or withdraws them from circulation, it is agreed that a comparable sovereign-minted, bullion standard coin of equal weight and purity shall substitute for settlement purposes, maintaining the above-stated fixed valuations as approved by minister Richard as per his sole discretion and to his own benefit.
154. 155. It is agreed by you, the private man Arnold Viersen, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any breach of this agreement, including misrepresentation, fiduciary breach, fraud, or delay in remedy, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, acting as minister and also steward or trustee, shall be entitled to initiate enforcement in any competent forum of my choosing. All damages, whether direct, indirect, or consequential, including psychological, spiritual, and economic harm, shall be calculated in good faith and are enforceable under equity and law. This includes courts of record with inherent jurisdiction, whether within Canada or the United States, including ecclesiastical or international human rights tribunals. 158. These authorities are incorporated into this agreement as interpretive anchors, and the parties agree to rely upon their reasoning and precedent in any tribunal, forum, or court of record, ecclesiastical or civil, as may be engaged for the resolution or enforcement of this contract.
159. It is agreed by you, the private man Arnold Viersen, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that failure to respond to or rebut this agreement within 30 days constitutes tacit admission and contractual default. In such case, I shall have full standing to enter judgment and proceed to enforcement, including garnishment, lien, or seizure under the applicable statutes or ecclesiastical process, without further notice or leave of any court.
160. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.

162. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man , with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private man or woman with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.
165. It is agreed by Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.
166. It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman who has sworn an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant to the "Defender of the faith", then obstructs, intimidates or acts as a nuisance to the ability of an officiating minister of God, has acted against the Queens ability to defend the faith and is attempting to overthrow her majesty's government, being the King James Bible, by force....and that Section 46 of the criminal code applies to all sworn allegiant officers of her majesty.

32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

It is very important that I show you why I can not allow any one to assume that they have any power or force over me. To be definitive, TDW need to see the lawful definition of person and the scriptures that guide me and command me to not show respect to persons, as they are fictions of law. A player on a stage wearing a mask.

PERSON. This word is applied to men, women and children, who are called natural persons. In law, man and person are not exactly synonymous terms. Any human being is a man, whether he be a member of society or not, whatever may be the rank he holds, or whatever may be his age, sex, etc. A person is a man considered according to the rank he holds in society, with all the rights to which the place he holds entitles him, and the duties which it imposes. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 137.. It is also used to denote a corporation which is an artificial person. 1 Bl.

Com. 123; 4 Bing. 669; C. 33 Eng. C. L R. 488; Wooddes. Lect. 116; Bac. Us. 57; 1 Mod. 164.

But when the word "Persons" is spoken of in legislative acts, natural persons will be intended, unless something appears in the context to show that it applies to artificial persons. 1 Scam. R.178.

Natural persons are divided into males, or men, and females or women. Men are capable of all kinds of engagements and functions, unless by reasons applying to particular individuals. Women cannot be appointed to any public office, nor perform any civil functions, except those which the law specially declares them capable of exercising. Civ. Code of Louis. art. 25.

They are also sometimes divided into free persons and slaves. Freemen are those who have preserved their natural liberty, that is to say, who have the right of doing what is not forbidden by the law. A slave is one who is in the power of a master to whom he belongs. Slaves are sometimes ranked not with persons but things. But sometimes they are considered as persons for example, a negro is in contemplation of law a person, so as to be capable of committing a riot in conjunction with white men. 1 Bay, 358. Vide Man.

Persons are also divided into citizens, (q. v.) and aliens, (q. v.) when viewed with regard to their political rights. When they are considered in relation to their civil rights, they are living or civilly dead; vide Civil Death; outlaws; and infamous persons.

Persons are divided into legitimates and bastards, when examined as to their rights by birth.

TO PERSONATE, crim. law. The act of assuming the character of another without lawful authority, and, in such character, doing something to his prejudice, or to the prejudice of another, without his will or consent.

The bare fact of personating another for the purpose of fraud, is no more than a cheat or misdemeanour at common law, and punishable as such. 2 East, P. C. 1010; 2 Russ. on Cr. 479.

By the act of congress of the 30th April, 1790, s. 15, 1 Story's Laws U. S. 86, it is enacted, that " if any person shall acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged in any court of Canada, any recognizance, bail or judgement, in the name or names of any other person or persons not privy or consenting to the same, every such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeds five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding seven years, and whipped not exceeding thirty-nine stripes, Provided nevertheless. that this act shall not extend to the acknowledgment of any judgement or judgements by any attorney or attorneys, duly admitted, for any person or persons against whom any such judgement or judgements shall be had or given." Vide, generally, 2 John. Cas. 293; 16 Vin. Ab. 336; Com. Dig. Action on the case for a deceit, A 3.

James 2:9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one [point], he is guilty of all.

Here is a list of more in-depth definitions so no one gets lost.

I am not a Person, or an Individual, or even a human, Manuel, but before you think I am crazy, examine the facts.

I am not a person, or an individual, or a Human, and although some humans look similar to me, I am not a human.

Some would say that I am a 'natural' person, but as I will show you, I am not one of those either. Who then or what then, am I?

To understand who I am, you must first understand the definitions which have been placed on the words I have quoted above, words that are commonly used, but do not describe me anymore. For example, the word 'person'.

Person – The Revised Code of Washington, RCW 1.16.080, (I live in Washington State) defines a person as follows: "The term 'person' may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual."

Person – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 791, defines 'person' as follows: "In general usage, a human being (i.e. natural person), though by statute term may include labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” Person – Oran’s Dictionary of the Law, West Group 1999, defines

Person as: 1. A human being (a “natural” person). 2. A corporation (an “artificial” person). Corporations are treated as persons in many legal situations. Also, the word “person” includes corporations in most definitions in this dictionary. 3. Any other “being” entitled to sue as a legal entity (a government, an association, a group of Trustees, etc.). 4.. The plural of person is persons, not people (see that word).

Person – Duhaime’s Law Dictionary. An entity with legal rights and existence including the ability to sue and be sued, to sign contracts, to receive gifts, to appear in court either by themselves or by lawyer and, generally, other powers incidental to the full expression of the entity in law. Individuals are “persons” in law unless they are minors or under some kind of other incapacity such as a court finding of mental incapacity. Many laws give certain powers to “persons”, which in almost all instances, includes business organizations that have been formally registered such as partnerships, corporations or associations.

legal person – Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary of Law 1996, defines a legal person as : a body of persons or an entity (as a corporation) considered as having many of the rights and responsibilities of a natural person and esp. the capacity to sue and be sued.

A person according to these definitions, is basically an entity – legal fiction – of some kind that has been legally created and has the legal capacity to be sued. Isn’t it odd that the word lawful is not used within these definitions? Well then.... I am not “the United States, this state, or any territory, or any public or private corporation”. I am not “labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” So, I cannot be a ‘person’ under this part of the definition.

The RCW quoted above also states that a person could also be an “individual”. Black’s Law Dictionary also defines a person as a “human being,” which they define by stating “(i.e. natural person)”. So, let’s first check to see if I am an “individual”.

Individual – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 533, defines

“individual” as follows: “As a noun, this term denotes a single person as distinguished from a group or class, and also, very commonly, a private or natural person as distinguished from a partnership, corporation, or association; but it is said that this restrictive signification is not necessarily inherent in the word, and that it may, in proper cases, include artificial persons.”

Well now, I have already been shown that I am not a 'person', and since

'individual' denotes a single 'person' as distinguished from a group or class, I can't be an 'individual' under this definition either. But I see the term 'natural person' used in the definition of the RCW, and also in the definition of some of the Law Dictionaries. Maybe I am a 'natural' person, since I know I am not an 'artificial' one.

I could not find the term 'Natural person' defined anywhere, so I had to look up the word 'natural' for a definition to see if that word would fit with the word person...

Natural – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg.712, defines 'Natural' as follows: "Untouched by man or by influences of civilization; wild; untutored, and is the opposite of the word "artificial". The juristic meaning of this term does not differ from the vernacular, except in the cases where it is used in opposition to the term "legal"; and then it means proceeding from or determined by physical causes or conditions, as distinguished from positive enactments of law, or attributable to the nature of man rather than the commands of law, or based upon moral rather than legal considerations or sanctions."

Hmmm, what do they mean by this definition? Am I untouched by man (depends on what the word 'man' means), or by influences of civilization? I don't think so. Am I 'wild', or 'untutored'? (Buzzer sound), not me. Even though the definition states that this word is the opposite of the word 'artificial', it still does not describe who I believe I am. So, I must conclude that I am not a 'natural' person, under this definition of the word 'natural'. So, the term 'natural person' cannot apply to me.

Black's Law Dictionary also used the term 'human being', and although Black's defined it as a 'natural person', maybe they made a mistake, maybe I am a 'human being'. 'Human' or 'human being' does not appear to have a 'legal' definition, so I went to my old standby 1888 Noah Webster's Dictionary for a vernacular definition of this word. Maybe Noah would know who I am

Human – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'human' as follows: n. A human being; one of the race of man. [Rare and inelegant.] "Sprung of humans that inhabit earth." ...To me, the etymology of the word Hu-man, suggests that it is a marriage of two separate words 'Hue' (defined as the property of color), and man. But this cannot, of course, be correct, at least not politically correct, so I can't go there, because the word would then mean 'coloured man'!

Am I of the race of man? Rare and inelegant? Sprung of humans that inhabit earth (ground)? (I'm not coloured either). Well, it looks like I have to define the word 'man' through Webster's because there appears to be no legal definition for 'man'.

Man – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'man' as follows: An individual of the human race; a human being; a person.

Great news!!, it looks like we are back to the beginning of our study of definitions, yup, back to the start, completed the circle. I am not an 'individual', so I cannot be considered 'of the human race'; and since I'm not of the human race, I can't be 'a human being', and I've also been shown that I'm not a 'person' either.

Now let us see what the word Human really means.....I am going into detail so TDW can see we have been deceived by the misuse of our own language.

Definition of Human Being

Are you a 'person', an 'individual', or a 'human being'? These words, at law, define you as being spiritually 'dead.' This is how the world makes its attachment to you. The terms, 'person', 'individual', 'human being', etc., are not in Christ. Words like "individual," and "human being" do not even appear in Scripture! These are 'created' terms by the natural man (1 Cor 2:14). These words describe the 'old man', but not the 'new man' in Christ (Col 3:9-10). In Balantine's Self Pronouncing Law Dictionary, 1948, page 389, Human

Being is defined as "See Monster." On page 540 of this same Law Dictionary, Monster is defined as "a human being by birth, but in some part resembling a lower animal."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, pages 879- 880, a Monster is defined as "a person so cruel, wicked, depraved, etc., as to horrify others." From the Random House Dictionary of the English Language, 2nd Edition, page 901, Human Being is defined as a "Natural man: unenlightened or unregenerate," and on page 1461, Unregenerate means "not regenerate; unrepentant; an unregenerate sinner; not convinced by or unconverted to a particular religion; wicked, sinful, dissolute."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, page 657, Humanitarianism is defined as "the doctrine that humankind may become perfect without divine aid."

In Colliers New Dictionary of the English Language, 1928, Humanitarian is defined as "a philanthropist; an anti-Trinitarian who rejects the doctrine of Christ's divinity; a perfectionist."

And in the Random House Webster's College Dictionary, 1990, page 653, Humanism is defined as "any system or mode of thought or action in which human interests, values and dignity predominate, especially an ethical theory that often rejects the importance of a belief in God."

Therefore, when anyone calls himself or herself a 'human being', or a 'humanitarian,' they are saying (according to every definition of these words, and according to the law), "I'm an animal; I'm a monster; I'm not saved; I'm unrepentant; I'm an unregenerate sinner; I'm not converted; I'm wicked, sinful, and dissolute; I'm cruel, depraved, unenlightened; and I reject Christ's divinity and the importance of a belief in God."

a. “Men [Bondman] rely for protection of their right on God’s law, and not upon regulations and proclamations of departments of government, or officers who have been designated to carry laws into effect.” Baty v. Sale, 43 Ill. 351.” [Codes, edicts, proclamations, and decisions are not Law, which define or regulate the Good and Lawful Bondman. Therefore, “law” suits are ungodly, and are the redress for and of human beings, i.e., non-believers.]

The Septuagint uses the term “human beings” only one time, and its meaning is identical to the above definitions. Let’s look at the last verse of the book of Jonah, where Nineve was full of men who were unrepentant, unregenerate, unconverted, wicked, sinful, dissolute, cruel, depraved, unenlightened, rejected the importance of a belief in God. Or, in other words, “human beings.”

b. The term “human being” is also synonymous with the term ‘natural man.’

c. “The natural man is a spiritual monster. His heart is where his feet should be, fixed upon the earth; his heels are lifted up against heaven, which his heart should be set on. His face is towards hell, his back towards heaven. He loves what he should hate and hates what he should love; joys in what he ought to mourn for and mourns for what he ought to rejoice in; glories in his shame, and is ashamed of his glory; abhors what he should desire, and desires what he should abhor.” [Thomas Boston, quoted in Augustus Toplady, Complete Works (1794, reprinted by Sprinkle Publications 1987), page 584].

And the Word confirms: “But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.” [1 Corinthians 2:14,]

The above verse witnesses to us that the natural man is spiritually dead. The ‘natural man’ in Scripture is synonymous with the ‘natural person’ as defined in man’s laws.

“Natural Person means human being, and not an artificial or juristic person.” Shawmut Bank, N.A. v. Valley Farms, 610 A. 2d. 652, 654; 222 Conn. 361.

Natural Person: Any human being who as such is a legal entity as distinguished from an artificial person, like a corporation, which derives its status as a legal entity from being recognized so in law. Natural Child: The ordinary euphemism for ‘bastard’ or illegitimate.” [Amon v. Moreschi, 296 N.Y. 395, 73 N.E.2d 716.” Max Radin, Radin’s Law Dictionary (1955), p. 216.]

Those that are spiritually dead belong to the prince of this world because he's dead himself. Satan has dominion over the natural man, for he is the prince of this world [John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11]; and, because of this, he has dominion over those of the world, i.e., human beings, the natural man – those who receive not the things of the Spirit of God and reject Christ. Because the bondman in Christ is sanctified from the world, he is separated from the adversary's dominion over him—sin [John 8:34].. This is the cause for Christ having sanctified Himself in the Truth of the Word of God – to provide the entrance to the refuge in and through Himself for us. I could provide you more, Manuel, and I do sincerely thank you for your focused attention to this, my honest effort at officially performing the function of my calling in establishing this agreement with you as per Matthew 5:25 and 18:15-20, but I think you are already overwhelmed as I have, upon presentation of facts, destroyed your belief system and now you are aware you are working for a massive criminal organization founded upon a false oath. Can you now see why I must not allow my name to be altered? Remember, every one of the officers of Alberta has a false oath...What kind of authority swears an oath that is bogus??? A false authority!

171. It is agreed by Arnold Viersen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you forthcoming from you, that it is agreed by you with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that you are aware that I do not accept the liability of the compelled benefit of any unrevealed de facto contract or unlawful commercial agreement, which is my ministerial duty pursuant to God's law to divide myself from.

Conversion Torts; The unlawful turning or applying the personal goods of another to the use of the taker, or of some other person than the owner; or the unlawful destroying or altering their nature.

When a party takes away or wrongfully assumes the right to goods which belong to another, it will in general be sufficient evidence of a conversion but when the original taking was lawful, as when the party found the goods, and the detention only is illegal, it is absolutely necessary to make a demand of the goods, and there must be a refusal to deliver them before the conversion will be complete. The refusal by a servant to deliver the goods entrusted to him by his master is not evidence of a conversion by his master. Leviticus 6:2-5 The tortious taking of property is, of itself, a conversion and any intermeddling with it, or any exercise of dominion over it, subversive of the dominion of the owner or the nature of the bailment if it be bailed, is evidence of a conversion.

In Equity, the considering of one thing as changed into another; for example, land will be considered as converted into money and treated as such by a court of equity, when the owner has contracted to sell his estate, in which case, if he die before the conveyance, his executors and not his heirs will be entitled to the money. On the other hand, money is converted into land in a variety of ways as for example, when a man agrees to buy land and dies before he has received the conveyance, the money he was to pay for it will be considered as converted into lands and descend to the heir.

It is agreed upon by you, Arnold Viersen, having no dispute to the following fact forthcoming from you; that you the private man are aware and agree that I am a flesh bone blood living man, being God's minister, and that I cannot possibly have been in a dead legal corporate fiction called the Province of Ontario, Canada or other as the Province of Ontario, Canada and other is not a place but a dead corporate fiction of law on paper created for the purpose of extracting money from me in fraud as it is totally against my will, conscience and a violation of my faith to submit to and is being done without my informed consent or cognisant permission for a financial gain.

It is agreed by you, Arnold Viersen with full understanding, that failure to refute or disprove the facts provided above, as agreed upon by you, I am advised by

Christ at Matthew 18:15-20 to gain a simple agreement with you privately and very simply as a child so I would like your aid in agreeing with me that respecting persons written as persona in the Latin vulgate is sin and disrespected by God. Due to the emergent nature of this agreement you are required to respond to this agreement within 10 (ten) days of receipt representing fairness, truth, natural equity. Failure to respond will be deemed acceptance of the terms, including acknowledgment of all outlined facts and obligations. We can see that in Deuteronomy 1:17. 10:17, 2nd Samuel 14:14, Matthew 22:16. Acts 10:34, Romans 2:11, James 2:1-9 and 1st Peter 1:17. If you have no dispute with that scriptural fact I will confirm with witnesses then post our good faith agreement in a paper.

Thankyou for you aid in saving my faith harmless from assumption.

Provided under Christ's careful direction and the watchman's eye of Ezekiel 33

In the holy name of Christ, as where two or more agree in His holy name, for the will of our father, it shall be done. Matthew 18;20

Hello, Tim Uppal, I am Richard of the Ochnik family, a flesh blood and bone living man created by God and an officiating minister of the Church of the Ecumenical Redemption International, an ecclesiastical organism of other flesh, blood and bone men and women as the many members of the body of Christ. Where truth is, fiction of law dose not exist. Maxims of law;

If ever the law of God and man are at variance, the former are to be obeyed in derogation of the later.
Maxims. Acts 5:29

1959 CanLII 50 (SCC) | Roncarelli v. Duplessis | CanLII, Tim Uppal, by my sending you this private good faith agreement, I do attempt, by Christ's guidance, to ascertain all the facts in scriptural honour. If you have any reason or proof to suggest or provide to me, God's minister officially performing the functions of my calling, that the following statements of the facts are not true, you are being offered the opportunity to refute these offered facts so as to clear yourself of any assumptive contractual awareness of the truth of such facts. Also be aware, this communication of agreement cannot be lawfully inquired of at public or government expense as it is a provable private matter and government funding cannot support private contracts. All legal bills must and shall be paid for out of your private pocket no different than Maurice Duplessis the former Premier and Attorney General of Quebec in Roncarelly v Duplessis

This is Demand for recognition as Christ's ordained minister in quest of defense of the faith to save harmless my soul.

Both parties agree to act in good faith, ensuring no misleading actions or omissions that could undermine the intent or enforceability of this agreement. Each party is obligated to respect the natural rights and freedoms outlined herein.

I declare that I am that God created, of a Christian given name Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, chosen to be a private ecclesiastic man under God as my creator with dominion over the earth. I do declare that no man or woman has a moral or a lawful right to impose anything upon me without my informed consent; and that I do hereby renounce any fraudulent corporate assumptive contract by the right of self determination and faith renouncing secular Contracts. Amselem 2004 SCR.

I do honour the directive obligation to respect the equal God given freedoms of other men and women under His law. To all those who set eyes on this ecclesiastical declaration, I do hereby, officially performing the functions of my calling, serve notice to all private men and women as of my inability to respect persons that receive this that any offer herein, prior to, or on my part does not imply acceptance of intimidation, violence, or threats of violence against me, and that no such offer implies that I will submit to any nuisance obstruction or intimidation in the future.

I, as a bondservant of Christ do henceforth offer the good faith proclamation of my free born will to live in peace and declare that, by right of God and his son Jesus words at Corinthians 7:20:26, the de facto authority's edicts, codes, obligations, statutes, taxes, licenses and prohibitions of a de facto commercial entity are not binding on me, John 15:16 ordained minister or applicable upon God's ministers and family, his Children and including their property.

I, minister Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, an ordained minister under John 15:16 and a watchman as per Ezekiel 33:6-9, hereby invoke the protections afforded by "Operation SILENT DEFENDER." This military receivership, initiated in response to systemic fiduciary breaches, encompasses the unauthorized creation and exploitation of my Cestui Que Trust, originating from my 1960 birth certificate.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms "man" and "woman" (also Queen and King) are used interchangeably and are intended to be inclusive of all individuals, regardless of gender identity. Any reference to a specific gender shall be construed to include all genders, and no provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to exclude any person based on gender.

1. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I, minister of Richard Henry of the Ochnik family was on or about the 30th of November, 2004 A.D., unlawfully intimidated and obstructed, by you, in your private capacity, by methods not sanctioned and as such, being a perceived and negative nuisance to my ability to perform an official function of my ministerial calling, are in violation of Sections 126,176, 423, 465 and 180 of the Criminal Code of Canada by violating your Oath of Allegiance and the Royal Style and Titles Act.

2. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I am not a member of a dead legal fiction entity corporation known as Canada or Ontario and that specifically my name, being my ecclesiastical possession under the exclusive authority of God, is not allowed by my faith in God's commands as defended by the Queen you swore an oath to be truly allegiant to, to be used, recorded, registered, altered used for or exchanged for a financial purpose without my permission that it has never been offered or pledged to be for any of those reasons or to be used as a surety or as a commodity with my informed consent.
4. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that. It is agreed by you, that in 1966 ICCPR and ICESCR Signed: 19 December 1966 The principles of the UDHR offered hope and inspiration around the world. But to make a genuine difference in people's lives, those principles needed to be transformed into laws. In 1966, the UN Commission on Human Rights drafted two instruments to give legal force to the UDHR. One instrument was called the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The second was the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Together with the Universal Declaration, they comprise the International Bill of Human Rights. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights offers protections for the right to life, freedom of speech, religion, and voting. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights focuses on such issues as food, education, health, and shelter. More than 160 nations have ratified these two covenants which legally commit them to ensure these rights for people within their borders.
5. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact that in the Supreme Court Judgments [1980] 1 SCR 54 1979-12-21 Re: Authority of Parliament in relation to the Upper House Further, although s. 91(1) gave the Queen the power, with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, to alter the "Constitution of Canada" except in certain expressly designated areas, it does not confer a power to amend the B.N.A. Act. The word "Canada" in s. 91(1) does not refer to Canada as a geographical unit but refers to the "JURISTIC FEDERAL UNIT"

9. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1989 Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038, 1989 The reference in s. 32 to the "Parliament" and a "legislature" make clear that the Charter operates as a limitation on the powers of those legislative bodies. Any statute enacted by either Parliament or a Legislature which is inconsistent with the Charter will be outside the power of (ultra vires) the enacting body and will be invalid. It follows that any body exercising statutory authority, for example, the Governor in Council or Lieutenant Governor in Council, ministers, officials, municipalities, school boards, universities, administrative tribunals and police officers, is also bound by the Charter. Action taken under statutory authority is valid only if it is within the scope of that authority. Since neither Parliament nor a Legislature can itself pass a law in breach of the Charter, neither body can authorize action which would be in breach of the Charter. Thus, the limitations on statutory authority which are imposed by the Charter will flow down the chain of statutory authority and apply to regulations, by-laws, orders, decisions and all other action (whether legislative, administrative or judicial) which depends for its validity on statutory authority
10. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1990 Thomson Newspapers Ltd. v. Canada (Director of Investigation and Research, Restrictive Trade Practices Commission) While individuals as a rule have full legal capacity by the operation of law alone, artificial persons are creatures of the state and enjoy civil rights and powers only upon the approval of statutory authorities. The individual may stand upon his constitutional rights. He owes no duty to the State, since he receives nothing there from, beyond the protection of his life and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long antecedent to the organization of the State and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in accordance with the Constitution. He owes nothing to the public so long as he does not trespass upon their rights.

13. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2005 Court Judgement Supreme Court- Christie v. British Columbia, 2005 BCCA 631 (CanLII) The rule of law embraces at least three principles. The first principle is that the "law is supreme over officials of the government as well as private individuals, and thereby preclusive of the influence of arbitrary power"
15. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2015 R. v. Wagner, 2015 ONCJ 66 The Rule of Law The idea that there are certain fundamental unwritten principles that govern all members of society including legislators and which judges are expected to enforce is not particularly new. The contemporary concept of unwritten constitutional principles can be seen as a modern reincarnation of the ancient doctrines of natural law

17. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Thompson v. Ministry of Revenue [1946] SCR 209, 1946 CanLII 1 (SCC) [Page 220] Residents are taxed, not Canadians; but residents within the meaning of the Act...
20. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I was "Shanghaied" by Canada forcefully arbitrarily redefining me as a class of person(s) to extend Civil Law and enactments on me knowing at all times it was not lawful and a violation of the Constitution of Canada (1982), international Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, Geneva Convention, contrary to the King James Bible 1611 and their oath to the Queen Elizabeth II the "Defender of the faith" and now King Charles III "Defender of the faith". 37. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors, (that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word “do” are not withstanding or legitimate.

These are the words in the Oath of Office Act, indicating prima fascia an unlawful, unsanctioned, deficient form by the omission of the word “do” in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance thus effectively invalidating the oath by making the oath grammatically incoherent.

I, . . . . ., swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law.

These are the words from the federal Oath of allegiance Act for Canada

..... it is very clear as to how the oath is to be worded in Canada, it is

(1) Every person who, either of his own accord or in compliance with any lawful requirement made of the person, or in obedience to the directions of any Act or law in force in Canada, except the Constitution Act, 1867 and the Citizenship Act, desires to take an oath of allegiance shall have administered and take the oath in the following form, and no other:

I, ....., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada, Her Heirs and Successors. So, help me God. The deviation from the prescribed form of the oath, such as the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance, results in a grammatically incoherent and legally deficient oath. This deficiency effectively invalidates the oath, rendering any authority exercised under its auspices unlawful. The administration or reliance upon such an invalid oath may constitute a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of Canada. Specifically: Canadian Criminal Code: Section 122, Section 131 and Section 132. Therefore, proceeding with or acting upon an oath that deviates from the legally mandated form may expose individuals to criminal liability under these provisions.

38. 54. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing; "OSC in the matter of the Ontario Securities Act R.S.O. 1990, c. S.5. as amended and Richard Ochnik and 1464210 Ontario Inc., heard on March 1, 2, 8 and 9, 2006", Hatice Pakdil had testified under oath untruthfully committing perjury, specifically but not limited to; that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also misled others stating that she did not work on behalf of the Company yet at all times TDW were paid a 7% commission selling Company shares to investors. The OSC used the case results listed in paragraph 46, as evidence of truth in subsequent hearing knowing, at all times that TDW were participating in a conspiracy and fraud to protect themselves from liability. This is an act of "Conspiracy" under Section 463 Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46), and "Fraud and Perjury" under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C46)
55. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing of ; "OSC in the matter of the Ontario Securities Act R.S.O. 1990, c. S.5. as amended and in the matter of TD Waterhouse Canada Inc. heard on September 19TH, 2005", had provided information knowing it to be untruthful, specifically but not limited to, that Richard Ochnik being the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also falsely stated that she was not working on behalf of the company. Hatice was not truthful and attempted to cover up her own securities violations involving a material conflict of interests representing of both the buyer and seller the same security without disclosure to the parties. This was a direct conflict of interest and prejudicial to the parties. This violation is called Crossing of Securities. Hatice Pakdils actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c.). The hearing(s) outcome were based on fraudulent mislead information that altered the outcome of this case and the case in paragraph 45 and 47 above. In This case TDW false information was accepted as truth without the involvement and opportunity for Richard Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. to enter defence evidence to the contrary trespassing on their inherent rights. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful to protect her job and the expense of others and wrongfully was enriched.
56. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing: Christa Ochnik and Ontario Securities Commission, Province of Ontario, TD Waterhouse, Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD Bank) and Hatice Pakdil. Hatice, had submitted a defence that was knowingly, to be untruthfully specifically but not limited to, statement that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. The argument that Richard was the de facto officer was not raised in the above two cases and could not be contested by Richard Ochnik. The Intention of the false information was to deceive the court for the inequitable wrongful benefit of Hatice Pakdil's employer and other defendants depriving the plaintiff of their rights under colour of law. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful in an attempt to protect her job and unlawfully gain from her crime. This resulted in fraudulently depriving Christa and her sisters a free born minors of their rightful inheritance as beneficiary of the Ochnik Family Trust. Hatice's actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46)

57. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, the private man/woman, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, was subjected to unlawful, cruel, and degrading treatment amounting to torture, as detailed in associated affidavits and records. You agree to settle this claim for five million Canadian dollars ($5,000,000.00), payable in accordance with Clause 43, including the option for delivery in 1 oz gold or silver Maple Leaf coins at fixed valuation. Payment shall be made within thirty (30) calendar days, to the location of my choosing, at no cost to me. This settlement is final, binding, and not subject to future challenge or revision.
58. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that [First Name] [Last Name] TD Waterhouse, Michael Watson, OSC, and key investigator John Humphrey were fully aware of the untruths and perjury of witnesses and conspired to target, in a conspiracy to harm Richard Ochnik and 1464210 Ontario Inc. as are now listed here in. 60. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Moore (Chairman) should have not been the Chairman on two hearings involving Richard Ochnik due to a conflict of interest. Its unconscionable to have expected the Chairman to rule in conflict with his earlier ruling. The Chairman did not have the lawful authority to change what was established as fact by himself in a earlier hearing without an appeal. Holding a hearing and agreeing on key facts without allowing Richard Ochnik to offer a defence was a trespass on his inherent rights, malicious slander, and libel. This technicality was deliberate to target Richard Ochnik because despite all evidence to the contrary in his own hearing it would not change the established facts from the previous case. In essence his case was lost before it started.

If there was no such purchase, TDW would not receive a commission. TDW commissions totaled approximately $107 000 based on 7% of sales.
85. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW never told the Company that TDW were not working for them. Given all the documents it would clearly indicate that they were confirmed to be working with TDW as their broker on record.

87. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC do not know of any investor on 1464210 Ontario Inc. that was over the age of 65 and had purchased shares from 1464210 Ontario Inc.
90. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC ambushed Richard Ochnik during his hearing and knew he had a lawyer but refused to remand the case to meet the lawyers schedule and there by prejudicing the defence. There would have been no damage to any party to have delayed the hearing.
92. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that you accept full responsibility for any and all additional costs, fees, charges, or expenses incurred as a result of delays, administrative actions, defense filings, or any other related processes necessitated by your actions or omissions. You acknowledge and agree that the applicable fee schedule detailing such costs is available for your review at TD-lied.com or can be provided to you upon your written request. You further agree that this fee schedule is subject to amendments and updates from time to time, at the sole discretion and for the exclusive benefit of the minister, without prior notice to you. Such amendments are binding and non-disputable. Your acceptance of this clause signifies your consent to these terms and your obligation to remit payment for any applicable fees as outlined in the current fee schedule.

102. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW advised the Company to produce an "Investor Representation Letter" indicating the declaration by the investor; "I do not currently own, Direct or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc., or any other related Company" and " I do not have any Rights to acquire any TDW, shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. "This letter was a requirement to be signed by all TDW investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. before the purchased shares. It is agreed by you, [First Name] [Last Name], the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW agreed to be broker of record May 06, 2002.
105. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that failed to provide full disclosures to the defendants as required by law. TDW did not send a copy of the "Privet Placement Agreement" in fear of incriminating Hatice Pakdil. TDW were aware that this document would have a direct impact on the outcome of the case establishing that the company had a licenced broker and was detrimentally reliant on TD Waterhouse to save it harmless and to maintain the Company in good standing to all related regulations and Acts.

by the seller Company and SWAPS generate a fixed fee paid by the investor buyer – both were TDW clients.

108. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after TDW due diligence by their lawyer, Compliance Department, Branch Manager and RRSP Department, that TDW assistant Paul Bayfield, Sales Assistant, then notified the Company that they were prepared to go ahead with the purchase and SWAP of the shares.
109. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. was satisfied and by the “Letter of Authority” provided Paul Panciw with the authority to bind the Company in a “Contractual Relationship” with TDW. (There was an agreement and mutual understanding). A contract was signed by the Company solidifying the relationship. TDW became brokers of record.
113. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the “Privet Placement Subscription Form” were not a binding contract: paragraph 4. “Acceptance of Subscription: This subscription will be and be deemed for all purposes to have been accepted by the Corporation when the Corporation gives notice in writing to the purchaser of the allotment and issuance of the Shares subscribed for, but the corporation shall be under no obligation to accept this subscription”. The share sale only occurred once TD Waterhouse paid for the shares from the cash in the, the private man with no dispute to the investor’s accounts and not before. Before that could happen, TD had to notify the company regarding the buyer, account number and number of shares.

114. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Forms" also contained the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" that indicated "I do not currently own, directly or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc..." and was signed by the purchaser acknowledging the statement to be true. This clearly indicated TDW could not preform a SWAP with out first purchasing the shares. TDW then proceed to purchase the shares, by instructing Ian Ochnik, President to produce the share certificates as directed by TD compliance department (providing investor name, amount of purchase and account number).
118. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all of TDW's "New Client(s)" instructs there "Investment Advisor" Hatice Pakdil to "acquire" shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. for there RRSP account. Indicating they had no possession of shares to do a SWAP unless Hatice Pakdil processed the purchase/sale of shares.

were purchasing. The change would have triggered a requirement to amend the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." Also, there was no practical way to confirm the amount of shares that the client could afford to purchase until the account was moved to TDW and in a cash position. TDW needed to know the cash availability to calculate the number of shares to be purchased at $1.00 per share. Also, the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" told TDW that they had no ownership of shares or rights to purchase shares indicating the buy and sell had not taken place yet until TD gave the company the cheque payment for the shares as stipulated on paragraph 5 of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." , the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW, Hatice Pakdil did speak to potential investors before the signing and execution of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares" with the help of TDW sales assistant. This fact clearly confirms that Hatice Pakdil had purchased shares form TDW Customer the Company to facilitate a SWAP for TDW investment clients.

124. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was negligent and processed the transaction as a "SWAP" into the client's account. As a result, the head office review of trades was per TDW Policy 2 and that requirement did not take place as required by regulation. If it was done properly the issue would have been discovered in the first trade and saved the Company. The Company had no knowledge of TDW errors. TDW had an obligation to correct the issue and save the company.
125. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shares were distributed to the "New Client's" RRSP accounts by TDW as a trade and then followed by a SWAP.
128. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that if TDW told the truth and admitted that TDW had errored the company and the Ochnik Family specifically the Trust would have not suffered such an unconscionable punishment and the three children freeborn beneficiaries would and should have been saved harmless.

enforcement proceedings will be initiated, including immediate application to a sheriff for recovery of the specified amount under applicable enforcement laws.

155. It is agreed by you, the private man Tim Uppal, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any breach of this agreement, including misrepresentation, fiduciary breach, fraud, or delay in remedy, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, acting as minister and also steward or trustee, shall be entitled to initiate enforcement in any competent forum of my choosing. All damages, whether direct, indirect, or consequential, including psychological, spiritual, and economic harm, shall be calculated in good faith and are enforceable under equity and law. The obligation to remedy these harms shall include but not be limited to: Direct financial losses, Reputational and spiritual harm, Involuntary service and elder abuse And Constitutional violations of conscience and trust; Leviticus 6:2-5 and Isaiah 61:7
156. It is agreed by you, the private man Tim Uppal, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, shall retain the sole, unfettered right to elect the forum and venue in which enforcement, adjudication, or interpretation of this agreement may be pursued. This includes courts of record with inherent jurisdiction, whether within Canada or the United States, including ecclesiastical or international human rights tribunals. Such selection shall be made at his sole discretion and shall be binding upon all parties as agreed in advance. This clause serves to ensure full access to fair and impartial adjudication under the maxims of law, international covenant, and God's justice.
157. It is agreed by you, the private man Tim Uppal, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the material admissions contained within this Clear-Period Contract constitute binding declarations of fact and law. You acknowledge that any failure to publicly correct or retract previous defamatory or fraudulent claims, including those issued by TD Bank Group, TD Waterhouse, OSC, or their agents, shall constitute an ongoing and compounding harm under both spiritual law and equity. The duty to correct includes issuing an open retraction to restore my name, ministry, trust estate, and familial dignity.

158. These authorities are incorporated into this agreement as interpretive anchors, and the parties agree to rely upon their reasoning and precedent in any tribunal, forum, or court of record, ecclesiastical or civil, as may be engaged for the resolution or enforcement of this contract.
159. It is agreed by you, the private man Tim Uppal, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that failure to respond to or rebut this agreement within 30 days constitutes tacit admission and contractual default. In such case, I shall have full standing to enter judgment and proceed to enforcement, including garnishment, lien, or seizure under the applicable statutes or ecclesiastical process, without further notice or leave of any court.
160. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.
162. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man , with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private man or woman with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.

165. It is agreed by Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.

166. It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman who has sworn an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant to the "Defender of the faith", then obstructs, intimidates or acts as a nuisance to the ability of an officiating minister of God, has acted against the Queens ability to defend the faith and is attempting to overthrow her majesty's government, being the King James Bible, by force....and that Section 46 of the criminal code applies to all sworn allegiant officers of her majesty.

It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors,( that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

It is very important that I show you why I can not allow any one to assume that they have any power or force over me. To be definitive, TDW need to see the lawful definition of person and the scriptures that guide me and command me to not show respect to persons, as they are fictions of law. A player on a stage wearing a mask.

PERSON. This word is applied to men, women and children, who are called natural persons. In law, man and person are not exactly synonymous terms. Any human being is a man, whether he be a member of society or not, whatever may be the rank he holds, or whatever may be his age, sex, etc. A person is a man considered according to the rank he holds in society, with all the rights to which the place he holds entitles him, and the duties which it imposes. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 137.. It is also used to denote a corporation which is an artificial person. 1 Bl.

Com. 123; 4 Bing. 669; C. 33 Eng. C. L R. 488; Wooddes. Lect. 116; Bac. Us. 57; 1 Mod. 164.

But when the word "Persons" is spoken of in legislative acts, natural persons will be intended, unless something appears in the context to show that it applies to artificial persons. 1 Scam. R.178.

Natural persons are divided into males, or men, and females or women. Men are capable of all kinds of engagements and functions, unless by reasons applying to particular individuals. Women cannot be appointed to any public office, nor perform any civil functions, except those which the law specially declares them capable of exercising. Civ. Code of Louis. art. 25.

They are also sometimes divided into free persons and slaves. Freemen are those who have preserved their natural liberty, that is to say, who have the right of doing what is not forbidden by the law. A slave is one who is in the power of a master to whom he belongs. Slaves are sometimes ranked not with persons but things. But sometimes they are considered as persons for example, a negro is in contemplation of law a person, so as to be capable of committing a riot in conjunction with white men. 1 Bay, 358. Vide Man.

Persons are also divided into citizens, (q. v.) and aliens, (q. v.) when viewed with regard to their political rights. When they are considered in relation to their civil rights, they are living or civilly dead; vide Civil Death; outlaws; and infamous persons.

Persons are divided into legitimates and bastards, when examined as to their rights by birth.

TO PERSONATE, crim. law. The act of assuming the character of another without lawful authority, and, in such character, doing something to his prejudice, or to the prejudice of another, without his will or consent.

The bare fact of personating another for the purpose of fraud, is no more than a cheat or misdemeanour at common law, and punishable as such. 2 East, P. C. 1010; 2 Russ. on Cr. 479.

By the act of congress of the 30th April, 1790, s. 15, 1 Story's Laws U. S. 86, it is enacted, that " if any person shall acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged in any court of Canada, any recognizance, bail or judgement, in the name or names of any other person or persons not privy or consenting to the same, every such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeds five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding seven years, and whipped not exceeding thirty-nine stripes, Provided nevertheless. that this act shall not extend to the acknowledgment of any judgement or judgements by any attorney or attorneys, duly admitted, for any person or persons against whom any such judgement or judgements shall be had or given." Vide, generally, 2 John. Cas. 293; 16 Vin. Ab. 336; Com. Dig. Action on the case for a deceit, A 3.

James 2:9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one [point], he is guilty of all.

Here is a list of more in-depth definitions so no one gets lost.

I am not a Person, or an Individual, or even a human, Manuel, but before you think I am crazy, examine the facts.

I am not a person, or an individual, or a Human, and although some humans look similar to me, I am not a human.

Some would say that I am a 'natural' person, but as I will show you, I am not one of those either. Who then or what then, am I?

To understand who I am, you must first understand the definitions which have been placed on the words I have quoted above, words that are commonly used, but do not describe me anymore. For example, the word 'person'.

Person – The Revised Code of Washington, RCW 1.16.080, (I live in Washington State) defines a person as follows: “The term ‘person’ may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual.”

Person – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 791, defines ‘person’ as follows: “In general usage, a human being (i.e. natural person), though by statute term may include labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” Person – Oran’s Dictionary of the Law, West Group 1999, defines

Person as: 1. A human being (a “natural” person). 2. A corporation (an “artificial” person). Corporations are treated as persons in many legal situations. Also, the word “person” includes corporations in most definitions in this dictionary. 3. Any other “being” entitled to sue as a legal entity (a government, an association, a group of Trustees, etc.). 4.. The plural of person is persons, not people (see that word).

Person – Duhaime’s Law Dictionary. An entity with legal rights and existence including the ability to sue and be sued, to sign contracts, to receive gifts, to appear in court either by themselves or by lawyer and, generally, other powers incidental to the full expression of the entity in law. Individuals are “persons” in law unless they are minors or under some kind of other incapacity such as a court finding of mental incapacity. Many laws give certain powers to “persons”, which in almost all instances, includes business organizations that have been formally registered such as partnerships, corporations or associations.

Person, noun. person. – Webster’s 1828 Dictionary. Defines personas: [Latin persona; said to be compounded of per, through or by, and sonus, sound; a Latin word signifying primarily a mask used by actors on the stage.]

legal person – Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary of Law 1996, defines a legal person as : a body of persons or an entity (as a corporation) considered as having many of the rights and responsibilities of a natural person and esp. the capacity to sue and be sued.

A person according to these definitions, is basically an entity – legal fiction – of some kind that has been legally created and has the legal capacity to be sued. Isn’t it odd that the word lawful is not used within these definitions? Well then.... I am not "the United States, this state, or any territory, or any public or private corporation". I am not "labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers." So, I cannot be a 'person' under this part of the definition.

The RCW quoted above also states that a person could also be an "individual". Black's Law Dictionary also defines a person as a "human being," which they define by stating "(i.e. natural person)". So, let's first check to see if I am an "individual".

Individual – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 533, defines

"individual" as follows: "As a noun, this term denotes a single person as distinguished from a group or class, and also, very commonly, a private or natural person as distinguished from a partnership, corporation, or association; but it is said that this restrictive signification is not necessarily inherent in the word, and that it may, in proper cases, include artificial persons."

Well now, I have already been shown that I am not a 'person', and since

'individual' denotes a single 'person' as distinguished from a group or class, I can't be an 'individual' under this definition either. But I see the term 'natural person' used in the definition of the RCW, and also in the definition of some of the Law Dictionaries. Maybe I am a 'natural' person, since I know I am not an 'artificial' one.

I could not find the term 'Natural person' defined anywhere, so I had to look up the word 'natural' for a definition to see if that word would fit with the word person...

Natural – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg.712, defines 'Natural' as follows: "Untouched by man or by influences of civilization; wild; untutored, and is the opposite of the word "artificial". The juristic meaning of this term does not differ from the vernacular, except in the cases where it is used in opposition to the term "legal"; and then it means proceeding from or determined by physical causes or conditions, as distinguished from positive enactments of law, or attributable to the nature of man rather than the commands of law, or based upon moral rather than legal considerations or sanctions."

Hmmm, what do they mean by this definition? Am I untouched by man (depends on what the word 'man' means), or by influences of civilization? I don't think so. Am I 'wild', or 'untutored'? (Buzzer sound), not me. Even though the definition states that this word is the opposite of the word 'artificial', it still does not describe who I believe I am. So, I must conclude that I am not a 'natural' person, under this definition of the word 'natural'. So, the term 'natural person' cannot apply to me.

Black's Law Dictionary also used the term 'human being', and although Black's defined it as a 'natural person', maybe they made a mistake, maybe I am a 'human being'. 'Human' or 'human being' does not appear to have a 'legal' definition, so I went to my old standby 1888 Noah Webster's Dictionary for a vernacular definition of this word. Maybe Noah would know who I am

Human – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'human' as follows: n. A human being; one of the race of man. [Rare and inelegant.] "Sprung of humans that inhabit earth." ...To me, the etymology of the word Hu-man, suggests that it is a marriage of two separate words 'Hue' (defined as the property of color), and man. But this cannot, of course, be correct, at least not politically correct, so I can't go there, because the word would then mean 'coloured man'!

Am I of the race of man? Rare and inelegant? Sprung of humans that inhabit earth (ground)? (I'm not coloured either). Well, it looks like I have to define the word 'man' through Webster's because there appears to be no legal definition for 'man'.

Man – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'man' as follows: An individual of the human race; a human being; a person.

Great news!!, it looks like we are back to the beginning of our study of definitions, yup, back to the start, completed the circle. I am not an 'individual', so I cannot be considered 'of the human race'; and since I'm not of the human race, I can't be 'a human being', and I've also been shown that I'm not a 'person' either.

Now let us see what the word Human really means.....I am going into detail so TDW can see we have been deceived by the misuse of our own language.

Definition of Human Being

Are you a 'person', an 'individual', or a 'human being'? These words, at law, define you as being spiritually 'dead.' This is how the world makes its attachment to you. The terms, 'person', 'individual', 'human being', etc., are not in Christ. Words like "individual," and "human being" do not even appear in Scripture! These are 'created' terms by the natural man (1 Cor 2:14). These words describe the 'old man', but not the 'new man' in Christ (Col 3:9-10). In Balantine's Self Pronouncing Law Dictionary, 1948, page 389, Human

Being is defined as "See Monster." On page 540 of this same Law Dictionary, Monster is defined as "a human being by birth, but in some part resembling a lower animal."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, pages 879- 880, a Monster is defined as "a person so cruel, wicked, depraved, etc., as to horrify others." From the Random House Dictionary of the English Language, 2nd Edition, page 901, Human Being is defined as a "Natural man: unenlightened or unregenerate," and on page 1461, Unregenerate means "not regenerate; unrepentant; an unregenerate sinner; not convinced by or unconverted to a particular religion; wicked, sinful, dissolute."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, page 657, Humanitarianism is defined as "the doctrine that humankind may become perfect without divine aid."

In Colliers New Dictionary of the English Language, 1928, Humanitarian is defined as "a philanthropist; an anti-Trinitarian who rejects the doctrine of Christ's divinity; a perfectionist."

And in the Random House Webster's College Dictionary, 1990, page 653, Humanism is defined as "any system or mode of thought or action in which human interests, values and dignity predominate, especially an ethical theory that often rejects the importance of a belief in God."

Therefore, when anyone calls himself or herself a 'human being', or a 'humanitarian,' they are saying (according to every definition of these words, and according to the law), "I'm an animal; I'm a monster; I'm not saved; I'm unrepentant; I'm an unregenerate sinner; I'm not converted; I'm wicked, sinful, and dissolute; I'm cruel, depraved, unenlightened; and I reject Christ's divinity and the importance of a belief in God."

a. "Men [Bondman] rely for protection of their right on God's law, and not upon regulations and proclamations of departments of government, or officers who have been designated to carry laws into effect." Baty v. Sale, 43 Ill. 351." [Codes, edicts, proclamations, and decisions are not Law, which define or regulate the Good and Lawful Bondman. Therefore, "law" suits are ungodly, and are the redress for and of human beings, i.e., non-believers.]

The Septuagint uses the term "human beings" only one time, and its meaning is identical to the above definitions. Let's look at the last verse of the book of Jonah, where Nineve was full of men who were unrepentant, unregenerate, unconverted, wicked, sinful, dissolute, cruel, depraved, unenlightened, rejected the importance of a belief in God. Or, in other words, "human beings."

"And shall not I spare Nineve, the great city, in which dwell more than twelve myriads of human beings, who do not know their right hand or their left hand...?" [Jonah 4:11 (Septuagint)]

b. The term "human being" is also synonymous with the term 'natural man.'

c. "The natural man is a spiritual monster. His heart is where his feet should be, fixed upon the earth; his heels are lifted up against heaven, which his heart should be set on. His face is towards hell, his back towards heaven. He loves what he should hate and hates what he should love; joys in what he ought to mourn for and mourns for what he ought to rejoice in; glories in his shame, and is ashamed of his glory; abhors what he should desire, and desires what he should abhor." [Thomas

Boston, quoted in Augustus Toplady, Complete Works (1794, reprinted by Sprinkle Publications 1987), page 584].

And the Word confirms: “But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.” [1 Corinthians 2:14,]

The above verse witnesses to us that the natural man is spiritually dead. The ‘natural man’ in Scripture is synonymous with the ‘natural person’ as defined in man’s laws.

“Natural Person means human being, and not an artificial or juristic person.” Shawmut Bank, N.A. v. Valley Farms, 610 A. 2d. 652, 654; 222 Conn. 361.

Natural Person: Any human being who as such is a legal entity as distinguished from an artificial person, like a corporation, which derives its status as a legal entity from being recognized so in law. Natural Child: The ordinary euphemism for ‘bastard’ or illegitimate.” [Amon v. Moreschi, 296 N.Y. 395, 73 N.E.2d 716.” Max Radin, Radin’s Law Dictionary (1955), p. 216.]

Those that are spiritually dead belong to the prince of this world because he’s dead himself. Satan has dominion over the natural man, for he is the prince of this world [John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11]; and, because of this, he has dominion over those of the world, i.e., human beings, the natural man – those who receive not the things of the Spirit of God and reject Christ. Because the bondman in Christ is sanctified from the world, he is separated from the adversary’s dominion over him—sin [John 8:34].. This is the cause for Christ having sanctified Himself in the Truth of the Word of God – to provide the entrance to the refuge in and through Himself for us. I could provide you more, Manuel, and I do sincerely thank you for your focused attention to this, my honest effort at officially performing the function of my calling in establishing this agreement with you as per Matthew 5:25 and 18:15-20, but I think you are already overwhelmed as I have, upon presentation of facts, destroyed your belief system and now you are aware you are working for a massive criminal organization founded upon a false oath. Can you now see why I must not allow my name to be altered? Remember, every one of the officers of Alberta has a false oath...What kind of authority swears an oath that is bogus??? A false authority!

Conversion Torts; The unlawful turning or applying the personal goods of another to the use of the taker, or of some other person than the owner; or the unlawful destroying or altering their nature.

When a party takes away or wrongfully assumes the right to goods which belong to another, it will in general be sufficient evidence of a conversion but when the original taking was lawful, as when the party found the goods, and the detention only is illegal, it is absolutely necessary to make a demand of the goods, and there must be a refusal to deliver them before the conversion will be complete. The refusal by a servant to deliver the goods entrusted to him by his master is not evidence of a conversion by his master. Leviticus 6:2-5 The tortious taking of property is, of itself, a conversion and any intermeddling with it, or any exercise of dominion over it, subversive of the dominion of the owner or the nature of the bailment if it be bailed, is evidence of a conversion.

In Equity, the considering of one thing as changed into another; for example, land will be considered as converted into money and treated as such by a court of equity, when the owner has contracted to sell his estate, in which case, if he die before the conveyance, his executors and not his heirs will be entitled to the money. On the other hand, money is converted into land in a variety of ways as for example, when a man agrees to buy land and dies before he has received the conveyance, the money he was to pay for it will be considered as converted into lands and descend to the heir.

It is agreed upon by you, Tim Uppal, having no dispute to the following fact forthcoming from you; that you the private man are aware and agree that I am a flesh bone blood living man, being God's minister, and that I cannot possibly have been in a dead legal corporate fiction called the Province of Ontario, Canada or other as the Province of Ontario, Canada and other is not a place but a dead corporate fiction of law on paper created for the purpose of extracting money from me in fraud as it is totally against my will, conscience and a violation of my faith to submit to and is being done without my informed consent or cognisant permission for a financial gain.

It is agreed by you, Tim Uppal with full understanding, that failure to refute or disprove the facts provided above, as agreed upon by you, I am advised by

Christ at Matthew 18:15-20 to gain a simple agreement with you privately and very simply as a child so I would like your aid in agreeing with me that respecting persons written as persona in the Latin vulgate is sin and disrespected by God. Due to the emergent nature of this agreement you are required to respond to this agreement within 10 (ten) days of receipt representing fairness, truth, natural equity. Failure to respond will be deemed acceptance of the terms, including acknowledgment of all outlined facts and obligations. We can see that in Deuteronomy 1:17. 10:17, 2nd Samuel 14:14, Matthew 22:16. Acts 10:34, Romans 2:11, James 2:1-9 and 1st Peter 1:17. If you have no dispute with that scriptural fact I will confirm with witnesses then post our good faith agreement in a paper.

Thankyou for you aid in saving my faith harmless from assumption.

Notice for a Demand of an Ecclesiastical Accommodation and Agreement

Provided under Christ's careful direction and the watchman's eye of Ezekiel 33

In the holy name of Christ, as where two or more agree in His holy name, for the will of our father, it shall be done. Matthew 18;20

If one falsely accuses another of a crime, the punishment due to that crime should be inflicted upon the perjured informer. Maxims of law

Hello, Rachael Thomas, I am Richard of the Ochnik family, a flesh blood and bone living man created by God and an officiating minister of the Church of the Ecumenical Redemption International, an ecclesiastical organism of other flesh, blood and bone men and women as the many members of the body of Christ. Where truth is, fiction of law does not exist. Maxims of law;

If ever the law of God and man are at variance, the former are to be obeyed in derogation of the later.
Maxims. Acts 5:29

1959 CanLII 50 (SCC) | Roncarelli v. Duplessis | CanLII, Rachael Thomas, by my sending you this private good faith agreement, I do attempt, by Christ's guidance, to ascertain all the facts in scriptural honour. If you have any reason or proof to suggest or provide to me, God's minister officially performing the functions of my calling, that the following statements of the facts are not true, you are being offered the opportunity to refute these offered facts so as to clear yourself of any assumptive contractual awareness of the truth of such facts. Also be aware, this communication of agreement cannot be lawfully inquired of at public or government expense as it is a provable private matter and government funding cannot support private contracts. All legal bills must and shall be paid for out of your private pocket no different than Maurice Duplessis the former Premier and Attorney General of Quebec in Roncarelli v Duplessis

This is Demand for recognition as Christ's ordained minister in quest of defense of the faith to save harmless my soul.

I declare that I am that God created, of a Christian given name Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, chosen to be a private ecclesiastic man under God as my creator with dominion over the earth. I do declare that no man or woman has a moral or a lawful right to impose anything upon me without my informed consent; and that I do hereby renounce any fraudulent corporate assumptive contract by the right of self determination and faith renouncing secular Contracts. Amselem 2004 SCR.

I do honour the directive obligation to respect the equal God given freedoms of other men and women under His law. To all those who set eyes on this ecclesiastical declaration, I do hereby, officially performing the functions of my calling, serve notice to all private men and women as of my inability to respect persons that receive this that any offer herein, prior to, or on my part does not imply acceptance of intimidation, violence, or threats of violence against me, and that no such offer implies that I will submit to any nuisance obstruction or intimidation in the future.

I, as a bondservant of Christ do henceforth offer the good faith proclamation of my free born will to live in peace and declare that, by right of God and his son Jesus words at Corinthians 7:20:26, the de facto authority's edicts, codes, obligations, statutes, taxes, licenses and prohibitions of a de facto commercial entity are not binding on me, John 15:16 ordained minister or applicable upon God's ministers and family, his Children and including their property.

I, minister Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, an ordained minister under John 15:16 and a watchman as per Ezekiel 33:6–9, hereby invoke the protections afforded by "Operation SILENT DEFENDER." This military receivership, initiated in response to systemic fiduciary breaches, encompasses the unauthorized creation and exploitation of my Cestui Que Trust, originating from my 1960 birth certificate.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms "man" and "woman" (also

1. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I, minister of Richard Henry of the Ochnik family was on or about the 30th of November, 2004 A.D., unlawfully intimidated and obstructed, by you, in your private capacity, by methods not sanctioned and as such, being a perceived and negative nuisance to my ability to perform an official function of my ministerial calling, are in violation of Sections 126,176, 423, 465 and 180 of the Criminal Code of Canada by violating your Oath of Allegiance and the Royal Style and Titles Act.
4. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that. It is agreed by you, that in 1966 ICCPR and ICESCR Signed: 19 December 1966 The principles of the UDHR offered hope and inspiration around the world. But to make a genuine difference in people's lives, those principles needed to be transformed into laws. In 1966, the UN Commission on Human Rights drafted two instruments to give legal force to the UDHR. One instrument was called the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The second was the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Together with the Universal Declaration, they comprise the International Bill of Human Rights. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights offers protections for the right to life, freedom of speech, religion, and voting. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights focuses on such issues as food, education, health, and shelter. More than 160 nations have ratified these two covenants which legally commit them to ensure these rights for people within their borders.

5. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact that in the Supreme Court Judgments [1980] 1 SCR 54 1979-12-21 Re: Authority of Parliament in relation to the Upper House Further, although s. 91(1) gave the Queen the power, with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, to alter the "Constitution of Canada" except in certain expressly designated areas, it does not confer a power to amend the B.N.A. Act. The word "Canada" in s. 91(1) does not refer to Canada as a geographical unit but refers to the "JURISTIC FEDERAL UNIT"
6. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1981 Zingre v. The Queen et al., [1981] 2 SCR 392 (Supreme Court of Canada). It is a recognized principle of international customary law that a state may not invoke the provisions of its internal law as justification for its failure to perform its international obligations.
9. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1989 Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038, 1989 The reference in s. 32 to the "Parliament" and a "legislature" make clear that the Charter operates as a limitation on the powers of those legislative bodies. Any statute enacted by either Parliament or a Legislature which is inconsistent with the Charter will be outside the power of (ultra vires) the enacting body and will be invalid. It follows that any body exercising statutory authority, for example, the Governor in Council or Lieutenant Governor in Council, ministers, officials, municipalities, school boards, universities, administrative tribunals and police officers, is also bound by the Charter. Action taken under statutory authority is valid only if it is within the scope of that authority. Since neither Parliament nor a Legislature can itself pass a law in breach of the Charter, neither body can authorize action which would be in breach of the Charter. Thus, the limitations on statutory authority which are imposed by the Charter will flow down the chain of statutory authority and

apply to regulations, by-laws, orders, decisions and all other action (whether legislative, administrative or judicial) which depends for its validity on statutory authority

13. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2005 Court Judgement Supreme Court- Christie v. British Columbia, 2005 BCCA 631(CanLII)The rule of law embraces at least three principles. The first principle is that the "law is supreme over officials of the government as well as private individuals, and thereby preclusive of the influence of arbitrary power"

15. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2015 R. v. Wagner, 2015 ONCJ 66 The Rule of Law The idea that there are certain fundamental unwritten principles that govern all members of society including legislators and which judges are expected to enforce is not particularly new. The contemporary concept of unwritten constitutional principles can be seen as a modern reincarnation of the ancient doctrines of natural law
16. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Victoria (City) v. Adams, 2009 BCCA 563; 2008 BCSC 1363; The trial court found the prohibition of temporary overhead shelter in parks to be unconstitutional where there was a lack of alternative shelter space. The court held the issue to be clearly justiciable because it dealt with the constitutionality of a legal prohibition. The court relied on the right to adequate housing under international human rights law as an interpretive aid. The Court referred to submissions made by Canada to the United Nations Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights regarding the scope of domestic protections for the right to housing and on General Comment No. 4 on the right to adequate housing under the International Covenant of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR). The Court noted that the question of whether the right to life, liberty and security of the person imposes positive obligations on governments to ensure the right to housing has not yet been determined by the Supreme Court of Canada and did not need to be decided in this case, which only challenged state interference.
17. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Thompson v. Ministry of Revenue [1946] SCR 209, 1946 CanLII 1 (SCC) [Page 220] Residents are taxed, not Canadians; but residents within the meaning of the Act...

21. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.
22. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that Non-performance of this agreement shall be deemed as an act of confession and consent to immediate enforcement of all remedies herein, including liens, writs, or seizure without further notice.

29. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I have the right to not use a last name or surname, including on my bank account, government identification, and on other identification and things. You respect my right to have not accept the Surname or last name and only use my Christian name(s). You have no right to force me to sin Matthew 23; 9-11. Any use of government identification is not acceptance of liability or surety of any legal fiction in law and is clearly a separate identity from the natural man; the two may not be cojoined in any way, shape or form.

31. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the case Roncarelli v. Duplessis (1959) underscores the principle that no party, including government officials or corporate entities, may exercise arbitrary authority to undermine the rights of others. This principle aligns with the fair treatment and protection sought under this agreement
33. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the Charter, Section 2(a) – Freedom of religion Provision; 2. Everyone has the following fundamental freedoms: freedom of conscience and religion. Similar provisions may be found in the following Canadian laws and international instruments legally binding on Canada: section 1(c) of the Canadian Bill of Rights, article 18 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, article 14 of the Convention on the Rights of the Child, article 3 of the American Declaration of the Rights and Duties of Man. The Canadian Human Rights Act prohibits discrimination on the ground of religion as does section 15 of the Charter. That is the highest law which favors religion Maxims of law. See also the following international, regional and comparative law instruments that are not legally binding on Canada but include similar provisions: article 18 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, article 12 of the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, article 12 of the American Convention on Human Rights, article 9 of the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, and the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America.
34. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the trust (also known as the "Entitlement Certificate, Bond, Trust, or Annuity") is my entitlement property. It becomes mine upon the process of "redeeming the entitlement certificate." As a man of God, I may elect to be the "trustee", "steward" and/or the "beneficiary" of the "entitlement certificate" and thereby settle all matters and redeem the trust. In redeeming the "entitlement certificate," I act as the Creditor (Private) within the banking system, not as a Debtor (Public). Furthermore, it is acknowledged that any use of my name, or any altered form thereof as it appears on my birth certificate, for the purpose of obtaining funds or engaging in financial transactions without my informed consent, constitutes unauthorized use. Such actions are recognized as infringements upon my rights. Consequently, any funds or assets obtained through such unauthorized use are to be returned to me immediately, in full, as per my directions. It is also affirmed that the state holds no right to utilize my name in commerce without my explicit and informed consent. You and your agents agree to provide me with all assets, bonds, trusts, annuities, or other properties belonging to me within 30 days, to be transferred to me in full as per my directions. Additionally, I assert my right to hold all property in private, free from public claim or registration, in accordance with the principles of common law and the recognition of private property rights. This includes the right to acquire, use, and dispose of property without undue interference or regulation by public authorities, except as authorized by law. Matthew 7:7-8

35. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that Canada has not fulfilled its obligation to elderly men and man and the funding provided to them through Canada Pension and CCP or other programs is grossly inadequate, insufficient and below the poverty line. Canada has moral obligation to maintain a reasonable standard of living, as in its obligations in International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights. I am now demanding that this be rectified immediately, and you are committed and will make certain that my income will never be below the poverty level.

36. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I have the right to unfettered access and use of crown land as steward. This stewardship of land and homestead will be passed on to my family or Christian family as I see fit, all or in part without restriction, limitation or interference in any way shape or form. Genesis 1;26-28 Matthew 7:7-8

These are the words in the Oath of Office Act, indicating prima fascia an unlawful, unsanctioned, deficient form by the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance thus effectively invalidating the oath by making the oath grammatically incoherent.

I, . . . . ., swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law.

These are the words from the federal Oath of allegiance Act for Canada

..... it is very clear as to how the oath is to be worded in Canada, it is

I, ....., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada, Her Heirs and Successors. So, help me God. The deviation from the prescribed form of the oath, such as the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance, results in a grammatically incoherent and legally deficient oath. This deficiency effectively invalidates the oath, rendering any authority exercised under its auspices unlawful. The administration or reliance upon such an invalid oath may constitute a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of Canada. Specifically: Canadian Criminal Code: Section 122, Section 131 and Section 132. Therefore, proceeding with or acting upon an oath that deviates from the legally mandated form may expose individuals to criminal liability under these provisions.

39. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any disagreement, dispute, ambiguity, or challenge regarding the meaning, scope, application, or intention of any term, clause, or provision of this agreement, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, shall have the sole, exclusive, and final authority to determine its correct meaning, interpretation, and intent, at my own discretion and for my benefit. This right shall be irrevocable, nonreviewable, and binding upon you and all third parties under the principles of private contract, ecclesiastical jurisdiction, and law of equity. No court, tribunal, or external body shall override this interpretive authority without my express written consent.
40. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that this agreement is irrevocable and includes and extends to, fellow ministers, my heirs, defined herein to include all individuals, regardless of biological or marital relation, who have received God's calling as ministers, and who have been granted equivalent rights as I have here in this Agreement.
41. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that God and the bible is the supreme law and there is no limitation periods set forth to limit such laws of God.

45. I may elect to receive payment in Canadian dollars, gold, silver, or any lawful combination thereof, and this election shall be binding upon you and enforceable under private contract, ecclesiastical law, and equity. You agree that all physical coin payments shall be delivered: To the physical location(s) of my choosing, and ; At no cost, burden, or fee to me; Within thirty (30) calendar days of the notice of election or demand for payment. Any failure to deliver in full, or any attempt to substitute fiat currency or non-specified bullion against my will, shall constitute a material breach of this contract and an actionable ecclesiastical trespass, giving rise to further damages, liens, and lawful enforcement.
48. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I am not the surety, debtor, or chattel, for any fictional entity that was created without my consent as it may appear on my birth certificate, passport, drivers' licence, documents or other, and I will be held safe and harmless from any and all liability or responsibility.
49. The creator of the fiction is the surety and fully responsible and liable for all issues (save me harmless). The use of my flesh as surety was obtained in fraud and is null and void. As a man or woman of God, our debts are blotted out and forgiven forever-more and we are now in the book of life. ISAIAH 43:25; COLOSSIANS 2:14

54. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing; "OSC in the mater of the Ontario Securities Act R.S.O. 1990, c. S.5. as amended and Richard Ochnik and 1464210 Ontario Inc., heard on March 1,2, 8 and 9, 2006", Hatice Pakdil had testified under oath untruthfully committing perjury, specifically but not limited to; that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also misled others stating that she did not work on behalf of the Company yet at all times TDW were paid a 7% commission selling Company shares to investors. The OSC used the case results listed in paragraph 46, as evidence of truth in subsequent hearing knowing, at all times that TDW were participating in a conspiracy and fraud to protect themselves from liability. This is an act of "Conspiracy" under Section 463 Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46), and "Fraud and Perjury" under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C46)

and seller the same security without disclosure to the parties. This was a direct conflict of interest and prejudicial to the parties. This violation is called Crossing of Securities. Hatice Pakdils actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c.). The hearing(s) outcome were based on fraudulent mislead information that altered the outcome of this case and the case in paragraph 45 and 47 above. In This case TDW false information was accepted as truth without the involvement and opportunity for Richard Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. to enter defence evidence to the contrary trespassing on their inherent rights. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful to protect her job and the expense of others and wrongfully was enriched.

56. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing: Christa Ochnik and Ontario Securities Commission, Province of Ontario, TD Waterhouse, Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD Bank) and Hatice Pakdil. Hatice, had submitted a defence that was knowingly, to be untruthfully specifically but not limited to, statement that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. The argument that Richard was the de facto officer was not raised in the above two cases and could not be contested by Richard Ochnik. The Intention of the false information was to deceive the court for the inequitable wrongful benefit of Hatice Pakdil's employer and other defendants depriving the plaintiff of their rights under colour of law. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful in an attempt to protect her job and unlawfully gain from her crime. This resulted in fraudulently depriving Christa and her sisters a free born minors of their rightful inheritance as beneficiary of the Ochnik Family Trust. Hatice's actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46)

Canadian dollars ($100,000.00) per appearance or filing involving the undersigned, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family. This payment shall be made no less than ten (10) calendar days prior to the scheduled hearing or submission and is due regardless of who initiates the proceeding. This amount represents pre-compensated time, spiritual harm, reputational risk, and administrative burden, and shall be required before any engagement in public process or appearance of any kind. Failure to tender this fee in advance shall be deemed a refusal of lawful jurisdiction, a breach of agreement, and shall authorize the undersigned to decline participation without prejudice or to initiate immediate private enforcement.

60. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Moore (Chairman) should have not been the Chairman on two hearings involving Richard Ochnik due to a conflict of interest. Its unconscionable to have expected the Chairman to rule in conflict with his earlier ruling. The Chairman did not have the lawful authority to change what was established as fact by himself in a earlier hearing without an appeal. Holding a hearing and agreeing on key facts without allowing Richard Ochnik to offer a defence was a trespass on his inherent rights, malicious slander, and libel. This technicality was deliberate to target Richard Ochnik because despite all evidence to the contrary in his own hearing it would not change the established facts from the previous case. In essence his case was lost before it started.

Securities Commission and placing unwarranted statutory obligations on Richard trespassing on his rights to which he would not normally or lawfully be expected to have as a man. Leviticus 6:2-5

65. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW told investors that Richard Ochnik was the President and Hatice Pakdil directed Company shareholders to contact him by releasing his private cell phone number without Richard's consent causing confusion. TDW and OSC had also misled investors telling them that Richard was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc.

The Trust was the property owner (landlord) and Richard over seen the renovations made possible by Investor Co. share purchases in 1464210 Ontario Inc.

74. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TD Waterhouse, Paul Bayfield "Sales Assistant", confirmed the authorization to proceed with the transaction by TD Compliance Department and instructed, Ian Ochnik President to the amount of the shares purchased, clients name and the client account numbers, that were being acquired for the individual accounts.
76. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all investors had completed a "Know Your Client Form" proved by TD Complaint Department before notifying the Company and Ian Ochnik with particulars of the transaction.

80. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Mr. Paul Panciw, Company CFO was licenced with the Ontario Securities Commission.
81. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had received a commission of 7% for each share an investor purchased with the Company base value of $1/share. If there was no such purchase, TDW would not receive a commission. TDW commissions totaled approximately $107 000 based on 7% of sales.
85. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW never told the Company that TDW were not working for them. Given all the documents it would clearly indicate that they were confirmed to be working with TDW as their broker on record.
86. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shareholder investors 1464210 Ontario Inc. were also clients for TDW and TD Waterhouse.
87. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC do not know of any investor on 1464210 Ontario Inc. that was over the age of 65 and had purchased shares from 1464210 Ontario Inc.

92. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that you accept full responsibility for any and all additional costs, fees, charges, or expenses incurred as a result of delays, administrative actions, defense filings, or any other related processes necessitated by your actions or omissions. You acknowledge and agree that the applicable fee schedule detailing such costs is available for your review at TD-lied.com or can be provided to you upon your written request. You further agree that this fee schedule is subject to amendments and updates from time to time, at the sole discretion and for the exclusive benefit of the minister, without prior notice to you. Such amendments are binding and non-disputable. Your acceptance of this clause signifies your consent to these terms and your obligation to remit payment for any applicable fees as outlined in the current fee schedule.

Richard Ochnik, contrary to the best evidence rules and practice. In this investigation the OSC exercised willful blindness and colour of law.

102. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW advised the Company to produce an "Investor Representation Letter" indicating the declaration by the investor; "I do not currently own, Direct or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc., or any other related Company" and " I do not have any Rights to acquire any TDW, shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. "This letter was a requirement to be signed by all TDW investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. before the purchased shares. It is agreed by you, [First Name] [Last Name], the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW agreed to be broker of record May 06, 2002.

108. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after TDW due diligence by their lawyer, Compliance Department, Branch Manager and RRSP Department, that TDW assistant Paul Bayfield, Sales Assistant, then notified the Company that they were prepared to go ahead with the purchase and SWAP of the shares.

Relationship” with TDW. (There was an agreement and mutual understanding). A contract was signed by the Company solidifying the relationship. TDW became brokers of record.

113. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the “Privet Placement Subscription Form” were not a binding contract: paragraph 4. “Acceptance of Subscription: This subscription will be and be deemed for all purposes to have been accepted by the Corporation when the Corporation gives notice in writing to the purchaser of the allotment and issuance of the Shares subscribed for, but the corporation shall be under no obligation to accept this subscription”. The share sale only occurred once TD Waterhouse paid for the shares from the cash in the, the private man with no dispute to the investor’s accounts and not before. Before that could happen, TD had to notify the company regarding the buyer, account number and number of shares.
114. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the “Privet Placement Subscription Forms” also contained the “Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)” that indicated “I do not currently own, directly or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc...” and was signed by the purchaser acknowledging the statement to be true. This clearly indicated TDW could not preform a SWAP with out first purchasing the shares. TDW then proceed to purchase the shares, by instructing Ian Ochnik, President to produce the share certificates as directed by TD compliance department (providing investor name, amount of purchase and account number).

forthcoming from you that all the accounts were transferred as cash and as such they all had cash in the accounts and no shares of other companies specifically 1464210 Ontario Inc. Shares then needed to be sold by the company and purchase by Hatice Pakdil clients; then healed in a holding account prior to the SWAP taking place into the RRSP account generating a fee.

116. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "New Clients" were established. Hatice Pakdil was their "Investment Advisor" and responsible for the client's account. The Company completed all the requirements of a "Pre-Approved Private Placement". Hatice Pakdil testified under oath that she considered herself as an order taker and not adviser to the new clients facilitating the buy and sale of the Company shares.
119. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had direct knowledge that the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." were not signed because clients kept changing the number of shares that they were purchasing. The change would have triggered a requirement to amend the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." Also, there was no practical way to confirm the amount of shares that the client could afford to purchase until the account was moved to TDW and in a cash position. TDW needed to know the cash availability to calculate the number of shares to be purchased at $1.00 per share. Also, the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" told TDW that they had no ownership of shares or rights to purchase shares indicating the buy and sell had not taken place yet until TD gave the company the cheque payment for the shares as stipulated on paragraph 5 of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares.". , the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW, Hatice Pakdil did speak to potential investors before the signing and execution of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares" with the help of TDW sales assistant. This fact clearly confirms that Hatice Pakdil had purchased shares form TDW Customer the Company to facilitate a SWAP for TDW investment clients.

124. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was negligent and processed the transaction as a "SWAP" into the client's account. As a result, the head office review of trades was per TDW Policy 2 and that requirement did not take place as required by regulation. If it was done properly the issue would have been discovered in the first trade and saved the Company. The Company had no knowledge of TDW errors. TDW had an obligation to correct the issue and save the company.
125. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shares were distributed to the "New Client's" RRSP accounts by TDW as a trade and then followed by a SWAP.

all the investors and instructed the Company as to how much and who's named to place on each share certificate. No subscription agreement was exercised by 1464210 Ontario Inc. The go ahead was given to Paul Bayfield "Sale Assistant" by TD Waterhouse's compliance department. Paul Bayfield was TDW assistant and received instructions from TDW. TDW had over seen each of the transactions.

127. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that as part of the settlement agreement it was admitted by TD Waterhouse failed to comply with the suitability requirements to its clients contrary to section 1.5 of rule 31505; and that TDW failed to comply with its obligation to deal with its clients fairly by failing to disclosure to the clients the 7% commission that were paid to TDW contrary to section 2.1(2) of rule 31-505 and there by acted contrary to the public interests and placing the company in violation with the Ontario Securities Act.
128. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that if TDW told the truth and admitted that TDW had errored the company and the Ochnik Family specifically the Trust would have not suffered such an unconscionable punishment and the three children freeborn beneficiaries would and should have been saved harmless.
131. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, the private man/woman, that failure to honour this agreement, in whole or in part, constitutes a continuing tort, ecclesiastical offense, and bad faith breach, and that such non-performance will result in the accrual of additional damages, to be determined at the sole discretion of Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family or any of his successors in ecclesiastical office.

It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that prior to this hearing above mentioned, TDW witnessed and were fully aware that the OSC Chairman Paul Moore is on record stating that Richard Ochnik was the incorporator and President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. and that he was trading in securities without a licenced broker including other facts prior to Richard Ochnik Hearing know it to be not true.
136. It is agreed by you, the private man Rachael Thomas, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that both parties herein acknowledge and affirm reliance on the judicial interpolations and jurisprudential authority of the following cases, as they are instructive and binding in equity, conscience, and constitutional review: Slight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038 – affirming that the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms overrides statutory discretion where fundamental freedoms are at stake; Roncarelli v. Duplessis, [1959] SCR 121 establishing that personal liability arises where public officials act beyond lawful power or in bad faith; Callow v. Zollinger, 2020 SCC 45 – confirming the duty of good faith and honest performance in the execution of all private agreements, whether formal or informal; Syndicat Northcrest v. Amselem, [2004] 2 SCR 551 – upholding that sovereign religious and spiritual beliefs must not be abridged or interfered with by state or commercial entities, and may not be redefined by third parties.
137. It is agreed by you, the private man Rachael Thomas, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you,, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of breach, dishonour, non-performance, refusal to cure, or silence beyond the agreed Clear-Period, you do hereby: (a) Confess judgment in advance, without protest, to the full amount of damages declared in this agreement and/or any affidavit, declaration, or notice associated thereto; (b) Waive any and all procedural objections to enforcement or collection; (c) Consent to immediate enforcement by private lien, ecclesiastical summons, equity writ, or sheriff application, in any court of record or jurisdiction selected solely by Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, without the need for further hearing or approval; (d) Acknowledge that this confession is made in good faith, with full notice, and without coercion, and is enforceable under the maxims of law, the principles of equity, and the conscience of both natural and divine law. Such judgment shall be deemed entered ab initio upon breach or failure to respond within the agreed cure period, and the undersigned party may act as witness, creditor, and claimant without estoppel or restriction.

138. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that It is agreed and declared that any entity or institution, including but not limited to TD Bank Group or any of its subsidiaries, who has received any benefit, gain, asset, equity, or enrichment arising from the breach, fraud, misrepresentation, or fiduciary failure described herein, shall be deemed liable under the doctrine of Unjust Enrichment and Constructive Trust. Such liability is enforceable regardless of formal privity with this agreement, and may be pursued through private lien, lawful trust claim, ecclesiastical forum, or court of equity. TD Bank is hereby placed on notice of their direct and vicarious liability for unjust enrichment and is invited to cure such injury by full restitution. Failure to do so shall trigger enforcement without further notice.
140. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the facts, declarations, and agreed damages contained herein form the complete and final understanding of the parties as to the events, injuries, and remedies arising from the harms described. You acknowledge that even if new facts, documents, witnesses, or information may come to light in the future, such developments shall have no effect on the enforceability, validity, or terms of this agreement, nor shall they diminish, delay, or alter your obligation to pay all declared compensation, restitution, and penalties agreed herein. This clause shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with the principles of finality, spiritual equity, private contract, and ecclesiastical jurisdiction. You waive all future claims to modify or re-negotiate the terms on the basis of later evidence, understanding that this agreement stands in full faith and resolution, now and forever.

blindness, color of law and overreach to circumvent and extend its mandate avoiding its legislated restrictions set by parliament; prejudicing Richard of access to protections available by proper judicial process of law normal to all defendants.

143. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, acting in my capacity as minister and lawful living man, have suffered actual, documentable, and irreparable harm arising directly from your actions, omissions, or complicity, including but not limited to: Spiritual desecration and the unlawful obstruction of ecclesiastical office; Financial loss and misappropriation of sacred trust property; Psychological duress, unlawful detention, medical neglect, and cruel and unusual treatment; Violation of ecclesiastical jurisdiction and breach of covenant, contract, and international trust law.
144. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that that the Tribunal was specifically targeting Richard Ochnik and TDW had participated in this and other hearings to establish false evidence as truth to be used at this hearing with the intention to cause harm to him for TDW direct benefit and others.

adhesion, corporate fiction, statutory persona, or commercial designation without express written and witnessed agreement.

150. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; In the event that either the Bank of Canada or the Royal Canadian Mint ceases to mint the said coins or withdraws them from circulation, it is agreed that a comparable sovereign-minted, bullion standard coin of equal weight and purity shall substitute for settlement purposes, maintaining the above-stated fixed valuations as approved by minister Richard as per his sole discretion and to his own benefit.

155. It is agreed by you, the private man Rachael Thomas, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any breach of this agreement, including misrepresentation, fiduciary breach, fraud, or delay in remedy, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, acting as minister and also steward or trustee, shall be entitled to initiate enforcement in any competent forum of my choosing. All damages, whether direct, indirect, or consequential, including psychological, spiritual, and economic harm, shall be calculated in good faith and are enforceable under equity and law. The obligation to remedy these harms shall include but not be limited to: Direct financial losses, Reputational and spiritual harm, Involuntary service and elder abuse And Constitutional violations of conscience and trust; Leviticus 6:2-5 and Isaiah 61:7
156. It is agreed by you, the private man Rachael Thomas, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, shall retain the sole, unfettered right to elect the forum and venue in which enforcement, adjudication, or interpretation of this agreement may be pursued. This includes courts of record with inherent jurisdiction, whether within Canada or the United States, including ecclesiastical or international human rights tribunals. Such selection shall be made at his sole discretion and shall be binding upon all parties as agreed in advance. This clause serves to ensure full access to fair and impartial adjudication under the maxims of law, international covenant, and God's justice.
157. It is agreed by you, the private man Rachael Thomas, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the material admissions contained within this Clear-Period Contract constitute binding declarations of fact and law. You acknowledge that any failure to publicly correct or retract previous defamatory or fraudulent claims, including those issued by TD Bank Group, TD Waterhouse, OSC, or their agents, shall constitute an ongoing and compounding harm under both spiritual law and equity. The duty to correct includes issuing an open retraction to restore my name, ministry, trust estate, and familial dignity.
158. These authorities are incorporated into this agreement as interpretive anchors, and the parties agree to rely upon their reasoning and precedent in any tribunal, forum, or court of record, ecclesiastical or civil, as may be engaged for the resolution or enforcement of this contract.
159. It is agreed by you, the private man Rachael Thomas, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that failure to respond to or rebut this agreement within 30 days constitutes tacit admission and contractual default. In such case, I shall have full standing to enter judgment and proceed to enforcement, including garnishment, lien, or seizure under the applicable statutes or ecclesiastical process, without further notice or leave of any court.

160. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.
165. It is agreed by Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.
166. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman who has sworn an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant to the "Defender of the faith", then obstructs, intimidates or acts as a nuisance to the ability of an officiating minister of God, has acted against the Queens ability to defend the faith and is attempting to overthrow her majesty's government, being the King James Bible, by force....and that Section 46 of the criminal code applies to all sworn allegiant officers of her majesty.

It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors,( that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

It is very important that I show you why I can not allow any one to assume that they have any power or force over me. To be definitive, TDW need to see the lawful definition of person and the scriptures that guide me and command me to not show respect to persons, as they are fictions of law. A player on a stage wearing a mask.

PERSON. This word is applied to men, women and children, who are called natural persons. In law, man and person are not exactly synonymous terms. Any human being is a man, whether he be a member of society or not, whatever may be the rank he holds, or whatever may be his age, sex, etc. A person is a man considered according to the rank he holds in society, with all the rights to which the place he holds entitles him, and the duties which it imposes. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 137.. It is also used to denote a corporation which is an artificial person. 1 Bl.

Com. 123; 4 Bing. 669; C. 33 Eng. C. L R. 488; Wooddes. Lect. 116; Bac. Us. 57; 1 Mod. 164.

But when the word "Persons" is spoken of in legislative acts, natural persons will be intended, unless something appears in the context to show that it applies to artificial persons. 1 Scam. R.178.

Natural persons are divided into males, or men, and females or women. Men are capable of all kinds of engagements and functions, unless by reasons applying to particular individuals. Women cannot be appointed to any public office, nor perform any civil functions, except those which the law specially declares them capable of exercising. Civ. Code of Louis. art. 25.

They are also sometimes divided into free persons and slaves. Freemen are those who have preserved their natural liberty, that is to say, who have the right of doing what is not forbidden by the law. A slave is one who is in the power of a master to whom he belongs. Slaves are sometimes ranked not with persons but things. But sometimes they are considered as persons for example, a negro is in contemplation of law a person, so as to be capable of committing a riot in conjunction with white men. 1 Bay, 358. Vide Man.

Persons are also divided into citizens, (q. v.) and aliens, (q. v.) when viewed with regard to their political rights. When they are considered in relation to their civil rights, they are living or civilly dead; vide Civil Death; outlaws; and infamous persons.

Persons are divided into legitimates and bastards, when examined as to their rights by birth.

TO PERSONATE, crim. law. The act of assuming the character of another without lawful authority, and, in such character, doing something to his prejudice, or to the prejudice of another, without his will or consent.

The bare fact of personating another for the purpose of fraud, is no more than a cheat or misdemeanour at common law, and punishable as such. 2 East, P. C. 1010; 2 Russ. on Cr. 479.

By the act of congress of the 30th April, 1790, s. 15, 1 Story's Laws U. S. 86, it is enacted, that " if any person shall acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged in any court of Canada, any recognizance, bail or judgement, in the name or names of any other person or persons not privy or consenting to the same, every such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeds five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding seven years, and whipped not exceeding thirty-nine stripes, Provided nevertheless. that this act shall not extend to the acknowledgment of any judgement or judgements by any attorney or attorneys, duly admitted, for any person or persons against whom any such judgement or judgements shall be had or given." Vide, generally, 2 John. Cas. 293; 16 Vin. Ab. 336; Com. Dig. Action on the case for a deceit, A 3.

James 2:9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one [point], he is guilty of all.

Here is a list of more in-depth definitions so no one gets lost.

I am not a Person, or an Individual, or even a human, Manuel, but before you think I am crazy, examine the facts.

I am not a person, or an individual, or a Human, and although some humans look similar to me, I am not a human.

Some would say that I am a 'natural' person, but as I will show you, I am not one of those either. Who then or what then, am I?

To understand who I am, you must first understand the definitions which have been placed on the words I have quoted above, words that are commonly used, but do not describe me anymore. For example, the word 'person'.

Person – The Revised Code of Washington, RCW 1.16.080, (I live in Washington State) defines a person as follows: "The term 'person' may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual.”

Person – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 791, defines ‘person’ as follows: “In general usage, a human being (i.e. natural person), though by statute term may include labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” Person – Oran’s Dictionary of the Law, West Group 1999, defines

Person as: 1. A human being (a “natural” person). 2. A corporation (an “artificial” person). Corporations are treated as persons in many legal situations. Also, the word “person” includes corporations in most definitions in this dictionary. 3. Any other “being” entitled to sue as a legal entity (a government, an association, a group of Trustees, etc.). 4.. The plural of person is persons, not people (see that word).

Person – Duhaime’s Law Dictionary. An entity with legal rights and existence including the ability to sue and be sued, to sign contracts, to receive gifts, to appear in court either by themselves or by lawyer and, generally, other powers incidental to the full expression of the entity in law. Individuals are “persons” in law unless they are minors or under some kind of other incapacity such as a court finding of mental incapacity. Many laws give certain powers to “persons”, which in almost all instances, includes business organizations that have been formally registered such as partnerships, corporations or associations.

legal person – Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary of Law 1996, defines a legal person as : a body of persons or an entity (as a corporation) considered as having many of the rights and responsibilities of a natural person and esp. the capacity to sue and be sued.

A person according to these definitions, is basically an entity – legal fiction – of some kind that has been legally created and has the legal capacity to be sued. Isn’t it odd that the word lawful is not used within these definitions? Well then.... I am not “the United States, this state, or any territory, or any public or private corporation”. I am not “labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” So, I cannot be a ‘person’ under this part of the definition.

The RCW quoted above also states that a person could also be an “individual”. Black’s Law Dictionary also defines a person as a “human being,” which they define by stating “(i.e. natural person)”. So, let’s first check to see if I am an “individual”.

Individual – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 533, defines

“individual” as follows: “As a noun, this term denotes a single person as distinguished from a group or class, and also, very commonly, a private or natural person as distinguished from a partnership, corporation, or association; but it is said that this restrictive signification is not necessarily inherent in the word, and that it may, in proper cases, include artificial persons.”

Well now, I have already been shown that I am not a ‘person’, and since

‘individual’ denotes a single ‘person’ as distinguished from a group or class, I can’t be an ‘individual’ under this definition either. But I see the term ‘natural person’ used in the definition of the RCW, and also in the definition of some of the Law Dictionaries. Maybe I am a ‘natural’ person, since I know I am not an ‘artificial’ one.

I could not find the term ‘Natural person’ defined anywhere, so I had to look up the word ‘natural’ for a definition to see if that word would fit with the word person...

Natural – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg.712, defines ‘Natural’ as follows: “Untouched by man or by influences of civilization; wild; untutored, and is the opposite of the word “artificial”. The juristic meaning of this term does not differ from the vernacular, except in the cases where it is used in opposition to the term “legal”; and then it means proceeding from or determined by physical causes or conditions, as distinguished from positive enactments of law, or attributable to the nature of man rather than the commands of law, or based upon moral rather than legal considerations or sanctions.”

Hmmm, what do they mean by this definition? Am I untouched by man (depends on what the word ‘man’ means), or by influences of civilization? I don’t think so. Am I ‘wild’, or ‘untutored’? (Buzzer sound), not me. Even though the definition states that this word is the opposite of the word ‘artificial’, it still does not describe who I believe I am. So, I must conclude that I am not a ‘natural’ person, under this definition of the word ‘natural’. So, the term ‘natural person’ cannot apply to me.

Black’s Law Dictionary also used the term ‘human being’, and although Black’s defined it as a ‘natural person’, maybe they made a mistake, maybe I am a ‘human being’. ‘Human’ or ‘human being’ does not appear to have a ‘legal’ definition, so I went to my old standby 1888 Noah Webster’s Dictionary for a vernacular definition of this word. Maybe Noah would know who I am

Human – Webster’s 1888 Dictionary defines ‘human’ as follows: n. A human being; one of the race of man. [Rare and inelegant.] “Sprung of humans that inhabit earth.” ...To me, the etymology of the word Hu-man, suggests that it is a marriage of two separate words ‘Hue’ (defined as the property of color), and man. But this cannot, of course, be correct, at least not politically correct, so I can’t go there, because the word would then mean ‘coloured man’!

Am I of the race of man? Rare and inelegant? Sprung of humans that inhabit earth (ground)? (I’m not coloured either). Well, it looks like I have to define the word ‘man’ through Webster’s because there appears to be no legal definition for 'man'.

Man – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'man' as follows: An individual of the human race; a human being; a person.

Great news!!, it looks like we are back to the beginning of our study of definitions, yup, back to the start, completed the circle. I am not an 'individual', so I cannot be considered 'of the human race'; and since I'm not of the human race, I can't be 'a human being', and I've also been shown that I'm not a 'person' either.

Now let us see what the word Human really means.....I am going into detail so TDW can see we have been deceived by the misuse of our own language.

Definition of Human Being

Are you a 'person', an 'individual', or a 'human being'? These words, at law, define you as being spiritually 'dead.' This is how the world makes its attachment to you. The terms, 'person', 'individual', 'human being', etc., are not in Christ. Words like "individual," and "human being" do not even appear in Scripture! These are 'created' terms by the natural man (1 Cor 2:14). These words describe the 'old man', but not the 'new man' in Christ (Col 3:9-10). In Balantine's Self Pronouncing Law Dictionary, 1948, page 389, Human

Being is defined as "See Monster." On page 540 of this same Law Dictionary, Monster is defined as "a human being by birth, but in some part resembling a lower animal."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, pages 879- 880, a Monster is defined as "a person so cruel, wicked, depraved, etc., as to horrify others." From the Random House Dictionary of the English Language, 2nd Edition, page 901, Human Being is defined as a "Natural man: unenlightened or unregenerate," and on page 1461, Unregenerate means "not regenerate; unrepentant; an unregenerate sinner; not convinced by or unconverted to a particular religion; wicked, sinful, dissolute."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, page 657, Humanitarianism is defined as "the doctrine that humankind may become perfect without divine aid."

In Colliers New Dictionary of the English Language, 1928, Humanitarian is defined as "a philanthropist; an anti-Trinitarian who rejects the doctrine of Christ's divinity; a perfectionist."

And in the Random House Webster's College Dictionary, 1990, page 653, Humanism is defined as "any system or mode of thought or action in which human interests, values and dignity predominate, especially an ethical theory that often rejects the importance of a belief in God."

Therefore, when anyone calls himself or herself a 'human being', or a 'humanitarian,' they are saying (according to every definition of these words, and according to the law), "I'm an animal; I'm a monster; I'm not saved; I'm unrepentant; I'm an unregenerate sinner; I'm not converted; I'm wicked, sinful, and dissolute; I'm cruel, depraved, unenlightened; and I reject Christ's divinity and the importance of a belief in God."

a. "Men [Bondman] rely for protection of their right on God's law, and not upon regulations and proclamations of departments of government, or officers who have been designated to carry laws into effect." Baty v. Sale, 43 Ill. 351." [Codes, edicts, proclamations, and decisions are not Law, which define or regulate the Good and Lawful Bondman. Therefore, "law" suits are ungodly, and are the redress for and of human beings, i.e., non-believers.]

The Septuagint uses the term "human beings" only one time, and its meaning is identical to the above definitions. Let's look at the last verse of the book of Jonah, where Nineva was full of men who were unrepentant, unregenerate, unconverted, wicked, sinful, dissolute, cruel, depraved, unenlightened, rejected the importance of a belief in God. Or, in other words, "human beings."

"And shall not I spare Nineve, the great city, in which dwell more than twelve myriads of human beings, who do not know their right hand or their left hand...?" [Jonah 4:11 (Septuagint)]

b. The term "human being" is also synonymous with the term 'natural man.'

c. "The natural man is a spiritual monster. His heart is where his feet should be, fixed upon the earth; his heels are lifted up against heaven, which his heart should be set on. His face is towards hell, his back towards heaven. He loves what he should hate and hates what he should love; joys in what he ought to mourn for and mourns for what he ought to rejoice in; glories in his shame, and is ashamed of his glory; abhors what he should desire, and desires what he should abhor." [Thomas Boston, quoted in Augustus Toplady, Complete Works (1794, reprinted by Sprinkle Publications 1987), page 584].

And the Word confirms: "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." [1 Corinthians 2:14,]

The above verse witnesses to us that the natural man is spiritually dead. The 'natural man' in Scripture is synonymous with the 'natural person' as defined in man's laws.

“Natural Person means human being, and not an artificial or juristic person.” Shawmut Bank, N.A. v. Valley Farms, 610 A. 2d. 652, 654; 222 Conn. 361.

Natural Person: Any human being who as such is a legal entity as distinguished from an artificial person, like a corporation, which derives its status as a legal entity from being recognized so in law. Natural Child: The ordinary euphemism for ‘bastard’ or illegitimate.” [Amon v. Moreschi, 296 N.Y. 395, 73 N.E.2d 716.” Max Radin, Radin’s Law Dictionary (1955), p. 216.]

Those that are spiritually dead belong to the prince of this world because he’s dead himself. Satan has dominion over the natural man, for he is the prince of this world [John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11]; and, because of this, he has dominion over those of the world, i.e., human beings, the natural man – those who receive not the things of the Spirit of God and reject Christ. Because the bondman in Christ is sanctified from the world, he is separated from the adversary’s dominion over him—sin [John 8:34].. This is the cause for Christ having sanctified Himself in the Truth of the Word of God – to provide the entrance to the refuge in and through Himself for us. I could provide you more, Manuel, and I do sincerely thank you for your focused attention to this, my honest effort at officially performing the function of my calling in establishing this agreement with you as per Matthew 5:25 and 18:15-20, but I think you are already overwhelmed as I have, upon presentation of facts, destroyed your belief system and now you are aware you are working for a massive criminal organization founded upon a false oath. Can you now see why I must not allow my name to be altered? Remember, every one of the officers of Alberta has a false oath...What kind of authority swears an oath that is bogus??? A false authority!

167. It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the document titled “Equitable Solution for Forensic Audit of Cestui Que Trust with Interest Calculation,” dated April 22, 2025, addressed to the Judge Advocate General of the Canadian Armed Forces and copied to the RCMP, INTERPOL, Federal Court of Canada, and the UN Human Rights Committee, is hereby incorporated into this Agreement by reference. This letter forms an integral and enforceable part of this Agreement, outlining the factual basis, legal claims, and equitable remedies sought concerning the systemic fraud involving my Cestui Que Trust. Its contents, including but not limited to the demand for a forensic audit, restitution calculations, and references to international covenants such as the ICCPR and ICESCR, are acknowledged and agreed upon as binding terms within this Agreement. The incorporation of this letter ensures that all obligations, acknowledgments, and remedies detailed therein are enforceable under the terms of this Agreement, and any breach of these provisions shall constitute a breach of this Agreement. You consent that his document is available by request or PDF at; <https://www.td-ried.com/> informed consent, voluntarily and intentionally. Relevant maxims: He who seeks equity must do equity and Qui tacet consentire videtur" (Silence implies consent).

171. It is agreed by Rachael Thomas, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you forthcoming from you, that it is agreed by you with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that you are aware that I do not accept the liability of the compelled benefit of any unrevealed de facto contract or unlawful commercial agreement, which is my ministerial duty pursuant to God's law to divide myself from.

Conversion Torts; The unlawful turning or applying the personal goods of another to the use of the taker, or of some other person than the owner; or the unlawful destroying or altering their nature.

When a party takes away or wrongfully assumes the right to goods which belong to another, it will in general be sufficient evidence of a conversion but when the original taking was lawful, as when the party found the goods, and the detention only is illegal, it is absolutely necessary to make a demand of the goods, and there must be a refusal to deliver them before the conversion will be complete. The refusal by a servant to deliver the goods entrusted to him by his master is not evidence of a conversion by his master. Leviticus 6:2-5 The tortious taking of property is, of itself, a conversion and any intermeddling with it, or any exercise of dominion over it, subversive of the dominion of the owner or the nature of the bailment if it be bailed, is evidence of a conversion.

In Equity, the considering of one thing as changed into another; for example, land will be considered as converted into money and treated as such by a court of equity, when the owner has contracted to sell his estate, in which case, if he die before the conveyance, his executors and not his heirs will be entitled to the money. On the other hand, money is converted into land in a variety of ways as for example, when a man agrees to buy land and dies before he has received the conveyance, the money he was to pay for it will be considered as converted into lands and descend to the heir.

It is agreed upon by you, Rachael Thomas, having no dispute to the following fact forthcoming from you; that you the private man are aware and agree that I am a flesh bone blood living man, being God's minister, and that I cannot possibly have been in a dead legal corporate fiction called the Province of Ontario, Canada or other as the Province of Ontario, Canada and other is not a place but a dead corporate fiction of law on paper created for the purpose of extracting money from me in fraud as it is totally against my will, conscience and a violation of my faith to submit to and is being done without my informed consent or cognisant permission for a financial gain.

It is agreed by you, Rachael Thomas with full understanding, that failure to refute or disprove the facts provided above, as agreed upon by you, I am advised by

Christ at Matthew 18:15-20 to gain a simple agreement with you privately and very simply as a child so I would like your aid in agreeing with me that respecting persons written as persona in the Latin vulgate is sin and disrespected by God. Due to the emergent nature of this agreement you are required to respond to this agreement within 10 (ten) days of receipt representing fairness, truth, natural equity. Failure to respond will be deemed acceptance of the terms, including acknowledgment of all outlined facts and obligations. We can see that in Deuteronomy 1:17. 10:17, 2nd Samuel 14:14, Matthew 22:16. Acts 10:34, Romans 2:11, James 2:1-9 and 1st Peter 1:17. If you have no dispute with that scriptural fact I will confirm with witnesses then post our good faith agreement in a paper.

Thankyou for you aid in saving my faith harmless from assumption.

Duplessis | CanLII, Shuvaloy Majumdar, by my sending you this private good faith agreement, I do attempt, by Christ's guidance, to ascertain all the facts in scriptural honour. If you have any reason or proof to suggest or provide to me, God's minister officially performing the functions of my calling, that the following statements of the facts are not true, you are being offered the opportunity to refute these offered facts so as to clear yourself of any assumptive contractual awareness of the truth of such facts. Also be aware, this communication of agreement cannot be lawfully inquired of at public or government expense as it is a provable private matter and government funding cannot support private contracts. All legal bills must and shall be paid for out of your private pocket no different than Maurice Duplessis the former Premier and Attorney General of Quebec in Roncarelli v Duplessis

This is Demand for recognition as Christ's ordained minister in quest of defense of the faith to save harmless my soul.

Both parties agree to act in good faith, ensuring no misleading actions or omissions that could undermine the intent or enforceability of this agreement. Each party is obligated to respect the natural rights and freedoms outlined herein.

I declare that I am that God created, of a Christian given name Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, chosen to be a private ecclesiastic man under God as my creator with dominion over the earth. To all those who set eyes on this ecclesiastical declaration, I do hereby, officially performing the functions of my calling, serve notice to all private men and women as of my inability to respect persons that receive this that any offer herein, prior to, or on my part does not imply acceptance of intimidation, violence, or threats of violence against me, and that no such offer implies that I will submit to any nuisance obstruction or intimidation in the future.

I, as a bondservant of Christ do henceforth offer the good faith proclamation of my free born will to live in peace and declare that, by right of God and his son Jesus words at Corinthians 7:20:26, the de facto authority's edicts, codes, obligations, statutes, taxes, licenses and prohibitions of a de facto commercial entity are not binding on me, John 15:16 ordained minister or applicable upon God's ministers and family, his Children and including their property.

I, minister Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, an ordained minister under John 15:16 and a watchman as per Ezekiel 33:6-9, hereby invoke the protections afforded by "Operation SILENT DEFENDER." For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms "man" and "woman" (also Queen and King) are used interchangeably and are intended to be inclusive of all individuals, regardless of gender identity. Any reference to a specific gender shall be construed to include all genders, and no provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to exclude any person based on gender.

2. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I am not a member of a dead legal fiction entity corporation known as Canada or Ontario and that specifically my name, being my ecclesiastical possession under the exclusive authority of God, is not allowed by my faith in God's commands as defended by the Queen you swore an oath to be truly allegiant to, to be used, recorded, registered, altered used for or exchanged for a financial purpose without my permission that it has never been offered or pledged to be for any of those reasons or to be used as a surety or as a commodity with my informed consent.
4. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that. It is agreed by you, that in 1966 ICCPR and ICESCR Signed: 19 December 1966 The principles of the UDHR offered hope and inspiration around the world. But to make a genuine difference in people's lives, those principles needed to be transformed into laws. In 1966, the UN Commission on Human Rights drafted two instruments to give legal force to the UDHR. One instrument was called the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The second was the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Together with the Universal Declaration, they comprise the International Bill of Human Rights. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights offers protections for the right to life, freedom of speech, religion, and voting. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights focuses on such issues as food, education, health, and shelter. More than 160 nations have ratified these two covenants which legally commit them to ensure these rights for people within their borders.

5. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact that in the Supreme Court Judgments [1980] 1 SCR 54 1979-12-21 Re: Authority of Parliament in relation to the Upper House Further, although s. 91(1) gave the Queen the power, with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, to alter the "Constitution of Canada" except in certain expressly designated areas, it does not confer a power to amend the B.N.A. Act. The word "Canada" in s. 91(1) does not refer to Canada as a geographical unit but refers to the "JURISTIC FEDERAL UNIT"
6. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1981 Zingre v. The Queen et al., [1981] 2 SCR 392 (Supreme Court of Canada). It is a recognized principle of international customary law that a state may not invoke the provisions of its internal law as justification for its failure to perform its international obligations.
9. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1989 Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038, 1989 The reference in s. 32 to the "Parliament" and a "legislature" make clear that the Charter operates as a limitation on the powers of those legislative bodies. Any statute enacted by either Parliament or a Legislature which is inconsistent with the Charter will be outside the power of (ultra vires) the enacting body and will be invalid. It follows that any body exercising statutory authority, for example, the Governor in Council or Lieutenant Governor in Council, ministers, officials, municipalities, school boards, universities, administrative tribunals and police officers, is also bound by the Charter. Action taken under statutory authority is valid only if it is within the scope of that authority. Since neither Parliament nor a Legislature can itself pass a law in breach of the Charter, neither body can authorize action which would be in breach of the Charter. Thus, the limitations on statutory authority which are imposed by the Charter will flow down the chain of statutory authority and apply to regulations, by-laws, orders, decisions and all other action (whether legislative, administrative or judicial) which depends for its validity on statutory authority rights and powers only upon the approval of statutory authorities. The individual may stand upon his constitutional rights. He owes no duty to the State, since he receives nothing there from, beyond the protection of his life and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long antecedent to the organization of the State and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in accordance with the Constitution. He owes nothing to the public so long as he does not trespass upon their rights.

13. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2005 Court Judgement Supreme Court- Christie v. British Columbia, 2005 BCCA 631(CanLII)The rule of law embraces at least three principles. The first principle is that the "law is supreme over officials of the government as well as private individuals, and thereby preclusive of the influence of arbitrary power"
15. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2015 R. v. Wagner, 2015 ONCJ 66 The Rule of Law The idea that there are certain fundamental unwritten principles that govern all members of society including legislators and which judges are expected to enforce is not particularly new. The contemporary concept of unwritten constitutional principles can be seen as a modern reincarnation of the ancient doctrines of natural law

17. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Thompson v. Ministry of Revenue [1946] SCR 209, 1946 CanLII 1 (SCC) [Page 220] Residents are taxed, not Canadians; but residents within the meaning of the Act...
20. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I was "Shanghaied" by Canada forcefully arbitrarily redefining me as a class of person(s) to extend Civil Law and enactments on me knowing at all times it was not lawful and a violation of the Constitution of Canada (1982), international Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, Geneva Convention, contrary to the King James Bible 1611 and their oath to the Queen Elizabeth II the “Defender of the faith” and now King Charles III “Defender of the faith”. This process was accomplished without my knowledge or consent with an intention to unlawfully profit by way of fraud, intimidation making it unlawful and invalid. I do not agree and do not accept this offer to contract.

21. 37. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors, (that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

These are the words in the Oath of Office Act, indicating prima fascia an unlawful, unsanctioned, deficient form by the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance thus effectively invalidating the oath by making the oath grammatically incoherent.

I, . . . . ., swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law.

These are the words from the federal Oath of allegiance Act for Canada

..... it is very clear as to how the oath is to be worded in Canada, it is

I, ....., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada, Her Heirs and Successors. So, help me God. The deviation from the prescribed form of the oath, such as the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance, results in a grammatically incoherent and legally deficient oath. This deficiency effectively invalidates the oath, rendering any authority exercised under its auspices unlawful. The administration or reliance upon such an invalid oath may constitute a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of Canada. Specifically: Canadian Criminal Code: Section 122, Section 131 and Section 132. Therefore, proceeding with or acting upon an oath that deviates from the legally mandated form may expose individuals to criminal liability under these provisions.

54. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing; "OSC in the mater of the Ontario Securities Act R.S.O. 1990, c. S.5. as amended and Richard Ochnik and 1464210 Ontario Inc., heard on March 1,2, 8 and 9, 2006", Hatice Pakdil had testified under oath untruthfully committing perjury, specifically but not limited to; that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also misled others stating that she did not work on behalf of the Company yet at all times TDW were paid a 7% commission selling Company shares to investors. The OSC used the case results listed in paragraph 46, as evidence of truth in subsequent hearing knowing, at all times that TDW were participating in a conspiracy and fraud to protect themselves from liability. This is an act of "Conspiracy" under Section 463 Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46), and "Fraud and Perjury" under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C46) case and the case in paragraph 45 and 47 above. In This case TDW false information was accepted as truth without the involvement and opportunity for Richard Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. to enter defence evidence to the contrary trespassing on their inherent rights. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful to protect her job and the expense of others and wrongfully was enriched.

56. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing: Christa Ochnik and Ontario Securities Commission, Province of Ontario, TD Waterhouse, Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD Bank) and Hatice Pakdil. Hatice, had submitted a defence that was knowingly, to be untruthfully specifically but not limited to, statement that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. The argument that Richard was the de facto officer was not raised in the above two cases and could not be contested by Richard Ochnik. The Intention of the false information was to deceive the court for the inequitable wrongful benefit of Hatice Pakdil's employer and other defendants depriving the plaintiff of their rights under colour of law. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful in an attempt to protect her job and unlawfully gain from her crime. This resulted in fraudulently depriving Christa and her sisters a free born minors of their rightful inheritance as beneficiary of the Ochnik Family Trust. Hatice's actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46)
58. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that [First Name] [Last Name] TD Waterhouse, Michael Watson, OSC, and key investigator John Humphrey were fully aware of the untruths and perjury of witnesses and conspired to target, in a conspiracy to harm Richard Ochnik and 1464210 Ontario Inc. as are now listed here in. 60. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Moore (Chairman) should have not been the Chairman on two hearings involving Richard Ochnik due to a conflict of interest. Its unconscionable to have expected the Chairman to rule in conflict with his earlier ruling. The Chairman did not have the lawful authority to change what was established as fact by himself in a earlier hearing without an appeal. Holding a hearing and agreeing on key facts without allowing Richard Ochnik to offer a defence was a trespass on his inherent rights, malicious slander, and libel. This technicality was deliberate to target Richard Ochnik because despite all evidence to the contrary in his own hearing it would not change the established facts from the previous case. In essence his case was lost before it started.
61. The OSC had in its position Company documents clearly indicating Ian Ochnik was the incorporator, sole Director, and De jure President of the Company. TDW had contracted with Ian Ochnik. Richard Ochnik was not part of the securities negotiations, and his function was landlord and general contractor.

trespassing on his rights to which he would not normally or lawfully be expected to have as a man.

If there was no such purchase, TDW would not receive a commission. TDW commissions totaled approximately $107 000 based on 7% of sales.
85. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW never told the Company that TDW were not working for them. Given all the documents it would clearly indicate that they were confirmed to be working with TDW as their broker on record.
86. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shareholder investors 1464210 Ontario Inc. were also clients for TDW and TD Waterhouse.
87. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC do not know of any investor on 1464210 Ontario Inc. that was over the age of 65 and had purchased shares from 1464210 Ontario Inc.
89. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Bayfield was TDW Sales Assistant, and he was actively assisting in processing of the trades and had direct knowledge of the transactions playing a key role in the approvals to facilitate the purchase and subsequent SWAP of the shares.

90. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC ambushed Richard Ochnik during his hearing and knew he had a lawyer but refused to remand the case to meet the lawyers schedule and there by prejudicing the defence. There would have been no damage to any party to have delayed the hearing.
92. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that you accept full responsibility for any and all additional costs, fees, charges, or expenses incurred as a result of delays, administrative actions, defense filings, or any other related processes necessitated by your actions or omissions. You acknowledge and agree that the applicable fee schedule detailing such costs is available for your review at TD-lied.com or can be provided to you upon your written request. You further agree that this fee schedule is subject to amendments and updates from time to time, at the sole discretion and for the exclusive benefit of the minister, without prior notice to you. Such amendments are binding and non-disputable. Your acceptance of this clause signifies your consent to these terms and your obligation to remit payment for any applicable fees as outlined in the current fee schedule.

102. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW advised the Company to produce an "Investor Representation Letter" indicating the declaration by the investor; "I do not currently own, Direct or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc., or any other related Company" and " I do not have any Rights to acquire any TDW, shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. "This letter was a requirement to be signed by all TDW investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. before the purchased shares. It is agreed by you, [First Name] [Last Name], the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW agreed to be broker of record May 06, 2002.
104. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the Company had cooperated with all TDW requests and did everything it was requested promptly to do to TDW satisfaction.
105. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that failed to provide full disclosures to the defendants as required by law. TDW did not send a copy of the "Privet Placement Agreement" in fear of incriminating Hatice Pakdil. TDW were aware that this document would have a direct impact on the outcome of the case establishing that the company had a licenced broker and was detrimentally reliant on TD Waterhouse to save it harmless and to maintain the Company in good standing to all related regulations and Acts.
106. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the sales transaction consisted of a 7% commission calculated on the sale amount of shares and a $25 000 (in cash or shares) bonus for achieving each million dollars in sales threshold. The Company offered shares or cash as payment; as part of TDW selling shares and purchasing them for their clients RRSP accounts. Share sales generate a sales commission paid by the seller Company and SWAPS generate a fixed fee paid by the investor buyer – both were TDW clients.
107. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that According to the TDW "Rate Tables", the Company would be charged the flat fee of $20.00 for a SWAP but rather a commission for a sale or "Trade". TDW negotiated a commission representing the sale of shares.

notified the Company that they were prepared to go ahead with the purchase and SWAP of the shares.

109. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. was satisfied and by the "Letter of Authority" provided Paul Panciw with the authority to bind the Company in a "Contractual Relationship" with TDW. (There was an agreement and mutual understanding). A contract was signed by the Company solidifying the relationship. TDW became brokers of record.
113. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Form" were not a binding contract: paragraph 4. "Acceptance of Subscription: This subscription will be and be deemed for all purposes to have been accepted by the Corporation when the Corporation gives notice in writing to the purchaser of the allotment and issuance of the Shares subscribed for, but the corporation shall be under no obligation to accept this subscription". The share sale only occurred once TD Waterhouse paid for the shares from the cash in the, the private man with no dispute to the investor's accounts and not before. Before that could happen, TD had to notify the company regarding the buyer, account number and number of shares.
114. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Forms" also contained the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" that indicated "I do not currently own, directly or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc..." and was signed by the purchaser acknowledging the statement to be true. This clearly indicated TDW could not preform a SWAP with out first purchasing the shares. TDW then proceed to purchase the shares, by instructing Ian Ochnik, President to produce the share certificates as directed by TD compliance department (providing investor name, amount of purchase and account number).

116. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "New Clients" were established. Hatice Pakdil was their "Investment Advisor" and responsible for the client's account. The Company completed all the requirements of a "Pre-Approved Private Placement". Hatice Pakdil testified under oath that she considered herself as an order taker and not adviser to the new clients facilitating the buy and sale of the Company shares.

to calculate the number of shares to be purchased at $1.00 per share. Also, the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" told TDW that they had no ownership of shares or rights to purchase shares indicating the buy and sell had not taken place yet until TD gave the company the cheque payment for the shares as stipulated on paragraph 5 of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." , the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW, Hatice Pakdil did speak to potential investors before the signing and execution of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares" with the help of TDW sales assistant. This fact clearly confirms that Hatice Pakdil had purchased shares form TDW Customer the Company to facilitate a SWAP for TDW investment clients.

124. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was negligent and processed the transaction as a "SWAP" into the client's account. As a result, the head office review of trades was per TDW Policy 2 and that requirement did not take place as required by regulation. If it was done properly the issue would have been discovered in the first trade and saved the Company. The Company had no knowledge of TDW errors. TDW had an obligation to correct the issue and save the company.

125. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shares were distributed to the "New Client's" RRSP accounts by TDW as a trade and then followed by a SWAP.
128. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that if TDW told the truth and admitted that TDW had errored the company and the Ochnik Family specifically the Trust would have not suffered such an unconscionable punishment and the three children freeborn beneficiaries would and should have been saved harmless.

133. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that by not being forthright and truthful TDW participated in a fraud to your own benefit and profit at the expense of the Company. It is unconscionable that Hatice Pakdil allowed and orchestrated this fraud with the help TDW employer, Ontario Securities Commission (OSC) and Paul Moore Chairman.

It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the issue of controlling mind was never raised at any of the hearings as it was not required being that we relabelled Richard “the President” although he was never the President. This manipulation was done to prevent Richard from filing an appeal for justice and to entrap him, forever closing the case with total disregard for the truth.

It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; In the event that either the Bank of Canada or the Royal Canadian Mint ceases to mint the said coins or withdraws them from circulation, it is agreed that a comparable sovereign-minted, bullion standard coin of equal weight and purity shall substitute for settlement purposes, maintaining the above-stated fixed valuations as approved by minister Richard as per his sole discretion and to his own benefit.
154. 156. It is agreed by you, the private man Shuvaloy Majumdar, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, shall retain the sole, unfettered right to elect the forum and venue in which enforcement, adjudication, or interpretation of this agreement may be pursued. This includes courts of record with inherent jurisdiction, whether within Canada or the United States, including ecclesiastical or international human rights tribunals. This clause serves to ensure full access to fair and impartial adjudication under the maxims of law, international covenant, and God's justice.
157. It is agreed by you, the private man Shuvaloy Majumdar, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the material admissions contained within this Clear-Period Contract constitute binding declarations of fact and law. You acknowledge that any failure to publicly

160. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.
162. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man , with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private man or woman with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.

has any oath bound nor civil authority to obstruct a minister from performing the functions of his calling nor to determine the functions of his calling unless damage has ensued to man, woman or property violating God's law as complained of by an opposing man or woman.

165. It is agreed by Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.

166. It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman who has sworn an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant to the "Defender of the faith", then obstructs, intimidates or acts as a nuisance to the ability of an officiating minister of God, has acted against the Queens ability to defend the faith and is attempting to overthrow her majesty's government, being the King James Bible, by force....and that Section 46 of the criminal code applies to all sworn allegiant officers of her majesty.

It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors,( that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

It is very important that I show you why I can not allow any one to assume that they have any power or force over me. To be definitive, TDW need to see the lawful definition of person and the scriptures that guide me and command me to not show respect to persons, as they are fictions of law. A player on a stage wearing a mask.

PERSON. This word is applied to men, women and children, who are called natural persons. In law, man and person are not exactly synonymous terms. Any human being is a man, whether he be a member of society or not, whatever may be the rank he holds, or whatever may be his age, sex, etc. A person is a man considered according to the rank he holds in society, with all the rights to which the place he holds entitles him, and the duties which it imposes. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 137.. It is also used to denote a corporation which is an artificial person. 1 Bl.

Com. 123; 4 Bing. 669; C. 33 Eng. C. L R. 488; Wooddes. Lect. 116; Bac. Us. 57; 1 Mod. 164.

But when the word "Persons" is spoken of in legislative acts, natural persons will be intended, unless something appears in the context to show that it applies to artificial persons. 1 Scam. R.178.

Natural persons are divided into males, or men, and females or women. Men are capable of all kinds of engagements and functions, unless by reasons applying to particular individuals. Women cannot be appointed to any public office, nor perform any civil functions, except those which the law specially declares them capable of exercising. Civ. Code of Louis. art. 25.

They are also sometimes divided into free persons and slaves. Freeman are those who have preserved their natural liberty, that is to say, who have the right of doing what is not forbidden by the law. A slave is one who is in the power of a master to whom he belongs. Slaves are sometimes ranked not with persons but things. But sometimes they are considered as persons for example, a negro is in contemplation of law a person, so as to be capable of committing a riot in conjunction with white men. 1 Bay, 358. Vide Man.

Persons are also divided into citizens, (q. v.) and aliens, (q. v.) when viewed with regard to their political rights. When they are considered in relation to their civil rights, they are living or civilly dead; vide Civil Death; outlaws; and infamous persons.

Persons are divided into legitimates and bastards, when examined as to their rights by birth.

TO PERSONATE, crim. law. The act of assuming the character of another without lawful authority, and, in such character, doing something to his prejudice, or to the prejudice of another, without his will or consent.

The bare fact of personating another for the purpose of fraud, is no more than a cheat or misdemeanour at common law, and punishable as such. 2 East, P. C. 1010; 2 Russ. on Cr. 479.

By the act of congress of the 30th April, 1790, s. 15, 1 Story's Laws U. S. 86, it is enacted, that " if any person shall acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged in any court of Canada, any recognizance, bail or judgement, in the name or names of any other person or persons not privy or consenting to the same, every such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeds five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding seven years, and whipped not exceeding thirty-nine stripes, Provided nevertheless. that this act shall not extend to the acknowledgment of any judgement or judgements by any attorney or attorneys, duly admitted, for any person or persons against whom any such judgement or judgements shall be had or given." Vide, generally, 2 John. Cas. 293; 16 Vin. Ab. 336; Com. Dig. Action on the case for a deceit, A 3.

James 2:9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one [point], he is guilty of all.

Here is a list of more in-depth definitions so no one gets lost.

I am not a Person, or an Individual, or even a human, Manuel, but before you think I am crazy, examine the facts.

I am not a person, or an individual, or a Human, and although some humans look similar to me, I am not a human.

Some would say that I am a 'natural' person, but as I will show you, I am not one of those either. Who then or what then, am I?

To understand who I am, you must first understand the definitions which have been placed on the words I have quoted above, words that are commonly used, but do not describe me anymore. For example, the word 'person'.

Person – The Revised Code of Washington, RCW 1.16.080, (I live in Washington State) defines a person as follows: "The term 'person' may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual."

Person – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 791, defines 'person' as follows: "In general usage, a human being (i.e. natural person), though by statute term may include labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers." Person – Oran's Dictionary of the Law, West Group 1999, defines

Person as: 1. A human being (a "natural" person). 2. A corporation (an "artificial" person). Corporations are treated as persons in many legal situations. Also, the word "person" includes corporations in most definitions in this dictionary. 3. Any other "being" entitled to sue as a legal entity (a government, an association, a group of Trustees, etc.). 4.. The plural of person is persons, not people (see that word).

Person – Duhaime's Law Dictionary. An entity with legal rights and existence including the ability to sue and be sued, to sign contracts, to receive gifts, to appear in court either by themselves or by lawyer and, generally, other powers incidental to the full expression of the entity in law. Individuals are "persons" in law unless they are minors or under some kind of other incapacity such as a court finding of mental incapacity. Many laws give certain powers to "persons", which in almost all instances, includes business organizations that have been formally registered such as partnerships, corporations or associations.

Person, noun. person. – Webster's 1828 Dictionary. Defines personas: [Latin persona; said to be compounded of per, through or by, and sonus, sound; a Latin word signifying primarily a mask used

legal person – Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary of Law 1996, defines a legal person as : a body of persons or an entity (as a corporation) considered as having many of the rights and responsibilities of a natural person and esp. the capacity to sue and be sued.

A person according to these definitions, is basically an entity – legal fiction – of some kind that has been legally created and has the legal capacity to be sued. Isn’t it odd that the word lawful is not used within these definitions? Well then.... I am not “the United States, this state, or any territory, or any public or private corporation”. I am not “labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” So, I cannot be a ‘person’ under this part of the definition.

The RCW quoted above also states that a person could also be an “individual”. Black’s Law Dictionary also defines a person as a “human being,” which they define by stating “(i.e. natural person)”. So, let’s first check to see if I am an “individual”.

Individual – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 533, defines

“individual” as follows: “As a noun, this term denotes a single person as distinguished from a group or class, and also, very commonly, a private or natural person as distinguished from a partnership, corporation, or association; but it is said that this restrictive signification is not necessarily inherent in the word, and that it may, in proper cases, include artificial persons.”

Well now, I have already been shown that I am not a ‘person’, and since

‘individual’ denotes a single ‘person’ as distinguished from a group or class, I can’t be an ‘individual’ under this definition either. But I see the term ‘natural person’ used in the definition of the RCW, and also in the definition of some of the Law Dictionaries. Maybe I am a ‘natural’ person, since I know I am not an ‘artificial’ one.

I could not find the term ‘Natural person’ defined anywhere, so I had to look up the word ‘natural’ for a definition to see if that word would fit with the word person...

Natural – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg.712, defines ‘Natural’ as follows: “Untouched by man or by influences of civilization; wild; untutored, and is the opposite of the word “artificial”. The juristic meaning of this term does not differ from the vernacular, except in the cases where it is used in opposition to the term “legal”; and then it means proceeding from or determined by physical causes or conditions, as distinguished from positive enactments of law, or attributable to the nature of man rather than the commands of law, or based upon moral rather than legal considerations or sanctions.”

Hmmm, what do they mean by this definition? Am I untouched by man (depends on what the word 'man' means), or by influences of civilization? I don't think so. Am I 'wild', or 'untutored'? (Buzzer sound), not me. Even though the definition states that this word is the opposite of the word 'artificial', it still does not describe who I believe I am. So, I must conclude that I am not a 'natural' person, under this definition of the word 'natural'. So, the term 'natural person' cannot apply to me.

Black's Law Dictionary also used the term 'human being', and although Black's defined it as a 'natural person', maybe they made a mistake, maybe I am a 'human being'. 'Human' or 'human being' does not appear to have a 'legal' definition, so I went to my old standby 1888 Noah Webster's Dictionary for a vernacular definition of this word. Maybe Noah would know who I am

Human – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'human' as follows: n. A human being; one of the race of man. [Rare and inelegant.] "Sprung of humans that inhabit earth." ...To me, the etymology of the word Hu-man, suggests that it is a marriage of two separate words 'Hue' (defined as the property of color), and man. But this cannot, of course, be correct, at least not politically correct, so I can't go there, because the word would then mean 'coloured man'!

Am I of the race of man? Rare and inelegant? Sprung of humans that inhabit earth (ground)? (I'm not coloured either). Well, it looks like I have to define the word 'man' through Webster's because there appears to be no legal definition for 'man'.

Man – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'man' as follows: An individual of the human race; a human being; a person.

Great news!!, it looks like we are back to the beginning of our study of definitions, yup, back to the start, completed the circle. I am not an 'individual', so I cannot be considered 'of the human race'; and since I'm not of the human race, I can't be 'a human being', and I've also been shown that I'm not a 'person' either.

Now let us see what the word Human really means.....I am going into detail so TDW can see we have been deceived by the misuse of our own language.

Definition of Human Being

Are you a 'person', an 'individual', or a 'human being'? These words, at law, define you as being spiritually 'dead.' This is how the world makes its attachment to you. The terms, 'person', 'individual', 'human being', etc., are not in Christ. Words like "individual," and "human being" do not even appear in Scripture! These are 'created' terms by the natural man (1 Cor 2:14). These words describe the 'old man', but not the 'new man' in Christ (Col 3:9-10). In Balantine's Self Pronouncing Law Dictionary, 1948, page 389, Human

Being is defined as "See Monster." On page 540 of this same Law Dictionary, Monster is defined as "a human being by birth, but in some part resembling a lower animal."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, pages 879- 880, a Monster is defined as "a person so cruel, wicked, depraved, etc., as to horrify others." From the Random House Dictionary of the English Language, 2nd Edition, page 901, Human Being is defined as a "Natural man: unenlightened or unregenerate," and on page 1461, Unregenerate means "not regenerate; unrepentant; an unregenerate sinner; not convinced by or unconverted to a particular religion; wicked, sinful, dissolute."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, page 657, Humanitarianism is defined as "the doctrine that humankind may become perfect without divine aid."

In Colliers New Dictionary of the English Language, 1928, Humanitarian is defined as "a philanthropist; an anti-Trinitarian who rejects the doctrine of Christ's divinity; a perfectionist."

And in the Random House Webster's College Dictionary, 1990, page 653, Humanism is defined as "any system or mode of thought or action in which human interests, values and dignity predominate, especially an ethical theory that often rejects the importance of a belief in God."

Therefore, when anyone calls himself or herself a 'human being', or a 'humanitarian,' they are saying (according to every definition of these words, and according to the law), "I'm an animal; I'm a monster; I'm not saved; I'm unrepentant; I'm an unregenerate sinner; I'm not converted; I'm wicked, sinful, and dissolute; I'm cruel, depraved, unenlightened; and I reject Christ's divinity and the importance of a belief in God."

a. "Men [Bondman] rely for protection of their right on God's law, and not upon regulations and proclamations of departments of government, or officers who have been designated to carry laws into effect." Baty v. Sale, 43 Ill. 351." [Codes, edicts, proclamations, and decisions are not Law, which define or regulate the Good and Lawful Bondman. Therefore, "law" suits are ungodly, and are the redress for and of human beings, i.e., non-believers.]

The Septuagint uses the term "human beings" only one time, and its meaning is identical to the above definitions. Let's look at the last verse of the book of Jonah, where Nineve was full of men who were unrepentant, unregenerate, unconverted, wicked, sinful, dissolute, cruel, depraved, unenlightened, rejected the importance of a belief in God. Or, in other words, "human beings."

"And shall not I spare Nineve, the great city, in which dwell more than twelve myriads of human beings, who do not know their right hand or their left hand...?" [Jonah 4:11 (Septuagint)]

b. The term "human being" is also synonymous with the term 'natural man.'

c. "The natural man is a spiritual monster. His heart is where his feet should be, fixed upon the earth; his heels are lifted up against heaven, which his heart should be set on. His face is towards hell, his back towards heaven. He loves what he should hate and hates what he should love; joys in what he ought to mourn for and mourns for what he ought to rejoice in; glories in his shame, and is ashamed of his glory; abhors what he should desire, and desires what he should abhor." [Thomas Boston, quoted in Augustus Toplady, Complete Works (1794, reprinted by Sprinkle Publications 1987), page 584].

And the Word confirms: "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." [1 Corinthians 2:14,]

"Natural Person means human being, and not an artificial or juristic person." Shawmut Bank, N.A. v. Valley Farms, 610 A. 2d. 652, 654; 222 Conn. 361.

Natural Person: Any human being who as such is a legal entity as distinguished from an artificial person, like a corporation, which derives its status as a legal entity from being recognized so in law. Natural Child: The ordinary euphemism for 'bastard' or illegitimate." [Amon v. Moreschi, 296 N.Y. 395, 73 N.E.2d 716." Max Radin, Radin's Law Dictionary (1955), p. 216.]

Those that are spiritually dead belong to the prince of this world because he's dead himself. Satan has dominion over the natural man, for he is the prince of this world [John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11]; and, because of this, he has dominion over those of the world, i.e., human beings, the natural man – those who receive not the things of the Spirit of God and reject Christ. Because the bondman in Christ is sanctified from the world, he is separated from the adversary's dominion over him – sin [John 8:34].. This is the cause for Christ having sanctified Himself in the Truth of the Word of God – to provide the entrance to the refuge in and through Himself for us. I could provide you more, Manuel, and I do sincerely thank you for your focused attention to this, my honest effort at officially performing the function of my calling in establishing this agreement with you as per Matthew 5:25 and 18:15-20, but I think you are already overwhelmed as I have, upon presentation of facts, destroyed your belief system and now you are aware you are working for a massive criminal organization founded upon a false oath. Can you now see why I must not allow my name to be altered? Remember, every one of the officers of Alberta has a false oath...What kind of authority swears an oath that is bogus??? A false authority!

Conversion Torts; The unlawful turning or applying the personal goods of another to the use of the taker, or of some other person than the owner; or the unlawful destroying or altering their nature.

When a party takes away or wrongfully assumes the right to goods which belong to another, it will in general be sufficient evidence of a conversion but when the original taking was lawful, as when the party found the goods, and the detention only is illegal, it is absolutely necessary to make a demand of the goods, and there must be a refusal to deliver them before the conversion will be complete. The refusal by a servant to deliver the goods entrusted to him by his master is not evidence of a conversion by his master. Leviticus 6:2-5 The tortious taking of property is, of itself, a conversion and any intermeddling with it, or any exercise of dominion over it, subversive of the dominion of the owner or the nature of the bailment if it be bailed, is evidence of a conversion.

In Equity, the considering of one thing as changed into another; for example, land will be considered as converted into money and treated as such by a court of equity, when the owner has contracted to sell his estate, in which case, if he die before the conveyance, his executors and not his heirs will be entitled to the money. On the other hand, money is converted into land in a variety of ways as for example, when a man agrees to buy land and dies before he has received the conveyance, the money he was to pay for it will be considered as converted into lands and descend to the heir.

It is agreed upon by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar, having no dispute to the following fact forthcoming from you; that you the private man are aware and agree that I am a flesh bone blood living man, being God's minister, and that I cannot possibly have been in a dead legal corporate fiction called the Province of Ontario, Canada or other as the Province of Ontario, Canada and other is not a place but a dead corporate fiction of law on paper created for the purpose of extracting money from me in fraud as it is totally against my will, conscience and a violation of my faith to submit to and is being done without my informed consent or cognisant permission for a financial gain.

It is agreed by you, Shuvaloy Majumdar with full understanding, that failure to refute or disprove the facts provided above, as agreed upon by you, I am advised by

Christ at Matthew 18:15-20 to gain a simple agreement with you privately and very simply as a child so I would like your aid in agreeing with me that respecting persons written as persona in the Latin vulgate is sin and disrespected by God. Due to the emergent nature of this agreement you are required to respond to this agreement within 10 (ten) days of receipt representing fairness, truth, natural equity. Failure to respond will be deemed acceptance of the terms, including acknowledgment of all outlined facts and obligations. We can see that in Deuteronomy 1:17. 10:17, 2nd Samuel 14:14, Matthew 22:16. Acts 10:34, Romans 2:11, James 2:1-9 and 1st Peter 1:17. If you have no dispute with that scriptural fact I will confirm with witnesses then post our good faith agreement in a paper.

Thankyou for you aid in saving my faith harmless from assumption.

Notice for a Demand of an Ecclesiastical Accommodation and Agreement

Provided under Christ's careful direction and the watchman's eye of Ezekiel 33

In the holy name of Christ, as where two or more agree in His holy name, for the will of our father, it shall be done. Matthew 18;20

If one falsely accuses another of a crime, the punishment due to that crime should be inflicted upon the perjured informer. Maxims of law

Hello, Dane Lloyd, I am Richard of the Ochnik family, a flesh blood and bone living man created by God and an officiating minister of the Church of the Ecumenical Redemption International, an ecclesiastical organism of other flesh, blood and bone men and women as the many members of the body of Christ. Where truth is, fiction of law dose not exist. Maxims of law;

If ever the law of God and man are at variance, the former are to be obeyed in derogation of the later. Maxims. Acts 5:29

1959 CanLII 50 (SCC) | Roncarelli v. Duplessis | CanLII, Dane Lloyd, by my sending you this private good faith agreement, I do attempt, by Christ's guidance, to ascertain all the facts in scriptural honour. If you have any reason or proof to suggest or provide to me, God's minister officially performing the functions of my calling, that the following statements of the facts are not true, you are being offered the opportunity to refute these offered facts so as to clear yourself of any assumptive contractual awareness of the truth of such facts. Also be aware, this communication of agreement cannot be lawfully inquired of at public or government expense as it is a provable private matter and government funding cannot support private contracts. All legal bills must and shall be paid for out of your private pocket no different than Maurice Duplessis the former Premier and Attorney General of Quebec in Roncarelly v Duplessis

This is Demand for recognition as Christ's ordained minister in quest of defense of the faith to save harmless my soul.

Both parties agree to act in good faith, ensuring no misleading actions or omissions that could undermine the intent or enforceability of this agreement. Each party is obligated to respect the natural rights and freedoms outlined herein.

I declare that I am that God created, of a Christian given name Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, chosen to be a private ecclesiastic man under God as my creator with dominion over the earth. I do declare that no man or woman has a moral or a lawful right to impose anything upon me without my informed consent; and that I do hereby renounce any fraudulent corporate assumptive contract by the right of self determination and faith renouncing secular Contracts. Amselem 2004 SCR.

I do honour the directive obligation to respect the equal God given freedoms of other men and women under His law. To all those who set eyes on this ecclesiastical declaration, I do hereby, officially performing the functions of my calling, serve notice to all private men and women as of my inability to respect persons that receive this that any offer herein, prior to, or on my part does not imply acceptance of intimidation, violence, or threats of violence against me, and that no such offer implies that I will submit to any nuisance obstruction or intimidation in the future.

I, as a bondservant of Christ do henceforth offer the good faith proclamation of my free born will to live in peace and declare that, by right of God and his son Jesus words at Corinthians 7:20:26, the de facto authority's edicts, codes, obligations, statutes, taxes, licenses and prohibitions of a de facto commercial entity are not binding on me, John 15:16 ordained minister or applicable upon God's ministers and family, his Children and including their property.

I, minister Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, an ordained minister under John 15:16 and a watchman as per Ezekiel 33:6–9, hereby invoke the protections afforded by "Operation SILENT DEFENDER." This military receivership, initiated in response to systemic fiduciary breaches, encompasses the unauthorized creation and exploitation of my Cestui Que Trust, originating from my 1960 birth certificate.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms "man" and "woman" (also

1. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I, minister of Richard Henry of the Ochnik family was on or about the 30th of November, 2004 A.D., unlawfully intimidated and obstructed, by you, in your private capacity, by methods not sanctioned and as such, being a perceived and negative nuisance to my ability to perform an official function of my ministerial calling, are in violation of Sections 126,176, 423, 465 and 180 of the Criminal Code of Canada by violating your Oath of Allegiance and the Royal Style and Titles Act.
2. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I am not a member of a dead legal fiction entity corporation known as Canada or Ontario and that specifically my name, being my ecclesiastical possession under the exclusive authority of God, is not allowed by my faith in God's commands as defended by the Queen you swore an oath to be truly allegiant to, to be used, recorded, registered, altered used for or exchanged for a financial purpose without my permission that it has never been offered or pledged to be for any of those reasons or to be used as a surety or as a commodity with my informed consent.

4. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that. It is agreed by you, that in 1966 ICCPR and ICESCR Signed: 19 December 1966 The principles of the UDHR offered hope and inspiration around the world. But to make a genuine difference in people's lives, those principles needed to be transformed into laws. In 1966, the UN Commission on Human Rights drafted two instruments to give legal force to the UDHR. One instrument was called the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The second was the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Together with the Universal Declaration, they comprise the International Bill of Human Rights. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights offers protections for the right to life, freedom of speech, religion, and voting. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights focuses on such issues as food, education, health, and shelter. More than 160 nations have ratified these two covenants which legally commit them to ensure these rights for people within their borders.
5. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact that in the Supreme Court Judgments [1980] 1 SCR 54 1979-12-21 Re: Authority of Parliament in relation to the Upper House Further, although s. 91(1) gave the Queen the power, with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, to alter the "Constitution of Canada" except in certain expressly designated areas, it does not confer a power to amend the B.N.A. Act. The word "Canada" in s. 91(1) does not refer to Canada as a geographical unit but refers to the "JURISTIC FEDERAL UNIT"
6. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1981 Zingre v. The Queen et al., [1981] 2 SCR 392 (Supreme Court of Canada). It is a recognized principle of international customary law that a state may not invoke the provisions of its internal law as justification for its failure to perform its international obligations.
7. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that; This contract is governed exclusively by the Law of God as found in the 1611 King James Bible, and the sanctuary jurisdiction under which it was formed. All disputes shall default to this sacred law unless waived in writing by the minister Richard Henry family of Ochnik.
9. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1989 Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038, 1989 The reference in s. 32 to the "Parliament" and a "legislature" make clear that the Charter operates as a limitation on the powers of those legislative bodies. Any statute enacted by either Parliament or a Legislature which is inconsistent with the Charter will be outside the power of (ultra vires) the enacting body and will be invalid. It follows that any body exercising statutory authority, for example, the Governor in Council or Lieutenant Governor in Council, ministers, officials, municipalities, school boards, universities, administrative tribunals and police officers, is also bound by the Charter. Action taken under statutory authority is valid only if it is within the scope of that authority. Since neither Parliament nor a Legislature can itself pass a law in breach of the Charter, neither body can authorize action which would be in breach of the Charter. Thus, the limitations on statutory authority which are imposed by the Charter will flow down the chain of statutory authority and apply to regulations, by-laws, orders, decisions and all other action (whether legislative, administrative or judicial) which depends for its validity on statutory authority

13. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2005 Court Judgement Supreme Court- Christie v. British Columbia, 2005 BCCA 631(CanLII)The rule of law embraces at least three principles. The first principle is that the "law is supreme over officials of the government as well as private individuals, and thereby preclusive of the influence of arbitrary power"

15. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2015 R. v. Wagner, 2015 ONCJ 66 The Rule of Law The idea that there are certain fundamental unwritten principles that govern all members of society including legislators and which judges are expected to enforce is not particularly new. The contemporary concept of unwritten constitutional principles can be seen as a modern reincarnation of the ancient doctrines of natural law
16. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Victoria (City) v. Adams, 2009 BCCA 563; 2008 BCSC 1363; The trial court found the prohibition of temporary overhead shelter in parks to be unconstitutional where there was a lack of alternative shelter space. The court held the issue to be clearly justiciable because it dealt with the constitutionality of a legal prohibition. The court relied on the right to adequate housing under international human rights law as an interpretive aid. The Court referred to submissions made by Canada to the United Nations Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights regarding the scope of domestic protections for the right to housing and on General Comment No. 4 on the right to adequate housing under the International Covenant of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR). The Court noted that the question of whether the right to life, liberty and security of the person imposes positive obligations on governments to ensure the right to housing has not yet been determined by the Supreme Court of Canada and did not need to be decided in this case, which only challenged state interference.
17. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Thompson v. Ministry of Revenue [1946] SCR 209, 1946 CanLII 1 (SCC) [Page 220] Residents are taxed, not Canadians; but residents within the meaning of the Act...

education first and foremost shall be for the promotion of human rights and freedoms. This education was denied and hidden from me so that it could be deprived from my rights and force me to slavery for a de facto fictional state against my free will. In this case ignorance is an excuse because as a child under age, I relied on the integrity, honesty of my parents that fraudulently, by omission deprived me of truth, to maximize their ability to extort funds from me by way of unlawful intimidation. It is unconscionable that abuse and manipulation with the intention to deceive a child could be argued as acceptable and binding later on an adult.

20. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I was "Shanghaied" by Canada forcefully arbitrarily redefining me as a class of person(s) to extend Civil Law and enactments on me knowing at all times it was not lawful and a violation of the Constitution of Canada (1982), international Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, Geneva Convention, contrary to the King James Bible 1611 and their oath to the Queen Elizabeth II the "Defender of the faith" and now King Charles III "Defender of the faith". This process was accomplished without my knowledge or consent with an intention to unlawfully profit by way of fraud, intimidation making it unlawful and invalid. I do not agree and do not accept this offer to contract.
21. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.
22. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that Non-performance of this agreement shall be deemed as an act of confession and consent to immediate enforcement of all remedies herein, including liens, writs, or seizure without further notice.

26. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you forthcoming from you, that no woman calling himself de facto Chair, in the de facto Group President and Chief Executive Officer of TD Bank Group, in the de facto country of Canada (or Provinces and other) has any oath bound nor civil authority to intimidate or obstruct a minister from performing the functions of his calling nor to determine the functions of his calling unless damage has ensued to man or property violating God's law as complained of by an opposing man or woman.
27. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you I have an unfettered right to any and all information regarding any Trusts, Bonds, Annuities and financial instruments, Trustees acting on my behalf. I have the right to seize all property connected to me directly or indirectly.
28. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the Registrar General of each province and territory possesses a seal of office, as outlined in the Vital Statistics Act (or similarly named legislation). For instance, Ontario's Vital Statistics Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. V.4, s. 7(2) states: "The seal of office may be reproduced in any manner and has the same effect when it is manually applied or otherwise reproduced." In accordance with this provision, I assert the irrevocable right to utilize the reproduced seal of the Registrar General as a signatory, thereby exercising full authority to lawfully discharge any personal debts by placing the seal on the document as my sole required approval to access government accounts, to my own benefit. Furthermore, it is acknowledged that the government shall, upon demand by myself or third-party creditors, settle all such accounts owing from its own funds within ten (10) days, ensuring that I am held harmless from any associated liabilities, free and clear without recourse. You agree to provide Minister Richard and other designated individuals with revolving credit and debit facilities, enabling access to government payment obligations and facilitating point-of-purchase transactions without delay or the necessity for additional documentation.
29. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I have the right to not use a last name or surname, including on my bank account, government identification, and on other identification and things. You respect my right to have not accept the Surname or last name and only use my Christian name(s). You have no right to force me to sin Matthew 23; 9-11. Any use of government identification is not acceptance of liability or surety of any legal fiction in law and is clearly a separate identity from the natural man; the two may not be cojoined in any way, shape or form.

31. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the case Roncarelli v. Duplessis (1959) underscores the principle that no party, including government officials or corporate entities, may exercise arbitrary authority to undermine the rights of others. This principle aligns with the fair treatment and protection sought under this agreement
33. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the Charter, Section 2(a) – Freedom of religion Provision; 2. Everyone has the following fundamental freedoms: freedom of conscience and religion. Similar provisions may be found in the following Canadian laws and international instruments legally binding on Canada: section 1(c) of the Canadian Bill of Rights, article 18 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, article 14 of the Convention on the Rights of the Child, article 3 of the American Declaration of the Rights and Duties of Man. The Canadian Human Rights Act prohibits discrimination on the ground of religion as does section 15 of the Charter. That is the highest law which favors religion Maxims of law. See also the following international, regional and comparative law instruments that are not legally binding on Canada but include similar provisions: article 18 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, article 12 of the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, article 12 of the American Convention on Human Rights, article 9 of the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, and the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America.

it appears on my birth certificate, for the purpose of obtaining funds or engaging in financial transactions without my informed consent, constitutes unauthorized use. Such actions are recognized as infringements upon my rights. Consequently, any funds or assets obtained through such unauthorized use are to be returned to me immediately, in full, as per my directions. It is also affirmed that the state holds no right to utilize my name in commerce without my explicit and informed consent. You and your agents agree to provide me with all assets, bonds, trusts, annuities, or other properties belonging to me within 30 days, to be transferred to me in full as per my directions. Additionally, I assert my right to hold all property in private, free from public claim or registration, in accordance with the principles of common law and the recognition of private property rights. This includes the right to acquire, use, and dispose of property without undue interference or regulation by public authorities, except as authorized by law. Matthew 7:7-8

35. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that Canada has not fulfilled its obligation to elderly men and man and the funding provided to them through Canada Pension and CCP or other programs is grossly inadequate, insufficient and below the poverty line. Canada has moral obligation to maintain a reasonable standard of living, as in its obligations in International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights. I am now demanding that this be rectified immediately, and you are committed and will make certain that my income will never be below the poverty level.

36. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I have the right to unfettered access and use of crown land as steward. This stewardship of land and homestead will be passed on to my family or Christian family as I see fit, all or in part without restriction, limitation or interference in any way shape or form. Genesis 1;26-28 Matthew 7:7-8

37. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors, (that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

These are the words in the Oath of Office Act, indicating prima fascia an unlawful, unsanctioned, deficient form by the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance thus effectively invalidating the oath by making the oath grammatically incoherent.

I, . . . . ., swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law.

These are the words from the federal Oath of allegiance Act for Canada

..... it is very clear as to how the oath is to be worded in Canada, it is

I, ....., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada, Her Heirs and Successors. So, help me God. The deviation from the prescribed form of the oath, such as the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance, results in a grammatically incoherent and legally deficient oath. This deficiency effectively invalidates the oath, rendering any authority exercised under its auspices unlawful. The administration or reliance upon such an invalid oath may constitute a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of Canada. Specifically: Canadian Criminal Code: Section 122, Section 131 and Section 132. Therefore, proceeding with or acting upon an oath that deviates from the legally mandated form may expose individuals to criminal liability under these provisions.

39. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any disagreement, dispute, ambiguity, or challenge regarding the meaning, scope, application, or intention of any term, clause, or provision of this agreement, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, shall have the sole, exclusive, and final authority to determine its correct meaning, interpretation, and intent, at my own discretion and for my benefit. This right shall be irrevocable, nonreviewable, and binding upon you and all third parties under the principles of private contract, ecclesiastical jurisdiction, and law of equity. No court, tribunal, or external body shall override this interpretive authority without my express written consent.
40. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that this agreement is irrevocable and includes and extends to, fellow ministers, my heirs, defined herein to include all individuals, regardless of biological or marital relation, who have received God's calling as ministers, and who have been granted equivalent rights as I have here in this Agreement.
41. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that God and the bible is the supreme law and there is no limitation periods set forth to limit such laws of God.

42. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that words in the masculine mean and include the feminine and vice versa.
44. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no other court may trespass or have jurisdiction over this agreement other than a court of "Inherent Jurisdiction" that recognises, International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, along with the Royal Style and Titles Act, and respecting the purpose of section 176 and 180 of the criminal code in the Province of Ontario, Canada.
45. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, retain and reserve the exclusive, unfettered right to demand settlement, restitution, or payment under this agreement to be rendered in physical gold and/or silver bullion coins, in such combinations as I shall elect. Specifically, said payment shall be made in the form of: 1 oz Gold Maple Leaf Coins, valued at a fixed rate of $1,400.00 CAD per ounce; 1 oz Silver Maple Leaf Coins, valued at a fixed rate of $25.00 CAD per ounce. I may elect to receive payment in Canadian dollars, gold, silver, or any lawful combination thereof, and this election shall be binding upon you and enforceable under private contract, ecclesiastical law, and equity. You agree that all physical coin payments shall be delivered: To the physical location(s) of my choosing, and ; At no cost, burden, or fee to me; Within thirty (30) calendar days of the notice of election or demand for payment. Any failure to deliver in full, or any attempt to substitute fiat currency or non-specified bullion against my will, shall constitute a material breach of this contract and an actionable ecclesiastical trespass, giving rise to further damages, liens, and lawful enforcement.

“Conspiracy” under Section 463 Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46), and “Fraud and Perjury” under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C46)

55. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing of ; “OSC in the matter of the Ontario Securities Act R.S.O. 1990, c. S.5. as amended and in the matter of TD Waterhouse Canada Inc. heard on September 19TH, 2005”, had provided information knowing it to be untruthful, specifically but not limited to, that Richard Ochnik being the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also falsely stated that she was not working on behalf of the company. Hatice was not truthful and attempted to cover up her own securities violations involving a material conflict of interests representing of both the buyer and seller the same security without disclosure to the parties. This was a direct conflict of interest and prejudicial to the parties. This violation is called Crossing of Securities. Hatice Pakdils actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c.). The hearing(s) outcome were based on fraudulent mislead information that altered the outcome of this case and the case in paragraph 45 and 47 above. In This case TDW false information was accepted as truth without the involvement and opportunity for Richard Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. to enter defence evidence to the contrary trespassing on their inherent rights. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful to protect her job and the expense of others and wrongfully was enriched.
56. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing: Christa Ochnik and Ontario Securities Commission, Province of Ontario, TD Waterhouse, Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD Bank) and Hatice Pakdil. Hatice, had submitted a defence that was knowingly, to be untruthfully specifically but not limited to, statement that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. The argument that Richard was the de facto officer was not raised in the above two cases and could not be contested by Richard Ochnik. The Intention of the false information was to deceive the court for the inequitable wrongful benefit of Hatice Pakdil’s employer and other defendants depriving the plaintiff of their rights under colour of law. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful in an attempt to protect her job and unlawfully gain from her crime. This resulted in fraudulently depriving Christa and her sisters a free born minors of their rightful inheritance as beneficiary of the Ochnik Family Trust. Hatice’s actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46)
57. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, the private man/woman, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, was subjected to unlawful, cruel, and degrading treatment amounting to torture, as detailed in associated affidavits and records. You agree to settle this claim for five million Canadian dollars ($5,000,000.00), payable in accordance with Clause 43, including the option for delivery in 1 oz gold or silver Maple Leaf coins at fixed valuation. Payment shall be made within thirty (30) calendar days, to the location of my choosing, at no cost to me. This settlement is final, binding, and not subject to future challenge or revision.

This payment shall be made no less than ten (10) calendar days prior to the scheduled hearing or submission and is due regardless of who initiates the proceeding. This amount represents pre-compensated time, spiritual harm, reputational risk, and administrative burden, and shall be required before any engagement in public process or appearance of any kind. Failure to tender this fee in advance shall be deemed a refusal of lawful jurisdiction, a breach of agreement, and shall authorize the undersigned to decline participation without prejudice or to initiate immediate private enforcement.
60. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Moore (Chairman) should have not been the Chairman on two hearings involving Richard Ochnik due to a conflict of interest. Its unconscionable to have expected the Chairman to rule in conflict with his earlier ruling. The Chairman did not have the lawful authority to change what was established as fact by himself in a earlier hearing without an appeal. Holding a hearing and agreeing on key facts without allowing Richard Ochnik to offer a defence was a trespass on his inherent rights, malicious slander, and libel. This technicality was deliberate to target Richard Ochnik because despite all evidence to the contrary in his own hearing it would not change the established facts from the previous case. In essence his case was lost before it started.

and OSC was fully aware that Richard Ochnik was never the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc., and it was actually always Ian Ochnik. The OSC had in its position Company documents clearly indicating Ian Ochnik was the incorporator, sole Director, and De jure President of the Company. TDW had contracted with Ian Ochnik. Richard Ochnik was not part of the securities negotiations, and his function was landlord and general contractor.

64. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC deliberately altered the truth to coincide with others knowing that it would be detrimental to Richard and the Ochnik Family. TDW fraudulently assisted the OSC to target Richard by naming him as the President and other deception to extend the authority of Ontario Securities Commission and placing unwarranted statutory obligations on Richard trespassing on his rights to which he would not normally or lawfully be expected to have as a man. Leviticus 6:2-5
65. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW told investors that Richard Ochnik was the President and Hatice Pakdil directed Company shareholders to contact him by releasing his private cell phone number without Richard's consent causing confusion. TDW and OSC had also misled investors telling them that Richard was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc.

The Trust was the property owner (landlord) and Richard over seen the renovations made possible by Investor Co. share purchases in 1464210 Ontario Inc.
72. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that when TDW investors transferred accounts to TDW they were in cash accounts form the other institutions and possessed no shares of the Company.
74. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TD Waterhouse, Paul Bayfield "Sales Assistant", confirmed the authorization to proceed with the transaction by TD Compliance Department and instructed, Ian Ochnik President to the amount of the shares purchased, clients name and the client account numbers, that were being acquired for the individual accounts.
77. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all investors had signed the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares " and the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" stating that TDW investors had no shares of the company and had no right to purchase shares from the company. The share sale and purchase took place on the crossing of the share certificate and TD Waterhouse payment on behalf of the investor and no sooner.

79. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that had a contractual agreement and obligation with 1464210 Ontario Inc. to provide services for a "Private Placement Agreement" to which TDW had confirmed by fax with Mr. Paul Panciw, Company CFO, (authorized by Ian Ochnik President to negotiate the arrangement with Hatice Pakdil).
81. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had received a commission of 7% for each share an investor purchased with the Company base value of $1/share. If there was no such purchase, TDW would not receive a commission. TDW commissions totaled approximately $107 000 based on 7% of sales.
82. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW were at the time a licensed broker with the Ontario Securities Commission and good standing.
84. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that 146420 Ontario Inc. had paid TDW the agreed commissions for each share's sale/purchase transaction by way of a cheque signed by Ian Ochnik President. Cheques were made out to "Pay to the order of: TD Waterhouse - investment advice." With "Hatice Pakdil" indicated in the notes.
85. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW never told the Company that TDW were not working for them. Given all the documents it would clearly indicate that they were confirmed to be working with TDW as their broker on record.
87. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC do not know of any investor on 1464210 Ontario Inc. that was over the age of 65 and had purchased shares from 1464210 Ontario Inc.

89. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Bayfield was TDW Sales Assistant, and he was actively assisting in processing of the trades and had direct knowledge of the transactions playing a key role in the approvals to facilitate the purchase and subsequent SWAP of the shares.
90. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC ambushed Richard Ochnik during his hearing and knew he had a lawyer but refused to remand the case to meet the lawyers schedule and there by prejudicing the defence. There would have been no damage to any party to have delayed the hearing.
92. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that you accept full responsibility for any and all additional costs, fees, charges, or expenses incurred as a result of delays, administrative actions, defense filings, or any other related processes necessitated by your actions or omissions. You acknowledge and agree that the applicable fee schedule detailing such costs is available for your review at TD-lied.com or can be provided to you upon your written request. You further agree that this fee schedule is subject to amendments and updates from time to time, at the sole discretion and for the exclusive benefit of the minister, without prior notice to you. Such amendments are binding and non-disputable. Your acceptance of this clause signifies your consent to these terms and your obligation to remit payment for any applicable fees as outlined in the current fee schedule.
95. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC knowledge the key players involved; Ian Ochnik President and Paul Bayfield TD

Waterhouse Sales Assistant were not questioned by the Ontario Securities Commission investigators regarding the facts for the 2 hearings above. They were not interviewed in fear their statements would confirm Richard Ochnik was not the President, de facto President or controlling mind. Also the Settlement Agreement Dated September 19 2005, between the OSC and TD Waterhouse was a conspiracy based on fraud to target the Ochnik's.

96. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc and Paul Bayfield were not subpoena or questioned by the Ontario Security Commission Hearings Involving 1464210 Ontario Inc and Richard Ochnik, contrary to the best evidence rules and practice. In this investigation the OSC exercised willful blindness and colour of law.
97. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after 1464210 Ontario Inc., refused to give a loan to Dan Miller. The Company offered to buy back the shares at a premium price. TD Waterhouse refused to allow the share buy back. TD Waterhouse and/or TD bank had arranged a loan for Dan Miller an investor in 1464210 Ontario Inc. after he had purchased share without knowledge or involvement of Richard Ochnik, Ian Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. This loan given by TDW was a violation of the Ontario Securities Act and was intended to cover up TDW securities violations.
99. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that providing a loan to a shareholder for the purchase of shares is a violation of the Ontario Securities Act. and a taxable benefit.

certificate was not in "Street Form" and indicating: "This is to Certify That T. D. Waterhouse, in trust for _____ is the Registered Holder of _____ Shares." TDW would provide the name of the client to be inserted along with the account number after compliance approvals instructing the shares to be issued. Hatice Pakdil was the controlling mind of the company transaction.

102. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW advised the Company to produce an "Investor Representation Letter" indicating the declaration by the investor; "I do not currently own, Direct or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc., or any other related Company" and " I do not have any Rights to acquire any TDW, shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. "This letter was a requirement to be signed by all TDW investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. before the purchased shares. It is agreed by you, [First Name] [Last Name], the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW agreed to be broker of record May 06, 2002.
105. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that failed to provide full disclosures to the defendants as required by law. TDW did not send a copy of the "Privet Placement Agreement" in fear of incriminating Hatice Pakdil. TDW were aware that this document would have a direct impact on the outcome of the case establishing that the company had a licenced broker and was detrimentally reliant on TD Waterhouse to save it harmless and to maintain the Company in good standing to all related regulations and Acts.
106. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the sales transaction consisted of a 7% commission calculated on the sale amount of shares and a $25 000 (in cash or shares) bonus for achieving each million dollars in sales threshold. The Company offered shares or cash as payment; as part of TDW selling shares and purchasing them for their clients RRSP accounts. Share sales generate a sales commission paid by the seller Company and SWAPS generate a fixed fee paid by the investor buyer – both were TDW clients.
107. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that According to the TDW "Rate Tables", the Company would be charged the flat fee of $20.00 for a SWAP but rather a commission for a sale or "Trade". TDW negotiated a commission representing the sale of shares.

108. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after TDW due diligence by their lawyer, Compliance Department, Branch Manager and RRSP Department, that TDW assistant Paul Bayfield, Sales Assistant, then notified the Company that they were prepared to go ahead with the purchase and SWAP of the shares.
109. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. was satisfied and by the "Letter of Authority" provided Paul Panciw with the authority to bind the Company in a "Contractual Relationship" with TDW. (There was an agreement and mutual understanding). A contract was signed by the Company solidifying the relationship. TDW became brokers of record.
113. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Form" were not a binding contract: paragraph 4. "Acceptance of Subscription: This subscription will be and be deemed for all purposes to have been accepted by the Corporation when the Corporation gives notice in writing to the purchaser of the allotment and issuance of the Shares subscribed for, but the corporation shall be under no obligation to accept this subscription". The share sale only occurred once TD Waterhouse paid for the shares from the cash in the, the private man with no dispute to the investor's accounts and not before. Before that could happen, TD had to notify the company regarding the buyer, account number and number of shares.
114. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Forms" also contained the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" that indicated "I do not currently own, directly or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc..." and was signed by the purchaser acknowledging the statement to be true. This clearly indicated TDW could not preform a SWAP with out first purchasing the shares. TDW then proceed to purchase the shares, by instructing Ian Ochnik, President to produce the share certificates as directed by TD compliance department (providing investor name, amount of purchase and account number).

116. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "New Clients" were established. Hatice Pakdil was their "Investment Advisor" and responsible for the client's account. The Company completed all the requirements of a "Pre-Approved Privat Placement". Hatice Pakdil testified under oath that she considered herself as an order taker and not adviser to the new clients facilitating the buy and sale of the Company shares.
118. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all of TDW's "New Client(s)" instructs there "Investment Advisor" Hatice Pakdil to "acquire" shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. for there RRSP account. Indicating they had no possession of shares to do a SWAP unless Hatice Pakdil processed the purchase/sale of shares.
119. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had direct knowledge that the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." were not signed because clients kept changing the number of shares that they were purchasing. The change would have triggered a requirement to amend the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." Also, there was no practical way to confirm the amount of shares that the client could afford to purchase until the account was moved to TDW and in a cash position. TDW needed to know the cash availability to calculate the number of shares to be purchased at $1.00 per share. Also, the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" told TDW that they had no ownership of shares or rights to purchase shares indicating the buy and sell had not taken place yet until TD gave the company the cheque payment for the shares as stipulated on paragraph 5 of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." , the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW, Hatice Pakdil did speak to potential investors before the signing and execution of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares" with the help of TDW sales assistant. This fact clearly confirms that Hatice Pakdil had purchased shares form TDW Customer the Company to facilitate a SWAP for TDW investment clients.

124. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was negligent and processed the transaction as a "SWAP" into the client's account. As a result, the head office review of trades was per TDW Policy 2 and that requirement did not take place as required by regulation. If it was done properly the issue would have been discovered in the first trade and saved the Company. The Company had no knowledge of TDW errors. TDW had an obligation to correct the issue and save the company.

125. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shares were distributed to the "New Client's" RRSP accounts by TDW as a trade and then followed by a SWAP.
128. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that if TDW told the truth and admitted that TDW had errored the company and the Ochnik Family specifically the Trust would have not suffered such an unconscionable punishment and the three children freeborn beneficiaries would and should have been saved harmless.
131. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, the private man/woman, that failure to honour this agreement, in whole or in part, constitutes a continuing tort, ecclesiastical offense, and bad faith breach, and that such non-performance will result in the accrual of additional damages, to be determined at the sole discretion of Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family or any of his successors in ecclesiastical office.

132. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, with no lawful objection registered, that these damages result from a coordinated breach of fiduciary duty, misrepresentation, fraud, and criminal obstruction. You agree that full restitution and remedy are due immediately, without the necessity of further adjudication, and that enforcement may proceed through any lawful means, including equity process, private lien, sheriff application, or ecclesiastical summons.
136. It is agreed by you, the private man Dane Lloyd, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that both parties herein acknowledge and affirm reliance on the judicial interpolations and jurisprudential authority of the following cases, as they are instructive and binding in equity, conscience, and constitutional review: Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038 – affirming that the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms overrides statutory discretion where fundamental freedoms are at stake; Roncarelli v. Duplessis, [1959] SCR 121 establishing that personal liability arises where public officials act beyond lawful power or in bad faith; Callow v. Zollinger, 2020 SCC 45 – confirming the duty of good faith and honest performance in the execution of all private agreements, whether formal or informal; Syndicat Northcrest v. Amselem, [2004] 2 SCR 551 – upholding that sovereign religious and spiritual beliefs must not be abridged or interfered with by state or commercial entities, and may not be redefined by third parties.
137. It is agreed by you, the private man Dane Lloyd, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you,, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of breach, dishonour, non-performance, refusal to cure, or silence beyond the agreed Clear-Period, you do hereby: (a) Confess judgment in advance, without protest, to the full amount of damages declared in this agreement and/or any affidavit, declaration, or notice associated thereto; (b) Waive any and all procedural objections to enforcement or collection; (c) Consent to immediate enforcement by private lien, ecclesiastical summons, equity writ, or sheriff application, in any court of record or jurisdiction selected solely by Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, without the need for further hearing or approval; (d) Acknowledge that this confession is made in good faith, with full notice, and without coercion, and is enforceable under the maxims of law, the principles of equity, and the conscience of both natural and divine law. Such judgment shall be deemed entered ab initio upon breach or failure to respond within the agreed cure period, and the undersigned party may act as witness, creditor, and claimant without estoppel or restriction.

138. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that It is agreed and declared that any entity or institution, including but not limited to TD Bank Group or any of its subsidiaries, who has received any benefit, gain, asset, equity, or enrichment arising from the breach, fraud, misrepresentation, or fiduciary failure described herein, shall be deemed liable under the doctrine of Unjust Enrichment and Constructive Trust. Such liability is enforceable regardless of formal privity with this agreement, and may be pursued through private lien, lawful trust claim, ecclesiastical forum, or court of equity. TD Bank is hereby placed on notice of their direct and vicarious liability for unjust enrichment and is invited to cure such injury by full restitution. Failure to do so shall trigger enforcement without further notice.

141. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC did not use best evidence rules and relied on hearsay, when always Ian Ochnik the President was available to establish true facts. Ian Ochnik was the best person who would have had known firsthand if Richard was the controlling mind and advised him to violate the Ontario Securities Act or any law. Ian Ochnik was not questioned deliberately to disadvantage Richard Ochnik in a planned ambush.
143. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, acting in my capacity as minister and lawful living man, have suffered actual, documentable, and irreparable harm arising directly from your actions, omissions, or complicity, including but not limited to: Spiritual desecration and the unlawful obstruction of ecclesiastical office; Financial loss and misappropriation of sacred trust property; Psychological duress, unlawful detention, medical neglect, and cruel and unusual treatment; Violation of ecclesiastical jurisdiction and breach of covenant, contract, and international trust law.
144. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that that the Tribunal was specifically targeting Richard Ochnik and TDW had participated in this and other hearings to establish false evidence as truth to be used at this hearing with the intention to cause harm to him for TDW direct benefit and others.

principles of equity, conscience, and spiritual law. You agree that this treaty shall not be superseded, annulled, or diminished by statute, fiat, judicial assumption, or administrative action. Breach shall result in immediate invocation of all available lawful and ecclesiastical remedies.

148. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, is agreed that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, act at all times in my proper capacity as a living man, spiritual minister, and lawful executor of the Ochnik Family Trust, with full rights of conscience, covenant, and ecclesiastical standing. I do not operate under any contract of adhesion, corporate fiction, statutory persona, or commercial designation without express written and witnessed agreement.
150. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; In the event that either the Bank of Canada or the Royal Canadian Mint ceases to mint the said coins or withdraws them from circulation, it is agreed that a comparable sovereign-minted, bullion standard coin of equal weight and purity shall substitute for settlement purposes, maintaining the above-stated fixed valuations as approved by minister Richard as per his sole discretion and to his own benefit.

every four years due to compounding factors, the current value of damages sustained by the 'Ochnik Family Trust' is estimated at over $280 (two hundred and eighty) million Canadian dollars. This figure accounts for the compounded harm caused by your actions, including but not limited to fraudulent misrepresentation, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, and obstruction of justice. Full restitution of this adjusted amount is required to prevent further harm and ensure compliance with the principles of fairness, truth, equity and good faith.

154. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that you are responsible to make the "Ochnik Family Trust" whole by financially compensating them for all their losses and damages in 30 days on demand. Payment will be, as directed by minister Richard Henry family of Ochnik.
155. It is agreed by you, the private man Dane Lloyd, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any breach of this agreement, including misrepresentation, fiduciary breach, fraud, or delay in remedy, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, acting as minister and also steward or trustee, shall be entitled to initiate enforcement in any competent forum of my choosing. All damages, whether direct, indirect, or consequential, including psychological, spiritual, and economic harm, shall be calculated in good faith and are enforceable under equity and law. The obligation to remedy these harms shall include but not be limited to: Direct financial losses, Reputational and spiritual harm, Involuntary service and elder abuse And Constitutional violations of conscience and trust; Leviticus 6:2-5 and Isaiah 61:7
156. It is agreed by you, the private man Dane Lloyd, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, shall retain the sole, unfettered right to elect the forum and venue in which enforcement, adjudication, or interpretation of this agreement may be pursued. This includes courts of record with inherent jurisdiction, whether within Canada or the United States, including ecclesiastical or international human rights tribunals. Such selection shall be made at his sole discretion and shall be binding upon all parties as agreed in advance. This clause serves to ensure full access to fair and impartial adjudication under the maxims of law, international covenant, and God's justice.
157. You acknowledge that any failure to publicly correct or retract previous defamatory or fraudulent claims, including those issued by TD Bank Group, TD Waterhouse, OSC, or their agents, shall constitute an ongoing and compounding harm under both spiritual law and equity. The duty to correct includes issuing an open retraction to restore my name, ministry, trust estate, and familial dignity.
158. These authorities are incorporated into this agreement as interpretive anchors, and the parties agree to rely upon their reasoning and precedent in any tribunal, forum, or court of record, ecclesiastical or civil, as may be engaged for the resolution or enforcement of this contract.

159. It is agreed by you, the private man Dane Lloyd, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that failure to respond to or rebut this agreement within 30 days constitutes tacit admission and contractual default. In such case, I shall have full standing to enter judgment and proceed to enforcement, including garnishment, lien, or seizure under the applicable statutes or ecclesiastical process, without further notice or leave of any court.
160. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.
162. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man , with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private man or woman with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.
165. It is agreed by Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.

166. It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman who has sworn an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant to the "Defender of the faith", then obstructs, intimidates or acts as a nuisance to the ability of an officiating minister of God, has acted against the Queens ability to defend the faith and is attempting to overthrow her majesty's government, being the King James Bible, by force....and that Section 46 of the criminal code applies to all sworn allegiant officers of her majesty.

It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors,( that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

It is very important that I show you why I can not allow any one to assume that they have any power or force over me. To be definitive, TDW need to see the lawful definition of person and the scriptures that guide me and command me to not show respect to persons, as they are fictions of law. A player on a stage wearing a mask.

PERSON. This word is applied to men, women and children, who are called natural persons. In law, man and person are not exactly synonymous terms. Any human being is a man, whether he be a member of society or not, whatever may be the rank he holds, or whatever may be his age, sex, etc. A person is a man considered according to the rank he holds in society, with all the rights to which the place he holds entitles him, and the duties which it imposes. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 137.. It is also used to denote a corporation which is an artificial person. 1 Bl.

Com. 123; 4 Bing. 669; C. 33 Eng. C. L R. 488; Wooddes. Lect. 116; Bac. Us. 57; 1 Mod. 164.

But when the word "Persons" is spoken of in legislative acts, natural persons will be intended, unless something appears in the context to show that it applies to artificial persons. 1 Scam. R.178.

Natural persons are divided into males, or men, and females or women. Men are capable of all kinds of engagements and functions, unless by reasons applying to particular individuals. Women cannot be appointed to any public office, nor perform any civil functions, except those which the law specially declares them capable of exercising. Civ. Code of Louis. art. 25.

They are also sometimes divided into free persons and slaves. Freemen are those who have preserved their natural liberty, that is to say, who have the right of doing what is not forbidden by the law. A slave is one who is in the power of a master to whom he belongs. Slaves are sometimes ranked not with persons but things. But sometimes they are considered as persons for example, a negro is in contemplation of law a person, so as to be capable of committing a riot in conjunction with white men. 1 Bay, 358. Vide Man.

Persons are also divided into citizens, (q. v.) and aliens, (q. v.) when viewed with regard to their political rights. When they are considered in relation to their civil rights, they are living or civilly dead; vide Civil Death; outlaws; and infamous persons.

Persons are divided into legitimates and bastards, when examined as to their rights by birth.

TO PERSONATE, crim. law. The act of assuming the character of another without lawful authority, and, in such character, doing something to his prejudice, or to the prejudice of another, without his will or consent.

The bare fact of personating another for the purpose of fraud, is no more than a cheat or misdemeanour at common law, and punishable as such. 2 East, P. C. 1010; 2 Russ. on Cr. 479.

By the act of congress of the 30th April, 1790, s. 15, 1 Story's Laws U. S. 86, it is enacted, that " if any person shall acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged in any court of Canada, any recognizance, bail or judgement, in the name or names of any other person or persons not privy or consenting to the same, every such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeds five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding seven years, and whipped not exceeding thirty-nine stripes, Provided nevertheless. that this act shall not extend to the acknowledgment of any judgement or judgements by any attorney or attorneys, duly admitted, for any person or persons against whom any such judgement or judgements shall be had or given." Vide, generally, 2 John. Cas. 293; 16 Vin. Ab. 336; Com. Dig. Action on the case for a deceit, A 3.

James 2:9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one [point], he is guilty of all.

Here is a list of more in-depth definitions so no one gets lost.

I am not a Person, or an Individual, or even a human, Manuel, but before you think I am crazy, examine the facts.

I am not a person, or an individual, or a Human, and although some humans look similar to me, I am not a human.

Some would say that I am a 'natural' person, but as I will show you, I am not one of those either. Who then or what then, am I?

To understand who I am, you must first understand the definitions which have been placed on the words I have quoted above, words that are commonly used, but do not describe me anymore. For example, the word 'person'.

Person – The Revised Code of Washington, RCW 1.16.080, (I live in Washington State) defines a person as follows: "The term 'person' may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual."

Person – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 791, defines 'person' as follows: "In general usage, a human being (i.e. natural person), though by statute term may include labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers." Person – Oran's Dictionary of the Law, West Group 1999, defines

Person as: 1. A human being (a "natural" person). 2. A corporation (an "artificial" person). Corporations are treated as persons in many legal situations. Also, the word "person" includes corporations in most definitions in this dictionary. 3. Any other "being" entitled to sue as a legal entity (a government, an association, a group of Trustees, etc.). 4.. The plural of person is persons, not people (see that word).

Person – Duhaime's Law Dictionary. An entity with legal rights and existence including the ability to sue and be sued, to sign contracts, to receive gifts, to appear in court either by themselves or by lawyer and, generally, other powers incidental to the full expression of the entity in law. Individuals are "persons" in law unless they are minors or under some kind of other incapacity such as a court finding of mental incapacity. Many laws give certain powers to "persons", which in almost all instances, includes business organizations that have been formally registered such as partnerships, corporations or associations.

legal person – Merriam-Webster's Dictionary of Law 1996, defines a legal person as : a body of persons or an entity (as a corporation) considered as having many of the rights and responsibilities of a natural person and esp. the capacity to sue and be sued.

A person according to these definitions, is basically an entity – legal fiction – of some kind that has been legally created and has the legal capacity to be sued. Isn't it odd that the word lawful is not used within these definitions? Well then.... I am not "the United States, this state, or any territory, or any public or private corporation". I am not "labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” So, I cannot be a ‘person’ under this part of the definition.

The RCW quoted above also states that a person could also be an “individual”. Black’s Law Dictionary also defines a person as a “human being,” which they define by stating “(i.e. natural person)”. So, let’s first check to see if I am an “individual”.

Individual – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 533, defines

“individual” as follows: “As a noun, this term denotes a single person as distinguished from a group or class, and also, very commonly, a private or natural person as distinguished from a partnership, corporation, or association; but it is said that this restrictive signification is not necessarily inherent in the word, and that it may, in proper cases, include artificial persons.”

Well now, I have already been shown that I am not a ‘person’, and since

‘individual’ denotes a single ‘person’ as distinguished from a group or class, I can’t be an ‘individual’ under this definition either. But I see the term ‘natural person’ used in the definition of the RCW, and also in the definition of some of the Law Dictionaries. Maybe I am a ‘natural’ person, since I know I am not an ‘artificial’ one.

I could not find the term ‘Natural person’ defined anywhere, so I had to look up the word ‘natural’ for a definition to see if that word would fit with the word person...

Natural – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg.712, defines ‘Natural’ as follows: “Untouched by man or by influences of civilization; wild; untutored, and is the opposite of the word “artificial”. The juristic meaning of this term does not differ from the vernacular, except in the cases where it is used in opposition to the term “legal”; and then it means proceeding from or determined by physical causes or conditions, as distinguished from positive enactments of law, or attributable to the nature of man rather than the commands of law, or based upon moral rather than legal considerations or sanctions.”

Hmmm, what do they mean by this definition? Am I untouched by man (depends on what the word ‘man’ means), or by influences of civilization? I don’t think so. Am I ‘wild’, or ‘untutored’? (Buzzer sound), not me. Even though the definition states that this word is the opposite of the word ‘artificial’, it still does not describe who I believe I am. So, I must conclude that I am not a ‘natural’ person, under this definition of the word ‘natural’. So, the term ‘natural person’ cannot apply to me.

Black’s Law Dictionary also used the term ‘human being’, and although Black’s defined it as a ‘natural person’, maybe they made a mistake, maybe I am a ‘human being’. ‘Human’ or ‘human being’ does not appear to have a ‘legal’ definition, so I went to my old standby 1888 Noah Webster’s Dictionary for a vernacular definition of this word. Maybe Noah would know who I am

Human – Webster’s 1888 Dictionary defines ‘human’ as follows: n. A human being; one of the race of man. [Rare and inelegant.] “Sprung of humans that inhabit earth.” ...To me, the etymology of the word Hu-man, suggests that it is a marriage of two separate words ‘Hue’ (defined as the property of color), and man. But this cannot, of course, be correct, at least not politically correct, so I can’t go there, because the word would then mean ‘coloured man’!

Am I of the race of man? Rare and inelegant? Sprung of humans that inhabit earth (ground)? (I’m not coloured either). Well, it looks like I have to define the word ‘man’ through Webster’s because there appears to be no legal definition for ‘man’.

Man – Webster’s 1888 Dictionary defines ‘man’ as follows: An individual of the human race; a human being; a person.

Great news!!, it looks like we are back to the beginning of our study of definitions, yup, back to the start, completed the circle. I am not an ‘individual’, so I cannot be considered ‘of the human race’; and since I’m not of the human race, I can’t be ‘a human being’, and I’ve also been shown that I’m not a ‘person’ either.

Now let us see what the word Human really means.....I am going into detail so TDW can see we have been deceived by the misuse of our own language.

Definition of Human Being

Are you a ‘person’, an ‘individual’, or a ‘human being’? These words, at law, define you as being spiritually ‘dead.’ This is how the world makes its attachment to you. The terms, ‘person’, ‘individual’, ‘human being’, etc., are not in Christ. Words like “individual,” and “human being” do not even appear in Scripture! These are ‘created’ terms by the natural man (1 Cor 2:14). These words describe the ‘old man’, but not the ‘new man’ in Christ (Col 3:9-10). In Balantine’s Self Pronouncing Law Dictionary, 1948, page 389, Human

Being is defined as “See Monster.” On page 540 of this same Law Dictionary, Monster is defined as “a human being by birth, but in some part resembling a lower animal.”

In Webster’s New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, pages 879- 880, a Monster is defined as “a person so cruel, wicked, depraved, etc., as to horrify others.” From the Random House Dictionary of the English Language, 2nd Edition, page 901, Human Being is defined as a “Natural man: unenlightened or unregenerate,” and on page 1461, Unregenerate means “not regenerate; unrepentant; an unregenerate sinner; not convinced by or unconverted to a particular religion; wicked, sinful, dissolute.”

In Webster’s New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, page 657, Humanitarianism is defined as “the doctrine that humankind may become perfect without divine aid.”

In Colliers New Dictionary of the English Language, 1928, Humanitarian is defined as “a philanthropist; an anti-Trinitarian who rejects the doctrine of Christ’s divinity; a perfectionist.”

And in the Random House Webster’s College Dictionary, 1990, page 653, Humanism is defined as “any system or mode of thought or action in which human interests, values and dignity predominate, especially an ethical theory that often rejects the importance of a belief in God.”

Therefore, when anyone calls himself or herself a ‘human being’, or a ‘humanitarian,’ they are saying (according to every definition of these words, and according to the law), “I’m an animal; I’m a monster; I’m not saved; I’m unrepentant; I’m an unregenerate sinner; I’m not converted; I’m wicked, sinful, and dissolute; I’m cruel, depraved, unenlightened; and I reject Christ’s divinity and the importance of a belief in God.”

a. “Men [Bondman] rely for protection of their right on God’s law, and not upon regulations and proclamations of departments of government, or officers who have been designated to carry laws into effect.” Baty v. Sale, 43 Ill. 351.” [Codes, edicts, proclamations, and decisions are not Law, which define or regulate the Good and Lawful Bondman. Therefore, “law” suits are ungodly, and are the redress for and of human beings, i.e., non-believers.]

The Septuagint uses the term “human beings” only one time, and its meaning is identical to the above definitions. Let’s look at the last verse of the book of Jonah, where Nineve was full of men who were unrepentant, unregenerate, unconverted, wicked, sinful, dissolute, cruel, depraved, unenlightened, rejected the importance of a belief in God. Or, in other words, “human beings.”

b. The term “human being” is also synonymous with the term ‘natural man.’

c. “The natural man is a spiritual monster. His heart is where his feet should be, fixed upon the earth; his heels are lifted up against heaven, which his heart should be set on. His face is towards hell, his back towards heaven. He loves what he should hate and hates what he should love; joys in what he ought to mourn for and mourns for what he ought to rejoice in; glories in his shame, and is ashamed of his glory; abhors what he should desire, and desires what he should abhor.” [Thomas Boston, quoted in Augustus Toplady, Complete Works (1794, reprinted by Sprinkle Publications 1987), page 584].

And the Word confirms: “But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.” [1 Corinthians 2:14,]

The above verse witnesses to us that the natural man is spiritually dead. The ‘natural man’ in Scripture is synonymous with the ‘natural person’ as defined in man’s laws.

“Natural Person means human being, and not an artificial or juristic person.” Shawmut Bank, N.A. v. Valley Farms, 610 A. 2d. 652, 654; 222 Conn. 361.

Natural Person: Any human being who as such is a legal entity as distinguished from an artificial person, like a corporation, which derives its status as a legal entity from being recognized so in law. Natural Child: The ordinary euphemism for ‘bastard’ or illegitimate.” [Amon v. Moreschi, 296 N.Y. 395, 73 N.E.2d 716.” Max Radin, Radin’s Law Dictionary (1955), p. 216.]

Those that are spiritually dead belong to the prince of this world because he’s dead himself. Satan has dominion over the natural man, for he is the prince of this world [John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11]; and, because of this, he has dominion over those of the world, i.e., human beings, the natural man – those who receive not the things of the Spirit of God and reject Christ. Because the bondman in Christ is sanctified from the world, he is separated from the adversary’s dominion over him—sin [John 8:34].. This is the cause for Christ having sanctified Himself in the Truth of the Word of God – to provide the entrance to the refuge in and through Himself for us. I could provide you more, Manuel, and I do sincerely thank you for your focused attention to this, my honest effort at officially performing the function of my calling in establishing this agreement with you as per Matthew 5:25 and 18:15-20, but I think you are already overwhelmed as I have, upon presentation of facts, destroyed your belief system and now you are aware you are working for a massive criminal organization founded upon a false oath. Can you now see why I must not allow my name to be altered? Remember, every one of the officers of Alberta has a false oath...What kind of authority swears an oath that is bogus??? A false authority!

The incorporation of this letter ensures that all obligations, acknowledgments, and remedies detailed therein are enforceable under the terms of this Agreement, and any breach of these provisions shall constitute a breach of this Agreement.

It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; Failure to cure any breach within 30 calendar days of written notice shall constitute consent to immediate escalation to a court or forum of my choosing, including courts of equity, conscience, or international jurisdiction, at my sole discretion and benefit.

171. It is agreed by Dane Lloyd, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you forthcoming from you, that it is agreed by you with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that you are aware that I do not accept the liability of the compelled benefit of any unrevealed de facto contract or unlawful commercial agreement, which is my ministerial duty pursuant to God's law to divide myself from.

Conversion Torts; The unlawful turning or applying the personal goods of another to the use of the taker, or of some other person than the owner; or the unlawful destroying or altering their nature.

When a party takes away or wrongfully assumes the right to goods which belong to another, it will in general be sufficient evidence of a conversion but when the original taking was lawful, as when the party found the goods, and the detention only is illegal, it is absolutely necessary to make a demand of the goods, and there must be a refusal to deliver them before the conversion will be complete. The refusal by a servant to deliver the goods entrusted to him by his master is not evidence of a conversion by his master. Leviticus 6:2-5 The tortious taking of property is, of itself, a conversion and any intermeddling with it, or any exercise of dominion over it, subversive of the dominion of the owner or the nature of the bailment if it be bailed, is evidence of a conversion.

In Equity, the considering of one thing as changed into another; for example, land will be considered as converted into money and treated as such by a court of equity, when the owner has contracted to sell his estate, in which case, if he die before the conveyance, his executors and not his heirs will be entitled to the money. On the other hand, money is converted into land in a variety of ways as for example, when a man agrees to buy land and dies before he has received the conveyance, the money he was to pay for it will be considered as converted into lands and descend to the heir.

It is agreed upon by you, Dane Lloyd, having no dispute to the following fact forthcoming from you; that you the private man are aware and agree that I am a flesh bone blood living man, being God's minister, and that I cannot possibly have been in a dead legal corporate fiction called the Province of Ontario, Canada or other as the Province of Ontario, Canada and other is not a place but a dead corporate fiction of law on paper created for the purpose of extracting money from me in fraud as it is totally against my will, conscience and a violation of my faith to submit to and is being done without my informed consent or cognisant permission for a financial gain.

It is agreed by you, Dane Lloyd with full understanding, that failure to refute or disprove the facts provided above, as agreed upon by you, I am advised by

Christ at Matthew 18:15-20 to gain a simple agreement with you privately and very simply as a child so I would like your aid in agreeing with me that respecting persons written as persona in the Latin vulgate is sin and disrespected by God. Due to the emergent nature of this agreement you are required to respond to this agreement within 10 (ten) days of receipt representing fairness, truth, natural equity. Failure to respond will be deemed acceptance of the terms, including acknowledgment of all outlined facts and obligations. We can see that in Deuteronomy 1:17. 10:17, 2nd Samuel 14:14, Matthew 22:16. Acts 10:34, Romans 2:11, James 2:1-9 and 1st Peter 1:17. If you have no dispute with that scriptural fact I will confirm with witnesses then post our good faith agreement in a paper.

Thankyou for you aid in saving my faith harmless from assumption.

Duplessis | CanLII, Ron Liepert, by my sending you this private good faith agreement, I do attempt, by Christ's guidance, to ascertain all the facts in scriptural honour. If you have any reason or proof to suggest or provide to me, God's minister officially performing the functions of my calling, that the following statements of the facts are not true, you are being offered the opportunity to refute these offered facts so as to clear yourself of any assumptive contractual awareness of the truth of such facts. Also be aware, this communication of agreement cannot be lawfully inquired of at public or government expense as it is a provable private matter and government funding cannot support private contracts. All legal bills must and shall be paid for out of your private pocket no different than Maurice Duplessis the former Premier and Attorney General of Quebec in Roncarelly v Duplessis

This is Demand for recognition as Christ's ordained minister in quest of defense of the faith to save harmless my soul.

Both parties agree to act in good faith, ensuring no misleading actions or omissions that could undermine the intent or enforceability of this agreement. Each party is obligated to respect the natural rights and freedoms outlined herein.

Amselem 2004 SCR.

I do honour the directive obligation to respect the equal God given freedoms of other men and women under His law. To all those who set eyes on this ecclesiastical declaration, I do hereby, officially performing the functions of my calling, serve notice to all private men and women as of my inability to respect persons that receive this that any offer herein, prior to, or on my part does not imply acceptance of intimidation, violence, or threats of violence against me, and that no such offer implies that I will submit to any nuisance obstruction or intimidation in the future.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms "man" and "woman" (also Queen and King) are used interchangeably and are intended to be inclusive of all individuals, regardless of gender identity. Any reference to a specific gender shall be construed to include all genders, and no provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to exclude any person based on gender.

1. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I, minister of Richard Henry of the Ochnik family was on or about the 30th of November, 2004 A.D., unlawfully intimidated and obstructed, by you, in your private capacity, by methods not sanctioned and as such, being a perceived and negative nuisance to my ability to perform an official function of my ministerial calling, are in violation of Sections 126,176, 423, 465 and 180 of the Criminal Code of Canada by violating your Oath of Allegiance and the Royal Style and Titles Act.
2. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I am not a member of a dead legal fiction entity corporation known as Canada or Ontario and that specifically my name, being my ecclesiastical possession under the exclusive authority of God, is not allowed by my faith in God's commands as defended by the Queen you swore an oath to be truly allegiant to, to be used, recorded, registered, altered used for or exchanged for a financial purpose without my permission that it has never been offered or pledged to be for any of those reasons or to be used as a surety or as a commodity with my informed consent.
4. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that. It is agreed by you, that in 1966 ICCPR and ICESCR Signed: 19 December 1966 The principles of the UDHR offered hope and inspiration around the world. But to make a genuine difference in people's lives, those principles needed to be transformed into laws. In 1966, the UN Commission on Human Rights drafted two instruments to give legal force to the UDHR. One instrument was called the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The second was the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Together with the Universal Declaration, they comprise the International Bill of Human Rights. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights offers protections for the right to life, freedom of speech, religion, and voting. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights focuses on such issues as food, education, health, and shelter. More than 160 nations have ratified these two covenants which legally commit them to ensure these rights for people within their borders.

5. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact that in the Supreme Court Judgments [1980] 1 SCR 54 1979-12-21 Re: Authority of Parliament in relation to the Upper House Further, although s. 91(1) gave the Queen the power, with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, to alter the "Constitution of Canada" except in certain expressly designated areas, it does not confer a power to amend the B.N.A. Act. The word "Canada" in s. 91(1) does not refer to Canada as a geographical unit but refers to the "JURISTIC FEDERAL UNIT"
6. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1981 Zingre v. The Queen et al., [1981] 2 SCR 392 (Supreme Court of Canada). It is a recognized principle of international customary law that a state may not invoke the provisions of its internal law as justification for its failure to perform its international obligations.
7. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that; This contract is governed exclusively by the Law of God as found in the 1611 King James Bible, and the sanctuary jurisdiction under which it was formed. All disputes shall default to this sacred law unless waived in writing by the minister Richard Henry family of Ochnik.
8. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1982 the Charter of Human Rights and Freedoms Canada was implemented as the supreme law.
9. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1989 Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038, 1989 The reference in s. 32 to the "Parliament" and a "legislature" make clear that the Charter operates as a limitation on the powers of those legislative bodies. Any statute enacted by either Parliament or a Legislature which is inconsistent with the Charter will be outside the power of (ultra vires) the enacting body and will be invalid. It follows that any body exercising statutory authority, for example, the Governor in Council or Lieutenant Governor in Council, ministers, officials, municipalities, school boards, universities, administrative tribunals and police officers, is also bound by the Charter. Action taken under statutory authority is valid only if it is within the scope of that authority. Since neither Parliament nor a Legislature can itself pass a law in breach of the Charter, neither body can authorize action which would be in breach of the Charter. Thus, the limitations on statutory authority which are imposed by the Charter will flow down the chain of statutory authority and

apply to regulations, by-laws, orders, decisions and all other action (whether legislative, administrative or judicial) which depends for its validity on statutory authority

11. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1997 The Supreme Court has made it clear in cases M. (A.) v. Ryan that Common Law in Canada Now Flows through the Constitution Act of 1982. M. (A.) v. Ryan, 1997 (SCC), [1997] 1 S.C.R. 157, that the common law must develop in accordance with Charter values. A Trespass in common law equals an infringement or denial of a fundamental right or freedom. (Listed in the constitution act or the covenants themselves)
13. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2005 Court Judgement Supreme Court- Christie v. British Columbia, 2005 BCCA 631(CanLII)The rule of law embraces at least three principles. The first principle is that the "law is supreme over officials of the government as well as private individuals, and thereby preclusive of the influence of arbitrary power"
14. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2007 R. v. Hape, [2007] 2 S.C.R. 292, 2007 SCC 26 Para 53... It is a well-established principle of statutory interpretation that legislation will be presumed to conform to international law. The presumption of conformity is based on the rule of judicial policy that, as a matter of law, courts will strive to avoid constructions of domestic law pursuant to which the state would be in violation of its international obligations.

15. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2015 R. v. Wagner, 2015 ONCJ 66 The Rule of Law The idea that there are certain fundamental unwritten principles that govern all members of society including legislators and which judges are expected to enforce is not particularly new. The contemporary concept of unwritten constitutional principles can be seen as a modern reincarnation of the ancient doctrines of natural law
16. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Victoria (City) v. Adams, 2009 BCCA 563; 2008 BCSC 1363; The trial court found the prohibition of temporary overhead shelter in parks to be unconstitutional where there was a lack of alternative shelter space. The court held the issue to be clearly justiciable because it dealt with the constitutionality of a legal prohibition. The court relied on the right to adequate housing under international human rights law as an interpretive aid. The Court referred to submissions made by Canada to the United Nations Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights regarding the scope of domestic protections for the right to housing and on General Comment No. 4 on the right to adequate housing under the International Covenant of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR). The Court noted that the question of whether the right to life, liberty and security of the person imposes positive obligations on governments to ensure the right to housing has not yet been determined by the Supreme Court of Canada and did not need to be decided in this case, which only challenged state interference.
17. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Thompson v. Ministry of Revenue [1946] SCR 209, 1946 CanLII 1 (SCC) [Page 220] Residents are taxed, not Canadians; but residents within the meaning of the Act...
18. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Canada, the Provinces, and Territories, may produce; acts, enactments, statutes, rules, ordinance, laws, regulations and so forth but they do not apply to men and women and are limited in its scop of authority. Deuteronomie 12;32

As a man of God, I may elect to be the "trustee", "steward" and/or the "beneficiary" of the "entitlement certificate" and thereby settle all matters and redeem the trust. Genesis 1;26-28 Matthew 7:7-8
- 37. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors, (that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

These are the words in the Oath of Office Act, indicating prima fascia an unlawful, unsanctioned, deficient form by the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance thus effectively invalidating the oath by making the oath grammatically incoherent.

I, . . . . ., swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law.

These are the words from the federal Oath of allegiance Act for Canada

..... it is very clear as to how the oath is to be worded in Canada, it is

(1) Every person who, either of his own accord or in compliance with any lawful requirement made of the person, or in obedience to the directions of any Act or law in force in Canada, except the Constitution Act, 1867 and the Citizenship Act, desires to take an oath of allegiance shall have administered and take the oath in the following form, and no other:

I, ....., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada, Her Heirs and Successors. So, help me God. The deviation from the prescribed form of the oath, such as the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance, results in a grammatically incoherent and legally deficient oath. This deficiency effectively invalidates the oath, rendering any authority exercised under its auspices unlawful. The administration or reliance upon such an invalid oath may constitute a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of Canada. Specifically: Canadian Criminal Code: Section 122, Section 131 and Section 132. Therefore, proceeding with or acting upon an oath that deviates from the legally mandated form may expose individuals to criminal liability under these provisions.

54. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing; "OSC in the mater of the Ontario Securities Act R.S.O. 1990, c. S.5. as amended and Richard Ochnik and 1464210 Ontario Inc., heard on March 1,2, 8 and 9, 2006", Hatice Pakdil had testified under oath untruthfully committing perjury, specifically but not limited to; that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. Hatice Pakdil had also misled others stating that she did not work on behalf of the Company yet at all times TDW were paid a 7% commission selling Company shares to investors. The OSC used the case results listed in paragraph 46, as evidence of truth in subsequent hearing knowing, at all times that TDW were participating in a conspiracy and fraud to protect themselves from liability. This is an act of "Conspiracy" under Section 463 Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46), and "Fraud and Perjury" under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C46) seller the same security without disclosure to the parties. This was a direct conflict of interest and prejudicial to the parties. This violation is called Crossing of Securities. Hatice Pakdils actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c.). The hearing(s) outcome were based on fraudulent mislead information that altered the outcome of this case and the case in paragraph 45 and 47 above. In This case TDW false information was accepted as truth without the involvement and opportunity for Richard Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. to enter defence evidence to the contrary trespassing on their inherent rights. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful to protect her job and the expense of others and wrongfully was enriched.

56. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that during the hearing: Christa Ochnik and Ontario Securities Commission, Province of Ontario, TD Waterhouse, Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD Bank) and Hatice Pakdil. Hatice, had submitted a defence that was knowingly, to be untruthfully specifically but not limited to, statement that Richard Ochnik was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. The argument that Richard was the de facto officer was not raised in the above two cases and could not be contested by Richard Ochnik. The Intention of the false information was to deceive the court for the inequitable wrongful benefit of Hatice Pakdil's employer and other defendants depriving the plaintiff of their rights under colour of law. Hatice Pakdil knowingly at all times had not been truthful in an attempt to protect her job and unlawfully gain from her crime. This resulted in fraudulently depriving Christa and her sisters a free born minors of their rightful inheritance as beneficiary of the Ochnik Family Trust. Hatice's actions were an act of Perjury under Section 131 (1) Criminal Code (rsc,1985, c. C-46)
58. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that [First Name] [Last Name] TD Waterhouse, Michael Watson, OSC, and key investigator John Humphrey were fully aware of the untruths and perjury of witnesses and conspired to target, in a conspiracy to harm Richard Ochnik and 1464210 Ontario Inc. as are now listed here in. 60. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Moore (Chairman) should have not been the Chairman on two hearings involving Richard Ochnik due to a conflict of interest. Its unconscionable to have expected the Chairman to rule in conflict with his earlier ruling. The Chairman did not have the lawful authority to change what was established as fact by himself in a earlier hearing without an appeal. Holding a hearing and agreeing on key facts without allowing Richard Ochnik to offer a defence was a trespass on his inherent rights, malicious slander, and libel. This technicality was deliberate to target Richard Ochnik because despite all evidence to the contrary in his own hearing it would not change the established facts from the previous case. In essence his case was lost before it started.

Commission and placing unwarranted statutory obligations on Richard trespassing on his rights to which he would not normally or lawfully be expected to have as a man. Leviticus 6:2-5

65. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW told investors that Richard Ochnik was the President and Hatice Pakdil directed Company shareholders to contact him by releasing his private cell phone number without Richard's consent causing confusion. 70. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had verified through correspondence and meetings that Ian Ochnik that he was the President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. and Hatice had received his signed authorization on Compliance Documentation along with a "Letter of Permission" to deal directly with Paul Panciw to facilitate the share trades. TD Waterhouse (TDW) had direct contact with the securities lawyer working for 1464210 Ontario Inc.
71. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Richard was not at the time Trustee of the Ochnik Family Trust. 75. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that no payments for the shares purchases were until it was approved by TD Waterhouse compliance at the time a trade was transacted. The company produced and delivered the share certificates and TD Waterhouse handed over payment for those certificates from the cash in the investors accounts as stated above, making the share purchase at the time of payment. Ian Ochnik and the company were vulnerable to Hatice Pakdil that had full control of the process.
77. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all investors had signed the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares " and the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" stating that TDW investors had no shares of the company and had no right to purchase shares from the company. The share sale and purchase took place on the crossing of the share certificate and TD Waterhouse payment on behalf of the investor and no sooner.

81. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had received a commission of 7% for each share an investor purchased with the Company base value of $1/share. If there was no such purchase, TDW would not receive a commission. TDW commissions totaled approximately $107 000 based on 7% of sales.
84. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that 146420 Ontario Inc. had paid TDW the agreed commissions for each share's sale/purchase transaction by way of a cheque signed by Ian Ochnik President. Cheques were made out to "Pay to the order of: TD Waterhouse - investment advice." With "Hatice Pakdil" indicated in the notes.
85. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW never told the Company that TDW were not working for them. Given all the documents it would clearly indicate that they were confirmed to be working with TDW as their broker on record.
86. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shareholder investors 1464210 Ontario Inc. were also clients for TDW and TD Waterhouse.
87. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW and OSC do not know of any investor on 1464210 Ontario Inc. that was over the age of 65 and had purchased shares from 1464210 Ontario Inc.
88. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW were the only broker selling shares of 1464210 Ontario Inc. and responsible to maintain the company in compliance with all securities regulations.
89. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Paul Bayfield was TDW Sales Assistant, and he was actively assisting in processing of the trades and had direct knowledge of the transactions playing a key role in the approvals to facilitate the purchase and subsequent SWAP of the shares.
90. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the OSC ambushed Richard Ochnik during his hearing and knew he had a lawyer but refused to remand the case to meet the lawyers schedule and there by prejudicing the defence. There would have been no damage to any party to have delayed the hearing.

92. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that you accept full responsibility for any and all additional costs, fees, charges, or expenses incurred as a result of delays, administrative actions, defense filings, or any other related processes necessitated by your actions or omissions. You acknowledge and agree that the applicable fee schedule detailing such costs is available for your review at TD-lied.com or can be provided to you upon your written request. Such amendments are binding and non-disputable. Your acceptance of this clause signifies your consent to these terms and your obligation to remit payment for any applicable fees as outlined in the current fee schedule.
96. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc and Paul Bayfield were not subpoena or questioned by the Ontario Security Commission Hearings Involving 1464210 Ontario Inc and Richard Ochnik, contrary to the best evidence rules and practice. In this investigation the OSC exercised willful blindness and colour of law.

back the shares at a premium price. TD Waterhouse refused to allow the share buy back. TD Waterhouse and/or TD bank had arranged a loan for Dan Miller an investor in 1464210 Ontario Inc. after he had purchased share without knowledge or involvement of Richard Ochnik, Ian Ochnik or 1464210 Ontario Inc. This loan given by TDW was a violation of the Ontario Securities Act and was intended to cover up TDW securities violations.

98. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the company refused to provide a loan because it would be a violation of the Ontario Securities Act. Instead, the Company offered to buy back Dan Millers Shares, investment with a nominal profit. To me this totally contradicts the OSC claims that the company was involved in a RRSP loan scam. The company specifically told share holders they do not do loans and they would buy back all shares from individuals requesting RRSP loans. The company, 1464210 Ontario Inc. was vulnerable, totally relying on the performance of Hatice Pakil and TD Waterhouse. TD Waterhouse obstructed remedy by disallowing the buy back of shares deliberately to hold the vulnerable company in potential violation of the Ontario Securities Act.
99. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that providing a loan to a shareholder for the purchase of shares is a violation of the Ontario Securities Act. and a taxable benefit.
100. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was responsible to assess the investors and conduct a "Suitability Review" before instructing the Company to issue any shares. The company was detrimentally reliant upon TDW to take appropriate steps and precautions required to protect both the buyer and seller being TDW client(s), in a prohibited scheme referred to as crossing of securities.
102. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW advised the Company to produce an "Investor Representation Letter" indicating the declaration by the investor; "I do not currently own, Direct or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc., or any other related Company" and " I do not have any Rights to acquire any TDW, shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. "This letter was a requirement to be signed by all TDW investors in 1464210 Ontario Inc. before the purchased shares. It is agreed by you, [First Name] [Last Name], the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW agreed to be broker of record May 06, 2002.

105. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that failed to provide full disclosures to the defendants as required by law. TDW did not send a copy of the "Privet Placement Agreement" in fear of incriminating Hatice Pakdil. TDW were aware that this document would have a direct impact on the outcome of the case establishing that the company had a licenced broker and was detrimentally reliant on TD Waterhouse to save it harmless and to maintain the Company in good standing to all related regulations and Acts.
106. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the sales transaction consisted of a 7% commission calculated on the sale amount of shares and a $25 000 (in cash or shares) bonus for achieving each million dollars in sales threshold. The Company offered shares or cash as payment; as part of TDW selling shares and purchasing them for their clients RRSP accounts. Share sales generate a sales commission paid by the seller Company and SWAPS generate a fixed fee paid by the investor buyer – both were TDW clients.
107. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that According to the TDW "Rate Tables", the Company would be charged the flat fee of $20.00 for a SWAP but rather a commission for a sale or "Trade". TDW negotiated a commission representing the sale of shares.
108. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that after TDW due diligence by their lawyer, Compliance Department, Branch Manager and RRSP Department, that TDW assistant Paul Bayfield, Sales Assistant, then notified the Company that they were prepared to go ahead with the purchase and SWAP of the shares.
109. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Ian Ochnik President of 1464210 Ontario Inc. was satisfied and by the "Letter of Authority" provided Paul Panciw with the authority to bind the Company in a "Contractual Relationship" with TDW. (There was an agreement and mutual understanding). A contract was signed by the Company solidifying the relationship. TDW became brokers of record.

113. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Form" were not a binding contract: paragraph 4. "Acceptance of Subscription: This subscription will be and be deemed for all purposes to have been accepted by the Corporation when the Corporation gives notice in writing to the purchaser of the allotment and issuance of the Shares subscribed for, but the corporation shall be under no obligation to accept this subscription". The share sale only occurred once TD Waterhouse paid for the shares from the cash in the, the private man with no dispute to the investor's accounts and not before. Before that could happen, TD had to notify the company regarding the buyer, account number and number of shares.
114. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the "Privet Placement Subscription Forms" also contained the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" that indicated "I do not currently own, directly or indirectly, any shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc..." and was signed by the purchaser acknowledging the statement to be true. This clearly indicated TDW could not preform a SWAP with out first purchasing the shares. TDW then proceed to purchase the shares, by instructing Ian Ochnik, President to produce the share certificates as directed by TD compliance department (providing investor name, amount of purchase and account number).

responsible for the client's account. The Company completed all the requirements of a "Pre-Approved Privet Placement". Hatice Pakdil testified under oath that she considered herself as an order taker and not adviser to the new clients facilitating the buy and sale of the Company shares.

117. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TD's New Client were asks online F) to charge the transaction fee to their account at TD Evergreen a division of TD Securities. TD Securities is a division of TD Bank (Schedule "A" Bank).TD had received transaction fees from the buyer and the seller in the same transaction and was a conflict of interests and kept secret by TDW to the detriment of the company and investors. Hatice Pakdil committed perjury by saying she did not represent the company. Neither party, buyer or seller knew TDW was working and paid by both the buyer and seller.

118. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that all of TDW's "New Client(s)" instructs there "Investment Advisor" Hatice Pakdil to "acquire" shares in 1464210 Ontario Inc. for there RRSP account. Indicating they had no possession of shares to do a SWAP unless Hatice Pakdil processed the purchase/sale of shares.

119. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW had direct knowledge that the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." were not signed because clients kept changing the number of shares that they were purchasing. The change would have triggered a requirement to amend the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares." Also, there was no practical way to confirm the amount of shares that the client could afford to purchase until the account was moved to TDW and in a cash position. TDW needed to know the cash availability to calculate the number of shares to be purchased at $1.00 per share. Also, the "Investor Representation Letter (for the purchase of small business shares)" told TDW that they had no ownership of shares or rights to purchase shares indicating the buy and sell had not taken place yet until TD gave the company the cheque payment for the shares as stipulated on paragraph 5 of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares.". , the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW, Hatice Pakdil did speak to potential investors before the signing and execution of the "Private Placement Subscription Form Re; Purchase of common shares" with the help of TDW sales assistant. This fact clearly confirms that Hatice Pakdil had purchased shares form TDW Customer the Company to facilitate a SWAP for TDW investment clients.

123. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shares are property of the issuer and not the subscriber according to the terms of the "Private Placement Subscription Form". The investor had only made an offer to purchase. They only transferred share ownership when TD handed the company payment for the shares representing consideration in a purchase.
124. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that TDW was negligent and processed the transaction as a "SWAP" into the client's account. As a result, the head office review of trades was per TDW Policy 2 and that requirement did not take place as required by regulation. If it was done properly the issue would have been discovered in the first trade and saved the Company. The Company had no knowledge of TDW errors. TDW had an obligation to correct the issue and save the company.
125. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the shares were distributed to the "New Client's" RRSP accounts by TDW as a trade and then followed by a SWAP.
126. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that The Company paid TD Waterhouse about $107,000 to act as licensed broker and Adviser for the Company. The Company paid TD Waterhouse for advice and sales commissions of 7%. The Company relied on TD Waterhouse to follow the rules and to maintain 1464210 Ontario Inc. in compliance with "Ontario Securities Act". TD Waterhouse, through Paul Bayfield, dealt with all the investors and instructed the Company as to how much and who's named to place on each share certificate. No subscription agreement was exercised by 1464210 Ontario Inc. The go ahead was given to Paul Bayfield "Sale Assistant" by TD Waterhouse's compliance department. Paul Bayfield was TDW assistant and received instructions from TDW. TDW had overseen each of the transactions.

127. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that as part of the settlement agreement it was admitted by TD Waterhouse failed to comply with the suitability requirements to its clients contrary to section 1.5 of rule 31505; and that TDW failed to comply with its obligation to deal with its clients fairly by failing to disclose to the clients the 7% commission that were paid to TDW contrary to section 2.1(2) of rule 31-505 and there by acted contrary to the public interests and placing the company in violation with the Ontario Securities Act.
128. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that if TDW told the truth and admitted that TDW had erred the company and the Ochnik Family specifically the Trust would have not suffered such an unconscionable punishment and the three children freeborn beneficiaries would and should have been saved harmless.

132. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, with no lawful objection registered, that these damages result from a coordinated breach of fiduciary duty, misrepresentation, fraud, and criminal obstruction. You agree that full restitution and remedy are due immediately, without the necessity of further adjudication, and that enforcement may proceed through any lawful means, including equity process, private lien, sheriff application, or ecclesiastical summons.

Duplessis*, [1959] SCR 121 establishing that personal liability arises where public officials act beyond lawful power or in bad faith; Callow v. Zollinger, 2020 SCC 45 – confirming the duty of good faith and honest performance in the execution of all private agreements, whether formal or informal; *Syndicat Northcrest v. 139. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that the issue of controlling mind was never raised at any of the hearings as it was not required being that we relabelled Richard "the President" although he was never the President. This manipulation was done to prevent Richard from filing an appeal for justice and to entrap him, forever closing the case with total disregard for the truth.

Ian Ochnik was the best person who would have had known firsthand if Richard was the controlling mind and advised him to violate the Ontario Securities Act or any law. Ian Ochnik was not questioned deliberately to disadvantage Richard Ochnik in a planned ambush.
142. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that by naming Richard Ochnik as President it allowed the OSC to exercise willful blindness, color of law and overreach to circumvent and extend its mandate avoiding its legislated restrictions set by parliament; prejudicing Richard of access to protections available by proper judicial process of law normal to all defendants.

It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you; In the event that either the Bank of Canada or the Royal Canadian Mint ceases to mint the said coins or withdraws them from circulation, it is agreed that a comparable sovereign-minted, bullion standard coin of equal weight and purity shall substitute for settlement purposes, maintaining the above-stated fixed valuations as approved by minister Richard as per his sole discretion and to his own benefit.
152. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that your actions, in alignment with TD Waterhouse (TDW), have caused the 'Ochnik Family Trust' financial harm exceeding $60 million (sixty million) Canadian dollars in damages. These damages are the direct result of your dishonest and manipulative conduct, as evidenced by material facts and supporting documentation. In accordance with equitable principles and the scriptural obligation of restitution outlined in Leviticus 6:2-5, you are required to restore the full amount of stolen, extorted, or fraudulently obtained property, along with any additional losses resulting from your actions. Should you fail to comply within 30 days of receipt of notice, enforcement proceedings will be initiated, including immediate application to a sheriff for recovery of the specified amount under applicable enforcement laws.
155. choosing. All damages, whether direct, indirect, or consequential, including psychological, spiritual, and economic harm, shall be calculated in good faith and are enforceable under equity and law. The obligation to remedy these harms shall include but not be limited to: Direct financial losses, Reputational and spiritual harm, Involuntary service and elder abuse And Constitutional violations of conscience and trust; Leviticus 6:2–5 and Isaiah 61:7

156. It is agreed by you, the private man Ron Liepert, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, shall retain the sole, unfettered right to elect the forum and venue in which enforcement, adjudication, or interpretation of this agreement may be pursued. This includes courts of record with inherent jurisdiction, whether within Canada or the United States, including ecclesiastical or international human rights tribunals. This clause serves to ensure full access to fair and impartial adjudication under the maxims of law, international covenant, and God's justice.
157. It is agreed by you, the private man Ron Liepert, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the material admissions contained within this Clear-Period Contract constitute binding declarations of fact and law. You acknowledge that any failure to publicly correct or retract previous defamatory or fraudulent claims, including those issued by TD Bank Group, TD Waterhouse, OSC, or their agents, shall constitute an ongoing and compounding harm under both spiritual law and equity. The duty to correct includes issuing an open retraction to restore my name, ministry, trust estate, and familial dignity.
158. These authorities are incorporated into this agreement as interpretive anchors, and the parties agree to rely upon their reasoning and precedent in any tribunal, forum, or court of record, ecclesiastical or civil, as may be engaged for the resolution or enforcement of this contract.

It is agreed by you, the private man Ron Liepert, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that failure to respond to or rebut this agreement within 30 days constitutes tacit admission and contractual default. In such case, I shall have full standing to enter judgment and proceed to enforcement, including garnishment, lien, or seizure under the applicable statutes or ecclesiastical process, without further notice or leave of any court.
160. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.

162. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man , with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private man or woman with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.
165. It is agreed by Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.
166. It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman who has sworn an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant to the "Defender of the faith", then obstructs, intimidates or acts as a nuisance to the ability of an officiating minister of God, has acted against the Queens ability to defend the faith and is attempting to overthrow her majesty's government, being the King James Bible, by force....and that Section 46 of the criminal code applies to all sworn allegiant officers of her majesty.

It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors,( that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

It is very important that I show you why I can not allow any one to assume that they have any power or force over me. To be definitive, TDW need to see the lawful definition of person and the scriptures that guide me and command me to not show respect to persons, as they are fictions of law. A player on a stage wearing a mask.

PERSON. This word is applied to men, women and children, who are called natural persons. In law, man and person are not exactly synonymous terms. Any human being is a man, whether he be a member of society or not, whatever may be the rank he holds, or whatever may be his age, sex, etc. A person is a man considered according to the rank he holds in society, with all the rights to which the place he holds entitles him, and the duties which it imposes. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 137.. It is also used to denote a corporation which is an artificial person. 1 Bl.

Com. 123; 4 Bing. 669; C. 33 Eng. C. L R. 488; Wooddes. Lect. 116; Bac. Us. 57; 1 Mod. 164.

But when the word "Persons" is spoken of in legislative acts, natural persons will be intended, unless something appears in the context to show that it applies to artificial persons. 1 Scam. R.178.

Natural persons are divided into males, or men, and females or women. Men are capable of all kinds of engagements and functions, unless by reasons applying to particular individuals. Women cannot be appointed to any public office, nor perform any civil functions, except those which the law specially declares them capable of exercising. Civ. Code of Louis. art. 25.

They are also sometimes divided into free persons and slaves. Freemen are those who have preserved their natural liberty, that is to say, who have the right of doing what is not forbidden by the law. A slave is one who is in the power of a master to whom he belongs. Slaves are sometimes ranked not with persons but things. But sometimes they are considered as persons for example, a negro is in contemplation of law a person, so as to be capable of committing a riot in conjunction with white men. 1 Bay, 358. Vide Man.

Persons are also divided into citizens, (q. v.) and aliens, (q. v.) when viewed with regard to their political rights. When they are considered in relation to their civil rights, they are living or civilly dead; vide Civil Death; outlaws; and infamous persons.

Persons are divided into legitimates and bastards, when examined as to their rights by birth.

TO PERSONATE, crim. law. The act of assuming the character of another without lawful authority, and, in such character, doing something to his prejudice, or to the prejudice of another, without his will or consent.

The bare fact of personating another for the purpose of fraud, is no more than a cheat or misdemeanour at common law, and punishable as such. 2 East, P. C. 1010; 2 Russ. on Cr. 479.

By the act of congress of the 30th April, 1790, s. 15, 1 Story's Laws U. S. 86, it is enacted, that " if any person shall acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged in any court of Canada, any recognizance, bail or judgement, in the name or names of any other person or persons not privy or consenting to the same, every such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeds five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding seven years, and whipped not exceeding thirty-nine stripes, Provided nevertheless. that this act shall not extend to the acknowledgment of any judgement or judgements by any attorney or attorneys, duly admitted, for any person or persons against whom any such judgement or judgements shall be had or given." Vide, generally, 2 John. Cas. 293; 16 Vin. Ab. 336; Com. Dig. Action on the case for a deceit, A 3.

James 2:9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one [point], he is guilty of all.

Here is a list of more in-depth definitions so no one gets lost.

I am not a Person, or an Individual, or even a human, Manuel, but before you think I am crazy, examine the facts.

I am not a person, or an individual, or a Human, and although some humans look similar to me, I am not a human.

Some would say that I am a 'natural' person, but as I will show you, I am not one of those either. Who then or what then, am I?

To understand who I am, you must first understand the definitions which have been placed on the words I have quoted above, words that are commonly used, but do not describe me anymore. For example, the word 'person'.

Person – The Revised Code of Washington, RCW 1.16.080, (I live in Washington State) defines a person as follows: "The term 'person' may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual."

Person – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 791, defines 'person' as follows: "In general usage, a human being (i.e. natural person), though by statute term may include labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers." Person – Oran's Dictionary of the Law, West Group 1999, defines

Person as: 1. A human being (a "natural" person). 2. A corporation (an "artificial" person). Corporations are treated as persons in many legal situations. Also, the word "person" includes corporations in most definitions in this dictionary. 3. Any other "being" entitled to sue as a legal entity (a government, an association, a group of Trustees, etc.). 4.. The plural of person is persons, not people (see that word).

Person – Duhaime’s Law Dictionary. An entity with legal rights and existence including the ability to sue and be sued, to sign contracts, to receive gifts, to appear in court either by themselves or by lawyer and, generally, other powers incidental to the full expression of the entity in law. Individuals are “persons” in law unless they are minors or under some kind of other incapacity such as a court finding of mental incapacity. Many laws give certain powers to “persons”, which in almost all instances, includes business organizations that have been formally registered such as partnerships, corporations or associations.

legal person – Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary of Law 1996, defines a legal person as : a body of persons or an entity (as a corporation) considered as having many of the rights and responsibilities of a natural person and esp. the capacity to sue and be sued.

A person according to these definitions, is basically an entity – legal fiction – of some kind that has been legally created and has the legal capacity to be sued. Isn’t it odd that the word lawful is not used within these definitions? Well then.... I am not “the United States, this state, or any territory, or any public or private corporation”. I am not “labour organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.” So, I cannot be a ‘person’ under this part of the definition.

The RCW quoted above also states that a person could also be an “individual”. Black’s Law Dictionary also defines a person as a “human being,” which they define by stating “(i.e. natural person)”. So, let’s first check to see if I am an “individual”.

Individual – Black’s Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg. 533, defines

“individual” as follows: “As a noun, this term denotes a single person as distinguished from a group or class, and also, very commonly, a private or natural person as distinguished from a partnership, corporation, or association; but it is said that this restrictive signification is not necessarily inherent in the word, and that it may, in proper cases, include artificial persons.”

Well now, I have already been shown that I am not a ‘person’, and since

‘individual’ denotes a single ‘person’ as distinguished from a group or class, I can’t be an ‘individual’ under this definition either. But I see the term ‘natural person’ used in the definition of the RCW, and also in the definition of some of the Law Dictionaries. Maybe I am a ‘natural’ person, since I know I am not an ‘artificial’ one.

I could not find the term 'Natural person' defined anywhere, so I had to look up the word 'natural' for a definition to see if that word would fit with the word person...

Natural – Black's Law Dictionary 6th Edition, pg.712, defines 'Natural' as follows: "Untouched by man or by influences of civilization; wild; untutored, and is the opposite of the word "artificial". The juristic meaning of this term does not differ from the vernacular, except in the cases where it is used in opposition to the term "legal"; and then it means proceeding from or determined by physical causes or conditions, as distinguished from positive enactments of law, or attributable to the nature of man rather than the commands of law, or based upon moral rather than legal considerations or sanctions."

Hmmm, what do they mean by this definition? Am I untouched by man (depends on what the word 'man' means), or by influences of civilization? I don't think so. Am I 'wild', or 'untutored'? (Buzzer sound), not me. Even though the definition states that this word is the opposite of the word 'artificial', it still does not describe who I believe I am. So, I must conclude that I am not a 'natural' person, under this definition of the word 'natural'. So, the term 'natural person' cannot apply to me.

Black's Law Dictionary also used the term 'human being', and although Black's defined it as a 'natural person', maybe they made a mistake, maybe I am a 'human being'. 'Human' or 'human being' does not appear to have a 'legal' definition, so I went to my old standby 1888 Noah Webster's Dictionary for a vernacular definition of this word. Maybe Noah would know who I am

Human – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'human' as follows: n. A human being; one of the race of man. [Rare and inelegant.] "Sprung of humans that inhabit earth." ...To me, the etymology of the word Hu-man, suggests that it is a marriage of two separate words 'Hue' (defined as the property of color), and man. But this cannot, of course, be correct, at least not politically correct, so I can't go there, because the word would then mean 'coloured man'!

Am I of the race of man? Rare and inelegant? Sprung of humans that inhabit earth (ground)? (I'm not coloured either). Well, it looks like I have to define the word 'man' through Webster's because there appears to be no legal definition for 'man'.

Man – Webster's 1888 Dictionary defines 'man' as follows: An individual of the human race; a human being; a person.

Great news!!, it looks like we are back to the beginning of our study of definitions, yup, back to the start, completed the circle. I am not an 'individual', so I cannot be considered 'of the human race'; and since I'm not of the human race, I can't be 'a human being', and I've also been shown that I'm not a 'person' either.

Now let us see what the word Human really means.....I am going into detail so TDW can see we have been deceived by the misuse of our own language.

Definition of Human Being

Are you a 'person', an 'individual', or a 'human being'? These words, at law, define you as being spiritually 'dead.' This is how the world makes its attachment to you. The terms, 'person', 'individual', 'human being', etc., are not in Christ. Words like "individual," and "human being" do not even appear in Scripture! These are 'created' terms by the natural man (1 Cor 2:14). These words describe the 'old man', but not the 'new man' in Christ (Col 3:9-10). In Balantine's Self Pronouncing Law Dictionary, 1948, page 389, Human

Being is defined as "See Monster." On page 540 of this same Law Dictionary, Monster is defined as "a human being by birth, but in some part resembling a lower animal."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, pages 879- 880, a Monster is defined as "a person so cruel, wicked, depraved, etc., as to horrify others." From the Random House Dictionary of the English Language, 2nd Edition, page 901, Human Being is defined as a "Natural man: unenlightened or unregenerate," and on page 1461, Unregenerate means "not regenerate; unrepentant; an unregenerate sinner; not convinced by or unconverted to a particular religion; wicked, sinful, dissolute."

In Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988, page 657, Humanitarianism is defined as "the doctrine that humankind may become perfect without divine aid."

In Colliers New Dictionary of the English Language, 1928, Humanitarian is defined as "a philanthropist; an anti-Trinitarian who rejects the doctrine of Christ's divinity; a perfectionist."

And in the Random House Webster's College Dictionary, 1990, page 653, Humanism is defined as "any system or mode of thought or action in which human interests, values and dignity predominate, especially an ethical theory that often rejects the importance of a belief in God."

Therefore, when anyone calls himself or herself a 'human being', or a 'humanitarian,' they are saying (according to every definition of these words, and according to the law), "I'm an animal; I'm a monster; I'm not saved; I'm unrepentant; I'm an unregenerate sinner; I'm not converted; I'm wicked, sinful, and dissolute; I'm cruel, depraved, unenlightened; and I reject Christ's divinity and the importance of a belief in God."

a. "Men [Bondman] rely for protection of their right on God's law, and not upon regulations and proclamations of departments of government, or officers who have been designated to carry laws into effect." Baty v. Sale, 43 Ill. 351." [Codes, edicts, proclamations, and decisions are not Law, which define or regulate the Good and Lawful Bondman. Therefore, "law" suits are ungodly, and are the redress for and of human beings, i.e., non-believers.]

The Septuagint uses the term "human beings" only one time, and its meaning is identical to the above definitions. Let's look at the last verse of the book of Jonah, where Nineva was full of men who were unrepentant, unregenerate, unconverted, wicked, sinful, dissolute, cruel, depraved, unenlightened, rejected the importance of a belief in God. Or, in other words, “human beings.”

“And shall not I spare Nineve, the great city, in which dwell more than twelve myriads of human beings, who do not know their right hand or their left hand...?” [Jonah 4:11 (Septuagint)]

b. The term “human being” is also synonymous with the term ‘natural man.’

c. “The natural man is a spiritual monster. His heart is where his feet should be, fixed upon the earth; his heels are lifted up against heaven, which his heart should be set on. His face is towards hell, his back towards heaven. He loves what he should hate and hates what he should love; joys in what he ought to mourn for and mourns for what he ought to rejoice in; glories in his shame, and is ashamed of his glory; abhors what he should desire, and desires what he should abhor.” [Thomas Boston, quoted in Augustus Toplady, Complete Works (1794, reprinted by Sprinkle Publications 1987), page 584].

And the Word confirms: “But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.” [1 Corinthians 2:14,]

The above verse witnesses to us that the natural man is spiritually dead. The ‘natural man’ in Scripture is synonymous with the ‘natural person’ as defined in man’s laws.

“Natural Person means human being, and not an artificial or juristic person.” Shawmut Bank, N.A. v. Valley Farms, 610 A. 2d. 652, 654; 222 Conn. 361.

Natural Person: Any human being who as such is a legal entity as distinguished from an artificial person, like a corporation, which derives its status as a legal entity from being recognized so in law. Natural Child: The ordinary euphemism for ‘bastard’ or illegitimate.” [Amon v. Moreschi, 296 N.Y. 395, 73 N.E.2d 716.” Max Radin, Radin’s Law Dictionary (1955), p. 216.]

Those that are spiritually dead belong to the prince of this world because he’s dead himself. Satan has dominion over the natural man, for he is the prince of this world [John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11]; and, because of this, he has dominion over those of the world, i.e., human beings, the natural man – those who receive not the things of the Spirit of God and reject Christ. Because the bondman in Christ is sanctified from the world, he is separated from the adversary’s dominion over him—sin [John 8:34].. This is the cause for Christ having sanctified Himself in the Truth of the Word of God – to provide the entrance to the refuge in and through Himself for us. I could provide you more,

Manuel, and I do sincerely thank you for your focused attention to this, my honest effort at officially performing the function of my calling in establishing this agreement with you as per Matthew 5:25 and 18:15-20, but I think you are already overwhelmed as I have, upon presentation of facts, destroyed your belief system and now you are aware you are working for a massive criminal organization founded upon a false oath. Can you now see why I must not allow my name to be altered? Remember, every one of the officers of Alberta has a false oath...What kind of authority swears an oath that is bogus??? A false authority!

Conversion Torts; The unlawful turning or applying the personal goods of another to the use of the taker, or of some other person than the owner; or the unlawful destroying or altering their nature.

When a party takes away or wrongfully assumes the right to goods which belong to another, it will in general be sufficient evidence of a conversion but when the original taking was lawful, as when the party found the goods, and the detention only is illegal, it is absolutely necessary to make a demand of the goods, and there must be a refusal to deliver them before the conversion will be complete. The refusal by a servant to deliver the goods entrusted to him by his master is not evidence of a conversion by his master. Leviticus 6:2-5 The tortious taking of property is, of itself, a conversion and any intermeddling with it, or any exercise of dominion over it, subversive of the dominion of the owner or the nature of the bailment if it be bailed, is evidence of a conversion.

In Equity, the considering of one thing as changed into another; for example, land will be considered as converted into money and treated as such by a court of equity, when the owner has contracted to sell his estate, in which case, if he die before the conveyance, his executors and not his heirs will be entitled to the money. On the other hand, money is converted into land in a variety of ways as for example, when a man agrees to buy land and dies before he has received the conveyance, the money he was to pay for it will be considered as converted into lands and descend to the heir.

It is agreed upon by you, Ron Liepert, having no dispute to the following fact forthcoming from you; that you the private man are aware and agree that I am a flesh bone blood living man, being God's minister, and that I cannot possibly have been in a dead legal corporate fiction called the Province of Ontario, Canada or other as the Province of Ontario, Canada and other is not a place but a dead corporate fiction of law on paper created for the purpose of extracting money from me in fraud as it is totally against my will, conscience and a violation of my faith to submit to and is being done without my informed consent or cognisant permission for a financial gain.

It is agreed by you, Ron Liepert with full understanding, that failure to refute or disprove the facts provided above, as agreed upon by you, I am advised by

Christ at Matthew 18:15-20 to gain a simple agreement with you privately and very simply as a child so I would like your aid in agreeing with me that respecting persons written as persona in the Latin vulgate is sin and disrespected by God. Due to the emergent nature of this agreement you are required to respond to this agreement within 10 (ten) days of receipt representing fairness, truth, natural equity. Failure to respond will be deemed acceptance of the terms, including acknowledgment of all outlined facts and obligations. We can see that in Deuteronomy 1:17. 10:17, 2nd Samuel 14:14, Matthew 22:16. Acts 10:34, Romans 2:11, James 2:1-9 and 1st Peter 1:17. If you have no dispute with that scriptural fact I will confirm with witnesses then post our good faith agreement in a paper.

Thankyou for you aid in saving my faith harmless from assumption.

Please do take notice that I, minister Richard, do not make use of birth dates and/or surnames outside of being born again in the holy name, blood, and water of Christ Jesus; my risen Savior Yahushewah Messiah. Also, please feel free to write me if you'd like to know more about my King, Christ Jesus; keeping in mind that your Christian Monarch also serves my King, and I shall share with TDW my 1611 A.D. King James Holy Bible.

-Blessings!

Notice for a Demand of an Ecclesiastical Accommodation and Agreement

Provided under Christ's careful direction and the watchman's eye of Ezekiel 33

In the holy name of Christ, as where two or more agree in His holy name, for the will of our father, it shall be done. Matthew 18;20

If one falsely accuses another of a crime, the punishment due to that crime should be inflicted upon the perjured informer. Maxims of law

Hello, Earl Dreeshen, I am Richard of the Ochnik family, a flesh blood and bone living man created by God and an officiating minister of the Church of the Ecumenical Redemption International, an ecclesiastical organism of other flesh, blood and bone men and women as the many members of the body of Christ. Where truth is, fiction of law dose not exist. Maxims of law;

If ever the law of God and man are at variance, the former are to be obeyed in derogation of the later.
Maxims. Acts 5:29

1959 CanLII 50 (SCC) | Roncarelli v. Duplessis | CanLII, Earl Dreeshen, by my sending you this private good faith agreement, I do attempt, by Christ's guidance, to ascertain all the facts in scriptural honour. If you have any reason or proof to suggest or provide to me, God's minister officially performing the functions of my calling, that the following statements of the facts are not true, you are being offered the opportunity to refute these offered facts so as to clear yourself of any assumptive contractual awareness of the truth of such facts. Also be aware, this communication of agreement cannot be lawfully inquired of at public or government expense as it is a provable private matter and government funding cannot support private contracts. All legal bills must and shall be paid for out of your private pocket no different than Maurice Duplessis the former Premier and Attorney General of Quebec in Roncarelly v Duplessis

This is Demand for recognition as Christ's ordained minister in quest of defense of the faith to save harmless my soul.

Both parties agree to act in good faith, ensuring no misleading actions or omissions that could undermine the intent or enforceability of this agreement. Each party is obligated to respect the natural rights and freedoms outlined herein.

I declare that I am that God created, of a Christian given name Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, chosen to be a private ecclesiastic man under God as my creator with dominion over the earth. I do declare that no man or woman has a moral or a lawful right to impose anything upon me without my informed consent; and that I do hereby renounce any fraudulent corporate assumptive contract by the right of self determination and faith renouncing secular Contracts. Amselem 2004 SCR.

I do honour the directive obligation to respect the equal God given freedoms of other men and women under His law. To all those who set eyes on this ecclesiastical declaration, I do hereby, officially performing the functions of my calling, serve notice to all private men and women as of my inability to respect persons that receive this that any offer herein, prior to, or on my part does not imply acceptance of intimidation, violence, or threats of violence against me, and that no such offer implies that I will submit to any nuisance obstruction or intimidation in the future.

I, as a bondservant of Christ do henceforth offer the good faith proclamation of my free born will to live in peace and declare that, by right of God and his son Jesus words at Corinthians 7:20:26, the de facto authority's edicts, codes, obligations, statutes, taxes, licenses and prohibitions of a de facto commercial entity are not binding on me, John 15:16 ordained minister or applicable upon God's ministers and family, his Children and including their property.

I, minister Richard Henry of the Ochnik family, an ordained minister under John 15:16 and a watchman as per Ezekiel 33:6-9, hereby invoke the protections afforded by "Operation SILENT DEFENDER." This military receivership, initiated in response to systemic fiduciary breaches, encompasses the unauthorized creation and exploitation of my Cestui Que Trust, originating from my 1960 birth certificate.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms "man" and "woman" (also Queen and King) are used interchangeably and are intended to be inclusive of all individuals, regardless of gender identity. Any reference to a specific gender shall be construed to include all genders, and no provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to exclude any person based on gender.

1. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I, minister of Richard Henry of the Ochnik family was on or about the 30th of November, 2004 A.D., unlawfully intimidated and obstructed, by you, in your private capacity, by methods not sanctioned and as such, being a perceived and negative nuisance to my ability to perform an official function of my ministerial calling, are in violation of Sections 126,176, 423, 465 and 180 of the Criminal Code of Canada by violating your Oath of Allegiance and the Royal Style and Titles Act.
2. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I am not a member of a dead legal fiction entity corporation known as Canada or Ontario and that specifically my name, being my ecclesiastical possession under the exclusive authority of God, is not allowed by my faith in God's commands as defended by the Queen you swore an oath to be truly allegiant to, to be used, recorded, registered, altered used for or exchanged for a financial purpose without my permission that it has never been offered or pledged to be for any of those reasons or to be used as a surety or as a commodity with my informed consent.

3. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Canada is a Crown Corporation in the meaning of the act with sworn allegiance to the Queen Elizabeth II and heirs. The Country of Canada is accountable to the Queen Elizabeth II and heirs. On the passing of Her Royal Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, the Crown had been passed to her heir, King Charles III.
4. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that. It is agreed by you, that in 1966 ICCPR and ICESCR Signed: 19 December 1966 The principles of the UDHR offered hope and inspiration around the world. But to make a genuine difference in people's lives, those principles needed to be transformed into laws. In 1966, the UN Commission on Human Rights drafted two instruments to give legal force to the UDHR. One instrument was called the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The second was the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Together with the Universal Declaration, they comprise the International Bill of Human Rights. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights offers protections for the right to life, freedom of speech, religion, and voting. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights focuses on such issues as food, education, health, and shelter. More than 160 nations have ratified these two covenants which legally commit them to ensure these rights for people within their borders.
5. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact that in the Supreme Court Judgments [1980] 1 SCR 54 1979-12-21 Re: Authority of Parliament in relation to the Upper House Further, although s. 91(1) gave the Queen the power, with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, to alter the "Constitution of Canada" except in certain expressly designated areas, it does not confer a power to amend the B.N.A. Act. The word "Canada" in s. 91(1) does not refer to Canada as a geographical unit but refers to the "JURISTIC FEDERAL UNIT"
6. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1981 Zingre v. The Queen et al., [1981] 2 SCR 392 (Supreme Court of Canada). It is a recognized principle of international customary law that a state may not invoke the provisions of its internal law as justification for its failure to perform its international obligations.
7. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that; This contract is governed exclusively by the Law of God as found in the 1611 King James

Bible, and the sanctuary jurisdiction under which it was formed. All disputes shall default to this sacred law unless waived in writing by the minister Richard Henry family of Ochnik.

8. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1982 the Charter of Human Rights and Freedoms Canada was implemented as the supreme law.
9. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1989 Slaight Communications Inc. v. Davidson, [1989] 1 SCR 1038, 1989 The reference in s. 32 to the "Parliament" and a "legislature" make clear that the Charter operates as a limitation on the powers of those legislative bodies. Any statute enacted by either Parliament or a Legislature which is inconsistent with the Charter will be outside the power of (ultra vires) the enacting body and will be invalid. It follows that any body exercising statutory authority, for example, the Governor in Council or Lieutenant Governor in Council, ministers, officials, municipalities, school boards, universities, administrative tribunals and police officers, is also bound by the Charter. Action taken under statutory authority is valid only if it is within the scope of that authority. Since neither Parliament nor a Legislature can itself pass a law in breach of the Charter, neither body can authorize action which would be in breach of the Charter. Thus, the limitations on statutory authority which are imposed by the Charter will flow down the chain of statutory authority and apply to regulations, by-laws, orders, decisions and all other action (whether legislative, administrative or judicial) which depends for its validity on statutory authority
10. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1990 Thomson Newspapers Ltd. v. Canada (Director of Investigation and Research, Restrictive Trade Practices Commission) While individuals as a rule have full legal capacity by the operation of law alone, artificial persons are creatures of the state and enjoy civil rights and powers only upon the approval of statutory authorities. The individual may stand upon his constitutional rights. He owes no duty to the State, since he receives nothing there from, beyond the protection of his life and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long antecedent to the organization of the State and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in accordance with the Constitution. He owes nothing to the public so long as he does not trespass upon their rights.
11. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1997 The Supreme Court has made it clear in cases M. (A.) v. Ryan that Common Law in Canada Now Flows through the Constitution Act of 1982. M. (A.) v. Ryan, 1997 (SCC), [1997] 1 S.C.R. 157, that the common law must develop in accordance with Charter values. A Trespass in common law equals an infringement or denial of a fundamental right or freedom. (Listed in the constitution act or the covenants themselves)

12. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 1999 R. v. Hynes, 1999 CanLII 18979 (NL CA) [101] The determination whether to enforce constitutionally protected rights under s. 24(2) was never intended to revert to the executive arm of government. Indeed, as has already been discussed, a primary purpose of the Charter was to place courts between the executive and the individual to protect the latter's individual fundamental rights and freedoms.
13. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2005 Court Judgement Supreme Court- Christie v. British Columbia, 2005 BCCA 631 (CanLII) The rule of law embraces at least three principles. The first principle is that the "law is supreme over officials of the government as well as private individuals, and thereby preclusive of the influence of arbitrary power"
14. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2007 R. v. Hape, [2007] 2 S.C.R. 292, 2007 SCC 26 Para 53... It is a well-established principle of statutory interpretation that legislation will be presumed to conform to international law. The presumption of conformity is based on the rule of judicial policy that, as a matter of law, courts will strive to avoid constructions of domestic law pursuant to which the state would be in violation of its international obligations.
15. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in 2015 R. v. Wagner, 2015 ONCJ 66 The Rule of Law The idea that there are certain fundamental unwritten principles that govern all members of society including legislators and which judges are expected to enforce is not particularly new. The contemporary concept of unwritten constitutional principles can be seen as a modern reincarnation of the ancient doctrines of natural law
16. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Victoria (City) v. Adams, 2009 BCCA 563; 2008 BCSC 1363; The trial court found the prohibition of temporary overhead shelter in parks to be unconstitutional where there was a lack of alternative shelter space. The court held the issue to be clearly justiciable because it dealt with the constitutionality of a legal prohibition. The court relied on the right to adequate housing under international human rights law as an interpretive aid. The Court referred to submissions made by Canada to the United Nations Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights regarding the scope of domestic protections for the right to housing and on General Comment No. 4 on the right to adequate housing under the International Covenant of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR). The Court noted that the question of whether the right to life, liberty and security of the person imposes positive obligations on governments to ensure the right to housing has not yet been determined by the Supreme Court of Canada and did not need to be decided in this case, which only challenged state interference.

17. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that in Thompson v. Ministry of Revenue [1946] SCR 209, 1946 CanLII 1 (SCC) [Page 220] Residents are taxed, not Canadians; but residents within the meaning of the Act...
18. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Canada, the Provinces, and Territories, may produce; acts, enactments, statutes, rules, ordinance, laws, regulations and so forth but they do not apply to men and women and are limited in its scop of authority. Deuteronomie 12;32
19. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that Canada had failed in its obligations in accordance with the "International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights" article 13 this is where it brings forth education regarding our rights and obligations concerning education, we find the following agreement that states; education first and foremost shall be for the promotion of human rights and freedoms. This education was denied and hidden form me so that it could be deprived from my rights and force me to slavery for a de facto fictional state against my free will. In this case ignorance is an excuse because as a child underage, I relied on the integrity, honesty of my pears that fraudulently, by omission deprived me of truth, to maximize their ability to extort funds from me by way of unlawful intimidation. It is unconscionable that abuse and manipulation with the intention to deceive a child could be argued as acceptable and binding later on an adult.
20. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I was "Shanghaied" by Canada forcefully arbitrarily redefining me as a class of person(s) to extend Civil Law and enactments on me knowing at all times it was not lawful and a violation of the Constitution of Canada (1982), international Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, Geneva Convention, contrary to the King James Bible 1611 and their oath to the Queen Elizabeth II the "Defender of the faith" and now King Charles III "Defender of the faith". This process was accomplished without my knowledge or consent with an intention to unlawfully profit by way of fraud, intimidation making it unlawful and invalid. I do not agree and do not accept this offer to contract.
21. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any man or woman in office who upholds the law of the land and has taken an oath to the Christian Monarch to be truly allegiant, that if they do not know what that true allegiance is when asked, that they have provided irrefutable evidence that they lied to get their job.
22. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that Non-performance of this agreement shall be deemed as an act of confession and consent to immediate enforcement of all remedies herein, including liens, writs, or seizure without further notice.

23. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an oath to a Christian Monarch is an act of religious worship and all who refuse to acknowledge and submit to that fact are imposters who lied to get their job. See Westminster Confession of Faith Act of the British Parliament 1648 chapter 22.
24. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that an agent of her Majesty when failing to acknowledge they have an oath of allegiance to the defender of the faith and recognition of the supremacy of God relieves themselves from sworn duty and reverts themselves to a private woman or man with no more judicial authority than the sovereign inheritance of birth as they have by lack of recognition of those prime points of law indicated they perjured themselves when swearing their oath to God.
25. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that a minister once notifying whoever obstructs them that he is a minister not bound by commercial law in performing the functions of his calling and that unless proof to the contrary is evident, the man or woman once made aware of the ministry being performed, has no sanction in law or from the Christian monarch they swore to be truly allegiant to, to obstruct, intimidate or act as a nuisance to him while performing the official functions of his calling.
26. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you forthcoming from you, that no woman calling himself de facto Chair, in the de facto Group President and Chief Executive Officer of TD Bank Group, in the de facto country of Canada (or Provinces and other) has any oath bound nor civil authority to intimidate or obstruct a minister from performing the functions of his calling nor to determine the functions of his calling unless damage has ensued to man or property violating God's law as complained of by an opposing man or woman.
27. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you I have an unfettered right to any and all information regarding any Trusts, Bonds, Annuities and financial instruments, Trustees acting on my behalf. I have the right to seize all property connected to me directly or indirectly.
28. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the Registrar General of each province and territory possesses a seal of office, as outlined in the Vital Statistics Act (or similarly named legislation). For instance, Ontario's Vital Statistics Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. V.4, s. 7(2) states: "The seal of office may be reproduced in any manner and has the same effect when it is manually applied or otherwise reproduced." In accordance with this provision, I assert the irrevocable right to utilize the reproduced seal of the Registrar General as a signatory, thereby exercising full authority to lawfully discharge any personal debts by placing the seal on the document as my sole required approval to access government accounts, to my own benefit. Furthermore, it is acknowledged that the government shall, upon demand by myself or third-party creditors, settle all such accounts owing from its own funds within ten (10) days, ensuring that I am held harmless from any associated liabilities, free and clear without recourse. You agree to provide Minister Richard and other designated individuals with revolving credit and debit facilities, enabling access to government payment obligations and facilitating point-of-purchase transactions without delay or the necessity for additional documentation.

29. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that I have the right to not use a last name or surname, including on my bank account, government identification, and on other identification and things. You respect my right to have not accept the Surname or last name and only use my Christian name(s). You have no right to force me to sin Matthew 23; 9-11. Any use of government identification is not acceptance of liability or surety of any legal fiction in law and is clearly a separate identity from the natural man; the two may not be cojoined in any way, shape or form.
30. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the case C.M. Callow Inc. v. Zollinger (2020 SCC 45) reinforces the duty of honest performance in contractual dealings, requiring all parties to act transparently and in good faith. This duty is essential to prevent misleading or deceptive conduct within the framework of agreements.
31. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the case Roncarelli v. Duplessis (1959) underscores the principle that no party, including government officials or corporate entities, may exercise arbitrary authority to undermine the rights of others. This principle aligns with the fair treatment and protection sought under this agreement
32. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no oath bound sanctioned honour lies in the unlawful private action of intimidating, obstructing, and acting as a nuisance to a legitimate and sincere minister of Christ officially performing the noticed non commercial functions of his calling.
33. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the Charter, Section 2(a) – Freedom of religion Provision; 2. Everyone has the following fundamental freedoms: freedom of conscience and religion. Similar provisions may be found in the following Canadian laws and international instruments legally binding on Canada: section 1(c) of the Canadian Bill of Rights, article 18 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, article 14 of the Convention on the Rights of the Child, article 3 of the American Declaration of the Rights and Duties of Man. The Canadian Human Rights Act prohibits discrimination on the ground of religion as does section 15 of the Charter. That is the highest law which favors religion Maxims of law. See also the following international, regional and comparative law instruments that are not legally binding on Canada but include similar provisions: article 18 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, article 12 of the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, article 12 of the American Convention on Human Rights, article 9 of the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, and the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America.

34. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the trust (also known as the "Entitlement Certificate, Bond, Trust, or Annuity") is my entitlement property. It becomes mine upon the process of "redeeming the entitlement certificate." As a man of God, I may elect to be the "trustee", "steward" and/or the "beneficiary" of the "entitlement certificate" and thereby settle all matters and redeem the trust. In redeeming the "entitlement certificate," I act as the Creditor (Private) within the banking system, not as a Debtor (Public). Furthermore, it is acknowledged that any use of my name, or any altered form thereof as it appears on my birth certificate, for the purpose of obtaining funds or engaging in financial transactions without my informed consent, constitutes unauthorized use. Such actions are recognized as infringements upon my rights. Consequently, any funds or assets obtained through such unauthorized use are to be returned to me immediately, in full, as per my directions. It is also affirmed that the state holds no right to utilize my name in commerce without my explicit and informed consent. You and your agents agree to provide me with all assets, bonds, trusts, annuities, or other properties belonging to me within 30 days, to be transferred to me in full as per my directions. Additionally, I assert my right to hold all property in private, free from public claim or registration, in accordance with the principles of common law and the recognition of private property rights. This includes the right to acquire, use, and dispose of property without undue interference or regulation by public authorities, except as authorized by law. Matthew 7:7-8
35. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that Canada has not fulfilled its obligation to elderly men and man and the funding provided to them through Canada Pension and CCP or other programs is grossly inadequate, insufficient and below the poverty line. Canada has moral obligation to maintain a reasonable standard of living, as in its obligations in International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights. I am now demanding that this be rectified immediately, and you are committed and will make certain that my income will never be below the poverty level.
36. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you that I have the right to unfettered access and use of crown land as steward. This stewardship of land and homestead will be passed on to my family or Christian family as I see fit, all or in part without restriction, limitation or interference in any way shape or form. Genesis 1;26-28 Matthew 7:7-8
37. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that the "Rule of law" spoken of in the preamble to the 1982 de facto Constitution, being a rule for debtors, (that clearly only applies to all registered corporate government employee's via section 32 of that charter), is indisputably God's law, being the King James Bible, as defended by the Christian monarch that you the private woman swore to be truly allegiant to via the Canadian oaths of Allegiance Act and Coronation Act of 1689. Any other act that dares speak contrary or may have altered the authorized form such as removing the word "do" are not withstanding or legitimate.

These are the words in the Oath of Office Act, indicating prima fascia an unlawful, unsanctioned, deficient form by the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance thus effectively invalidating the oath by making the oath grammatically incoherent.

I, . . . . ., swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law.

These are the words from the federal Oath of allegiance Act for Canada

..... it is very clear as to how the oath is to be worded in Canada, it is

(1) Every person who, either of his own accord or in compliance with any lawful requirement made of the person, or in obedience to the directions of any Act or law in force in Canada, except the Constitution Act, 1867 and the Citizenship Act, desires to take an oath of allegiance shall have administered and take the oath in the following form, and no other:

I, ....., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada, Her Heirs and Successors. So, help me God. The deviation from the prescribed form of the oath, such as the omission of the word "do" in the Provincial Oath of Allegiance, results in a grammatically incoherent and legally deficient oath. This deficiency effectively invalidates the oath, rendering any authority exercised under its auspices unlawful. The administration or reliance upon such an invalid oath may constitute a criminal offence under the Criminal Code of Canada. Specifically: Canadian Criminal Code: Section 122, Section 131 and Section 132. Therefore, proceeding with or acting upon an oath that deviates from the legally mandated form may expose individuals to criminal liability under these provisions.

38. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that "Canada's" geographical limits are delineated in the Canada Land Surveys Act Section 24 and that Canada being the land mass spoken of in that enactment, only includes the North West Territories, Nunavut and the Yukon as provinces as concurred in section 2 of the criminal code and section 30 of the de facto Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

39. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man, with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that in the event of any disagreement, dispute, ambiguity, or challenge regarding the meaning, scope, application, or intention of any term, clause, or provision of this agreement, I, Richard Henry of the Ochnik Family, shall have the sole, exclusive, and final authority to determine its correct meaning, interpretation, and intent, at my own discretion and for my benefit. This right shall be irrevocable, nonreviewable, and binding upon you and all third parties under the principles of private contract, ecclesiastical jurisdiction, and law of equity. No court, tribunal, or external body shall override this interpretive authority without my express written consent.

40. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that this agreement is irrevocable and includes and extends to, fellow ministers, my heirs, defined herein to include all individuals, regardless of biological or marital relation, who have received God's calling as ministers, and who have been granted equivalent rights as I have here in this Agreement.
41. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that God and the bible is the supreme law and there is no limitation periods set forth to limit such laws of God.
42. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that words in the masculine mean and include the feminine and vice versa.
43. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that any disputes arising from this agreement shall be resolved equitably, in a court of inherent jurisdiction, ensuring that all decisions respect fairness and the principles of natural justice.
44. It is agreed by you, Earl Dreeshen, the private man with no dispute to the fact forthcoming from you, that no other court may trespass or have jurisdiction over this agreement other than a court of "Inherent Jurisdiction" that recognises, International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, along with the Royal Style and Titles Act, and respecting the purpose of section 176 and 180 of the criminal code in the Province of Ontario, Canada.
